Turnage Resigns Position At HJC

Harold Turnage, former Jackson newspaperman and director of public relations at Hinds Junior College, has resigned his post at Hinds to join the staff of West Liberty State College, West Liberty, West Va.

He had held the public relations post at Hinds for the past nine years. At West Liberty he will be in charge of college publicity and publications.

Mr. Turnage, in addition to his work in public relations, taught journalism, English, directed the school's remedial reading program, and sponsored Hinds' student newspaper.

An honor graduate of Millsaps College, Jackson, where he was president of ODK and edited the college newspaper, he holds his master's degree from the University of Missouri School of Journalism

DEVOTIONS TO PRECEDE ASSEMBLY PROGRAMS; STUDENTS TO DIRECT

With new song books and student song leaders, chapel devotions will precede the regular assembly programs each Tuesday morning.

Campus religious organizations will sponsor the services during the school year. The YM-YWCA is conducting the services during September, to be followed by other denominational organizations.

At Tuesday's assembly Bill Cole, song leader, and Glenda Rush directed the services. Special music was presented by the boys quartet.

Sara Jo McPhail Has Scholarship To Miss. College

Sara Jo McPhail, Jackson, editor of the 1954-55 HINDSONIAN, has been awarded a scholarship to Mississippi College as an assistant in the office of public relations and publicity.

At Hinds, Sara Jo was active in religious organizations and a cheerleader, in addition to working as a student assistant in Dean M. F. Herring's office.

HINDS ANNUAL STAFF HOLDS FIRST MEETING TO PLAN FOR '56 ISSUE

The Hinds annual staff held its first meeting September 14 with 17 students reporting, Mr. T. T. Beemon, sponsor, announces.

Mr. Beemon extended an invitation to others interested to attend future staff meetings on Tuesday nights. He pointed out that the staff will be chosen after a period of try-outs.

The following attended the first meeting:

Ann Alessio, Carolyn Bourne Gail Calloway, Sue Grayson, Niva Green, Dudley Huber, Raymon Huff, Robert Huffman, Pat Means, Vivian Morton, Donna Mae Nash, Flora Roberts, Faye Shaw, Magda Sideregst, Vickie Simmons, Carolyn Templeton, and Barbara Thompson

Over 1000 Students Register At HJC For New Record In Fall Enrollment

Filling classrooms and dormitories to the bursting point, Hinds Junior College has set a new fall registration record with 1042 students enrolled and a large number of applicants turned away because of a shortage of space.

Hinds To Be Host To First Play Day For State Women

Hinds Junior College will play host to the first Mississippi JC play day for girls on Saturday, September 24th.

The play day is held to give the students a chance to meet their fellow junior college students in a day of entertainment and to organize the first JC Conference for Women.

The opening activities of the day will get underway at 10 a. m. in the gym and on the practice field with games of softball, basketball, volley ball, and field hockey slated.

Dr. Angeline Watkins, head of the physical education department at Mississippi Southern, will address the initial group of representatives at 1:30 p. m. A business session, including the election of officers, will be held after the address of Dr.Watkins.

Mrs. Ann Gookin, Hinds' director, is the executive council representative for the JC Women's section of the Mississippi Health, Physical Education and Recreation Program.

Some of the Hinds players displaying their skill will be Gwen Post, Hermanell Power, Georgia Ann Burton, Frances Barker, Ruth Martin, Sue Stokes, Lou Cobb, Betty Lou Webb and Dot Gill.

12 New Members Join Hinds Staff

Twelve new staff members have joined the staff of the Hinds Junior College, according to President G. M. McLendon.

The group includes:

Mr. Albert B. Rowan, band director; Mr. Marvin A. Riggs, social science; Miss Belle Lindsey, English; Mr. Robert E. Fleshman, speech; Mr. E. E. McCoy, physics; Miss Dauphine Jones, assistant librarian.

Mr. Robert Feurst, assistant coach; Miss Peggy Pennel, organ; Mr. Robert Ringer, high school sciences; Mr. R. H. Henry and Mr. J. R. Blackledge, mechanical drawing; and Mr. J. P. Smith, radio.

(Editor's Note: On page three is the first in a series of articles on Hinds' new teachers. This series will allow the HINDSONIAN to do a more complete coverage of each of the new teachers.)

Hinds' total enrollment for the year, including the summer session, is expected to be approximately 1700 students.

In addition to the students the school was unable to accept at all, a large number seeking dormitory quarters are having to commute. Approximately 90 more students were placed in the dormitories this year than were housed last year.

The freshman class enrolled the greatest number of students with 343 attending classes. The sophomore class reported 207, the high school division 142.

The night academic classes are serving 90 students, while the night and day classes in vocational-technical trades accommodate 260.

High School Names 7 Yell Leaders, Two As Alternates

Seven high school cheerleaders and two alternates have been named by Mrs. Ann Gookin, girls physical education director.

The seven include Virginia Foster, Norma Jean Carter, Carrie Mae Terrell, Ann Boyd, Louise Stubbs, Clara Murrah, and Lou Ann Carter.

Alternates are Juanita Lewis and Sara Margaret Smith.

Hinds Ex-Editor Heads Delta Paper

Ann Williams, editor of the HINDSONIAN in 1953-54, has been elected editor of the MISS DELTA, weekly publication of Delta State Teacher's College, Cleveland.

While at Hinds, Ann was a member of B. S. U., secretary of F. B. L. A., secretary of I. R. C., and a member of Phi Theta Kappa. She was graduated with special honors. In the Who's Who election she was also named a "campus favorite."

A previous Hinds editor, Evelyn Stallings, was editor of the MISS DELTA several years ago.

Welcome To A Great Experience

Welcome to returning students and you many new students. To new students we should like to say that we hope you'll be happy here. There is much here to learn and much to enjoy.

Attending college is a very valuable experience. Your time is precious. Use it to the best of your ability whether it be playtime or worktime. We believe that you will enjoy learning in both fields.

Football at Hinds is again off to a good start. Looking over the schedule, we notice six home games. Looking over the paper, we notice also a new enrollment record. With so many students, Hinds should have a large cheering section at every home game and perhaps every game away from home.

An atomic airplane will be built in a few years which can circle the globe 80 times without stopping. Too, an atomic submarine in the ways now is reported able to stay under indefinitely, only rising to re-enlist a crew. This sort of thing is commendable, but who wants to go around the world 80 times without stopping?

Mr. Robert M. Mayo, former Hinds county superintendent of education and member of the board of trustees at Hinds Junior College, was warmly praised and commended in a resolution signed by F. M. Greaves, Mitchell Robinson, J. Noel Nutt, W. B. Lowe, J. W. McKewen, H. H. Davis, and J. E. Aldridge, present members of the board. Mr. Mayo resigned to become superintendent of schools at Clarksdale.

Miss Ruth Boyd Resigns Position With Hinds After 19 Years Work

Miss Ruth Boyd, friend and inspiration of thousands of Mississippi students is retiring. She has resigned her position at Hinds Junior College, which she has held since 1936, after a lifetime of successful teaching marked by an uncompromising attitude of "do it right"

Among the thousands of students who have come under her influence are many who owe their present position to her work and thoroughness. The list includes some of Mississippi's best known authors, doctors, lawyers, and law makers, as well as a host of substantial citizens.

The places Miss Boyd has taught have ranged from rural schools to senior colleges, but her greatest contribution has been to Mississippi's junior college system.

A native of Wisconsin, she taught several years in rural and grade schools in Wisconsin, one year in high school in Illinois, and then in junior colleges in Missouri. For five years she taught in Texas Presbyterian College for Women, and when that closed she came to Mississippi.

Here she joined the staff of Pearl River College of Poplarville. Then, by invitation, she came to Hinds Junior College in 1936, where she has taught for nearly 20 years.

She brought to Mississippi an educational background that included studies at Cambridge University, Cambridge, England. Holding her B.A. from Milton College, Milton, Wis., she earned her master's degree from the University of Wisconsin. In addition to her summer at Cambridge, England, she studied one summer at George Peabody College. At tour of the British Islands resulted in hundreds of pictures and slides to illustrate her English literature lectures, bringing Old England alive for her students.

Another result of her tour, an accurate small scale reproduction of King Arthur's Round Table, has been presented to the Hinds library, together with a photostatic copy of the booklet about the table from Winchester Castle, where the original still hangs.

Even more famous than her lectures on English literature and life have been her debate teams. These teams have won more state championships than those of any other junior college debate coach. In addition the teams have made more than cerditable showings against senior college squads at the University of Alabama debate conferences.

Active in academic circles, Miss Boyd has held a number of offices in local clubs and in state organizations. She has served as secretarytreasurer of the Mississippi Association of colleges, vice-president SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

Martha Gillespie

ANOTHER HONOR — Martha Gillespie, this week's Sophomore of the Week at Hinds Junior College smiles as she receives a $100 scholar-ship award given by the Mississippi Rural Electric Association for her 4-H prize in an electrical judging contest. Making the presentation is Blaine Eaton, representative from Smith county, while Mary Jane Hall, assistant home demonstration agent, looks on.

By DON THOMPSON

Continuing its policy of recognizing outstanding sophomores who have made worthwhile contributions to Hinds, the HINDSONIAN takes pleasure in introducing its first selection this year — Martha Gillespie.

Martha is a 5' 5", blue-eyed beauty, from right here in Raymond. In fact, she is Raymond's "Miss Hospitality" for 1955.

A graduate of Hinds High school

Limit Your Telephoning, The Circuits Are Loaded; Hinds Deans Ask Students

"Please limit your conversations," was the plea of dormitory deans this week as Hinds students jammed telephone circuits between boys' and girls' dormitories.

"Remember that with so many using the telephone, it may be difficult for everyone to find time if you over-use it," Mr. W. C. Oakes pointed out. He suggested that students also answer the phone when they are near it.

Invitation Issued To All High School Students To Join Chorus This Year

An invitation to all Hinds High students to join the high school chorus has been extended by Mrs. Marlene Combs, director.

The chorus will meet Monday through Friday at 7th period in the Music Building. Chorus members will receive one-half unit of credit.

of the Mississippi Philosophy Society, president of the Mississippi Association of Parliamentarians, and president of the Mississippi Delta Kappa Gamma Society, the first national honorary organization for women teachers.

The Hinds annual has twice been dedicated to her.

Martha was an outstanding student and athlete, playing basketball and participating in track and field events.

Martha is a member of the Hinds Hi-Steppers and has won a number of state and regional honors for her work in 4-H Club activities. Last year she was an active member of the International Relations Club, the Raymond Presbyterian church, and was secretary of the freshman class. She is a music major and will be a piano teacher when she finishes college.

Among her favorite hobbies are her 4-H club work, boys, the Hi-Steppers, and collecting coffee spoons. Her favorite music is any thing in the Red Top style, while her favorite foods cover a wide assortment.

HINDS ART DEPARTMENT GETS NEW EQUIPMENT, OFFERS NEW CLASSES

Individual artists desks, that convert to movable easels, have been added to the equipment of the art department, according to Mrs. A. L. Denton.

The large table top is divided so that one side provides an easel and the other side remains stationary to provide a place for equipment. The desks wil be furnished with T squares, rulers, scissors, compasses, laboratory books, and a complete lettering outfit.

The art department has been expanded again this year with the addition of a course in advertising layout and design, which has enrolled a large day class and a night class of 25 boys.

Another recent change is the separation of college and high school art students.

THE HINDSONIAN

This issue of the Hindsonian was edited by W. C. Liles, sophomore. Those trying out for positions on the staff include the following: Irl Dean Rhodes, Annette McCluer, Donald Thompson, Mickey Farmer, Dot Adams, Billy Beasley, Don Trotter, Marie Willoughby, Sam Tolar, Robert Dunwebber, Mary Frances Henley, and Laura Lusby.

Rowan, Riggs

Albert B. Rowan, ex-band director of the 47th Infantry Division who led the Charleston, Miss., high school band to three superior and two excellent ratings in last year's state band contest, has joined the staff of Hinds Junior College to direct the famed Eagle band.

Mr. Rowan, who holds his degree from the University of Mississippi and has done further work there, has a wide background of musical experience. Three years of his studies were completed at the University of Minnestota, one of the nation's outstanding band training centers.

During World War II, Mr. Rowan served overseas with the 34th Division for three years, then was transferred to the Mediterranean Allied Air Force band. With the MAAF band he played a number of engagements of newsworthy interest, including appearances with the Bebe Daniels - Ben Lyons team, leading English comedians; a performance for Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt; and a concert for Marshall Tito of Yugoslavia, complete with armed female guards.

His travels included Africa, Italy, Sicily, Sardinia, England, and Ireland, plus combat at such places as Tunisia, Hill 609, and the Salerno invasion, in addition to a host of minor clashes.

In civilian life Rowan was a professional musician, playing trombone and baritone horn for dance and concert groups. His performances have included appearances with the Metropolitan Opera company and the Minneapolis symphony. At Ole Miss he wrote the music for the special shows and was soloist on their concert tours.

He is married and has two children. The family is making their home on the Hinds campus.

Former Sunflower Dean Joins Hinds Faculty As Social Scientist

Marvin A. Riggs, former dean of the college at Sunflower Junior College, Moorhead, has joined the staff of Hinds Junior College, Raymond, to teach in the social science department.

Mr. Riggs' experience includes teaching positions at Utica and Raymond, in addition to his post at Sunflower, where he also taught social studies.

His educational background includes a B.A. degree from Millsaps College, an M.A. in history from the University of Alabama, an M.A. in education from the University of Denver, and further graduate study at Denver and the University of Mississippi.

He is a member of Phi Delta Kappa, national honorary fraternity for educators, and Pi Kappa Delta, honorary forensic fraternity. During World War II he served four years with the 69th Division in the Adjutant General's department.

ALBERT B. ROWAN

JC Coaches Rate Hinds Second Spot In Pre-Game Vote

The Hinds Junior College Eagles are rated second this year in the strong Mississippi J. C. conference by coaches in a pre-season poll.

Coach Jim Clark's Jones Bobcats are the only team ranked above Hinds, with the Wildcats of Pearl River picked as third place contender.

It is the second year in the past six years that the Eagles have not been picked to cop top laurels.

Last year Pearl River led the Eagles by a slim 28-26 margin; however, Coach Joe River led the Eagles by a slim 28-26 margin; however, Coach Joe Renfroe's Eagles won ten games in a row and captured the national junior college title.

The Bobcats chalked up a total of 24 points in the poll while Hinds tallied 21 markers, edging Pearl River, 20. The points were awarded on the basis of three for a first place vote, two for a second and one for a third.

Hinds, Jones, Pearl River all managed to garner four first place votes. The Bobcats picked up four markers for the second and third position placing while Hinds got three for the same spots. The Wildcats were able to get three for second position and only two for third placing.

The following statistics show how the 13-conference coaches ranked the strongest contenders.

	1st	2nd	3rd	T.P.
Jones	4	4	4	24
Hinds	4	3	3	21
Pearl River	4	3	2	20
Sunflower	0	2	2	6
Southwest	1	0	2	5
Northeast	0	1	0	2

East Central, East Mississippi, Copiah-Lincoln, Holmes, Itawamba, Northwest and Perkinston failed to muster a single point in the balloting.

Hinds Trustees Pass Resolution Paying Honor To Robert M. Mayo

WHEREAS, as Hinds County Superintendent of Education, Robert M. Mayo has served as a member of the Board of Trustees of Hinds Junior College of Raymond, Mississippi, since August 5, 1948 until the present time; and

WHEREAS, during this time he has discharged the duties of this office as secretary and board member diligently, expeditiously, and most capably; and

WHEREAS, while Robert M. Mayo was a member of this board of trustees, he has been instrumental and cooperative in every way looking toward the progress and welfare of this institution; and

WHEREAS, during this period of time Hinds Junior College has progressed in many ways through this service and cooperation;

To wit: The plant facilities have been greatly expanded with the addition of three major buildings and far-reaching renovations and repairs of present buildings.

The enrollment of the college has been increased, both in its regular academic and vocational-technical trades departments, and through the addition of night schools in vocational and academic work, thus bringing the oportunities of Hinds to an ever-increasing number of citizens.

The curriculum, faculty, and offerings of the college have been greatly enriched.

The college through its tuitionfree system for such courses as music, secretarial training, science, etc., has further increased the opportunities of its students.

The college's financial basis has been greatly expanded and improved through the addition of Rankin and Warren Counties to its tax-support area.

The college through its football team and girls precision drill corps has brought national fame and recognition to itself and Mississippi; and

WHEREAS, in these and all other matters Robert M. Mayo has been of greatest assistance through his advice, friendship, and kindly aid, THEREFORE: Be it resolved that the Board of Trustees of Hinds Junior College do express deepest appreciation and thanks to Mr. Robert M. Mayo for his loyal service and contributions of time and service to Hinds Junior College and wish for him success in his new venture as Superintendent of public schools of Clarksdale, Mississippi.

SHOW STOPPER — Maureen Eichelberger of Morton drew the attention of Saturday night's football crowd with her exhibition of twirling and acrobatics. Holding the title of "strutter", she is a new addition to the Eagle Band.

Victorious HJC Eagles Preparing For Perkinston Battle In Jackson

By IRL DEAN RHODES

Coaches Joe Renfroe and Bob Fuerst are putting their charges through rugged workouts this week to be ready for their Saturday night battle with the Perkinston Bulldogs at Hinds Memorial Stadium in Jackson.

Last year the Bulldogs of South Mississippi managed to score 20 points in a 31-20 Eagle victory. In the last nine years the Eagles have been victorious on five occasions and Perkinston taking three. The 1950 game ended in an 18-18 deadlock tie. The nine contests show Hinds with 199 points scored and the Bulldogs only 126.

Perkinston has six returning lettermen and one lone starter and the Eagles boast the same number of returning lettermen and one first stringer.

Coach Harold White's forces include four potential candidates for all-conference honors. They are Tackle Milton Cole, Guards Wylie Drayton and Dan Saxon and Back Frank Massa. The Eagles carry only one pre-season all-conference candidate, Olin Renfroe.

Little Rock, Ark. JC. give the Bulldogs a 33-6 mashing last week in a non-conference tilt.

Comparing statistics of previous games thus far this season and a glance at the coaches' poll, Hinds will be a definite favorite. However, the Bulldogs with more ex-

Hinds Girls Second In Softball Play

The Hinds Junior College girls softball squad was runner-up in the Shaunesshey softball league this summer by a single loss.

The second place Eaglettes were coached by Mrs. Ann Gookin in her first year to lead the Raymond team. They were defeated in the championship game by the Y. W. C. A. of Jackson, 11-6.

Four teams compose the Shaunesshey Conference. They are May Plumbing Co., Y. W. C. A., Hinds, and Baptist Hospital. The program is sponsored by the City Recreation Department of Jackson.

Coach Gookin's crew was slow getting off, dropping every game the first half of the season with the exception of one. In the latter half of the season the Eaglettes, with more experience, played topnotch ball.

perienced players will be gunning to up-set the national champions.

Late Tuesday an available starting line up could not be given for the Saturday night encounter with Perkinston.

Coach Renfroe declared "our main trouble is the lack of experience and the age old problem of depth." The Eagles have been badly knocked in the two early season games with a number of injuries.

At the half-time intermission the Hinds Hi-Steppers will give another performance along with the Eagle marching band under the direction of Mrs. Anna Bee and Mr. Albert B. Rowan, respectively.

Three Teams Deadlocked For Top Standing In State JC Football Race

Three teams are in a tie for the lead spot in the Mississippi Junior College football conference with two wins each.

The teams are Hinds, Sunflower and Copiah-Lincoln. Jones and Holmes are also undefeated ,although they have played only one game.

Sunflower paced the league by crushing East Mississippi 22-0. Copiah-Lincoln edged East Central 26-20 in the final period of play and Hinds gave the Northwest Rangers a 41-0 cleaning.

Holmes tagged Itawamba 21-18 while Pearl River tied Southwest 7-7 in the final stanza. Little Rock, Ark., JC routed Perkinston 33-6. In another non-conference game, Memphis State's freshmen team tossed Northeast a 7-6 licking.

Southwest has a credit for a win, a tie and a loss. East Central carries a record of one victory and one set-back while Northeast and Perkinston have one loss each for the only conference games they have played.

Itawamba and Pearl River possess a tie and defeat each to carry in their next contest. East Mississippi is the only team in the conference that has played three games, losing two and tying one. The final member of the 13 colleges is Northwest with only losses in two starts.

CIRCLE 'K' MEMBERS HOLD FIRST MEETING WEDNESDAY MORNING

Circle "K" Club members were to hold their initial meeting of the year Wednesday during activity period in Room 12, Academic Building

Sponsored by the North Jackson Kiwanis Club, Circle "K" offers membership based on scholarship citizenship, and approval of the board of directors. Freshman boys with an average of "B" or higher in their final semester of high school are eligible for membership consideration

Hinds High Eagles Open At Home With Puckett After Utica Loss

BY IRL DEAN RHODES

The Hinds High Eagles will play their first home game of the season here Friday night against the Puckett Wolves, in what promises to be a real affair.

Normally fans could expect to see two of the best fullbacks in Central Mississippi from small high schools clash in Homer Boyd and Puckett's Kelly Cook, although unofficial reports say Cook injured a leg in a game last week and will be unable to play Friday night.

The Eagles lost their first game of the season last week to the strong Utica team by a 12-7 clipping in a conference contest.

Raymond is seeded second in the Capital Athletic League and they are the defending District Six class B-BB champions along with Brandon and Pinola.

Homer Boyd and Center Kendall Harris, the only two returning starters from last year, have been elected co-captains for the 1955 season.

Boyd carried eight times in the Utica game and picked up a total of 148 yards averaging 18.5 yards per carry. The brilliant fullback ran the only Raymond tally in the first period, plunged for the extra point, intercepted a pass and punted four times for a 32.3 average.

Quarterback Allan Morrison and End Charles Rather posted touchdowns for the Utica eleven in the third and final periods on 37 and one yard runs.

From the standpoint of statistics, the Eagles took a rather rough beating by earning only four first downs while the winning host team accounted for 15 first downs.

Boyd's running mate Blake Harrison turned in a good job in the initial game of the season. Ross Allman, Tommy Lynch, Tommy Cox, John Overhouar and Jesse Gates looked outstanding in the line for the losers.

Coach Lous Boteler said he was very proud of the showing against the strong Gold Wave team and assured the public of his desire to win the first home game of the season Friday night.

Prior to the Utica game the Pee Wee teams of the two schools met and the Raymond Juniors received the short end of the horn by a 18-0 margin.

Eagles Sink Two In First Games: 'Cats, Rangers

The Hinds Figfhting Eagles will enter their third game of the season in Hinds Memorial Stadium Saturday night against Perkinston, sporting wins over Pearl River by a 14-13 edge, and over Northwest,

By IRL DEAN RHODES

In the statistics department, Hinds has compiled a total of 21 first downs while both opponents have 16. The undefeated and untied Eagles have netted 583 yards rushing as compared to the 262 yards garnered by their two initial opponents.

TAYLOR LEADS

Fullback Jim Taylor has put more marks on the score board than any of his team mates in the first two matches. Taylor has scored touchdowns on three, 14, 24 and 100 yard dashes. The hard-harging ace fullback has booted five conversions in a row for a total of 29 points thus far.

Following Taylor in points scored is fancy-footed Halfback Jackie Williams with one 17 yard tally and a successful extra point. Olin Renfroe, star halfback, who was injured in the Pearl River encounter and did not see action against Northwest, intercepted a pass in the opening tilt and paced 30 yards for his score.

Tommy Muirhead and Joe Campbell, from Canton and Brandon respectively, accounted for a touchdown each in the game with Northwest last week. Quarterback Junior Harvey split the uprights for the remaining point.

TOP GAINER

Besides being top scorer in the first two games, Taylor is the top ground gainer on the squad. In 18 carries he has chalked up 187 yards for a 10.4 average. Campbell and Williams have rushed four and six times in that order with Campbell racking up 49, and Williams 48.

Frank Drummonds and Sanders Powell have been taking care of the end assignments with George Romano acting as end or tackle. For the tackle slots Willie Eldridge and Clyde Stewart are the leading contenders as Don Sharpe and Marty Littman are improving at each practice session. Joe Collins and Thomas Strickland have charge of the guard positions at the present time; however, Eugene Britton and Charles Sessums are trying for the same jobs. Bart Schriener is the center and Glen Russell plays second choice.

10 MAN POWERHOUSE

In the backfield ten candidates form a real power-house for any JC crew. The signal-caller for the first picking is Junior Harvey with Ernest Breithaupt and Morris Currie, alternates. Olin Renfroe and Tommy Muirhead have plenty of the needed punch at halfback positions. Other halfback contenders are Carlo Fazzio and Jackie Williams. Jim Taylor is shining at fullback with Pete Grey and Joe Campbell as his understudies.

Physical Ed. Directors Meet, Plan Sports Days

Setting up policies and assessing values for Playdays were among the accomplishments of the directors of women's physical education in Mississippi junior colleges at their meeting on Hinds Junior College campus, Saturday, September 24.

Mrs. Anne Gookin, Hinds director of women's physical education, sponsored the meeting and planned the activities of the day.

Dr. Angeline Watkins, head of women's physical education at Mississippi Southern, addressed the group at their business meeting.

She commended the directors attending in having come together to set up policies for the physical education program for girls in Mississippi junior colleges.

The September meeting at Hinds, Dr. Watkins pointed out, could be a most important springboard for many of the sports programs throughout the year.

Junior college directors attending were Miss June Clayton, Perkinston; Miss Lucille Wood, Copiah-Lincoln; Miss Elizabeth Baird, Decatur; Mrs. Becky Izzard, Southwest; and Mrs. Elizabeth Ackerman, All-Saints.

Policies set up include de-emphasis of varsity sports for women, especially basket ball, and encouragement of play days, field days, and all-school meetings for one day.

For the first playday of the current session, some twenty-five visiting junior college girls and representatives from the Hinds group engaged in several types of sports.

Teams were organized from the whole group. They played field hockey, basket ball, soft ball, and volley ball throughout the day.

Mrs. Gookin feels much gratification over the contribution made by Dr. Watkins and by the other visiting physical education directors toward the success of the first sports day of the year.

Spiritual Emphasis Week to Begin Oct. 3; Rev. R. M. McIntire Leader

Having secured the Rev. Russell M. McIntire, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Clinton, as director, the Hinds Junior College Campus Christian Council is making further plans for religious emphasis week, October 3-6.

Sophomores Hold First Primary

Sophomores held the first or nominating primary for the selection of class officers last Friday, September 23.

Results of this primary are as follows: for president, Olen Akers and Melvin Oakes; vice-president, Charles Malone and Mary Lou Kersh.

For secretary, Bebe Epperson and Hermanell Hearn; treasurer, Glenda Rush, Fred Jones and John Woods.

Mr. T. T. Beemon, class sponsor, stated that the high percentage voting was gratifying.

The second primary is scheduled for Wednesday, September 28.

FORMER FACULTY MEMBER IN CHARGE OF OFFICE OF CONGRESSMAN

Mrs. L. K. Clark, formerly of Hinds Junior College faculty, is now in charge of Congressman John Bell Wiliams' office in Raymond.

Through his local office, Congressman Williams is announcing dates for the nationwide competitive examination for entrance into the U. S. Coast Guard. The dates are February 27 and 28, 1956.

A candidate for examination must be single, must not be younger than seventeen nor more than twenty-two, and must have a high school diploma.

Further information may be obtained by writing Coast Guard Headquarters, Washington, D. C.

Two worship services will be held daily in the College Auditorium at 10:20 a. m. and at 6:15 p. m. respectively.

Morning Watch, conference, and round table discussions will be an integral part of spiritual emphasis week.

The Rev. Mr. McIntire, this past summer, visited the Holy Land and traveled in thirteen European countries.

He holds a B. A. degree from William Jewell College and a B. D. from New Orleans Seminary. He came to Clinton from the First Baptist Church in Bogalusa, La.

The Campus Christian Council has appointed the following committees: worship: Nan Lane, Mary Nell McKenzie, Don Thompson, Ramona Franklin; publicity: Don Thompson, Glenda Rush, Marie Willoughby, Sibyl Beasley.

Music: Vonda Vivette, James Furlow, Fred Marratt, Jo Ann Lane; entertainment: Riddell Leggett, Annette McCluer, Martha Gillespie.

Pastors of the Raymond churches, Rev. Clay Lee, Methodist, and Rev. Bob Simmons, Baptist, will take an active part in all services.

Seniors Organize, Plan Activities To Finance Trip

Election of class officers high-lighted the past two weeks' activities for the high school seniors.

The following officers were elected, September 20: Don Trotter, Bolton, president; Bob Schaffner, New Orleans, vice-president; Mary Marguerite Hart, Satartia, secretary; Doris Toles, Jackson, treasurer; Dot Roper, Jackson, social chairman; Vicki Simmons, Jackson, reporter; and Maureen Eichelberger, Morton, assistant reporter.

Saturday night, September 17, members of the class, along with the help of Mrs. Jeannie Muse and Coach Louis Boteler, operated the two concession stands at the football game. The proceeds from the concession stands will go to help finance the senior trip, which is held every spring.

SQUARE DANCING TAUGHT IN RECREATION HALL

Square dancing, one of the most popular recreations for both young and older groups, is now being taught by Mr. W. C. Oakes of the health and physical education department.

Classes, which began Monday, are held in Recreation Hall on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday at 6:00 p. m.

Staff Regrets Resignation of Sponsor

We sincerely regret the resignation of Mr. Harold Turnage, Hinds' public relations director and most able sponsor of the Hindsonian.

With skill, knowledge, patience, and understanding, Mr. Turnage has consistently led the Hindsonian to an envied position among the best junior college papers in the country. For the past nine years he has molded green students into capable staff members some of whom have later held the highest positions on senior college papers.

Mr. Turnage, along with the journalistic training he gave staff members, instilled into them the highest ethics of the newspaper profession.

It is the sincere wish of all of us who know him that he and his wife will find success and happiness in his new position at West Liberty College.

Emmett Till Case Stirs Comment

The finding of the body of a Negro boy suspected to have been killed by white men has caused more reaction than the death of Doctor Einstein, not so long ago.

If this regrettable incident had occurred north of the Mason-Dixon line it would have been news only in the immediate vicinity.

Although Emmet Till's life was precious and his death unnecessary, the rage and friction caused by his death is more important. Through the resulting publicity, the gap between the North and the South has become wider. Because of his trip here, and his dirty, unjust remarks about the South, Congressman Diggs has caused the people of Mississippi to resent him and his race.

The NAACP too, has defeated its purpose in its exaggerated protest. If the NAACP wants the Negro to be socially equal, then they must accept the killing of a Negro by a white man in the same manner that they would accept the killing of a Negro by a Negro.

Only when the good and bad actions of both races, against or for both races, can be accepted the same way by both races will the races be equal.

Presidency Too Strenuous For Old Man

President Eisenhower's recent illness has again proved that the job of being president of this country is too much for an old man. This presents a difficult problem for voters; where to find a young man with the knowledge and experience of an old man.

One group is probably breathing easier since the president must slow down. We have reference to the ball stealing White House squirrels.

Overheard on Capitol Street in Jackson: "Are you going to see Hinds play tonight?" "Man, I wouldn't miss it, those Hi-Steppers are terrific!"

DON'T FORGET TO BUY YOUR OCTOBER MEAL TICKET

Bought that October meal ticket yet?

If you want your "three squares" on Monday, October 3, you better see about that ticket before the business office closes, Saturday, October 1.

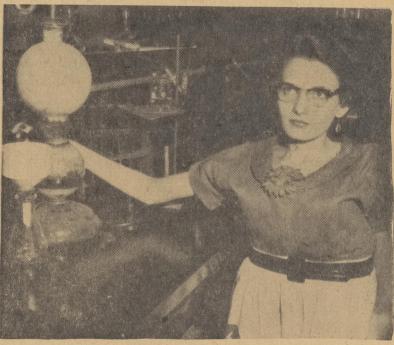

Of course there are any number of alternatives: you could go on a day-long diet; you could eat at home provided you are there, for instance.

But a warning—Monday morning is coming and no meal ticket, no eat, in the dining room, that is.

THE HINDSONIAN

This issue of the Hindsonian was edited by W. C. Liles, sophomore. Those trying our for positions on the staff include the following: Irl Dean Rhodes, Annette McCluer, Donald Thompson, Mickey Farmer, Dot Adams, Billy Beasley, Don Trotter, Marie Willoughby, Sam Tolar, Robert Dunwebber, Mary Frances Henley, and Laura Lusby.

by DON THOMPSON

This week our Sophomore of the Week is Billie Jean Phillips. Billie Jean is from Canton and it was from the high school of that town that she received her secondary education.

Billy is majoring in chemistry and plans to do work in a hospital lab. when she finishes school. Her one big ambition in life is to help

Billie is an active member of the BSU on the campus and is a dependable church worker. She sews and cooks for hobbies. At present she is knitting a sweater. Stamp collecting is also one of her pastimes.

Her favorite music is Church Hymns and she plays the piano a little for her own amusement. She doesn't have any favorite food but rather likes it all.

So join with me and let us all say, "Hats off to Billie Jean Phillips of Canton, Mississippi, and Hinds Junior College."

-HINDS NEW FACULTY -

Miss Pennell, Mr. Ringer, Miss Jones

Both training and experience eminently qualify the three new teachers given in this article to teach in their respective fields. Other new faculty members will be introduced in succeeding issues.

MISS PEGGY PENNEL

Miss Peggy Pennel, a native of Covington, Tenn., has joined the faculty of Hinds Junior College as teacher of organ, piano, and theory.

Her educational background includes a Bachelor of music degree in piano from Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Missouri, in 1953 and a master of music degree in theory from Florida State University,

First Impression Of Hinds? Friendly

When asked what the first impression of Hinds was this is what some of the freshmen said:

Betty Crockett — "I'll never find my way around."

Dick Axtell — "I didn't like it at first but I like it now."

Rex Womack — "Pretty nice school."

Alice Ann Walton — "Friendly people."

Nan Ertle — "I like it. Everyone friendly and nice. I like my roommates too."

Dot Adams — "Everyone seemed especially friendly."

Jean Peterman — "I like it. Everyone was friendly."

Mary Jane Loper — "Very nice teachers."

Joanne Nut — "I thought it was a very friendly place and knew I would like it."

Billy Beasley — "Friendly teachers."

Donna Mae Nash — "I thought the campus was pretty."

Bobbie Nell Noland—"I thought it was a nice place."

Mannie Gregory — "I thought

Monnie Gregory — "I thought everyone was so nice and friendly." Annette McCluer — "I noticed the friendly people."

Marilyn Simmons — "I enjoyed the Baptist church most of all."

Mary Jane Hall — "I liked it."
Sue Holaday — "What a place!"
Jo Anne Miller — "Nice!"

Florence Williams — "Fun." Lena Mae Lee — "A friendly and nice place to be."

Tommy Vance — "Friendly place. Good looking girls."

From these interviews it proves we have a nice and most of all friendly campus. Let's keep it that way by speaking to everyone we see!!

WESLEY FOUNDATION TO SELL SANDWICHES

Sandwiches will be on sale in the dormitories next week to satisfy hungry students after an evening of book-slaving.

The sandwiches will be sold at the set price of fifteen cents each. They are guaranteed to be fresh, for they will be made by members (girls) of Wesley Foundation.

The money will be used for the projects and programs that the Wesley Foundation will sponser and present this year.

MISS DAUPHINE JONES

Miss Dauphine Jones, of Carson, is the new assistant librarian here at Hinds Junior College.

Miss Jones graduated from Carson High school where she was valedictorian of her class. She graduated from Copiah-Lincoln Junior College in 1950 with honors. She received her Bachelor's degree from Mississippi Southern and has done graduate work at L. S. U. in library science.

Miss Jones taught English at Osyka one year. For the past three years she was librarian at Brandon High school.

BAPTIST STUDENTS INVITED TO BSU

All Baptist students are invited to attend the meetings of the Baptist Student Union each Monday evening at 6:15. It is every Christian's duty to live for Christ and to be a part of the works in His name. We should also like to invite all students to attend the meetings of Spiritual Emphasis Week with us.

"The only way in which one human being can properly attempt to influence another is to encourage him to think for himself, instead of endeavoring to instill ready-made opinions into his head."

A REMODELED DORMITORY (above) and airconditioning in the New Administration Building are two of the phases of the renovation and improvement work completed at Hinds.

Major Renovations, Improvements Now Completed on Hinds Campus

A major renovation and improvement program was completed during the summer at Hinds Junior College, seeking to bring the plant facilities here into top condition for the fall semester.

Highlight of the program is the complete renovation of the gymnasium. A new floor and seating arrangements have been completed, which affords two basketball courts instead of the one. Accordion seats instead of the fixed step-seats have been installed providing for approximately twice as much seating space as in the past. A new paint job and bath facilities were also part of the program.

Jackson Music Series Begins In October

Transportation will be furnished all students who wish to attend the five-program series of concerts scheduled by the Jackson Music Association.

Student ticket sales are closed out on the campus at this date, but at the membership campaign headquarters at the Heidelberg Hotel, students who failed to get their season tickets earlier may secure them as late as four o'clock in the afternoon of October 1, according to Mr. Don Maxwell of the music faculty.

The first concert of the series will feature the Boston Symphony Orchestra. The date of this performance is October 15.

Eastside, Westside, and Main dormitories were also renovated.

Asphalt tile has been laid in all the rooms of Eastside dormitory and a paint-up program completed.

Main dormitory has been re-roofed and Westside has been re-decorated.

Airconditioning has been installed in the Administration building, thus providing for the comfort, especially, of those who work in the offices for long hours.

The Library building roof has been repaired.

Asphalt has been applied to the horseshoe drive leading into the football field and this hardsurfacing extended, providing for new parking facilities.

Wesley Foundation Elects Officers

Leading the group of newly-elected officers of Wesley Foundation will be Ann Johnson of Morton, who was elected last year. The new officers include Raymond Huff of Byram, vice-president; Annette McCleur of Jackson, secretary and treasurer; Irl Dean Rhodes of Brandon, publicity chairman; Ramona Franklin of Morton and Joe Kinsey of Jackson, program co-chairmen; and Fredd Marratt of Sardis and James Furlow of Mendenhall, music co-chairmen.

The officers of the Wesley Foundation for this year extend a cordial invitation to all Methodists on the campus to attend the meetings every Monday night at 6:15 p. m. in the Music Auditorium.

This column is initiated to give the students a balanced and colorful sports page. We will express our opinion on current sports events and comment on the passing field of sports along with sidelights of sports in other schools.

The undefeated Hinds Eagles are not taking a minute off to rest this week even though they will not play this weekend. They are working extremely hard for the "blue chips" game of the season with the Jones Bobcats. Jones will no doubt be the toughest Eagle opposition this season.

Coach Louis Boteler's High School Eagles will definitely be the underdog team against Mississippi School for the Deaf Friday night by some two touchdowns, although with Fullback Homer Boyd at full strength we predict it will be a close contest.

It may be interesting to note that besides Hinds we have a number of undefeated high school teams in our area. Crystal Springs, Prentiss and Morton compose the trio of all victory teams in the Little Dixie Conference while Coach Bobby Wilson's Canton Panthers of the Choctaw Conference go undefeated thus far this season also. In the Capital Athletic League the Saint Joseph Rebels are the leading contenders at the present time. The Hinds High Eagles are members of the latter league. * * *

Coach L. C. DeVall, former Hinds Head Mentor, is having a very successful season at William Carey in his second year as Athletic Director and Head Coach of the South Mississippi Crusaders. The Ole Miss Rebels are sporting one of the top places in the Southeastern Conference although they lost last week. ## On The Side Lines Eagles Take Perkinston Bulldogs For Third Straight Win Of Season

Junior College held the Hinds Eagles to a scoreless first half before the Eagles turned on the steam in the third stanza to take a 14-6 victory in Hinds Memorial Stadium, Saturday night.

Neither team could start a successful offensive drive in the initial half. Attacks from both teams seemed almost paralyzed in the hard and bitter fought struggle.

After eight minutes of play in the third period, Hinds reached pay-dirt. The Eagle drive started on the Bulldog 49 as Quarterback Ernest Breithaupt intercepted a Perkinston pass. Renfroe sliced off eight yards in two plays, Breithaupt rammed for two, and Hinds received five yards for an infraction of the rules. The Eagles continued to click from the Bulldog 44 with Renfroe picking up one, Pete Gray smashing for eight and Renfroe bucking off tackle for four more. The Eagles used eight more plays to tally. Taylor jammed for six and five respectively, Renfroe plunged four for a first down and Muirhead and Renfroe hit the line for a yard each. Renfroe carried once for three, Taylor hit the line twice for seven and Renfroe smashed through and over from the three for the score. Taylor split the uprights for the extra point.

Fullback Jimmy Taylor took a punt return from his own 43 to the Perkinston 13 and on the first play from scrimmage Taylor scooted off tackle behind excellent downfield blocking for the second Eagle touchdown with two minutes to go in the third quarter. Taylor then booted his seventh straight conversion to leave Hinds leading 14-0 going into the final 15 minutes

It was mid-way of the last period when the Bulldogs rallied for their only score of the game. Halfback Tommy Muirhead fumbled on his own 19, Quarterback Hillier McLean of Perkinston recovered. After three plays from scrimmage Mac-Lean tossed an aerial to End Frank Lynn for seven yards and the score. The attempt for the extra point

Hinds Baby Eagles Top Puckett; Play MSD Here Friday Night

Coach Louis Boteler's Hinds High Eagles will play host to the Mississippi School for the Deaf here Friday night.

The Eagles will enter the game with a record of one victory and one loss. Coach Boteler's crew will again be the underdog team as they have been in the two previous contests.

Last week the Eagles tagged the Puckett Wolves for their first win by a 13-6 score.

Fullback Homer Boyd was the Eagle sparkplug, scoring on a 45 yard dash and adding an extra point after the other tally. Hinds' other score came when End Donald Anderson intercepted a Puckett pass and raced 35 yards to score.

Kelly Cook, Puckett fullback, tallied from the four yard line for Donald Anderson was injured last week and will definitely be out of the starting line-up for at least three weeks.

The following week the Eagles will invade the home of the Jones Bobcats for possibly their roughest game of the season. Jones is rated as the number one team in the Mississippi Junior College Conference and it is one of the two games the Eagles play away from home.

Coaches Joe Renfroe and Bob Fuerst's crew have racked up 69 points as their opponents only 19 in the first three games. A closer look at the statistics shows the Eagles with 30 first downs and their opponents 22 while Hinds has netted 785 yards total offense as compared to the 406 yards for their first three opponents.

Top scorers on the squad are Jimmy Taylor and Olin Renfroe. Taylor has compiled 37 points for the leading scorer. He accounted for the points on five touchdowns and he has booted seven extra points. Renfroe, missing the Northwest game, has two tallies for second place in the scoring depart-

EAGLE SCORERS Halfback Olin Renfroe, extreme left, and Fullback Jimmy Taylor, above, scored a touchdown each in the Hinds-Perkinston game last week. Renfroe, an All-Amrican performer, broke the ice in the third period for the first Eagle tally. The younger brother of Coach Renfroe has played in only two games He was able to play in the Northwest game due to a knee injury received in the Pearl River contest. Taylor, who played on the L. S. #### Spiritual Emphasis Well Attended Spiritual Emphasis Week has gotten off to a good start on the Hinds campus with the first services well attended. Visiting minister is the Rev. Russell M. McIntire, pastor of Clinton Baptist Church, Clinton, Miss. Other ministers in attendace are the Rev. Bob Simmons, the Rev. Clay Lee, and the Rev. R. L. Wallace.

Sermon topics used by Dr. Mc-Intire have been "Are We Limiting God?" "The Wages of Sin is Death" and "The One Way of Life." The sermon Tuesday night, in the form of a sales talk, dwelled on the question: "Is there only one way of life that leads to abundant living and life eternal?" The Rev. Mr. McIntire brought out that your way of life must answer the problems of salvation, creation, sin, death, and eternity. He asked four questions: What is your product? What will it do? Who said so? and How can you get it?

Students participating in the services have been Foy Scroggins,

Melvin Oakes Leads Sophomore Election Sept. 28

Melvin Oakes was elected president of the Hinds sophomore class in the run-off election held Wednesday, September 28.

Melvin is an engineering student from Redwood. He is president of the Circle K Club, vice-president of the local chapter of the Phi Theta Kappa, and a member of the baseball and basketball teams.

The vice-president is Charles Malone from Ridgeland; secretary is Hermanell Hearn, Redwood.

In the race for treasurer, two students were elected. They are Fred Jones of Jackson, and Glenda Rush of Porterville.

Students Approve Of Queen Becknell

The selection of Carol Becknell, Brandon brunette, as Queen of the Forest for the Southwest district Thursday night in the Hinds auditorium won vociferous approval by a large group of students in the audience.

Miss Becknell placed first over a field of 15 contestants. She will compete in the state-wide contest in Jackson during State Fair Week.

First alternate chosen was Frances Summers, blond beauty of Brookhaven. Second alternate was Jackie Felder of Summit.

Prior to the contest, the candidates with their sponsors and chaperones were guests of the college at dinner.

Following the announcement of the judges, a mass of student admirers swarmed to the stage to express their approval of the whole show, and to secure autographs.

Hindsonian Appointments Named; Liles, Thompson, Rhodes Top Staff

Fall Presentation Of Lendon Players

"Stage Directions" will be the first fall presentation of the Lendon Players. "Stage Directions" is a series of one act plays and scenes from full length plays.

Among the acts featured will be the drugstore scene from Thornton's Wilder's Our Town, Edna St. Vincent Millay's Aria da Capo, Curse you, Jack Dalton, by Wilbur Braun, and Anton Tchekoff's Swan Song.

Our Town ran a number of years ago in New York, has been made into a movie, and appeared recently on television. Aria da Capo is known as Miss Millay's comment on war. It begins where it ends.

It starts with two clowns on stage giving a performance in the old Italian style who are interrupted by the director, and brings on a serious play about two shepherds who kill each other.

The clowns return to the stage and continue with the bodies of the two shepherds still on stage.

Curse you, Jack Dalton is an old fashioned melodrama.

Swan Song is a one act play which deals with an old actor who finds himself alone on stage with the director of the show after the cast and audience have left.

Try-outs for this production will begin on October 10 at 2:00 o'clock in the Music Building auditorium and will continue throughout the week.

All students are invited to try out for parts.

Bill Liles, Jackson sophomore, has been named editor of the 1955-56 Hindsonian. Bill is a business and journalism major, who will enter Millsaps College upon completion of his work at Hinds this semester. Bill is an Army and Air Force veteran of the Korean war. His overseas service was in Japan and Korea. Bill attended high school at Hinds, where he lettered in football, basketball, and baseball. He graduated in 1950. He was recently married to the former Sylvia Dippery of Jackson.

Other staff appointments include Donald Thompson, assistant and feature editor. Don is a native of Vicksburg and a Korean war Navy veteran. He was aboard the Aircraft Carrier Bennington when it exploded at sea. In his freshman year at Hinds last year, Don was president of the Y. M. C. A., assistant editor of the Hindsonian, reporter for the International Relations Club, and Band reporter. Don is majoring in mathematics and psychology.

Irl Dean Rhodes, freshman journalism major from Brandon, has been named assistant editor and sports editor. Irl is a past president of the Mississippi Junior Livestock Association and the Rankin County 4-H Council. He was president of the student body at Brandon High School last year.

Ann Johnson, Morton sophomore, has been chosen as copy editor and Sam Toler, freshman from Wesson, is circulation editor. Billy Beasley, Jackson freshman is the staff photographer.

Named as assistant to the news and feature staff are: Ramona Franklin, Annette McCluer, Dot Adams, Marie Willoughby, Mary Frances Henley, Edith Saxon, Laura Lusby, and Mickey Farmer.

Dr. Salk Gets Powerful Vaccine

Dr. Jonas E. Salk, developer of the Salk anti-polio vaccine, has announced that his laboratory has developed a number of vaccine preparations far more powerful than the one already being used.

The Government recently stated that the vaccinated children this year had from twentyfive to fifty percent less polio than the nonvaccinated.

Let us pray that before too long Dr. Salk's work will have completely wiped out this dread disease.

Term Test Begin Monday

Term tests are next week. Teachers claim that tests are never a true measure of what a student has learned and as a result are not all-important. However, test grades play a large part in determining the all-important scholastic record.

So once again we must apply those immortal words "Let us be prepared."

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

Melvin Oakes

The HINDSONIAN is proud to present Melvin Oakes as Sophomore of the Week. Melvin is from Redwood, Miss., and it was from that high school that he was graduated second in his class.

Melvin is 6' 1" and weighs about 175 pounds. His favorite sport is baseball but he likes basketball very well also. He made the first team in both sports during his freshman year.

Last year Melvin was a member of the PTK, Circle K, and the two teams mentioned above. This year he is President of Circle K; Vicepresident of PTK; and the President of the Sophomore class.

Melvin is an engineering major and plans to attend Mississippi State after leaving Hinds. When asked what he thought of girls he said, "After intense research, I find you can't beat them." He refused to name any one girl. Watering at the mouth, Melvin declared that his favorite foods are lemon pie and hamburger steak.

When asked his opinion of Hinds he gave this answer, "I flat hate to leave it. I wish it were a four year

Side Lines

By Irl Dean Rhodes

This writer has always felt that the success any athletic team enjoys directly reflects upon the attitude and support of its fans. We feel sure that this will be a contributing factor to the success we have with Jonesthis weekend. Here's hoping that the majority of our student body will go to Ellisville Saturday night and generate plenty of steam in good rooting and organized yelling for the Eagles.

Jack Hairston, Assistant Sports Editor of the State Times, predicts the Jones Bobcats of Ellisville to take the Eagles by one or two touchdowns and scar their winning streak since early season 1952.

Students on our campus have a chance not only to play football, but the physical education department is offering, at the present time, tennis and volley ball to help develop and exercise our physical bodies. Hi-Stepping and ping-pong seem to be the most popular enjoyments on our campus, or at least more people admire the Hi-Steppers and play ping-pong than anything else, with the exception of pig-skin fans.

Last week when we were mentioning some of the top football teams in our area, we omitted Coach Mike Campbell's Vicksburg Greenies, Jackson Central and Jackson Provine. This is the first year for the Provine Rams to present a team and they have already upset Central 12-0 and tied Murrah for the top high school team in the city of Jackson unless Murrah defeats Central.

Crystal Springs and Prentiss are the only undefeated teams in the Little Dixie Conference. The most powerful back in the conference comes in a small package in midget Don Purvis, 145-pound speedster, of the Crystal Springs Tigers. Purvis is the leading scorer of the conference.

Two unexpected upsets in pigskin play last week in this area was scoreless Pearl taking undefeated Morton 12-6 and highly favored Brandon falling to Florence 20-7.

Mississippi State Athletic Director Dudy Noble will be inducted into the Helms Hall of Fame Saturday at the half-time ceremonies during the State and Tulane football game. Coach Noble has been connected with the State coaching staff since 1919 and has helped the Maroons accomplish one of the top spots in the Southeastern Conference. We tip our hat to Athletic Director Noble for the well deserved honor.

We realize that football season is reaching its peak, although we are giving the basketball team a plug

Hinds Invades Jones This Week For Top Junior College Contest

The Hinds Junior College Eagles will invade Ellisville Saturday night to battle the Jones County Bobcats in what shapes up to be the outstanding game of the season in the Mississippi JC circuit.

At stake for the Eagles will be an undefeated record which stretches back 20 games to a 14-14 deadlock with Pearl River in early 1953. The Eagles have not been beaten in 29 consecutive games.

For Jones the prize will be that of knocking off the defending national Junior College champions and snapping their unprecedented win streak.

Both teams will enter the battle with perfect season records, but Jones, coached by Jim Clark and rated No. 1 in pre-season polls, will be installed as a slight favorite to derail Hinds.

Hinds has met Jones 11 times in the last nine years and has been victorious on seven occasions. The 1946 and '47 games resulted in 6-6 ties. Two of the eleven games were played in the Laurel Lions Bowl with Hinds taking the Bobcats 20-19 and 13-0. The Eagles have netted 173 points while the Bobcats have totaled 149 points in the series.

The Eagles, under Head Coach Joe Renfroe and Assistant Bob Fuerst opened the season this year by trimming Pearl River 14-13 and the following week the Eagles carried Northwest for a 41-0 cleaning in their first home game. Hinds tagged Perkinston 14-6 for its third victory.

In commenting on the game with Jones Saturday night, Coach Renfroe said, "With the all-around experience in the Jones line and backfield we shouldn't even be in the ball game."

Jones has 12 returning lettermen and five are regular starters from last year. The Eagles have six back but only one first stringer.

The Bobcats won eight and lost only one game in 1954, the only defeat by a 20-14 margin to Hinds.

A newcomer to the Eagle squad last week was James "Bear" Bryant. Bryant was a standout back for the Forest Hill Rebels 1954 Little Dixie Conference champions. His power and speed will probably be utilized at guard for the Eagles.

Baby Eagles Tie; Play Here Friday In Satartia Game

The Hinds High Eagles and Satartia will clash here Friday night for the third home game of the season for the Baby Eagles.

Last week the Eagles battled the Mississippi School for the Deaf to an 18-18 deadlock.

In the first quarter, the ball moved from one side of the midfield strip to the other with neither team making a serious threat. The Eagles retained possession of the ball most of the time.

Early in the second period, MSD fullback Joe Russell broke through the Raymond secondary on his own 35 yard line to race 65 yards for the first MSD score.

After the MSD tally, the Baby Eagles started their scoring drive with members of the Eagle backfield carrying the MSD 28. Halfback Blake Harrison ripped through for the score.

The first half ended with the score tied 6-6 with MSD in possession on their own 38.

MSD received the kickoff in the second half to start another scoring drive with Russell and halfback Roger Sellers making constant gains to the Eagle 21. On the next play from scrimmage Russell crashed through the middle to score the second touchdown.

Early in the fourth period the Baby Eagles moved the ball to the MSD six yard line. Harrison again plowed through for the score.

The visiting eleven received the kickoff and marched all the way for the final touchdown with Sellers and Russell carrying the offensive load

With the score 18-12 the Eagles took the kickoff and returned upfield. Members of the Eagles backfield alternated in carrying to the one yard line. Boyd bucked for the tally.

The game ended with MSD in charge on the Raymond five yard

Basketball Team Starts Training; Three Returning Lettermen Back

Coach Troy A. Ricks has nineteen basketball hopefuls out for preseason basketball practice with only three returning lettermen back to build a team.

The lettermen are Melvin Oakes, Tommy Robbins and Julian Sandifer. Sandifer played with Hinds three years ago before going into the army.

Newcomers this year are Jack this week in order to let the student body know the players trying out for the hard-wood sport. Coach Troy Ricks will possibly field this year one of the best ball teams in the history of Hinds Junior ColGolden, a sophomore transfer from L. S. U.; Buck Smith, a senior; John Lancaster, a freshman; Dickie Axell and Gary Everett, both freshmen.

Four of the top candidates are Bobby Lee and Jerry Ivy from Clinton, and Tommy Vance and Moose Merritt of Forest Hill. All four of these players were top performers in the finals of the State Class A-AA basketball tournament last year.

Other candidates trying out for positions are Wayne Winstead, Willis Steanhuis, Dan Nickols, Burdette Boyd, Glenn McClelland, Mickey Bailey and James Sassar.

Mary Lou Kersh Selected Queen Hinds Junior College Homecoming

Mary Lou Kersh of Brandon was a campus favorite last year at elected Hinds Junior College's Homecoming Queen in a student body election held Tuesday.

Other homecoming royalty will be Mary Louise Baker of Brandon and Pat Means of Canton, sophomore maids; and Annette McCluer and Wanda Lou Wortman of Forest Hill aand Leland respectively were chosen as the freshman maids.

Mary Lou is a graduate of Brandon High School where she was an honor student. She is a Hinds Hi-Stepper, member of the YWCA, and

Debate Candidates To Study Labor Teams Solicited

"The Guaranteed Annual Wage for Skilled Labor" is the topic which has been given for the college debate teams. The debate tournament is scheduled for early next semester and a good showing is expected by the Hinds Junior College team.

All high school or college students interested in debating are asked to see Miss Belle Lindsey in the near future.

Hinds.

While attending Brandon High School, Mary Lou was a majorette for four years, member of the South Mississippi Championship Debate Team and was vice-president of her senior class.

Annual Penny Fair Harvest Carnival Plans Underway

The Penny Fair sponsored each year by the YWCA is scheduled for November 10.

This annual festival has more than one purpose. Its chief aim is to raise the Hinds contribution for the World University Service

This entertainment furnishes wholesome fun to all who participate, and it seeks out hidden talent in the student body. Class representatives will vie for the positions of king and queen of the Harvest Festival. A stage show will introduce many talented students to the campus. Food booths and other concessions will feed the hungry and entertain the weary.

The YWCA cabinet is perfecting plans for the coming event.

Freshmen Face Annual Frosh Day With An Apprehensive Outlook

by ANN JOHNSON

The long-awaited day of revenge is almost upon us; that is, revenge for sophomores. For the poor unfortunate people who happen to be freshmen it will be a day of confusion, turmoil, and dodging your sophomore. Some of the chief activities of the day as most sophomores (former freshmen) know, are airraids, starched hair, generously giving free chewing gum, and sampling aas many shades of lipstick as possible.

The list of sophomores and freshmen has been posted and half of the student body is running in circles yelling, "Do you know Reginald Higgingbotham? He's my sophomore!" or "Do you know Priscilla Applewhite? She's my freshman!"

The day will be a hectic one for everyone involved, but especially will it be a headache for the teachers. To face those creatures we call "freshmen on Freshman Day" is bad enough, reviewing some of the costumes -of our illustrous sopho mores wore last year, but there is even more in store for some of our poor instructors. For example, these is a rumor around the campus that the music appreciation class is planning to depreciate music by tuning up to "Maybelline!"

A program haas been especially prepared by the Sophomore committee and will be held at 2:40, time of the regular 7th period classes, which will be held during Activity Period Thursday. Kangaroo Court has always been the main feature of the day with this year's court based on an Indian theme. There will also be a parade of all freshmen which will form in front of the Administratio nBuilding. All freshmen are required to take part in the parade, and will march to the downtown area of Raymond.

A final word to all freshmen eagerly anticipating the annual Frosh day:

Enter into the activities with the attitude that you will only be a freshman once and should have as much fun on this day as possible.

Carolyn Wright To Reign As Queen Of High School Homecoming Game

Carolyn Wright, a Hinds senior, has been selcted Queen of the Raymond High School Homecoming Carolyn will be crowned as a part of the halftime ceremonies at the game between Raymond and St.

Lamplighters Plan Active Program

Flower arrangements, basic wardrobe planning, entertaining guests, and many other topics will engage the attention of the Lamplighters

The Lamplighters Club is an organization in the Home Arts Department. Officers recently elected are the following: Karlene Stafford, president, Clinton; Vivian Morton, first vice-president, Jackson; Nan Ertle, second vice-president, Bentonia; Emma Rowland, secretary, Vicksburg; Sue Bishop, treasurer Jackson; Frances Gage, hostess chairman, Raymond; Ann Alessio. publicity chairman, Jackson.

Intramural Tennis Tourney Begins On Hinds Campus

The Hinds Junior College interschool tennis tournament started this week with eliminations in the single and double division.

Mrs. Anne Gookin, Hinds' physical education director, is in charge of the tournament. All students interested in taking part in the tournament are asked to sign up with Mrs. Gookin.

The purpose of the tournament is to get new prospects for the tennis team this year. The State Junior College Tournament will be held in the early spring.

The Eaglettes have four return-

Joseph. She will be crowned by Helen Cowart, the former Queen of 1954. The Queen's escorts will be the captain and co-captain of the Baby Eagle squad.

The maids of the court will be escorted by the class representatives amidst a special show which is to be presented by the Hinds Eagle Band and Hi-Steppers.

There will be a public parade through the town of Raymond on the morning of October 21.

Featured in the parade will be representatives of the state highway patrol; Scout Troop 99; Hinds Band and Hi-Steppers. Tenth grade representatives will be: Dot Brock, Lebanon; Barbara Smith, Learned; Chris Lewis, Raymond; Bill Grogan, Raymond. Eleventh grade representatives: Sissy Graham, Bolton; Velma Hand, Terry; Marty Littman, Brooklyn, New York; Don Campbell, Bolton. Senior maids and escorts will be: Lynn Justice, Jackson; Marty Hart, Satartia; James McNair, Learned; Charles Causey, Jackson.

The general chairman for the homecoming event is Mr. Louis Boteler, who will be assisted by members of the student body.

ing members trying out for the team this year. They are Mary Louise Baker, Many Lou Kersh, Jo Ann Foshee and Mary Frances Henley. Helen Cowart and Melanie Matthews are the top candidates up from the high school this year.

Gwen Post, half-pint star from Clinton, is expected to be one of the top performers. Gwen was a member of the team last year that went to the state high school tournament in the doubles division.

Other girls with experience trying for a position on the team are Hermanell Hearn, Carolyn Powell. Wanda Wortman, Bobbie Nell Noland, Dot Gill, and Flora Roberts.

Freshman Day Beauties

Junior College Future Bright

"If the Junior colleges of this state suddenly closed, the senior colleges would be physically incapable of carrying the load thrust upon them," said Hinds President G. M. McLendon after his return from the Mississippi Junior-Senior College Conference held at the University of Mississippi on October 10-11.

This year's Mississippi junior college enrollment has reached a total of 8,000 students. More freshmen are included in this number than the total number of freshmen at Mississippi senior colleges.

Last year, due to the number of junior college transfers, juniors outnumbered freshmen at the state's senior colleges.

Division between the first two years of colleges and the last two is becoming more and more apparent in the nation's colleges and universities. Louisiana State University has already separated its courses into a junior and senior division.

The junior college adequately meets the needs of the first two college years at about one-half the cost of the senior college for the same period.

When asked about future expansion of Mississippi junior colleges, Mr. McLendon stated that greater expansion seems to be a certainty, but that how this expansion is to be accomplished is not certain as yet.

He further stated that better roads and buses might take care of the problem more economically than more dormitories. President McLendon pointed out that California's junior colleges are enjoying terrific success using the day student system.

All in all, we feel that the future for junior colleges is very bright.

Fans Lack Spirit In Jones Game

Two weeks ago at Ellisville, Hinds lost its first football game since 1952. The Hinds cheering section was as large and as noisy as could be hoped for. The team played an excellent game against a line that must have outweighed the Hinds line at least 20 pounds per man.

There is no disgrace in losing to a better team. The disgrace came in the last three minutes of play. While Hinds players played their hearts out to score another touchdown, this large and noisy cheering section became a deserted space in the bleachers.

The absence of the Hinds band was especially conspicuous. Dead silence reigned as Hinds' last seven points were flashed on the score board.

Second Term Grades Usually Low

Students seem to lessen their efforts during the second term of a semester. The initial drive has worn off and semester exams are still too far off to provide an incentive to study.

This is indeed sad, for to have a good average, a student must have consistently high grades during the semester. So let us try to make better grades next term instead of resting on our achievements of the first six weeks.

Lendon Players Complete Tryouts

Try-outs for the Lendon Players' first production, Stage Directions, were concluded on Tuesday.

The casting and committee appointments will be announced in next week's Hindsonian.

Last year the Lendon Players achieved wide recognition as a top-ranking dramatic club. Indications are that this year's group will be equally as successful.

Alcohol Education Workshop Planned On Hinds Campus For Next Month

On Thursday afternoon and evening, November 3, a Workshop on Alcohol Education will be held on Hinds Junior College campus. This workshop is designed especially for young people. The Reverend James S. Conner, Executive Secretary for the Church Council on Alcohol Education, will be the leader of this workshop. He will bring with him a number of qualified persons who will lead discussions on what is the Christian witness today concerning the menace of alcohol.

As every person in American society today is involved either directly or indirectly with this problem it would be well worth the time for every student on the campus to share in the workings of this conference. The tentative workshop schedule is as follows:

3:00-4:00—Registration, recreaation and fellowship singing.

4:00-4:45—General assembly, presentation of the scope of the problem.

4:45-6:30—Discussion Groups with qualified leaders.

6:30-7:15—Picnic supper (each person should bring his own sandwiches)

7:15-8:30—General assembly with panel discussion.

The purpose of these workshops that are being held at six junior colleges throughout the state is to seek to analyze and understand the nature of beverage alcohol and problems related to its use. All students are cordially invited to attend the workshop to be held on our campus.

Freshman Contemplates Rigid Rules The Peanut Treatment Threatened

At the sound of the Reveilie (6:15 a. m. on Thursday, October 20, Freshman Day officially begins. From this time until the end of the parade down Raymond's streets, all poor, unfortunate freshmen must abide by these rules:

Obey all sophomores. Girls, starch your hair the previous night; use no beautifying aids, (you will look beautiful enough by the time the sophomores get through with you,) such as combing hair, lip stick, rouge, etc.

Attend breakfast and dinner. Turn your chair around backwards, stand in it on knees and eat a square meal — with a knife. By the way, you greenies are to be last in ALL lines.

You must be prepared to sing the "Alma Mater" and "I'm a Moron" at any time. Also, "holler" or yell "Yea Eagles" when you meet football players. Address all sophomores as Sir, Ma'am, Mr. or Miss.

Every freshman shall have name and address in a place where all sophomores can see it. Also phone number. Freshmen also shall: shine sophomore's shoes, carry books in a suitcase or pillow case, keep off sidewalks, walk up stairs backwards, and bow to the eagle on the flagpole.

Be sure to carry a whole stick of gum for any sophomore. (Wrigley, Dentyne, or Beech Nut.) Do not return to your rooms between 6:00 a. m. and 4:30 p. m. except for ten to fifteen minutes each time. You cannot enter the grill unless accompanied by a sophomore.

All freshmen boys shall carry G13 rocks in a left sock and be prepared to count them at any time. ter.

Girls shall have 25 bobby pins in their hair and must count them, if they can count that high. No freshman may smoke. All freshmen wearing glasses must have windshield wipers. All freshmen shall be marked with an "F" in lipstick on their forehead. When a sophomore yells "Air Raid" all freshmen must fall flat on the ground until "All Clear" is sounded. This procedure has the stamp of approval of the Civil Defense Corps.

Day students, you haven't been overloked. You are to dress after you reach the campus.

Freshmen must be prepared to make a three-minute talk on either of these subjects:

- 1. How high is high without using the word "high?"
- 2. Discuss the principle involved in drawing an eight-sided triangle.
- 3. Where the light goes when it goes out?
- 4. Should chickens roost on square poles or round poles?

All freshmen are to meet in the auditorium for a special assembly for everyone, at 2:30, if they are still alive.

All freshmen must participate in the march to Raymond.

ANY FRESHMAN FAILING TO OBEY THE RULES ARE SUBJECT TO THE

Lindsey, Smith

MISS BELLE LINDSEY

Miss Belle Lindsey, former teacher of English and high school principal of Copiah Lincoln Junior College, has joined the staff of Hinds Junior College, teaching English.

Miss Lindsey is a graduate of Millsaps College and received her master's degree from Peabody College. While at Peabody she was a graduate assistant in English. Besides her degree in English, she also has a major in history.

She taught history and literature at the University-Millsaps Center before coming to Hinds.

She is a member of Chi Delta, a literary honor society, Pi Gamma Mu, social science, and Kappa Delta Pi, a scholastic sorority.

She has served as chairman of the English section of the MEA three different times.

Her favorite hobby is cooking. She also likes to make jellies and fancy pastry. Gardening is also a favorite of hers.

She is delighted with her work at Hinds. She said that her students are very cooperative and JAMES P. SMITH

Mr. James P. Smith, former radio operator aboard ship, has joined the faculty of Hinds Junior College as night instructor of radio.

Mr. Smith graduated from high school in Lakeland, Florida. He received his degree of radio from the RCA Radio School and Philco Radio School at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He has done work at Millsaps College and is now taking courses at Hinds.

While he lived in Florida, he was an instructor in the Vocational Rehabilitation Department. He has also been an instructor in radio for the Air Force in Georgia.

He has been in radio for thirty years and has all radio licenses issued by the government.

United Nations Week Observed On Hinds Junior College Campus

by MARIE WILLOUGHBY

This is United Nations Week: the observance on the local campus, sponsored by the YWCA, began Sunday, October 16. It will culminate Sunday, October 24.

Ten years ago, October 24, the United Nations Charter came into force. These ten years have seen the rise of East-West tensions reflected. On the other hand, solid gains have been made in resolving international disputes, and in promoting social and economic pro-

The emergence of Asian nations into world prominence and a growing restlessness in Africa in this period show that these peoples, representing about two-thirds of the human race, are not content to live as second or third class citi-

For making peaceful progress possible, by promoting co-operation and mutual respect among nations, the UN is the best instrument the world now has.

This is borne out by a partial list of the political achievements of the UN in one year alone: in 1946, Russia agreed to withdraw troops from Iran; and Britain and France agreed to recall troops from Lebanon and Syria after these issues had been discussed in Security Council. Other settlements have ended civil war in Greece, halted conflict between India and Pakistan over Kashmir, and helped Burma to expel Nationalist and Communist Chinese troops from her territory.

Display booths may be seen in the Administration Building and in the Library of Hinds Junior College.

Jackson Doctor Addresses Club

Dr. Terry Ozier, member of the Jackson Kiwanis Club, spoke to members of the Circle K Club last Wednsday evening at their regular meeting on the subject, "The Importance of Circle K."

Previous to the address by Dr. Ozier, the club elected their board of directors. Directors are Irl Dean Rhodes, Joe Kinsey, Lamar Seale and Gordon Perry. The club also discussed the projects for the club this year.

Officers that were elected last year for the 1955-56 school year are President Melvin Oakes, Vicepresident Charles Wicker and Secretary-Treasurer Bobby Worley. Sponsors of the club in its second year are Mr. Eddie Morris and Mr. W. C. Oakes.

Staff Members Visit At Ole Miss

Three members of the Hinds Junior College staff attended the Junior-Senior College Conference held at Ole Miss in mid-October. This conference was one in a series of continuing meetings sponsored by the Mississippi Association of Colleges. To this conference all junior and senior colleges of the state send representatives.

President G. M. McLendon, Miss Mildred Herren, Registrar and Secretary of the Mississippi Association of Colleges, and Mr. A. L. Denton, Hinds Guidance Director, represented Hinds at the conference.

The purpose of the series of conferences as formulated by Mr. Ben F. Hilbun, President of the Mississippi Association of Colleges, is "to bring about a closer relationship between junior and senior institutions, to discover and solve problems common to both."

The series of conferences, begun before World War II, has been a primary factor contributing to the ease with which junior college students are now transferring to senior colleges. The conferences are continuing to promote and maintain the friendrly, cooperative, and understanding spirit among all the colleges of the state.

Two BSU Leaders Attend Meeting

Glenda Rush and Jo Anne Lane, representatives of the local BSU, spent Saturday, October 8 at Mississippi College, Clinton, where students from over the state assembled to further the work of BSU on many campuses.

In the morning the Hinds representatives took part in the rehearsals of the State BSU choir. At this time music for the State Convention was given particular attention.

In the afternoon Glenda, a member of the BSU State Greater Council attended a planning session for the State BSU Convention to be held at Mississippi College October 28-30.

Accompanying the Hinds representatives to the Saturday meeting was the Reverend Bob Simmons, pastor of the local Baptist church. He attended a conference of faculty and pastor advisors.

October 21—Homecoming: Hinds Gookin Attends P. E. Workshop

Mrs. Anne Gookin, Hinds P. E. Director, described the recent playday on the Hinds campus as a successful event to members of the Women's Section of the Mississippi Health, Physical Education and Recreation Association at a workshop held at Roosevelt State Park on October 1 and 2.

The two day work-shop included movies of various physical activities; progressions in teaching of speedball and soccer by Dr. Angeline Watkins, head of the Women's P. E. Department at Mississippi Southern; square dancing led by Mrs. Nessie Bennett of the Tupelo High school; and selling physical

Recovering From Recent Losses Eagles Meet Undefeated Co-Lin

The Hinds Junior College Eagles will be put to the third acid test of the season here Saturday night when the Eagles play host to the undefeated and untied Copiah-Lincoln Wolves.

Coaches Joe Renfroe and Bob Fuerst's Eagles made it two losses in a row last week by dropping their fifth game of the season to the East Central Warriors 13-7 before a small crowd of chilled fans.

The defeat by East Central was the first time for the Eagles to be beaten on the Raymond field since 1950.

Hinds Hi Eagles Play St. Joseph At Homecoming

Coach Louis Boteler's Hinds High Eagles will meet the St. Joseph Rebels in their annual Homecoming game Friday night with game time slated for 8 p. m.

The Eagles are fresh from their 25-14 victory over the small scrappy Flora Lions last week. The St. Joseph Rebels routed the Puckett Wovles 27-0 for their last victory and the Rebels are leading the Capital Athletic League.

Fullback Homer Boyd and Half-back Tommy Lynch led the Eagles in their win over the Lions last week with 100-plus yardage by both members of the Eagle team. Fullback Lamont Echols, Lion sparkplug, put on a one man show for Flora.

Hinds scored in the first period to go out front 6-0, although the Lions came roaring back in the second stanza to go front 7-6 as the half ended.

After an interview with Coach Boteler, the Eagles turned over a new leaf in the last half by scoring twice in the third quarter and once in the final period. Flora reached The fired-up revenge-minded Warriors did their damage in the firstand final stanzas, eight and four yard runs. Hinds tallied early in the first quarter on a 26 yard run by Halfback Jackie Williams around right end. Taylor split the uprights for the point.

East Central out-fought and outplayed the Eagles, 13 first downs to nine, 189 net yards rushing to 178, 63 yards passing to 27 and 252 total yards to 205.

Halfback Olin Renfroe and Fullback Jimmy Taylor were the top ground gainers for the Eagles. Renfroe carried 12 times and netted 67 yards to average 5.6 per try and Taylor rushed nine times for 53 yards averaging 5.9.

The Eagles were handicapped by a number of injuries as a result of the game two weeks ago with Jones. Another deciding factor was the lack of depth of the Hinds team.

Hinds moved the pig-skin to the six in the last period on a scoring threat and Quarterback Junior Harvey, fumbled and lost their last chance to score. Jackie Wilks recovered the fumble and the Warriors had charge of the ball until the last 20 seconds of the game.

The top defensive play for the Eagles was led by Guards Jim Corbett and Joe Collins and Tackle Willie Eldridge.

pay-dirt with their last tally in final stanza.

Lynch scored the first Eagle touchdown on a 56 yard run and the try for the extra point failed. It took the Eagles only two plays from scrimmage to garner the score.

In nine plays Echols drove to the four and plunged for the score. Quarterback Bill Richardson flipped a completed extra point pass to Halfback Jimmy Hawkins.

Quarterback W. L. Anderson of the Eagles passed to Halfback Blake Harrison to account for the second score on an aerial that covered 50 yards. Harrison converted successfully.

Lightning quickness marked the

Taylor Top Scorer With 48 Point Gain Five Games Played

Fullback Jimmy Taylor has accounted for six touchdowns and has booted 12 out of 12 extra points to possess 48 points in the first five games and the lead in the Eagle scoring department. Halfback Olin Renfroe, little All-American last year, has racked up 18 points for the second high scorer, although he missed one game due to a knee injury

Feather-weight Halfback Jackie Williams has put 13 points on the Eagle score board for the third top scorer. Ends Frank Drummonds and Willie Eldridge, Halfback Tommy Muirhead and Fullback Joe Campbell have managed to cross the goal line once each this season. Quarterback Junior Harvey has booted one extra point thus far.

The Eagles have collected 104 points in five games to average 20.8 per game and their opposition has 66 markers for a 13.2 average in a quintet of games.

Baby Eagles Win Three Easy Games Boyd Top Scorer

The Hinds High Eagles will enter the game with St. Joseph Friday night with a 3-1-1 record in five games of play. The Eagles have netted 90 points and their opponents 62 thus far this season.

Fullback Homer Boyd is the leading scorer with 36 points and Halfbacks Tommy Lynch and Blake Harrison are tied with 24 points each.

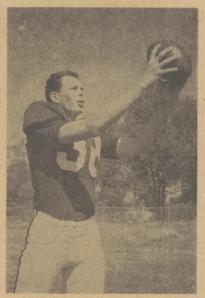

third Eagle score. Lynch and Boyd needed only two plays to gobble up 52 yards. Boyd got the score on a 28-yard spurt.

The hard-running Lynch tallied the final score from 12 yards out and Harrison bulldozed for the point.

A pass from Richardson to End Bob Hales finished the Flora scoring late in the closing minutes of the game.

EAGLE ACES—Left to right End Frank Drummonds, Guards Jim Corbett and Joe Collins. Drummonds scored the first touchdown in the Jones game before before being injured and he will not be able to play for the remainder of the season. Corbett and Collins are both sophomores and have been turning in top notch performances at guard. Collins is from Yazoo City and Corbett is from Jackson and is one of the six returning lettermen for the Eagles this year.

Mr. Patrick, nominated for freshman of the year; Hugh Long chasing Mary Louise Baker (caught her, too); Ramona Franklin running out of the grill shrieking, "I'm engaged!"; Lou Barret smearing lipstick on freshman boys.

Congratulations — to the high school homecoming courts; to the Hinds football team for a great come-back; to the Hinds band and Hi-Steppers and to the Co-Lin band and Colettes for the excellent half-time show Saturday night.

PLANT EXPANSION . . .

The Board of Trustees has authorized by appropriate resolution that the president be directed to secure information on plant facility needs for present and future needs.

Mr. McLendon says, "Since we have admitted 100 excess boarding students which the buildings were not designed to accommodate, and since there is ample evidence to indicate that within the foreseeable future our enrollment will be greatly expanded two more dormitories are currently needed.

Other buildings needed include a physical education building for women, a science building and a combination vocationalagriculture building. The completed study may reveal additional needs.

* * * * * Ed. note: The following letter was found in the public relations office Monday morning. Whoever wrote it has as yet not seen fit to leave his (or her) name with the staff. The HINDSONIAN does not condone the printing of anonymous letters, and in the future will not print any letter unless signed.

In reply to your editorial last week on school spirit, I should like to suggest that you were a bit out of line in connection with the band.

I take it that you never took time to learn how to play a musical instrument. I must assume that you never tried to find out how many hours a band puts into its work. I also must assume that you never loaded a band bus with all of its equipment

Thinking of all these things now, let us take into consideration how many students there are in this school that go to a game on their own and do nothing. Let us also consider those that don't even attend the school activities.

The writer of this letter says, "Leave the workers alone and call someone else names." No, I am not in the band but I appreciate what they do and I have enough gumption to realize that the band alone won't be able to keep up the school and team spirit

May I suggest that the editor make a little more noise himself and let the band director run the band? Thank you.

A Concerned Sophomore

Editor's reply: As you said, Sophomore, you are not in the band. You are not a member of the HIND-SONIAN staff. So how can you be so concerned?

We call 'em like we see 'em and we believe in freedom of the press, so we shall continue to make such comments as we think are due.

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

"Buckeye" Stricklin

This week the HINDSONIAN is proud to announce that Thomas 'Buckeye" Stricklin is Sophomore of the Week.

Buckeye hails from Yazoo City where he made a name for himself in high school sports. Thomas is 6' 1" and weighs only 195 pounds. He has two brown eyes and a sprig of brown hair.

Southern fried chicken is his favorite food, and he likes hillbilly music to go along with it. His favorite pastimes are "sleeping and eating ice cream."

When asked for remarks about Hinds, he said, "One of the few colleges where the school has an interest in the student. Here the student finds a home and still takes part in social activities."

His plans for the future are to finish school and be a football coach. Thomas will enter the physical education department of LSU upon completion of his work at

During his freshman year he was vice-president and student council representative for his class. Football also played a major part in his life at Hinds.

As a sophomore, Thomas is cocaptain of the football team, assistant coach of the high school squad, and a welcomed supporter of all class and school activities.

Good luck to Thomas "Buckeye" Stricklin, student, citizen, and

Sophomore Letter Reveals Hinds News Report Cards and Frosh Day Lead

Dear Ma,

I shore do wish that I could come home but them reports come out the other day and I am locked in my room. The dickens of it is that my room-mate is locked in, too. Things is bad all over.

Everybody went crazy or sometin around here one day last week. This here school looked like one of them clown shows. Some of them peoples said that it wuz them freshman's day but I bet they don't want anymore soon. That fella next door to me that is from Tylertown, you know, well he had his picture in that there City paper. He is one of them kind and wow. He had himself a ball that day but his lips is still hurtin him.

We went out to the cow pasture last Saturday night and them boys of ourn shore did play a nice game of what ever it is that they air a playin. They wuz a runnin around and having such a good time and someone said we won so I guess that ain't so bad fer a nights runnin. I ain't quite fingered it out what it is that we won but I guess it is all right cause President Oakes wuz thare and he didn't run no one

Tell all them boys that wants to get themselves married off to come on up here and bring proof that they can get three meals a day fer a while and they will have to fight them gals off. This here gittin hitched seemes to be the very thing here these days. By-the-way, ma, it is a goin down to 39 degrees to-

That there Frank, what ever his name is, is most near alright now. He waren't on them sticks no time afore he wuz a dancin at one of them thengs afterwards of the game in the pasture.

Well me and my gal seys "HI" and "Good-bye" cause we is gotta go and eat. No, it ain't no whare near time but the line will be a mile long and we got to git in.

I will write again in the next week. Be a lookin fer the news from this here college.

Wesley Students To Hold District Meeting At Hinds

The Wesley Foundation District Meeting will be held on the Hinds Junior College campus Sunday, October 30. This district, involving Methodist students from the local campuses in and around Jackson, includes Wesley Foundations from the following schools: Holmes Junior College, Goodman; Hinds Junior College, Raymond; East Central Junior College, Decatur; Millsaps College and Belhaven College, Jackson; and Mississippi College, Clinton.

The program for the day will begin at 10:00 A. M. when the group will begin to gather in front of the Administration Building. From 10 until 10:45 the visitors will be shown around the Hinds campus. At 11:00, they will attend the morning worship service at the Raymond Methodist Church, where the pastor, Rev. Clay F. Lee, will deliver the sermon.

From 12:00 until 1:00, dinner will be served the guests in the Hinds cafeteria. At 1:00, the group will participate in recreation which will be led by the Millsaps College Wesley Foundation. From 2:00 until 3:00, the business session will be held. At 3:00, a closing program will climax the day's activities. Holmes Junior College Wesley Foundation will be in charge of this program.

A cordial welcome is extended to anyone interested in Wesley Foundation work; and all members of the Hinds Wesley Foundation are especially urged to be present.

Catholic Students Meet Wednesdays

The Catholic Youth Organization on the campus meets every Wednesday night at 7 o'clock in the college conference room. All Catholics are urged to meet with this group in the place designated.

Last Wednesday night the following officers were elected to head the group: Jo Ann Nutt, president, Vicksburg; Edward Berry, vicepresident, Jackson; Peter John Saab, secretary-treasurer, Canton.

Father Harrnet of St. Mary's, Jackson, meets with this organization, and Mrs. John S. Virden is sponsor.

BOZO

Pictured above is the thing that makes the football games between Hinds and Holmes so interesting. BOZO has meant school spirit on the two school campuses for several years now. This year Hinds has BOZO and he will be with the cheering section Saturday night. Holmes is coming down with an idea of taking hts back but a small group from Hinds is just as sure that they won't. Some of the escorts for BOZO are: Tootie Fondren, Howard Clarady, Marion Hammak, Richard Haynes, Bill Slay, Billy Keller, and Olen Akers. All of these people ask that no one from Hinds start anything but to be there to help if someone from Holmes does. Win, lose, or draw, BOZO is insuring an exciting game this week.

Millsaps College has enrolled seven foreign students. Three are from Korea; two from Greece; one from Canada; and one from El Salvador.

Perkinston Junior College received a special award for the stage settings division of the Row-Peterson 1954-55 Play Picture contest for a photograph of their production of "The Little Dog Laughed," a three-act comedy.

January 6 and 7, 1956, have been chosen as the dates for the 16th annual Millsaps Invitational debate tournament. The 1956 topic for the intercollegiate tournament is: Resolved that all non-agricultural industries should provide a guaranteed annual wage for their employees. This tournament is the South's largest inter-collegiate tournament.

Carr Central High School of Vicksburg has reached its highest enrollment with 897 students. The figure is expected to reach 1,000 before the end of the school year.

San Jose Junior College of San Jose, California, is expanding its campus. A new gym and a new science building are being constructed at an estimated cost of $369,000, and $7,000 respectively. A new football stadium, a new library building, and a new administration building are under construction. The total value of these buildings, when completed, will be about $600,000.

There was no smoke coming out of the girls' dormitory at Cornell College, Mount Vernon, Iowa, but two firemen were seen climbing in a third story window just the same. It seems a couple of the dormitory girls had locked themselves out of their room and were panicky when they found there was no house mother on duty to let them in with a master key. They were due at a President's reception in formals and the dresses were locked securely behind the door. It remained for the firemen to enter the room through the window and help the girls get in through the door.

Augsburg College officials in Minneapolis, Minnesota, had to find a solution to a housing problem. Faced with a surplus of 40 girls who could not be accommodated in dormitories, the college rented the entire fourth floor of a nearby hotel.

Regular residents at the hotel won't be seeing much of the young ladies, however. The fourth floor of the building will be closed off from the main part of the hotel with keys issued only to the girls.

EAGLES ACES — Top picture Halfback and End Tommy Muirhead and bottom picture Quarterback Junior Harvey of Canton are top performers for the Eagles this Demonstrating plenty of speed and ample power, the fired-up Hinds Junior College Eagles took the favored undefeated Copiah-Lincoln Wolves to a cleaning here last Saturday night to the tune of 39-6, and are now preparing for the Holmes Bulldogs this week.

The bone crushing forward wall was one of the factors that led the Eagles to the smashing spirited victory over the Wolves in real fashion. Every single player on the squad played inspired football.

Hinds scored in the first period and tallied twice in the second stanza to hold a 19-0 half-time lead over the conference leading Co-Lin team. In the last half, the Eagles added three more touchdowns with two in the third period and one in the final quarter. The battered and scattered Wolves finally scored with one minute and fifteen seconds left on the clock.

Fullback Jimmy Taylor and Halfback Carlo Fazzio did their share of the offensive load scoring two touchdowns each. Fazzio tallied on a one yard plunge and raced 46 yards for his other six-pointer. Taylor managed to get his on a one yard bulldoze and plowed six yards for the other score.

Halfbacks Olin Renfroe and Jackie Williams were the other two point makers for the Eagles in the one-sided contest. Renfroe chewed off 15 yards in the third period for his score and Williams made the last Eagle touchdown of the evening on a 26-yard spurt around right end.

The victory gave the Eagles a record of four wins and two defeats in six starts this season.

St. Joseph Rebels Crush Hinds High Play Away Friday

The Hinds High Eagles are recovering from a 46-6 beating by the St. Joseph Rebels last Friday night that somewhat spoiled a beautiful Hinds High Homecoming.

The Rebels presented an experienced team and a flashy array of backfield speedsters to score almost at will against the once beaten Baby Eagles. Every period of the game the St. Joseph team scored from one to three touchdowns.

Fullback Homer Boyd accounted for the only Hinds score in the last period of play against the revengeminded Rebels of Jackson.

The 180-pound fullback of the Eagles has scored 42 points this season in six games for a seven point average per game. In the seven games this year, the Eagles have chalked up 96 points and their total opposition has 108 markers to their credit.

The defeat by the St. Joseph team was the first downfall of the season for the Eagles on their home field.

Hinds Delegates To Attend J. C. Press Workshop

Five members of the Hindsonian staff are planning to attend the State Junior College Press Workshop, to be held at Decatur Junior College during the weekend of November 4 and 5.

The plans include special conferences on different divisions of newspaper work, such as photography, headlining, sports writing, editing and make-up. The speakers for these conferences will be staff members of well-known newspapers throughout the state, and in Memphis.

Saturday's activities will include a panel discussion under the directiton of Dr. Talbert, Professor of Journalism, Univeresity of Mississippi, and a criticism of newspapers in meetings with the separate staffs.

Social features of the program include a seated tea at the home of President Vincent, Friday afternoon, dinner in the college cafeteria at 7 o'clock, and a social function in the student center, 9-11 p.m., Friday.

B. S. U. Delegates Attend Meeting

Among the 1000 participants in the B. S. U. Convention held at Clinton last week were fourteen Hinds Junior College students with the sponsor of the local B. S. U. Those attending were Nan Lane, Travis Slaton, Bob Olander, Glenda Rush, Patricia Magee, Riddell Leggett, Judy Sigrest, Jo Ann Lane, Bobbie Nell Nolan, Foy Scroggins, Jr., Billie Jean Phillips, Myrna Loy Stuart, Mary Jane Halle, Vonda Viverette.

Professor Walter Butler, faculty advisor of the Baptist students, accompanied the group to the convention.

Johnson Elected District Officer

Ann Johnson, president of the local Wesley Foundation, was elected to the vice-presidency of the MSM of the Jackson District Sunday.

The election of officers closed the day-long meeting on the campus of the more than forty Methodist students representing campus groups of four of the colleges in the Jackson District.

The meeting was opened with registration from 10:00 until 10:45 in the colege administration building. A tour of the campus preceded the group's attendance at worship services at the Raymond Methdist Church.

Irl Rhodes Heads Freshman Ticket In First Primary

Brandon, Clinton, Jackson, and Yazoo City have supplied the leaders for the Hinds Junior College Freshman Class.

Chosen by their 340 classmates last week in a campaign marked by slogans, loud speakers, dinner music, and candidate cards are the following officers.

Representing Brandon is Irl Dean Rhodes, president. Vice-president is Douglas Brewer, Clinton; secretary is Barbara Daymond, Jackson; and treasurer is Foy Scroggins, Yazoo City.

Irl Dean had considerable experience from his home school in student activities. He edited the annual, co-authored the student handbook, served as president of the student body, treasurer of the Beta Club, and president of the 4-H club. He was elected to the citizenship honor, and was named most dependable and most versatile.

Douglas brings a high school record of Beta Club honor, Key Club, Hi-Y, Glee Club, and membership in the state choral festival, and delegate to the Youth Con-

Barbara did her junior and senior high school work at Hinds winning a 1.9 grade average. She took active part in the Y-Teens, the high school chorus, annual staff work, F. B. L. A., F. H. A., and in cheerleading. She was vice-president of the Art Club and of the senior class.

Foy was on the yearbook staff, member of the state choral festival, in the all-state band, student conductor of the high school band and Glee Club, and rated superior as student director. He was voted the most valuable band member by his fellow students.

Officers elected for the new year in MSM of the Jackson District are Edwin Upton, president, Millsaps; Ann Johnson, vice-president, Hinds; Shirley McMullan, secretary, East Central; Edna Joy Fisher, treasurer, Holmes; and Irl Dean Rhodes, publicity chairman, Hinds.

Penny Fair Set; Committees Told

Plans have been completed and committees have begun on the campus work for the Penny Fair to be held next Thursday, November 10, beginning at 6 p. m.

Classes have elected their candidates for king and queen of this annual festival, and campaigns have begun. Votes are a penny each. The precincts will close Thursday afternoon about 6:30 o'clock

In spirited class meetings Monday, the following candidates for king and queen of the Penny Fair were selected to represent their respective classes: Nan Lane and Don Thompson, sophomore class; Helen Cowart and "Bear" Bryant, freshman class; Mary Marguerite Hart and Kendall Harris, high school senior class; Norma Jean Carter and Bobby Sheffield, 11th

Alumni Program Celebrated Sat.

Beginning at two o'clock in the afternoon with registration, Hinds Junior College celebrated its annual Homecoming, Saturday, with an alumni meeting, followed by a film, supper for all former graduates in the cafeteria, coronation of the 1955 Homecoming queen, a football game between Hinds and Holmes, and a reception for the Queen and her Court, followed by the annual homecoming dance.

The returning alumni were registered in the administration building and greeted by President G. M. McLendon. At 4:00 p. m. the program began in the college auditorium with an organ prelude by Fred Marett. Opening words of greeting were given by Mr. Walter Gibbes, who introduced President McLendon. President McLendon welcomed all returning graduates of Hinds Junior College and commented that although the number of former graduates present was not great, that alumni were present from distances ranging from Memphis to New Orleans.

A vocal solo, "Somewhere Over the Rainbow," was renderd by Myrna Loy Stuart, with piano accompaniment by James Furlow. Mr. Walter Gibbes then took charge and asked all former graduates to stand, tell the year in which they graduated, and what happened to them since that time.

The group was then dismissed to go to the Visual Education Room to see the film of the Pasadena Junior Rose Bowl game of last December when the Hinds Eagles defeated El Camino Junior College of California 13-7 to win the national junior college championship.

Supper was served in the cafeteria at 5:00 p. m. At 8:00 p. m.

grade; and Sara Margaret Smith and Eugene Osborn, 10th grade. The candidates whose class turns in the most votes will be formally crowned King and Queen of the Penny Fair, 1955. The coronation ceremony will begin at 8 o'clock, as the main event of the night's activities.

An entertaining floor show has been planned and there will also be booths to keep students furnished with wholesome fun and enjoyment.

The annual Penny Fair is a project of the Y. W. C. A., sponsor of this festival. Its chief purpose is to furnish wholesome entertainment with food, fun, and fellowship for all who come from campus and community.

The proceeds go to the maintenance of the Y. W. C. A.'s yearly budget. In addition, the Y. W. C. A. makes a large contribution to the World University Service which is distributed to students in need around the world.

Committees have been announced by Glenda Rush, president of the Y. W. C. A. The four main committees include floor show, decoration, publicity, and booth. The floor show committee is headed by Flo Greenlee and Mary Lou Kersh, chairmen, and consists of Billy Kelly, Anita Watkins, Jo Anne Lare, Larine Herrin, Joan Bruner, Ann Johnson, Janice Lewis, and Jo Anne Nutt.

Martha Gillespie is chairman of the decoration committee. Members of this committee include Betty McCaskill, Marilyn Simmons, Earline Vandevender, Jo Ann Foshee, Annette Cheatham, Betty Jo Williams, Anita Shoemaker, Peggy Gallman, Patty Carter, and Patsy Smith.

The publicity committee is headed by Judy Sigrest and includes Dot Adams, Laura Lusby, Bobbie Nell Noland, Billie Jean Phillips, Barbara Yarborough, Eurena Satterfield, Lynn Norris, Faye Burdett, Sylvia Lane, Hermanelle Hearn, and Martha Fugate.

Chairman of the booth committee is Jane Pickett; and members of this committee are Betty Berryhill, Bettie Lou Webb, Betty Crockett, Kate Gonia, Mary Jane Hall, Nan Ertle, Nan Lane, Ramona Franklin, Pat Magee, Monnie Gregory, Vonda Viverette, Lucy Ferguson, Elaine Mayfield, Carolyn Raye Bourne, Martha Ann Smith, Margaret Adcock, and Marian Woods.

Penny Fair Contest

Competition between the classes for the Penny Fair royalty gives students an excellent opportunity to contribute to a most worthy cause and have fun while doing it.

The Y. W. C. A. is responsible for the Penny Fair but the whole school gets credit for the large yearly contribution made from the proceeds to the World University Service.

The World University Service helps needy students the world over. Not only do these contributions render valuable service to these students and their countries, but they also promote good will for the United States and help to develop better understanding around the world.

When you give to your king and queen candidates, make your contribution a large one. It is for a good cause.

Former students on hand for homecoming, Saturday, were pleasantly surprised at the progress Hinds has made since their graduation, especially the ones who have not been on the Hinds campus in recent years.

Among these were many outstanding citizens, including Congressman John Bell Williams.

Traffic Fatalities High

By the time this paper is printed, Mississippi will have counted the toll of traffic fatalities for the past month.

The total is expected to be about 74. The cause of most of these deaths was carelessness. Carelessness on the highway is stupidity. No one can deny that it is stupid to drive while drinking, to drive at high speeds, to drive too slow, or to drive a car that is not in good mechanical condition. Excessive speed in relation to road conditions and traffic are blamed for most fatal accidents.

Automobiles are being made faster and more powerful every year. This increased horsepower, if used correctly, is a safety feature.

Too bad automobile manufacturers can not manufacture brains for drivers.

The common cold is the most costly disease known to man, costly in lost man hours and in money for medicine. The cold continues to be incurable. We have spent millions to combat fatal diseases such as polio, which is comparatively very rare. Why not get up a fund to support research to develop prevention, or at least a cure, for the cold?

Our grateful appreciation is due Congressman John Bell Williams for sharing his recent experiences in Russia and the satellite countries with us at Assembly Tuesday.

Carlos Curtis

This week our Sophomore of the Week is Carlos Curtis of Utica, Mississippi. Carlos is better known as the "Wings of the Eagles." For that reason the above picture was chosen.

Carlos weigs 155 pounds and is 6' 11". His hair is blonde and his eyes are hazle. He has no favorite food but rather likes food in general. His choice of music is jazz.

Hobbies are girls and sports; major in college is P. E. Carlos plans to attend either Ole Miss or Southern next year. Asked what he thought about girls, he said, "There is too much competition among boys." We all know what you mean.

Carlos was a member of the Hinds track team last year and will go out for that sport again this year.

"Wings of the Eagles" comes from the job that Carlos has on the campus. Take a trip and he will be there. He wheels and deals the big buses with the best of them.

A hearty salute then to Carlos Curtis, our Sophomore of the Week.

sippi counties are represented in the current enrollment totals.

Of the counties Hinds is leading with 367 representatives, and Warren is second with 86.

Other than Mississippi, Louisiana is the best represented state with a total of eight students. Other states represented are Tennessee, Florida, Texas, New York, Illinois, New Jersey, Minnesota, Kansas, Georgia, Alabama, and Pennsylvania.

It might be thought that the reason for the popularity of the college this year is the widespread recognition gained by the Little Rose Bowl game of last year, but the steady growth of the school for a number of years is proof that this is not altogether true. Hinds is fully accredited and has been recognized as an outstanding junior college for a number of years.

The present freshman class is the largest the school has known with an enrollment of 356. The class last year enrolled some over 200. The present sophomore class numbered 203 at the beginning of the year. High school students now number 144.

College and high school day classes, however, are not the only student groups on the campus. In night classes, working toward earning diplomas, are 90 students at present. The vocational school on the campus is one of the largest within the state junior college circuit. It now enrolls 250 students.

The grand total for the present enrollment is a total of 1052 — not bad for a junior college located as near three outstanding senior colleges as Raymond is to Jackson and Clinton.

ADDRESS BY DR. TALBERT

An interesting highlight of the Press Workshop was an address given by Dr. S. S. Talbert, an associate professor of journalism at the University of Mississippi. This speaker stressed the need for qualified personnel which exists in newspaper, television, advertising, public information, and industrial editing fields.

Dr. Talbert estimated that fifteen vacancies exist for each qualified graduate prepared to enter newspaper work. In other areas of journalism the shortage is comparable, he stated.

"Modern science has given us almost unlimited means of reaching and influencing the public. The possibilities and responsibilities are awesome. No industry or government agency can operate successfully without effective communications with the public. The job of dealing with thousands of minds is a delicate and sacred work, which should challenge the imagination of any young person seeking a career," Dr. Talbert said.

Tomorrow night is the night! A reminded to everyone not to forget that Thursday night is Penny Fair. Activities get underway at 6:30 p. m. and the coronation ceremonies will begin at 8:00 p. m.

Catholic Students Sponsor Vespers

Vespers tonight will be sponsord by the Catholic students on the camous.

In keeping with the plans adopted last spring in the Campus Christian Council meeting, each religious organization on the campus sponsors the campus-wide worship services for two consecutive Wednesday evenings.

Last week the Catholic group presented Father Harnett as speaker. He spoke to students on some of the experiences of St. Paul.

Next week the Episcopalians will sponsor the services.

or College Press Workshop was held at East Central Junior College November 4-5. Delegates from Hinds Junior College include three sophomores and three freshmen, members of the HINDSONIAN staff:

Donald Thompson, Irl Dean Rhodes, Ann Johnson, Ramona Franklin, Marilyn Simmons, Jane Pickett. These students took part in special conferences on different divisions of newspaper work, and also enjoyed the social activities held on Frdiay night. At the banquet, held in the College Cafeteria at 3:00 P. M., the speaker was Mr. Tom Karsell, Jackson Daialy News. His address was based on newsgathering in Korea and the poor coverage which the American people received during the Korean War.

NEWSPAPER CRITICISM

Members of the newspaper staff of The Mississippian of the University of Mississipi gave valuable criticism on junior college newspapers at the fall press conference.

Editors and reporters were encouraged to improve their papers by using more variety in their headlines, more double columns on the front and editorial pages, avoiding numbers in headlines, using

American Education Week Observed To Mark 35th Year Of Celebration

This is American Education Week. Now in its 35th year of annual observance, this period is being marked throughout the country by varied celebrations and sponsors.

National sponsors of this week are the N.E.A., the American Legion, the U. S. Office of Education, and the National Congress of Parents and Teachers. The purpose of all projects and programs planned for this observance is to keep the public informed of the achievements and needs of public schools, and to secure cooperation and support of the public in meeting needs of the schools.

The general theme set up for the 35th annual observance of the week is "Schools—Your Investment in America."

Supreme Court Strikes Again

The United States supreme court, Monday, struck another crippling blow against the Southern way of life.

In a case involving Baltimore, the high court ruled that segregated public parks and swimming pools are unconstitutional.

At the time this is being written, the court has not handed down their pending decision as to the constitutionality of laws banning interracial marriage.

We believe that the court will rule laws forbidding inter-racial marriage as unconstitutional.

These justices who hold the power of interpretation in their hands, probably feel that they are right in theory.

The practice of integration is another question. There are so many reasons for continuing segregation that we cannot discuss them all here but moral reasons alone are sufficient to convince us that segregation in the South is necessary.

Negroes comprise about half of Mississippi's population. They account for 90 per cent of its crime and more than 90 per cent of its illigitimate children and common law marriages.

This lack of moral standards among negroes is often blamed, and perhaps rightly so, on whites. This does not alter the fact that a definite moral laxity is prevalent in the negro race.

Some of the finest people we know are negroes but neither race can benefit by association in churches, schools, and social activities.

In conclusion we should like to say that the desire of some negroes to integrate with white denotes lack of racial pride. If a person lacks pride in his race then he is indeed to be pitied, for he must be one without pride.

It is interesting to note that although President Eisenhower highly approved the supreme court's 1954 decision that segregated schools are unconstitutional, his own grandchildren go off the army post where there is an integrated school, to attend an all-white school.

Could it be that Major John Eisenhower disagrees with Papa Ike?

Have You Voted?

Voting in the Penny Fair election has been brisk up to this point, according to class officers.

Results of the election will not be released until the crowning of the King and Queen Thursday night. Votes will be accepted until 6:30 p. m. Thursday. Have you voted!

Meridian Gets Jet Base

With official announcement that the U. S. Navy will build a $40,000,000 jet-training base in Lauderdale county, estimate of industrial construction in Meridian and trade territory was raised Saturday to $123,000,000.

Estimates some weeks ago placed the industrial construction figure at $83,000,000, the largest single-year development in area history.

The big naval base passed the previous largest project, a paper mill at Naheola, Ala., to be erected by Marathon Corp., of Menasha, Wis., at a cost to range $30,000,000 and up. — Clarion-Ledger.

Newspaper Folks Have Annual Ball Donald Wants A Date This Week

Dear Ma,

This here has been a good one. I'm is talking bout the week fer shore. I don't know anything else that is good right off. Is you got anything good what happen to you?

Well them folks that plays on the cow pasture is through fer another year. They played in their last game on the last Saturday night. I missed my bath agin last week. Now that they is through them marine type folks can go to home some now and I bet some of them is glad.

Them thare news paper folks went over to a meetin and had themselves a ball and learnt somethin bout newspaperin. Of course I went too. I couldnter missed a thing like that. It wuz fun and I liked it besides.

This here week is been one of them backards weeks and them thare gals is a goin wild. The idea of the thing is fer them gals to ask the boys fer a date and it shore is fun. I ain't been asked yet but it shore is fun a sitin round and a waitin. I reckon they will git around to me fo the week is gone. Most of these here folks feels right at home in a backards week anyways. I ain't sayin nobody is backards but I saw some mighty spicious sines. (It was really a tangent but sine looks better.)

This here is all I cin think of so I will close fer now and do somethin worth while.

Your loving son,

No Liquor For Mississippi By SAM TOLAR

Princess Margaret has given up her lover Peter Townsend, for her church, her country, and her family. George Sokosky called this a "clean and noble act, in a decadent era."

Acting Governor Carroll Gartin has said that Mississippi will not legalize liquor, despite needs for more tax money.

The three American scientists who won the 1955 Nobel prizes were Dr. Vincent du Vingneaud of Cornell University, who received the chemistry award for work on two harmones that help in childbirth and keep check on vital organs; and Dr. Willis E. Lamb of Stanford University, and Dr. Polykarp Kusch of Columbia University who received the physics award for work with atomic measurement.

The U. S. and Russia have finally settled their dispute over churchmen by granting visas for an American priest to go to Moscow and two Russian churchmen to come to this country.

Williard L. Brown, representative of the N. A. A. C. P. of West Virginia, has said, "It's not my job to tell you how to handle your local problems, nor is it my intention to come down here to incite riots or create any disturbances. My mission is merely to inform you generally what your rights are under our Constitution and how you can get them within the framework of the Constitution."

Negroes will insist in the courts here in Mississippi that the University of Mississippi and the public schools be opened them.

Louis Armstrong, famed trumpet player, is planning a trip to Russia to teach American jazz to them.

Med. Center Gives Nursing Program

Advantages offered to medical students by the opening of the new medical school in Jackson recently have been widely publicized.

Perhaps the opportunities to girls who would like to choose nursing as a career have not been so well told to girls in this area conveniently located near the institution.

In the school of nursing a program is now worked out whereby one year of pre-nursing, plus three years of clinical nursing will earn for a student a B.S. degree in nursing from the University of Mississippi.

The one year of pre-nursing study can be done in any approved college. The year includes the fol-

Mary Will McKenzie Wins Annual State Girl's Citizenship Award

State College, Miss. — Mary Will McKenzie, a 4-H Club member of Raymond, has been named state girl's citizenship winner for 1955.

Long an outstanding junior 4-H leader, Mary Will takes an active part in civic and community activities as well.

She served as chairman of her club committee which prepared and delivered 50 boxes of food and clothing to needy people last Christmas. She served in fund raising campaigns for Red Cross, Polio, Crippled Children, TB Christmas seals and many others.

She is also active in the annual clean-up campaign conducted at

Mary Will is a member of the 4-H All Stars and served as chairman of a committee for the Interstate All-Star Conference held at Biloxi last August.

She served for two years as a junior counselor at one of the state's three 4-H Training Centers.

While attending National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago in 1952, Mary Will was selected to present aan assortment of garden seeds to the Phillipine representative. The seed had been collected from all 48 states in the "Seeds for Asia" program. She attended the Congress that year as state 4-H gardening

As state winner in the citizenship project, Mary Will will receive a certificate of honor and a free trip to State 4-H Round-Up in Jackson, November 15-16, as a guest of the Agricultural Committee of the Jackson Chamber of Commerce.

The certificate is awarded by Thomas E. Wilson of Chicago, who also sponsors two trips to National 4-H Club Congress to be held this year, November 25 through December 2, and two college scholarships valued at $300. Mary Will's record will be entered for these honors.

Instructors Reveal Ideal Traits, Requirements For Model Student

By IRL DEAN RHODES

"What three qualities do you consider requirements for an ideal student?" was the question I asked a number of the teachers on my beat at Hinds Junior College last week.

The teachers in turn would ask "Why?", and I would answer, "For newspaper reasons."

Then the suspense would begin. The teacher being questioned would ponder ideas, contradict them, and then discard them. In the meantime, my pencil was constantly scratching my head. Finally everything exploded. The teacher would begin to express his ideas. My pencil would zoom across the page gasping for breath at the end of each line. The page soon was no longer white, but completely covered with zigzag lines, horizontal lines, and vertical lines.

The off-hand remarks of the interviewed were scribbled across margins and corners. Soon I had facts. They are )and take a hint, students!) as follows:

Dean M. F. Herring believes reasonability along with dependability and industry are the top three qualities for an ideal student.

Prof. A. L. Denton, guidance director and principal of the high school division, says good health, a good mind, and a good attitude are most desirable.

Miss Dauphine Jones, assistant librarian, thinks dependability, honesty, and cooperation are the most important.

High moral character, intelligence, cheerfulness, and friendliness, are the traits admired most by Prof. T. T. Beemon, biology

Mr. John S. Virden, dean of men, likes the student who is original in his thinking and expressions, but considerate of group opinion and rights; the student who knows how to smile and laugh - but at the right time; one who works for the betterment of himself, his fellow students, and the institution of which he is a part, one who has an aim in life which will fulfill God's purpose.

Mr. W. C. Oakes, physical education director, thinks emotional maturity, high moral standards, and personal integrity combine to make up the ideal student.

The department of literature, grammar, diagrams, poetry, book reports, conversation, and common sense ( we generally call it English) had something to say. Miss Gertrude Davis named three adjectives to characterize an ideal student: teachable, tractable, and truthful.

Mr. Jobie Harris, head of the history department, gave four qualities as his choice: honesty, integrity, intelligence, and indus-

Basketball Coach Troy Ricks says the ideal student should be cooperative, participate in different activities, and make an honest effort at school work.

The lady who knows all about the Caesars, modern and ancient, Miss Lula Mae Fowler, says the ideal student should be interested, cheerful, and cooperative.

I could go on for days giving you the opinions of your instructors, as to what the traits of an ideal student should be; however, these should be sufficient to make us mindful of the ideals we should strive for.

By IRL DEAN RHODES

It was our pleasure last week to attend the fall annual Mississippi

Junior College press convention at Decatur. While on the East Central campus this writer was guest of Clyde Williams, East Cenand a dyed-in-the tral sports writer wool Warrior supporter.

Last week while discussing former Hinds Junior College football greats we over-looked one of the hetter players to ever wear an Eagle uniform, Don Scully. Don is a first stringer for the L. S. U. Tigers and is one of the outstanding linemen on the team. Don's younger brother, Dick, is a member of the Eagle squad this year.

"The Mississippi All-Time All-Stars," on the hardwood have announced the formation of a basketball team for this season. Some of the players are Howard Sessums, Denver Brackeen, and other former Mississippi cage standouts.

Vicksburg, Crystal Springs, Durant, Starkville, Canton, and Indianola are the top six high school teams in the state in their respective classes as selected by this writer. They are the only undefeated teams in their conferences.

In the Big Eight Conference this week Greenwood and Vicksburg will match for an important game. The winner will most likely take the northern division of the Big Eight Conference.

Australian Davis Tennis Cup star, Lewis Hoad, rejected this week a $56,250 offer to quit the amateur tennis ranks for a professional tour. Hoad's reasons were personal.

HOMER BOYD of the Hinds High Eagles has chalked up 42 points for the Eagles this season. The hardrunning fullback is being backed by his supporters as a candidate for the annual Mississippi All-Star game next summer.

Sportsmanship Displayed By Team

SPORTS EDITORIAL

Another page has been written in the history of Hinds Junior College. The 1955 football season for the Eagles is all history, but we can assure you we have never seen a team fight with such a determination as did our Eagle squad.

The team on the brink of defeat and with the chips down played as a team and never quit until the victory had been achieved.

Their record was not perfect in wins and losses, but in sportsmanship, determination, and a crave to win they were tops in our eyes.

This year our team, though handicapped by injuries and lack of experience, has been a serious threat in the strong Mississippi Junior College Conference. The Eagles have posted a record of five wins against three losses for the season, although one loss was by one point and the remaining two were by only six points.

Last Saturday night 12 of our players played their last Junior College football. It was the last time for Junior Harvey, Jackie Williams, Carlo Fazzio, Joe Collins, Olin Renfroe, Jim Corbett, Tommy Muirhead, Frank Drummonds, Jimmy Taylor, Eugene Britton, Thomas Stricklin, and Willie Eldridge to line up with their Hinds Junior College teammates and hear the whistle blow to begin each game. These players will forget part of their gridiron career; however, there is one thing that they will never forget, and that is that they were Eagles and an Eagle always plays to win.

We would certainly like to commend each player and Coaches Joe Renfroe and Bob Fuerst for demonstrating real sportsmanship and the best courteous and considerate treatment of both loser and winner at all games.

Byram Smashes Baby Eagles 46-0 For Final Encounter of Season

Coach Louis Boteler's Eagles closed the 1955 season this year by taking a 46-0 licking by the Byram Bulldogs here last Friday night.

Halfback Blake Harrison and Fullback Homer Boyd were the top two ground gainers for the losers with 25 and 20 yards respectively.

The Baby Eagles were unable to start any kind of drive against the out-weighed experienced Byram team. Byram picked up nine first downs and the Eagles six while the victorious Bulldogs accounted

Sunflower Wins By Single Point Eagles Last Game

The Sunflower Trojans placed a bad mark on the Hinds Junior College Eagles record last Saturday night by clippin gthe wings of the Eagles 13-12 to close out the 1955 season for both teams in Hinds Memorial Stadium.

It was the third loss of the season for the defending national Junior College Champions against five wins this year. For the Trojans of Sunflower, it was their eighth victory of the season in nine games.

The Eagles took the lead early in the first period to go out front 6-0 and later in the second stanza Hinds racked up their second six-pointer. Sunflower drove their first tally across the goal line in the second period to leave the Eagles out in front of the Trojans 12-6 at the half-time intermission.

In the third quarter neither team could manage to roll offensively. It was late in the final minutes of play when the Sunflower eleven chalked up the final touchdown of the evening to tie the score. The all-important extra point was made on an attempted punt play that ended up a perfect pass to give the Trojans the lead for the first time in the game and the victory.

Quarterback Ernest Breithaupt rallied for the Eagles on the first occasion from five yards out and Halfback Olin Renfroe raced right end for the second Eagle score on a one yard run in the second quarter. Quarterback Nathan Zametto did the scoring damage on both occasions for the Trojans. Zametto passed to Halfback Bobby Stokes for the winning point, after faking a punt.

Hinds was out-played the last half and the Eagles netted only 156 yards in the entire game as compared to 195 for the Trojans. The Eagles led in first downs 11 to 10.

for 205 yards rushing and the Eagles netted 54 yards rushing.

Hinds attempted 13 passes and completed four as compared to the 14 attempted for the visiting Bulldogs and completing five.

Byram was penalized 55 yards and recovered two Eagle fumbles in their easy victory over the Eagles. The Bulldogs lived up to their pre-season selection as the first place team in the Capital Athletic League or at least they did against the Eagles.

The loss was the third of the season for the Eagles coached by Louis Boteler to go along with three wins and two ties this season.

Freshman Candidates Win Election; Bryant, Cowart Reign At Penny Fair

Helen Cowart and James "Bear" Bryant were crowned King and Queen of the Penny Fair as the climax of the annual Penny Fair activities held last Thursday night in the College Auditorium.

Helen of Raymond and "Bear" of Forest Hill were sponsored by the freshman class and were selected over the candidates of the other classes by the system of a penny per vote.

Other members of the Penny Fair court were Nan Lane and Don Thompson, sophomore representatives; Mary Marguerite Hart and Kendall Harris, 12th grade representatives; Norma Jean Carter and Bobby Sheffield, 11th grade representatives; Sara Margaret Smith and Eugene Osborn, 10th grade representatives.

The YWCA sponsors this annual festival, and the proceeds go to the maintenance of the YWCA's yearly budget; a contribution is also made to the World University Service, which distributes it to students in need around the world.

Fun and frolic and entertainment for all reigned supreme Thursday night in the college auditorium as students entered the various booths set up by YWCA members, and enjoyed the refreshments made available by the Y-Teens.

The stage show began at 8:00 p. m. with the coronation ceremonies. The show was based on a Harvest theme which was carried out in the stage decorations. The curtain opened to reveal an autumn moonlight scene with autumn trees of red and brown, a golden harvest moon in the background, and the throne of the King and Queen.

The royal court marched onto the stage to stately strains played on the organ by James Furlow, organist for the program. Mr. Walter Gibbes presented each member of the court and crowned Helen Cowart and "Bear" Bryant, King and Queen of the Penny Fair.

A comedy skit, dance and twirling numbers, and several musical numbers were presented for the entertainment of the Penny Fair court and the large audience. The show was concluded with the audience's participation in the singing of the theme song, "Shine On Harvest Moon."

Lendon Players First Production To Make Its Debut On December 8

The Lendon Players, theatre and Mary Jane Loper. group at Hinds Junior College, are presenting their first major production of the year called "Stage Directions." a series of one-act plays and scenes from full-length plays woven together to make one evening of theatrical entertain-

"Stage Directions" will be presented in the main auditorium of the library building on December 8, 1955, under the direction of R. E. Fleshman. Assistant director for this production is Dick Morgan; student directors are Mickie Farmer

The entire production occurs within the main set, with smaller unit sets inserted for the individual plays. The separate plays and scenes are as follows:

"Aria da Capo" by Edna St. Vincent Millay, one of America's best known poets. This play is unusual in approach, starting with a comic scene based on the Italian Renaissance theatre. During the scene, the stage director interrupts the actors and replaces them with a play of death. The poet, in symbols of modern America and the idiom

Another meeting of interest, Miss Fowler stated, was on the Yalta Papers. Mr. Paul H. Clyde, who lead the discussion, said that the Yalta Papers brought out that much that had been revealed had been indicated by previous publications, and that the press had seen fit to minimize this. The leader said that even though some of the agreements made at Yalta have been proved mistakes from today's viewpoint, Roosevelt had not gone to Yalta without doing his homework, and most of the decisions was the most desirable to be made at that time and with the amount of information then avail-

Business staffs will talk with executives in the advertising field, and business managers will meet with the Detroit Adcraft Club.

Charles F. Ketterling, head of research for General Motors, will be the speaker for a banquet to be held Saturday night at which ACP delegates will be guests of General Motors Corporation.

The ACP was established in 1933 to meet the need in the field of college journalism for reliable advice, criticism, and suggestion. Its headquarters at the University of Minnesota has been directed by Fred L. Kildow of the School of Journalism of that university through a number of years.

The ACP provides criticism and honor ratings for its members. It also periodically sends bulletins to member staffs presenting up-tothe-minute ideas and research findings. It keeps its members informed of what is happening on other campuses and of what other students are saying and thinking.

The Hindsonian has long retained membership in ACP. It has been represented before at the national conference by sponsor and stu-

Beckham Attends Rainbow Meeting; Brookhaven Site

Dot Beckham, of Forest Hill, who is Grand Worthy Advisor of the Order of the Rainbow for Girls in the state of Mississippi made her official visit to Brookhaven Tuesday night for Initiation and Installation services.

This summer she will preside over the Grand Assembly which is a state-wide gathering for all of the assemblies throughout the state. She will also go as a delegate from Mississippi, to El Paso, Texas, to the Supreme Assembly where Rainbow Girls all over the nation meet for a national convention every two years.

Sports Editor at ACP Meeting

This week the Hindsonian proudly announces that our sports editor is attending the ACP conference in Detroit.

Marilyn Simmons, and Nan Ertle.

We are proud of Irl Dean Rhodes. He is capable, cooperative, and hardworking. We feel that before Irl leaves Hinds he will have developed into one of the finest sportswriters that Mississippi junior colleges have ever known.

* * * * * *

English teachers are concerned about the inability of college students to express themselves in writing. Incomplete and jumbled sentences too frequently show up in exam papers.

We feel that the answer to this problem is required journalism courses in connection with the student's major.

Most colleges offer related journalism courses in most fields of study. Why not make these courses compulsory?

To be a success today in any field, one must be able to express oneself clearly in both speech and writing.

The holiday season is upon us. Thanksgiving holidays are next week and Christmas holidays less than a month later.

We do not believe in studying during holidays, but we should certainly learn as much as possible before the Christmas holidays because semester exams come close upon the heels of the New Year.

At Thanksgiving

What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me?

Untold effort and billions of dollars go into public schools such as ours. The best possible personnel available is secured to educate us young Americans.

Our President has won recognition for being able to secure for us equipment, facilities, and faculty which compete favorably with these in any Southern junior college.

He is a leader among educators in the South. Next week he will preside over a group of outstanding schoolmen at Miami, Florida, in the capacity of president of the junior college section of the Southern Association of Colleges and Universities. Accompanying Mr. McLendon to the Miami meeting will be Dean M. F. Herring and Miss Mildred Herrin, Registrar.

We take pride in our school, its personnel — faculty, student body, patrons, and trustees.

At this season we feel special gratitude for all the benefits we enjoy.

Let us give thanks.

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK . . . . . . . By G. M. McLENDON

Every student has the right to believe that he may enter his room and sleep or study in peace. This may not be true at times, but may I suggest that the library is open until 9:30 each week day evening, and that anyone desiring to study may find a place of studious silence. SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

Glenda Rush

This week the members of the HINDSONIAN staff are more than pleased to welcome Glenda Rush to our list of Sophomores of the Week.

Glenda was born in Electric Mills, Mississippi, and now lives in Porterville, Mississippi. She stands 5' 4½" tall and weighs 128 pounds. Her hair and eyes are both brown.

Glenda is majoring in piano and will go to Mississippi Southern or to L.S.U. next year.

Glenda has no favorite music but likes all music that is well performed. She does list Gershwin and Beethoven among her favorites.

Her plans for the future are to do something useful in the field of music and possibly to teach piano.

Cinnamon rolls and coffee along with hamburgers are her favorite foods, Hiking (especially in the fall) and reading almost anything are her favorite pastimes.

If there is such a thing as an amateur psychologist, Glenda fits the bill. She lists this as one of her hobbies along with sewing and politics.

When asked what she thought of boys, she said, "I think they're great!"

This year Glenda is president of the Y.W.C.A., vice-president of the I.R.C., vice-president of the B.S.U., and a member of the Lendon Players, and the Formal Choir. Also among her jobs is co-treasurer of the sophomore class.

She belonged to the same organizations during her freshman year. With all this to do she still finds time to play the piano for assembly.

Asked for remarks on Hinds, Glenda said, "the students at Hinds retain their individuality because of the personal attention they receive. That seems to me to be one of the reasons for the college's high standing. My greatest regret at leaving is to leave all the wonderful people."

Glenda will never make Carnegie Hall with her piano playing but it is only because the hall is being taken down.

Good luck to you and your very bright future, Glenda.

YWCA President Extends Thanks

The YWCA extends sincere thanks to all who had a part in making the Penny Fair a success. To those who gave ideas, time, physical labor, and PENNIES (twelve thousand, two hundred and eighty three), together with folding money, and silver, a total of $154.33, we are deeply grateful.

The Y-Teens, who operated the Side-Walk Cafe, and thereby netted for their budget $37.-70, join us in saying, "Thanks to

SWIPED STORY APPEARS; EDITOR TELLS THE TRUTH

Publishing a paper is no picnic. If we print jokes, people say we are silly; if we don't, they say we are too serious.

If we stick close to the office all day, we ought to be out hunting interesting things to print; if we go out and try to hustle, we ought to be on the job in the office.

If we don't accept contributions we don't appreciate genius; and if we do print them, the paper is filled with junk.

If we edit the other fellow's story we are too critical; if we don't we are asleep. If we clip things from other papers, we're too lazy to write them; if we don't, we're stuck with our own stuff. Some will say we swiped this article, and we did!

ANN'S ANNALS

By ANN JOHNSON

Last Thursday night a group of Hinds students, accompanied by Mr. Robert Fleshman, attended the Millsaps Players' presentation of "Cyrano de Bergerac." According to those who attended, the play was a huge success.

Tomorrow night, BSU members plan to attend Youth Night of the BSU convention held at the City Auditorium in Jackson.

Miss Lula Mae Fowler recently attended the 21st Annual Meeting of the Southern Historical Association, held at Memphis, Tennessee.

Those of you who have season tickets to the concerts sponsored by the Jackson Music Association, don't forget that the second concert will be tonight at the City Auditorium in Jackson.

Last Thursday morning the organ students, accompanied by members of the music faculty, attended an organ recital by Mr. Cochran Penick, Associate Professor of Music at MSCW, at the Mississippi School for the Blind in Jackson.

The Walter N. Taylor Chapter of Future Teachers of America has renewed its charter with the National Future Teachers Association. The club now has twelve active members and invites anyone who is interested in any phase of teaching to join the organization.

Those students and teachers who attended the Ringling Bros. Barnum and Bailey Circus last Monday report a fine time. There is a difference in opinion as to who enjoyed the elephants and peanuts the most — the students — or the teachers! Anyway those of us who went Monday night had a freezing good time!

The Twirp Week and Backward Dance were both a great success. Thanks are due that one who placed the suggestion for these in the suggestion box and to all those who helped put over this enjoyable event. Special thanks go to Mr. Oakes, Mrs. Bee, Miss Brantley, and Mr. Morris for their valuable assistance.

Every worthwhile suggestion placed in the box and signed, will receive the careful attention of thosein charge.

Freshmen and sophomores were in closer competition than they knew for king and queen honors at the Penny Fair. Professor L. K. Clark, official custodian of funds, announced $51.39 for freshmen, and $45.01 for sophomores, shortly before the coronation ceremonies began.

For the high school classes, the 10th grade led with a total of $14.25, doubling the contributions from the other two grades.

The Thanksgiving girls' field hockey game will be held Wednesday, November 16, between Main and Westside Dormitories. It should be a hair-pulling event, so don't forget to be there.

And to close, here is something that should interest everyone. Thanksgiving holidays will officially begin at 12 o'clock Wednesday, November 23.

Thanksgiving dinner, Tuesday at five;

Turkey, et cetera, Sakes alive!!! We'll be there dressed In our Sunday best.

Hotshots Appear On Hinds Stage

The Hinds "Hotshots," the campus jazz band, appeared in assembly Tuesday morning. The members of this organization include: Charlie Wicker, trumpet; Larry Ziegler, clarinet; Mr. Al Rowen, trombone; Don Thompson, string bass; Jon Turnage, drums and James Furlow, piano

Among their selections were: "I Don't Care If The Sun Don't Shine," "Margie", "When The Saints Go Marching In", "Way Down Yonder In New Orleans", "Shake, Rattle, and Roll."

Sports Program Well Underway

Mr. W. C. Oakes, Recreational Director at Hinds Junior College, is conducting a number of intramural sports on our campus.

The groups have been divided into six sections and each section will have a basketball team. The teams will play a tournament at various intervals this season.

Mr. Oakes has appointed two managers for each team and the managers will be in charge of their teams. One of their duties will be securing officials for the games.

Emphasis will be placed on both individual and team competition. Other than basketball, students have an opportunity to participate in volley ball, softball, tennis, touch football, ping pong, and many other minor intramural sports.

Under the direction of Mrs. Ann Gookin, girls' Physical Education Director, Westside and Main Dormitories clash this afternoon in a hard-fought, entertaining field hockey game on the practice footballfield.

The girls are also fostering a tumbling team to perform during the half-time of home college basketball games.

Besides the gymnasium for indoor sports, two athletic fields are provided for football, baseball, and track. Also, space is set apart for girls' clock golf, croquet, soccer, and horseshoes. Concrete tennis courts are provided for students.

Hinds High Eagles Meet Utica Waves

The Hinds High Eagles and Eaglettes will meet the strong Utica basketball teams in the Utica gymnasium next Tuesday night.

The Eaglettes have gained much strength in both defense and offense. Those trying out for the team include Winnie Smith, Ann Boyd, Clara Murrah, Sara Smith, Nancy Chapman, Martha Wade, Ellene Varner, Mary Hart, Jimmie Stingley, and L'tene Grey.

The Eagles, suffering from the loss/of several players, are being drilled by Coach Louis Boteler. Donald Anderson, Homer Boyd, Blake Harrison, Randolph Smith, Tommy Lynch, Don Campbell, Don Trotter, Johnny Oberhousen, Bobby Sheffield, Charles Causey, Eugene Osborne, Willie Worrell, Norris Moody, Bill Ferguson, Donnie Sheffield, Miles Ray Goode, and Tommy Ray Cox are trying out for the team.

The finest gesture we have heard of lately was made by Johnny Sellers, a civic minded citizen of Jackson, who offered a contribution of $10,000 towards the construction of a dam across Pearl River to assure the City of Jackson an adequate water supply and furnish some fine recreational facilities for boating and fishing. The total cost of the dam will be $61,000.

"The Professional Golfer of the Year," is Doug Ford of New York as selected by the Professional Golfers Association this past week. Ford received 230 votes as compared to the 190 for his nearest opponent.

Fred Russell, sports editor of the Nashville Banner, spoke at the Jackson Touchdown Club this past Monday night. We consider Russell one of the two best sports writers South of the Mason-Dixon line. The other is Bill O'Keefe of New Orleans.

If you have plenty of dough and if you are real-sports minded here is your chance. In the Pacific Coast League the San Francisco Seals franchise is for sale for $90,000 plus taking over the club's $200,000 debts.

Two Mississippi football players are being mentioned on the All-American gridiron team this year. Halfback Arthur Davis of the Mississippi State Maroons and Fullback Paige Cothern of the Ole Miss Rebels are the two being eyed for top honors.

The Sunflower Trojans of Moorhead and San Angelo, Texas, will be the teams to play in Gulfport's initial Hospitality Bowl game for junior colleges in Mississippi and Texas. The Laurel Lions Bowl has been discontinued this season due to lack of interest.

Last Friday night in a practice game the Hinds Junior College basketball team were edged by the Delta State Greenies 43-42 and from all accounts a one lady cheering section represented the home standing Eagles. We were unable to attend the game, although we understand Buck Smith received much praise for the 23 points he scored by this certain freshman girl.

By the time this column reaches the peepers of the reader this writer will be headed for Detroit, Michigan, to attend the Associated Collegiate Press Convention with the hope of securing valuable information to help make the Hindsonian a better newspaper for the students of Hinds Junior College.

Waiting For Next Year.

Eagles' Basketball Team Prenaring; Play In Florida Invitational Tourney

The Hinds Junior College Eagles basketball team started regular drills last week with only two returning lettermen on hand for practice

Coach Troy A. Ricks has nineteen basketball candidates out for practice preparing for their first game of the season on November 29 and the Pensacola Invitational Basketball Tournament on December 16 and 17

The returning two lettermen are Melvin Oakes 6' 1" of Redwood and Julian Sandifer 6' 4" of Jackson, a guard and forward respectively. Sandifer played for the Eagles three years ago before going into the army

Newcomers to the squad this year are Jack Golden, a 6' 8" spohomore transfer from L.S.U. and is expected to play center for the Eagles this year; Buck Smith 6' 5", a senior; Dick Axtell 5' 11" freshman from Madison; Gary Everett 5' 11" freshman from Cross Roads; and John Lancaster 6' 2" freshman from Raymond. Smith and Lancaster are forwards and Axtell and Everett are guards.

Four of the top candidates are Guards Bobby Lee 5' 11" and Jerry Ivy 5' 101/2" of Clinton and Forward Tommy Vance 6' 2" and Center Gordon "Moose" Merritt 6' 5" of Forest Hill. All four of these players were top performers in the finals of the State Class A-AA basketball tournament last year. Clinton won the State Class A-AA championship and the Forest Hill team was runner-up.

Other candidates' on the squad are Jimmy Taylor, 6' guard of Baton Rouge, Willis Steenhuis 5' 11" of Jackson, Wayne Winstead 6' of Cross Roads, James Sassar 5' 11" and Dan Nichols 6' both of Jackson, Glen McClelland 5' 10"

Girls Basketball Schedule Complete

The Hinds Junior College girls basketball team has a record of one win and one defeat in two games this season after being voted into the Jackson Commercial Basketball League.

The first victory was over Jitney Jungle by a slim 48-46 margin in an overtime affairs and this past Monday night the Eaglettes were edged 57-55 by the Belhaven team.

Gwen Post has deposited 67 points and Ruth Boone has chalked up 14 points in each game. Frances Bliss rounds out the list of starting forwards.

Patty Carter, Buth Martin, and Jane Pickett complete the list of guards

Other candidates are Joy Ann Worley, Emma Lou Roland, Georganne Burton, Sybil Ann Beasley, Alicia Gabie, Sylvia McWilliams, Madga Sidergest, Betty Berryhill, Frances Barker, Marlene Dodd, and Dot Gill. Gill is the only player returning from the team last year. Mrs. Ann Gookin is coaching the girls team this year.

Students Advance In Tennis Meets

Gwen Post, Flora Roberts, Kate Gonia, Mary Louise Baker, and Jo Ann Foshee are the leading players in the annual college intramural tennis tournament now being staged on the Hinds campus.

Post defeated Mary Lou Kersh, a member of the 1955 team, this week to advance to the semi-finals of the top bracket by two 6-3 winnings.

Roberts will meet either Vickie Simmons or Jane Pickett in the second rounds of the lower top bracket. Gonia will clash with Helen Cowart or Georgia Ann Burton in the second rounds of the top lower bracket.

of Terry, Melvin White 5' 7" of Raymond, and Morris Currie 5' 11" of Utica.

HINDS HIGH EAGLES — The team pictured above has completed the season with a record of three wins, two ties, and three losses. ## Accident Is Fatal To Hinds Student

A Hinds auto mechanic student, Jerry Manning, was fatally injured in a highway accident on November

The accident occurred on Highway 80, east of Vicksburg, where Manning was enroute to his home in Jackson.

He was crushed between his car and another eastbound automobile while pushing his car, which had stalled, off the highway.

Manning had turned the lights off on his car and the driver of the approaching auto did not see him in time to stop.

He was taken to the Mercy hospital in Vicksburg, where he died fourteen hours later.

Jerry was 24 years old and a veteran of the Korean war. He had been a student at Hinds since September 8, 1955.

He is survived by his wife who resides in Jackson.

Concert Rendered Students Attend

Menotti's operas, "The Medium" and "The Telephone," were presented Wednesday night, November 16, in the Jackson City Auditorium. These operas, which were sponsored by the Jackson Music Association, were attended by a number of HJC students who were in possession of concert series tickets.

"The Telephone," a modern opera, served as a curtain-raiser for "The Medium," a melodrama starring Marie Powers, Both operas were in English.

Miss Powers, who is called the reigning empress among the singing actresses of the present time, created the role of Madame Flora in "The Medium" when it first opened on Broadway. She went on from New York to repeat her success in London and Paris and other world capitals.

Monica, daughter of Madame Flora, was sung by Basel Landia. The part of Toby, a mute gypsy boy, was played by Richard Astor.

Staff Members At Miami Beach

President G. M. McLendon, Mr. M. F. Herring, Dean of Instruction, and Miss Mildred Herrin, Registrar, left Thanksgiving morning for Miami, Florida, to attend the annual meeting of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

The meeting is being held at the Delano Hotel, Miami Beach. Mr. McLendon as president of the junior college section of the Association is directing its programs. The group expects to return at the end of the week.

Yule Tide Program By Music Group

The Music Department will present its Christmas program on Thursday night, December 15 at 8 o'clock p. m. The program will be held in the Main Auditorium and will be in three parts.

The first part will include excerpts from Handel's Messiah, both solos and choruses. The second part will be presented by the Formal Choir and will consist of choral selections, including chorales and less well-known carols.

The closing section will be a Christmas concert by the Eagle Band. The concert will include several Yuletide numbers with some vocal solos interspersed. There will also be several selections on the newly-installed organ.

The program is open to the public and both the student body and general public are invited. There will be no admission charged.

Who's Who Contest Is Scheduled; Nominations Set For Thursday

Nominations for Hinds Junior College's 1955-56 Who's Who election will be held Thursday, December 1. All students are urged to participate in the nominations and in the election, which will be held in the near future.

Polls will open in the Administration Building at 8 o'clock in the morning and remain open until 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Candidates are to be chosen from the regularly enrolled college students of the sophomore and freshman classes.

Candidates for Miss H. J. C. and Mr. H. J. C. are chosen from the sophomore class. Election to these two positions represents the highest honor students can bestow on their fellow college mates, chosen for their high qualities of character, scholarship, participation in constructive activities and service to their fellowmen.

Hi-Steppers Given Public Acclaim Winsome Qualities Pointed Out

By IRL DEAN RHODES

Beauty, talent, and brains are the three nouns that chiefly describe 25 of the most admired young ladies on the campus of Hinds Junior College, the nationally famous Hinds Hi-Steppers.

The Hi-Steppers, although only five years old, have gained national recognition for their precision dance team, the colorful routines, with costumes to match, and the poise possessed by the two dozen petite lassies.

The history of the Hi-Steppers is brief. The Hi-Steppers performed for the first time during the 1950 football season under the direction of Don Key and Grace Shurden, band director and student dance instructor respectively.

"Not only is the Hi-Stepper course designed for a precision dance group but for self-improvement of each individual in the group," states Mrs. Anna Bee, director of the Hi-Steppers for the past four years. The high standards of the group is a credit to the school, county, and state. After having been a member of the brilliant dance team, each girl is a better individual.

MRS. BEE INSTRUCTS

Mrs. Anna Bee, the Hi-Steppers' pleasing-to-the-eyes, attractive instructor, receives a six weeks training course in New York each summer and the Hi-Steppers receive the benefit of her John Robert Powers modeling course. Mrs. Bee has been selected on the faculty to instruct dance teachers and educators of America at their convention in New York this December.

Besides being a dance show team, the Hi-Steppers learn some of the finer points in life. The selfimprovement course is devoted to their dress and many personal qualities. In order to come in the Hi-Stepper category one must sacrifice and give of social time to practice long hours. This is especially true during football season. One can spot the Hi-Steppers on the campus by a little observation. Though many hours are devoted to high stepper practicing, exactly one-half of the Hi-Steppers are on the honor roll.

The Hi-Steppers have been showered with compliments and high praise from many geographical points in the United States.

In elaborating on a subject as interesting as good looking dames and special people, we are going to point out the traits of a perfect Hi-Stepper.

PERFECT HI-STEPPER

The perfect Hi-Stepper would need the beauty, hair, and measurements (34-22-34) of Carolyn Wright, high school Homecoming Queen and recipient of a New York TV offer; and the personality and dependability of Bebe Epperson, Alternate State Travel Queen. The truly perfect Hi-Stepper possesses the graciousness of Martha Gillespie, past State FFA Sweetheart,

Students are to start revising their schedules for the new semester next Monday morning, December 7. At this time the registrar's office will welcome all students who wish to study their program of work and make official changes for the second semester. The students are warned that Friday, January 20, will be the deadline for schedule changes.

Editorial Comments

Heartfelt sympathy from Hinds Junior College goes out to Holmes today at the news of the sudden and untimely death of their president, Mr. C. W. Lorance.

Did you notice the thought for the week by President Mc-Lendon in the last issue of the Hindsonian?

We think it's a good idea and of real value to students.

We are proud to have the President as a contributor to the Hindsonian.

We apologize to Mr. Butler for missing him in our review of new faculty members. It was an honest error that is corrected in this issue.

Happy to have you with us, Mr. Butler.

* * * * * * * * * With reserve units wooing Hinds students on every hand, we think someone should speak a word of caution.

There are some small advantages in joining the reserve, however, you should not join a reserve unit unless you are prepared to be the first to enter active service in an emergency.

When the Korean war broke, some reserve units were shipped overseas within four weeks.

They were largely unprepared and were slaughtered like cattle.

Many of these men were school boys who would not have reached draft age for some time.

Suggestions: not from the suggestion box.

Chapel programs need to be livelier, one male student thinks, so he suggests that we get Marilyn Monroe for a long program.

Christmas holidays should last until February 1st. (That's after semester exams).

Math courses should be discontinued after the multiplication tables are learned. (Some students never learn them).

The juke box in the grill should be kept turned low early in the morning and remain open until 2 o'clock in the afternoon. headache man).

MARTHA GILLESPIE

GILLESPIE IN CHICAGO HINDS CLUB WINNER

This week Martha Gillespie is a guest in the Conrad-Hilton Hotel, Chicago, attending the 4-H Club Congress. Martha is top winner in Mississippi 4-H project achievement. Her club record in overall project achievement over a period of nine years was judged best in the state, and it won for her the trip to Chicago and a week filled with many planned entertainments.

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK -

Don Thompson

By BILL LILES

Usually when a Hindsonian staff member is chosen Sophomore of the Week, there is an editor's note at the top of the article explaining that while good old So-And-So had his busy or her busy back turned the other staff members voted him or her "Sophomore of the Week."

We can't do that this year because Don knew shortly ahead of time, we had to get a picture of him. He protested modestly (feebly?) of course, saying he didn't deserve it, but we are doing it anyway.

But, on with the article. (Don usually writes these things and they go something like this.)

This week the Hindsonian is proud to present to you Donald Thompson of Vicksburg as our Sophomore of the Week.

Don is a veteran, a bachelor, a musician, a veteran campaigner in school elections, and a darn nice guy.

He has held all sorts of offices in the different clubs and religious organizations on the campus. Don always seems to hold a class office too. We don't have a complete list of his accomplishments in the different organizations here but this list is a long one. Besides these activities Don is engaged in Hindsonian work as associate editor; he is active in the Naval Reserve; and is a correspondent for the Vicksburg Post-Herald, where his by-line is a familiar one.

Don is majoring in math and in phychology (makes good grades, too). He hopes to teach when he finishes college. He hasn't quite made up his mind as to where to go to school next year.

Kersh Presents IRC Program

"Formosan Warfare" was the title of the program presented by program chairman, Mary Lou Kersh, when the International Relations Club met Thursday night, November 17, 1955.

The next meeting will be held Thursday night, December 1, 1955. The pictures for the annual will be made and all members are urged to attend the friendly modest spirit of Joy Zeringue, the good-naturedness of Dot Roper, and the admirable eyes of Sissy Graham to round out a top notch individual.

Carolyn Ray Bourne exhibits a true courteous eagerness; and Nona Mae Williams gives a neat reticent sincere smile to the cause, while Pat Young adds a friendly ambitious personality; and to complete the list of regulars, Minnie Louise Evans adds efficiency and co-operation.

Mrs. Bee judges each girl on all of these points when she holds tryouts. Hence you have to know how to bend, stretch, and dance, Sister, plus much more in order to make the desired grade.

As has been seen in the above paragraphs, previous experience has been enjoyed by most of the members of the musical-comedy dance show team. Although it is not necessary, it is an asset. Popularity seems to be the keynote to the program or at least most of the Hi-Steppers have had numerous honors bestowed upon them.

When you hear the men begin to whistle, the people begin to cheer, and the snappy Eagle marching band coming down the street, you say, "Watch out folks here comes the well-known Hinds Hi-Steppers."

HINDS NEW FACULTY_

Walter Butler

Walter Butler, former head of the chemistry department at Sunflower Junior College, has joined the staff of Hinds Junior College.

Mr. Butler attended Jones Junior College. Upon his graduation he entered Millsaps and graduated with a B. S. degree in chemistry. He received his master's degree from Mississippi Southern College.

He taught science in the Jones County Public Schools. He worked at Oakridge, Tennessee, as a chemist for the Carbide and Carbon Company, a division of the Union Carbide Corporation. His work consisted of a secret project at Oakridge. After the completion of this project, he went to Sunflower where he taught two years, then he came to Hinds.

During World War II, he served aboard nineteen different ships with an amphibius organization.

Two of his favorite pastimes are fishing and hunting. He is married and has a three year old son, David. He and his family reside on the campus.

Writer Reports Trip To Detroit; Snowy Reception Given Hindsonian

By IRL DEAN RHODES

With a brisk cold wind and flurries of snow, I arrived at Detroit, Michigan, home of the automobile world, November 17.

My mission was to represent The Hindsonian at the annual Associated Collegiate Press Conference. A total of 794 delegates attended the conference representing 33 states, District of Columbia, and Canada. It was the largest number ever to attend the ACP meet.

On Thursday, we had the privilege of touring the Ford Motor Company plant, the River Rouge, and we were guests of the company for luncheon that day. In the evening, Chrysler Motor Corporation was our host for a delightful buffet supper and reception. The speaker for the occasion was Max Schulman, well-known columnist. His topic was, "So You Want to Be a Writer, You Fool You!"

Most of Friday I spent in meetings. In the morning sessions I attended a meeting on the subject, "Copy Reading and Head-

Independent Team Plays Bagby Hall

Suffering from their second defeat the Hinds girls will be out for revenge when they play Bagby Hall of Jackson Thursday night.

The Hinds Girls' Independent basketball team lost their second game of the season to the N&W Independent team of Jackson in the Air Base gymnasium on Monday night, November 21. Girls starting as forwards were Gwen Post, captain, Ruth Boone, and Frances Bliss. Ruth Martin, Sylvia McWilliams, and Jane Pickett were the starting guards.

Fighting a close battle all the way, the two teams were tied 40 to 40 in the last minute of the game. N&W chalked up on free shots and deposited a field goal. The Hinds tem took possession of the ball and sacked a basket before the buzzer sounded and the game ended with Hinds trailing 42 to 44.

line Writing." Earlier I heard an address by Royce Howes, associate editor of the Detroit Free Press.

The afternoon schedule consisted of the subjects, "Some Knows for News" and "The Lead Paragraph: Write it Right."

Friday night our schedule was open. So I took the town of Detroit in. And it took me!

Saturday, the final day of the conference was crowded full of events. The early morning scene outside my window at the Statler Hotel was one of fine snow.

Titles of Saturday morning meetings were "The Editorial Page," and "Putting Personality into Feature Writing and Columns." The afternoon meetings I particularly enjoyed were a "College Editors Panel," and "Magazine and Newspaper Makeup" and a "Typography Clinic."

The feature address of the conference was that on Saturday night by Charles F. Ketterling, 79-year-old Research Consultant, a director of General Motors Corporation. This was delivered at the banquet given the conference delegates by General Motors.

Following the banquet a dance at the Tuller Hotel closed the events of the ACP conference, a truly wonderful conference. After the dance I boarded the train for my long journey of 1050 miles back home.

I certainly enjoyed the trip. Though an inexperienced delegate, I felt that I represented a junior college second to none.

The conference was a very memorable experience for me. I received valuable information in the field of journalism. I hope that the good will be reflected in a better and perhaps a bigger Hindsonian in time to come.

Delegate Attends Council Meeting

The local Wesley Foundation was represented at the State Methodist Student Movement Council Meeting by its president, Ann Johnson. The meeting was held at Mississippi State College, Starkville, Mississippi, November 25 and 26.

The first session began at 12 noon Friday and lasted until 5:00 p. m. At 6:30 Friday night, the council again met and adjourned at 9:00 p. m. The closing session began at 8:00 Saturday morning and closed at 10:30.

The members of the Council attended the State-Ole Miss football game that afternoon. Ann attended the meeting as ex-officio member of the State MSM Council, and representative from the Jackson District.

Plans were made at the meeting for future events concerning the State Methodist Student Movement. The Spring Conference was planned for February 10-12, 1956, and will be held this year on the MSCW campus at Columbus, Mississippi. The theme for the Conference will be "Conversion — From What — To What," and the speaker will named "Player of the Year" by LOOK magazine. Davis will fly to New York with 21 other selections by LOOK magazine to be honored mext month. This is certainly a great honor for the state of Mississippi and the entire South.

The big game in Mississippi football season each year is over and the Ole Miss Rebels blanked the Mississippi State Maroons 26-0. The Rebels will play in the Dallas Cotton Bowl against Texas Christian on January 2. We are born rooters of the cow college team, although this is hoping the Johnny Rebels will cop the Cotton Bowl Classic.

Welterweight Champion Carmen Basilio will meet ex-welterweight champion Tony DeMarco tonight (Wednesday) in a 15 round bout for the Welterweight championship of the World.

If you are interested in seeing the two best high school teams in the state clash go out to Hinds Memorial Stadium and see the undefeated and untied Vicksburg Greenies and the once defeated Brookhaven Panthers lock horns Friday night for the Big Eight football championship.

iMssissippi Southern's 21-6 victory over the Florida State University proved that they are ready for membership in the South Eastern Conference. A match between State and Southern or Ole Miss and Southern would really be a card drawer if played in Jackson or any other point in Mississippi.

Deer season opened last week in Mississippi and numbers of people from this area have been trying their luck at the wild four legged animals; however, we have not heard of too many deer being killed or too many shirt tails being cut off. An estimated 1,000 deer will be killed in Mississippi this year.

Carl Walters, Sports Editor of the State Times, has been invited to the annual celebration of the All-American LOOK magazine football players for the second time. Walters is the only Mississippi sports writer ever to receive the honor.

The Jackson City Auditorium will be the site of the Hinds Junior College's second basketball game of the season tonight against the "All Time All Stars" in Mississippi. This is not a conference game, never-the-less our hard working basketball team needs your whole-hearted support at all times.

JUMPING JACK, shown above is Jack Golden, 6' 8" center, of the Hinds Junior College Eagles this year. Golden will play his second game in an Eagle uniform in the Jackson City auditorium tonight when the Eagles play host to Scooba. The star center was outstanding in the City League of New Orleans and is a transfer from LSU where he was outstanding on the LSU freshman basketball team last year. Golden considers Mandeville, Georgia, his hometown.

The Jones Bobcats are California bound to the Junior Rose Bowl game. We truly hope the Bobcats do as much for the Mississippi Junior College football program as the defending national champions, the Hinds Eagles, did last year. It would certainly add prestige to our state for a Mississippi team to win the national honor for two years in a row.

Big Earl Leggett, former Hinds Junior College line star and one of the best tackles in the South Eastern Conference, is losing most all of his legal rights during the Christmas holidays. Leggett is getting married. All we have to say about the LSU tackle is that his bride-to-be is really getting a goodnatured giant size man as far as physical structure is concerned.

Hinds Cagers Play In Jackson Tonite All-Star Opponent

The Hinds Junior College basketball team will play their second game of the season tonight in the Jackson City Auditorium against the Mississippi All-Time All-Stars.

Last night the Eagles traveled to Scooba and played one of the strongest basketball teams in North Mississippi as far as Mississippi Junior College basketball is concerned.

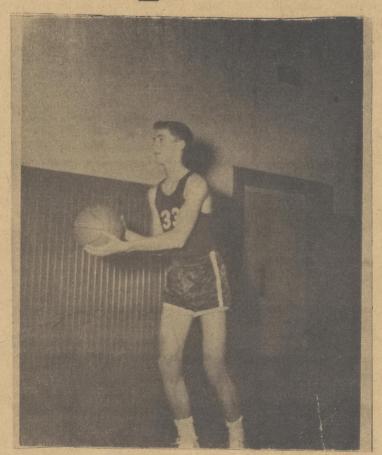

Coach Troy Ricks will start Jack Golden at center, Jerry Ivy and Bobby Lee at guards, and Bobby "Buck" Smith and Julian Sandifer or Tommy Vance at forwards.

Also expected to see action for the Eagles will be Center Gordon "Moose" Merritt, Guard Dick Axtell, Guard Melvin Oakes, and Forward John Lancaster.

The next conference game the Eagles play will be next Tuesday night with Scooba moving in to furnish opposition.

Other players making the trip to Scooba Tuesday night were Gary Everett, Willis Steenhuis, Wayne Winstead, James Sassar, Dan Nichols, and Glen McClelland.

Sports

SHARP SHOOTING Bobby Lee is pictured as he aims for the goal. Lee is a freshman guard on the Eagles team and is 6' tall. He is a member of the 1955 Class A-AA state championship team, made All-State last year, and played in the Mississippi All-Star game this past summer. Lee is one of the members of the Clinton team that carried his team to the state over-all finals last year. The one-two punch was formed by Lee and Jerry Ivy last year and both players are members of the Eagle team this year.

Rush, Kersh, Oakes, And Thompson Top Nominees In Who's Who Contest

Glenda Rush and Mary Lou Kersh have been nominated for the coveted position of Miss H. J. C. while Melvin Oakes and Don Thompson are up for election as Mr. H. J. C., after an extra heavy vote on a rainy, unpleasant day proved the interest of Hinds students in their annual Who's Who election. Nominations for all the campus positions were made by secret ballot, and the first primary elections will be held tomorrow, December 8, beginning at 8 o'clock. The voting will take place in the lobby of the Administration Building. The precincts will be open until 2 p. m. In case of need for a second primary election, the run-off will be Friday, December 9.

After the results of the nominations were tabulated, the following were selected:

The Lendon Players To Present Five One-Act Plays Thursday Night

Members of the production committees have been working early and late these days in last minute preparations for Thursday night.

At eight o'clock tomorrow night the curtains will open on the first theatrical performance of the season by the Lendon Players, a presentation of five one-act plays.

"Stage Directions" will be presented in the main auditorium of the library building under the direction of R. E. Fleshman. Assistant director for this production is Dick Morgan; student directors are Mickie Farmer and Mary Jane within the main set, with smaller unit sets inserted for the individual plays. The separate plays and scenes are as follows:

The entire production occurs

"Aria da Capo" is unusual in approach, starting with a comic scene based on the Italian Renaissance theatre. During the scene the stage director interrupts the actors and replaces them with a play of death. The poet, in symbols of modern America and the idiom of the people, makes her statement of the senselessness of war.

"Ye Tragedie of Pyramus and Thysbe," is the comic play-withinthe-play from Shakespeare's "Mid-

Editorial Comments

The high percentage of students voting in the nomination balloting for the Who's Who of Hinds was indeed gratifying.

The election is set for tomorrow, Thursday. Let us give serious thought to the selection of students for the honors.

These campus elections are important. They reflect the attitudes of the students, they select representatives of the whole student body, and they very deeply affect the persons selected for the honors.

When you cast your vote, make sure it is for the person whom you really believe to be the one who best deserves it.

We are sincerely sorry for the concern caused by last week's editorial cautioning students to be sure before joining a reserve unit.

We intended the editorial to be only a word of caution, and certainly did not intend any discredit to any branch of our armed forces.

This writer has himself been a member of the National Guard, the Air Force, and the Army, and is at the present time investigating the possibility of several reserve outfits.

We must apologize for our inability to express ourselves clearly.

The season for Christmas seals is here. Money given in past years has gone a long way toward controlling the dread disease of tuberculosis. But the fight is not over, money is needed, and needed badly to help prevent, cure and control T. B.

Let us give generously to this worthy campaign.

Someone suggested that we should have another position listed on our Who's Who ballot — that of "most unpopular student."

Thought of the Week

From the high percentage of our students who are not passing all their work, it is evident that proper lesson preparation is not being made. Let me urge each student of Hinds Junior College to consider arranging a daily time schedule. We insist that a proper distribution of each twenty-four hours would provide ample time for rest, recreation, and preparation.

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

Hermanell Hearn

By DON THOMPSON

I'm back after a week off! I should like to thank the staff for the honor. I would like to know where Bill got his information. Wow!

Well the vacation is over and I should like to introduce you to Miss Hermanell Hearn of Vicksburg Mississippi. Nell is 5' 7½" of hard working heart. Yes, I mean just that. She never seems to have too much to do to keep her from helping anyone else. She is majoring in secretarial science, but is not sure about further education.

Her hobbies are reading, collecting dimes, and talking. I don't know what she reads but I have found out about the talking. I'm looking for another left arm now. As for those dimes, I'll take all the old dollar bills that are laying around. I asked her to tell me what she had to say about boys and I got the following quotation, "Gee!" I give up, what does she mean?

Last year Hermanell played basketball and softball, was president of the Modern Language Club, and was a member of the I.R.C. as well as the Phi Theta Kappa. This year she is Y.W.C.A. secretary, Phi Theta Kappa secretary, and the secretary of the Sophomore Class. (No wonder she can afford to collect dimes.)

Hermanell says, "I like Hinds because of the friendly atmosphere about the campus, not only among the students but among students and teachers as well."

She weighs 130 pounds but I think it should be 1300 because she gave me the following menu for her favorite food: "Fried Chicken, vegetable salad, French fried potatoes, and just about everything else."

Our Sophomore of the Week this week is the only member of the class that really looks good behind bars. Walk by the Business Office sometimes and see for yourself. Good luck to you and to all that you hold dear, Hermanell Hearn.

Comments On Who Is Who Contest;

Worm Daze Lass Week On Campus

Dear Ma,

You know them thare slips that got our grades on them? Well, bless their hearts, them thare gals what works in the office got them out to us this last week. I hope they didn't think that they were doin me a favor cause I got right sick to my stomach when I seen that thare thing.

Us folks dod some nominatin lass week and we shore did have some funny type names. Some body is got to change their name to a Mr. and a Miss H.J.C. Now if you can tell me what they is a meenin I will be glad to know. They tell me that this here thing is called a Who is Who Contest and I wants to know just who is who. Is it you, or is it me?

Shore did have some nice worm daze lass week too. Had to take them thare long-handles off fer the hole week. I'm all ways glad to see that thare worm daze cause, well cause I duz. And Duz does everything.

Them play folks is a gonna give a play over here tomorrow nite and they should be great. We ain't been able to git nothin but play from them folks fer quite a while now. They ought to be good at it by now.

Ma, you know it shore a strange thing that nobody ever comes around the office to tell us newspaper folks that they like that thare paper we prints or nothin, nothin but just let that thare Bill say somethin bout somebody and everbody is a writin him a letter. That boy, gits mo mail than you duz and you know about Duz.

Them band type folks shore air doin some marchin this week. They had two parades and they wuz both fer good old Santa. Iffin you wuz in Yazoo City or in Vicksburg one you would a seen one ofem.

Ma, wuz you a watchin the televersion lass Saturday? Some gal sang to me a song and it shore wuz pretty. Ah ma, you know that thare Stuart gal what sings in the programs all the time. Shore, thats the one!

Did you see my picture in the paper lass week? Well if you did I'm sorry and if you didn't/I promise you that I didn't have anything to do with it. Them thare folks stabbed me in the back when I had my head turned. I wonts to thank everyone that had anything to do wiff it though and I wont to remind you that we ain't that hard off yet.

Well ma, this here air it. I ain't had no sleep since my last class and I'm most near dead.

Your loving son,

Tea At Westside Begins Christmas On HJC Campus

With the Christmas tea at Westside yesterday afternoon, the program of Christmas activities on the campus was begun.

Door Decorations

The Art Club, sponsored by Mrs. A. L. Denton, is directing the door decorations in Westside. Prizes will be awarded for first, second, and third choices of the best decorated doors, and honorable mentions will be announced. Doors will be judged on originality of theme, and best portrayal of Christmas spirit.

Lamplighters

The Lamplighters, college Home Economics Club, sponsored by Miss Fleta Whitaker, is in charge of Christmas decorations in Main. This group will schedule a tea in Main on the afternoon of Wednesday, December 14, from four to five o'clock. To this all students and faculty members are invited. Lamplighters will have the door decorations in Main judged and award prizes in that building immediately after the Christmas Musicale.

Y-Teens

The Y-Teens, under the direction of Miss Christine Berry will have charge of the cafeteria decorations for the Christmas dinner at five o'clock, December 14.

B.S.U

The B.S.U. will take a bus load of their members with Christmas gifts to the Crippled Children's Center in Jackson next Wednesday.

"Cappy Week"

The Y.W.C.A. is sponsoring "Cappy Week", the annual fellow-ship project for the girls' dormitories which culminates in a program around the Christmas tree late in the evening of December 15

Christmas Musicale

At 8 p.m., December 15, the Music Department will present for college and community a program of Christmas music by the formal choir, Eagle Band, piano, and organ.

Boteler's Team In Bolton Tourney

Coach Louis Boteler is entering his 10th grade basketball teams in the Bolton Invitational Basketball tournament this weekend.

A good showing is expected by both the boys and girls teams, although Coach Boteler expects his girls team to be one of the top contenders of the tournament.

Girls that will go to the tournament are Jimmy Stingly, Nancy Chapman, Lou Ann Carter, L'Tene Gray, Winnie Smith, Ellen Varner, Jane Lancaster, Sarah Smith, and Jo Ann Ray.

Donnie Sheffield, Johnny Oberhousen, Bill Ferguson, Jerry Bridges, Dalton Thames, Charles Bain, and Eugene Osborne are the boys picked for action.

in a top-notch performance.

The Eagles will play host to Sunflower Friday night and Holmes Saturday night for their first home stand of the season after downing the East Mississippi team in a thrilling manner.

Coach Troy Ricks' quintet was trailing 20-15 at the end of the first period and the Scooba team continued to lead at the halftime intermission by a slim 37-36 margin.

The determined Hinds crew overcame a stubborn visiting five in the third stanza to go out front 66-49 with Forwards Julian Sandifer and Buck Smith sacking 18 points together in the quarter. The Eagles managed to hold their lead in the final period for their initial victory.

Buck Smith, Julian Sandifer, and Jack Golden were the leading point makers for the home standing Eagles with 18, 20, and 16 points respectively. Fred Franks was outstanding for the visiting crew the 33 markers.

Hinds High Team Play In Tourney At Port Gibson

The Hinds High Eagles and Eaglettes will play in the Port Gibson Invitational Basketball tournament on December 6, 9, and 10.

The Eagles are the defending champions of the tournament at Port Gibson with the Eaglettes making a good showing last year.

The teams have played Satartia, Jett, Utica, St. Joseph, and Edwards this season with more wins than losses thus far this season.

Coach Louis Boteler has coached the Eagles and Eaglettes for the past five years and has turned in his share of championship teams. Assisting Coach Boteler this year is Coach Gwen Post with the Eaglettes and Coach Frank Drummond with the Eagles.

In the girls department Betty Taylor, Mary M. Hart, and Nancy Chapman are the three leading scorers for the Raymond sextet.

Other members of the girls team are Jimmy Stingly, Clara Murrah, Lou Ann Carter, L'Tene Gray, Winnie Smith, Ellen Varner, Jane Lancaster, Sara Smith, Ann Boyd, Jo Ann Ray, Martha Wade, and Norma Jean Carter.

Blake Harrison, Homer Boyd, and Donald Anderson form the trio of top individual scorers on the boys squad. Eugene Osborn, Don Trotter, Bill Ferguson, Randolph Smith, Johnny Oberhousen, Donnie Sheffield, Joe Milano, Tom Ray Cox, and Bobbie Sheffield are all slated for plenty of action this year.

Other players on the boys team include Jimmy Walsh, Charles Bain, Dalton Thames, Ross Allman, Jerry Bridges, Robert Moody, Willie Worrell, Buster Brewer, Miles Ray Goode, Tommy Lynch.

Donald Anderson and Norman Jean Carter have been chosen by their team mates as captains of their respective teams.

Eaglettes Play Jitney-Jungle Six In Thursday Game

Coach Ann Gookin's commercial girls basketball team will play Jitney-Jungle for the second time next Thursday night at the Air base gym in Jackson.

The College Eaglettes have played four games this season and all four games have been within three points of the loser and winner. Hinds has lost as many games by the two and three points as they have won.

Members of the competitive league are Bagby Hall, Belhaven, Jitney Jungle, N and W, National Pictures, and Hinds.

The starting sextet for the Eaglettes to go against National Pictures is forwards Gwen Post, Ruth Boone, and Frances Bliss. First string guards are Ruth Martin, Sylvia McWilliams, and Jane Pickett.

Margaret Lynn Peyton, Raymond; Donald Sheffield, Raymond; Vickie Simmons, Jackson; Mildred Strong, Bolton; Betty Taylor, Bolton; Charles Weissinger, Bolton.

Coach Troy Ricks and every member of the basketball team need your backing and support during the current basketball season. The Eagles played Scooba last night and will play host to Sunflower Friday night and Holmes Saturday night. If you are interested in seeing a real top notch performance come out and see the Eagles in action.

More people attend basketball games each year than football and baseball combined. It seems a little strange, but it is true. Statistics show that basketball is king and is enjoyed by more people than any other two sports put together.

Coach Mike Campbell's Vicksburg Greenies proved beyond any logical reasoning that they are the strongest team in the state as far as high school is concerned last Friday night by a 20-7 victory over the Brookhaven Panthers. Coach Campbell described the title-clinching game as the thrill of his life.

Yogi Berra, the New York Yankee's star catcher, has been named the American League's most valuable player for 1955.

Jones Junior College Bobcats, Mississippi's only perfect record football team this year, and Georgia Tech the two teams slated for the Junior Rose Bowl and the Sugar Bowl respectively have had problems this week with the segregation issue as whether or not their teams would play against negroes. It is our opinion that Sugar Bowl officials should not allow integration of the races on the field or either in the stands. We live in a segregated area and when other teams play in our territory they should abide by our rules and customs or not participate. As far as the Jones Bobcats are concerned, they are playing in a state where desegregated schools are common and it will be up to the school board of trustees and school president to say whether or not they play in the mixed game.

Personally, we would not play in any contest where mixing of the races was as strong as eight colored faces on one team. The State of Mississippi will not allow even one Negro to take part in any athletic event with the white students. That is one of the many reasons why we are proud to be from Mississippi and we will fight to always keep the flags and banners of our great state waving high.

We are going to walk a long way out on the limb this week and predict the Jones Bobcats to lose the Junior Rose Bowl classic by a hard-fought score of 20-14 to the strong Compton California team.

A year ago this week Olin Renfroe scored two touchdowns, on runs of 51 and 64 yards, to give his Hinds team a 13-7 win over El Camino.

OLIN RENFROE

Renfroe Excelling In Great Manner

Olin Renfroe, star halfback of the Hinds Junior College Eagles, and All-American performer last year, has been chosen as the 1954 Junior Rose Bowl "Player of the Game," by the Helms Athletic Foundation.

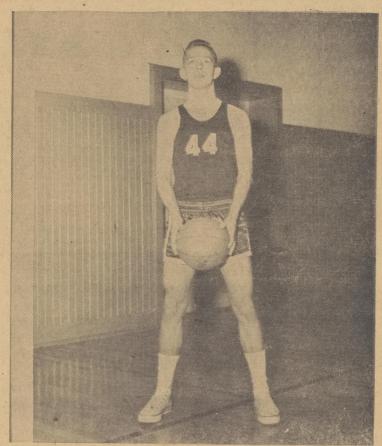

Hinds defeated El Camino, California, 13 to 7, last year, with Halfback Renfroe excelling in a scintillating manner. Renfroe's name has been engraved upon the perpetual Helms Trophy, as have been all of the "Players of the Game" since 1946. "Player of the Game," in future years, will have their names engraved upon the Helms Trophy.

In the 1954 Junior Rose Bowl classic, Renfroe carried the ball 17 times for Hinds, and wound up with 176 yards net, for a 10.3 average. From a special release received from the Helms Athletic Foundation this week two Hinds 1954 players have been chosen as members of the "All-Time Junior Rose Bowl Team." The two changes are at guard, and a halfback post. Rudie Soileau and Olin Renfroe have received the coveted honors. Helms Athletic Foundation announced today that the performances by Rudie Soileau, and Olin Renfroe, for Hinds, against El Camino, last year, merited All-Time Team honors.

HIGH SCORER Tommy Vance of Forest Hill was the top individual scorer on the Eagles team going into the Tuesday night game with Scooba this week with an 18 point average per game. Vance is 6' 2" forward from Forest Hill. The freshman forward was a member of the runner-up in the Class A-AA state championship last year and was astate All-Star selection last year.

PLAY MAKER Jerry Ivy is a good name for the above photo. Ivy hails from Clinton where he was on the state All-Star team in both his junior and senior years in high school. He is 5' 11" and played in the Mississippi 1955 All-Star game this past summer. Clinton won the state Class A-AA championship last year with Ivy as a member of the team.

ALWAYS ON THE GO describes the man in the above photo, Mr. W. C. (Bill) Oakes, Hinds Junior College Recreational Director. Mr. Oakes is the assistant Dean of Men also has many other jobs on the Hinds Junior College campus from scouting football games to securing entertainment for college socials. Mr. Oakes is from New Albany and attended Perkinston Junior College and later received his B. S. and M. A. degree from Mississippi Southern College in Health Physical Education, and Recreation. He has served two years in the Marine Corps before going to Southern. While at Perkinston his services to the school has rewarded him with a life time courteous award to all activities sponsored and promoted by Perkinston Junior College.

God, Allow Us To Put Christ Back In Xmas

What does Christmas mean? Families in millions of homes throughout the country will come together to celebrate. During this season there will be a feeling of good cheer and kindliness to every man.

For a majority, Christmas is a time of family reunion, a holiday, an exchange of gifts, or "Santa Claus" for the children. It is kept only because it has been the custom for years. For a minority, Christmas is the highlight of the Christian year, the religious commemoration of Christ's birth.

Whose birthday is it that we celebrate each December 25? Was he a great diplomat, a statesman, a military leader, an artist, a sculptor? Did he live in a great country, born of rich parents with the best opportunities? The answer to each of these questions is negative, but His words and teachings were always positive. His years on earth were few, but His name shall live forever.

The meaning of Christmas, the Saviour's birth, is that only once in history was there such a man. He so loved His fellow man that He was dedicated without reservation to the relief and service of all in need.

To all who suffered He brought a message of comfort. Love was the keynote of his teachings.

Whose birthday is it? Do the millions of dollars of Christmas advertising in papers and magazines tell us? Or the store display windows, street decorations, or light-strung trees in our homes? Santa Claus is everywhere — in the shops, on Christmas cards, and stickers.

Even the children might get more out of Christmas if they knew more about Him whose birthday it is. We truly hope that each person will carry with him throughout this season the true meaning of Christmas, and may God allow us to put Christ back in Xmas.

Editorial Comments

Congratulations to the winners of the Hindsonian's Who's Who contest.

The Christmas card design on the front page is by Donald Thompson. Hope you like it as much as we do.

The staff of the Hindsonian sincerely wishes a happy and safe Christmas and New Year to each of you.

Highway travel and alcohol consumption are both heavy at this time of year. Do not take part in both at the same time and be careful of either.

Predictions for 1956:

Schools and Colleges: Another record breaking year. Shortage of teachers should bring higher salaries and better working conditions for them.

Business: Bigger than ever with a gradual leveling off due to tighter credit regulations.

Segregation: The real battle will get underway with Negroes making a determined effort to enter white Southern schools.

Politics: If Ike runs again he will win. If he doesn't the Democrats have a chance although Stevenson is not a good choice for a candidate. He will be picked unless there is a last minute split in the Democratic Party.

Foreign Affairs: About the same with Russia gaining ground with her new "sweetness and light policy."

Agriculture: Farm income will drop again. Politicians will try to help the small farmer by taking him off the farm.

Thought of the Week

As you hurry away home on the afternoon of Friday, we trust that your hearts will be full of the season's joy and loveliness.

The men of old were wise who went bearing gifts.

We trust that wherever you go you may carry the gift of real joy by forgetting to seek selfish advantages, and by giving of your best selves.

The Night Before Xmas in Westside

By RAMONA FRANKLIN

It was the night before holidays and all through the dorm Peace and quiet reigned like the lull before the storm. The girls were nestled all snug in their beds

While visions of boyfriends danced in their heads.

And I in my flannels and my roomies in their caps (night caps that is!)

Had just settled our brains for a long winter's nap

When out in the hall there rose such a clatter

That I sprang from the bed to see what was the matter.

I stumped my toe on the heater, threw open the door, And looked wildly up and down the once quiet floor.

When what to my wondering, bloodshot eyes should appear

But a trash can rolling down the stairs to disappear.

With a thump, and a bang and a Clatter! Clatter! Clatter!

(Here roomie's sleepy voice inquires, "What in the heck's the matter!!)

More rapid than Hinds Eagles these noises they came they laughed and shouted a called me by name.

They wasted no time but went straight to their work

Of wrecking the dorm and then disappeared with a jerk

For footsteps announced the need for a speedy flight.

But I loudly exclaimed ere they ducked out of sight

Merry Christmas to all and for goodness sake—GOOD NIGHT!

Always Be Careful When You Drive

As the holidays approach, and we turn homeward, many of us will be driving the family car or our own. As we drive through heavy Christmas traffic let us keep the following prayer in mind:

> Grant me a steady hand and a watchful eye, That no man shall be hurt when I pass by. Thou gavest life, and I pray no act of mine May take away or mar that gift of thine. Shelter those, Dear Lord, who bear me company, From the evils of fire and all calamity. Teach me to use my car for other's need, Nor miss through love of speed The beauties of thy world; that thus I may With joy and courtesy go on my way.

-published by Trinity Church, New York "I have always thought of Christmas-time, when it has come round, as a good time: a kind, forgiving, charitable, pleasant time: the only time I know of in the long calendar of the year, when men and women seem by one consent to open their shutup hearts freely, and to think of people below them as if they really were fellow-passengers, and not another race of creatures bound on other journeys. And therefore, though it has never put a scrap of gold or silver in my pocket, I believe that it has done me good, and will do me good, and I say, God bless it!"

—from The Christmas Carol

In extending to readers the old greetings ever new, the Hindsonian speaks through the ancient stanza below published in Harper's in 1875:

> "The joyous call that the bells have rung Is summons to love and home-The same old song that the angels sung Who venture on earth to roam: Good will and peace where tired ones wait, An eager hand on the cottage gate— Old Christmas comes again."

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS

Dear Santa,

I have been a good little boy all year and I wish to tell you what I want for Christmas.

Please, Santa, bring me a trumpet that will play by its self so I can do a little dancing.

Charlie Wicker Dear Santa,

I am 19 years old and have been a good little boy all year. I want a stack of new books to study, as the ones you brought last year have been drained of their knowledge. I also want a basketball of my very own to play with.

Thanks,

Melvin Oakes

Dear Santa,

I am a little girl in my freshman year of college. Please don't forget me on Christmas night. It is a long ride from Utica to Yazoo City and I would just die if I didn't see my boy friend so how about bringing him with you.

> Thanks, Pat Young

Dear Santa,

You remember your old pal Bobby McWilliams don't you? Sure you do! Well, I've been good as usual and I want another joke book for Christmas. Some folks say that my jokes are getting stale.

Thanks,

Bobby McWilliams

Dear Santa, I was going to ask you for a new basketball team, but now all I want is for you to let me keep the one

I have. You have been good to me in the past, and this year I am very happy.

Thanks,

Troy Ricks

Dear Santa,

I have been a good little boy all year and there is something that I need and want very badly. Will you please leave me one of them pretty blue navy suits? I also need a copy of Anchors Aweigh.

Thanks,

Bill Cole

This is the first time I have written you but I leave you something to eat each year. I have been a good boy all year and want to make a very simple request for Christmas. Please, give me a new room mate as the one I have sleeps all the time. I believe he is just about worn out.

Thanks,

Jim Payne

Dear Santa, Thanks,

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Taylor Mr. and Mrs. Julian Sandifer

This letter isn't for me, Santa, but rather for my 1056 children. You have been receiving a letter a year from me for a long time now. Santa, I would like to ask that you be as nice to my children as you can be. Help make their Christmas a happy one, and see to it that all of them get back to the school in good health. Thanks.

ANN'S ANNALS

By ANN JOHNSON

After an extended vacation, this columnist is back on the job, bringing you up on your campus happenings . . . With the singing of Christmas carols and the hanging of holly and mistletoe, we are reminded that Christmas, that most joyous season of the year, is just around the corner. . . The Christmas spirit is in the air and the campus seems to be a busier and happier place than at any other time of the year.

After three weeks of schoolwork, semester exams will begin—so-o-o, a word to the wise; have a jolly Christmas and come back to school with a clear mind ready for study.

Mr. Al Rowan, Eagle Band director, attended the State High School Band Clinic last weekend, December 8-10 at Mississippi Southern College. . . The Hinds Eagle Band and Hi-Steppers participated in two Christmas parades last week to usher in the Yuletide season . . .

On Monday night, December 12, the Hinds Hi-Steppers and fifteen members of the Band entertained the Advertising Club at the Edwards Hotel in Jackson. . . In Westside and Main Dormitories, confusion, secrecy, and generosity have been on the agenda this week. . . The YWCA-sponsored "Cappy Week" is in full sway, and mysterious little packages have been going around from room to room. . . .

After Christmas holidays, and everything settles back down to normal, the Hindsonian staff would like to issue a call to anyone interested in working on the newspaper staff. The present staff is capable enough, but there just aren't enough of us. . . . Just a reminder to everyone — don't forget the all-important job of subscribing for your annual.

Here's wishing all of you a happy holiday season, and I'll see you next year!!

CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS

Christmas Holidays will begin Friday, December 16 at the end of third period, 11:55 a. m. The holidays end officially at 8 p. m., January 1. Classes will begin on regular schedule Monday, January 2.

Christmas Poster Winners Are Told

Mrs. A. L. Denton, head of the art department, announced the winners of the Christmas poster contest today.

Barbara Daymond received first place for her poster on the traditional Santa Claus sleigh scene.

Charles Ellis won second place with his poster on the religious theme of the Wise Men and the star.

Mary Will McKenzie received third place for her poster on the Town of Bethlehem scene.

Honorable mention went to Barbara Hitt, Dick Morgan, Harold Whatley, Ben Twan, and Mrs. Ann Luter.

Lendon Players Presentation Is Theatrical Play

By MARILYN SIMMONS (with notes from Mr. F.)

Presented last Thursday evening before a large campus and community audience, "Stage Directions" was acclaimed as an outstanding theatrical success. The Lendon Players and their faculty director, Mr. Robert Fleshman, are receiving many commendations on the unique design and superior execution of this the first performance of the Players in the current season.

The evening's entertainment was composed of three one-act plays and two scenes from longer plays.

The theme behind the whole production was the "play-within-theplay," which was designed by Mr. Fleshman to lend unity to the five individual parts, making "Stage Directions" when compared to usual stage presentations a unique and memorable performance.

The production staff of more than twenty members arranged one main set, a smaller stage upon the main stage.

Each of the three one-act plays -Aria da Capo, by Edna St. Vincent Millay, Curse You, Jack Dalton by Wilbur Braun, and Swan Song by Anton Tchekoff — had a smaller set placed behind the small curtains. The two scenes from full-length plays - the "Drugstore Scene" from Our Town, and "Ye Tragedie of Pyramus and Thysbe," the play-within-the-play from Midsummer Night's Dream - were acted in front of the curtain. As these were being performed, the set for the next one-act play was being set up.

An introductory announcement stated that "Stage Directions" was "an Irish stew of a show — a little bit of a lot of things, all mixed in the gravy of theatrics." As such, it gave the individuals in the audience a chance to find something to their liking.

It is difficult for one to point out which play was the best. With such a wide selection to choose from, everyone found something he liked Twenty-three roles were skillfully performed by the student-actors in the evening's entertainment.

In the first play, Aria da Capo, were Jo Ann Nutt as Pierrot; Annette McCleur, Columbine; Dick Haynes, director; Bobby Marble, Thyrsis; and Sam Tolar, Corydon.

In the scene from Our Town, which was played in front of the smaller curtain, Margaret Lynn Peyton was Emily, Hugh Long was George, and Dick Haynes continued as stage manager. In this scene the pantomine of mixing sodas, drinking sodas, and the like was used as in the original production in New York.

In the old-fashioned melodrama, Curse You, Jack Dalton, stylized movements were used, each character having a definite movement pattern which he used throughout the play. The cast of this play was as follows: Mother Dalton, Glenda Rush; Anna Stonewright, Melanie

Glenda Rush, Melvin Oakes Top Winners in Who's Who

By ANN JOHNSON

Glenda Rush, sophomore music major from Porterville, active in many organizations on the campus, had bestowed upon her by her college mates the coveted position of Miss H. J. C., together with the title, Most Versatile Girl. The honor of Mr. H. J. C. went to Melvin Oakes from Vicksburg, president of the sophomore class, equally active in extra-curricular activities. He was given a second title, Most Intellectual Boy, and also named a Campus Favorite.

After a close tabulation of votes, the following results were announced: Most Beautiful Girl, Patty Carter of Puckett; Most Handsome Boy, Jim Hayes of St. Petersburg, Florida; Most Popular Girl, Mary Lou Kersh of Jackson; Most Popular Boy, Charles Wicker of Louisville; Most Intellectual Girl, Hermanell Hearn of Vicksburg; Most Courteous Girl, Nan Lane of Union; Most Courteous Boy, Irl Dean Rhodes of Brandon; Wittiest Girl, Florene Greenlee of Kilmichael; Wittiest Boy, Willie Eldridge of Buna, Texas.

Most Versatile Boy, Charles Wicker of Louisville; Best Dressed Girl, Annette McCluer of Jackson; Best Dressed Boy, Don Thompson of Vicksburg; Friendliest Girl, Wanda Lou Wortman of Leland; Friendliest Boy, Foy Scroggins of Yazoo City.

Greenest Freshman, Jack Kilcrease of Tylertown; Cutest Couple, Mary Louise Baker of Brandon and Willis Steenhuis of Jackson. Gwen Post of Clinton was voted Best Girl Athlete, and Jim Taylor of Baton Rouge, La., was voted Best Boy Athlete.

Campus Favorites chosen were, Girls: Wanda Lou Wortman of Leland, Annette McCluer of Jackson, Mary Louise Baker of Brandon, Mary Lou Kersh of Jackson, and Helen Cowart of Raymond.

Boys: Irl Dean Rhodes of Brandon, Don Thompson of Vicksburg, Melvin Oakes of Vicksburg, Foy Scroggins of Yazoo City, and Charles Wicker of Louisville.

Matthews; Bertha, Dot Roper; Jack Dalton, Joe Kinsey; Egbart Van Horn, Dick Bowers; Richard, Mike Baroudy; Eloise, Annette McCleur. "Ye Tragedie of Pyramus and Thysbe," Shakespeare's fun making of the theatre showing the Bard's humor is still good, was performed in front of the smaller stage. The cast included Master of Ceremonies, Bobby Marble; Wall, Mary Jane Loper; Moonshine, Betty Denton; Lion, Dick Haynes; Pyramos, Bobby McWilliams; Thysbe, Laura Lusby.

The last play, "Swan Song," a serious and difficult piece of drama, is realistic in approach. This was very skillfully portrayed by Dick Bowers as the Old Actor and Dick Haynes as the Old Prompter.

The production crew of the evening's performances were the following: Stage manager, Lamar Seale; Scenery and Properties, Mary Liles, Mickey Grove, Nancy Chapman, Betty Denton, Peggy French, Lynn Shearon, Charles Malone, Ben Tuan, Glenda Rush, Felix Massey, and Joe Kinsey. The makeup artists were Douglas Palmer, Annette Cheatham, and Tim Pool. Lighting was managed by Ed Berry, costumes by Marie Willoughby, and publicity by Annette Cheatham and Sam Tolar.

Music for the evening was under the direction of Miss Peggy Pennell. Miss Frances Bratchi designed the clown's costumes, and Miss Frances Moultrop assisted in the production. The Redwood Inn furnished the antique gun used in the Jack Dalton play.

Side Lines

By IRL DEAN RHODES

Last week we predicted the Compton, California, Tartars to defeat Mississippi's Jones Junior College Bobcats 20-14 and the West Coast team tripped the Jim Clark squad 22-13 without the services of Halfback Jim Waddell. Three points was not too bad for an amateur. We might add it was only a streak of luck.

This will be the last issue of the Hindsonian before the Sugar and Cotton Bowl games on January 2, so we are going to rate the teams in the opinion of this writer to win the respective bowl games. We see Georgia Tech over Pitt and Texas Christian over Ole Miss. The latter pick puts a bad taste in our mouth; nevertheless, that is the way it looks from this corner.

The best gift Santa Claus could bring Coach Troy Ricks is for his Eagles to win the Pensacola Invitational Basketball Tournament this weekend at Pensacola.

May we wish for all of you a very merry and joyous Christmas and a most happy and prosperous New Year!

Tennessee Perry, Hinds freshman, holds the unofficial world's record in "set-ups" over J. J. Mason with 2111 and Mason has 2100 for second place. The contest took place Monday night and proper moves are being taken to make the event official.

Hinds Eagles Travel To Pensacola; Jacksonville Cagers Initial Target

Coach Troy Ricks and the Hinds Junior College basketball team leave tomorrow (Thursday) to participate in the Pensacola Junior College Invitational Basketball Tournament at Pensacola, Florida.

The Florida bound Eagles have won their last three games prior to their clash with East Central Tuesday night. After walloping the East Mississippi Lions 82-71, Hinds routed Sunflower 107-79 and trimmed Holmes 75-72.

The Eagles will clash with Jack-

Hinds Eaglettes Win Tournament

The Hinds High tenth grade won the Bolton girls' division of the Bolton tournament last weekend over Raymond elementary school 47-26 in the finals.

Prior to the final game, the girls edged Forest Hill 40-38 and crushed Byram 57-16 in the semi-finals.

Winnie Smith was the top individual of the tournament with an average of 23 points per game.

The Hinds High Eagles were runner-up in the Port Gibson tournament losing to Utica 40-31. The Eagles received a trophy. Homer Boyd made the All-Star team.

sonville, Florida, at 7:15 Friday night; Pensacola and Lon Morris of Jacksonville, Texas, will lock horns at 9:15 Friday night. The consolation game will be played at 7:15 Saturday night. The winners of the Friday night games will meet at 9:15 Saturday night.

The winning team of the tournament will remain over and play in a March of Dimes game on Monday night, December 19.

Three trophies will be awarded during the tournament. The winners, the runner-up, and the consolation winner will each receive a trophy. Five individual trophies will be awarded for the All-Star team and a "Most Valuable Player" award will be given to the top-notch individual.

Slated to make the trip are Jack Golden, Julian Sandifer, Tommy Vance, Buck Smith, Jerry Ivy, Bobby Lee, Melvin Oakes, Dick Axtell, Gordon "Moose" Merritt, and John Lancaster, all players.

Coach Ricks' Eagles will be housed in the San Carlos Hotel. The tournament headquarters will be at the Pensacola Junior College.

Coach Troy Ricks, Manager Al Burnett, bus driver Amos Jack Gray, and sports editor of the Hindsonian, Irl Dean Rhodes will also make the trip.

POST AND COWART IN TENNIS FINALS

Gwen Post of Clinton and Helen Cowart of Raymond were slated to clash this afternoon in the finals of the annual intramural tennis tournament now being staged on the campus of Hinds Junior College.

Post, a freshman, topped Vickie Simmons 6-1 and 6-2 and Cowart also a freshman downed Mary Louise Baker 6-4 and 6-3 to reach the finals of the tournament.

Post and Cowart are expected to be two of the top members of Mrs. Ann Gookin's tennis team next spring. Baker and Simmons will possibly be strong contenders for the team also.

Hinds Sophomore Injured In Wreck

Lyndal D. Boling, Hinds sophomore, 23-year-old veteran, was moved today from a Meridian hospital to the Veterans Administration Hospital in Jackson.

Lyndal suffered a tragic automobile accident December 23 when he lost control of his car on a curve on Highway 80, nine miles out of Meridian. A crushed spine and head injury were sustained.

While at Hinds this semester Lyndal was carrying a full load of sophomore work, conducting a paper route in Jackson, and working part time at a service station. It is supposed that he may have been dozing at the wheel when he lost control of his car.

He is married and has one child. His home address is 224 North Street, Jackson, Mississippi.

Hinds Featured In National Magazine

Hinds Junior College was featured in the December, 1955 issue of Coach & Athlete, a national sports mgazine. The story was listed under campus close-up.

Irl Dean Rhodes, sports editor of the Hindsonian, submitted the story.

With the story were ten pictures, including various campus scenes, President McLendon, the football team, band, Hi-Steppers, and Coaches Renfroe and Ricks.

Some high points of the story mention the history of the college, the location, the courses offered, and the campus organizations.

HINDS JR. SAYS:

"Tests, tests, everywhere
With drops and drops of ink,
And never a prof will leave the room
And allow a guy to think."

Faculty Members Resign Positions

With the opening of the new semester, three faculty members will be leaving, according to President G. M. McLendon.

Mr. Walter Butler, new chamistry teacher, has resigned to accept government employment.

Mrs. Mary E. McKenzie, popular member of the English staff, will take a leave of absence in order to undergo spinal surgery at Campbell's Clinic in Memphis.

Mr. A. G. Liss, professor of refrigeration, has left the campus to enter private business at Greenwood.

Although Mr. Liss' successor has been designated, the other positions are not yet filled.

Exam Schedule Given By Registrar; Registration Deadline January 20th

First semester examinations will begin Monday, January 16, at 8:30 a.m., and close on Friday, January 20, at 12:50, the end of the 3rd period.

Pre-registration for the second semester is to be completed on January 20. Many students have already arranged their second semester schedules, according to Miss Mildred Herrin, registrar.

With a full schedule of evening classes already published for the second semester, there seems now that no additional courses will be opened up for the day students.

The following is the semester examination schedule.

College

Monday, January 16: 8:30-10:20, 1TT; 11:00-12:50, 4 MWF; 1:45-3:35, 5 TT classes.

Tuesday, January 17: 8:30-10:20, 3 MWF; 11:00-12:50, 7 TT; 1:45-3:35, 7 MWF.

Vocational And Technical Training Emphasized In Hinds Curriculum

An important part of Mississippi's Balance Agriculture with Industry program is the training of veterans to fill the vacancies created by industry.

Hinds Junior College is playing an important role in this training of personnel with its ever-increasing vocational-technical department.

Hinds vocational-technical department is a branch of the Hinds vocational department which had its beginning in 1942 as a sheet metal course. The emphasis then was on welding to help in the war effort. A new vocational building was constructed in 1948 on the Hinds campus. The new building houses all vocational classes except auto mechanics which is held in the former agriculture and vocation building, and airplane mechanics which is held at the John Bell Williams Airport north of Raymond.

First co-ordinator of the Hinds Vocational Department was Mr. Eddie Young of Jackson.

Since 1942, Hind's Vocational Department has grown to ten separate classes with nine of these classes held at night.

The courses of instruction are: radio and television theory, repair, and code; barbering; automotive mechanics; body and fender repairs; woodworking; mechanical Vocational-technical training today offers the student a well balanced program of vocational training and academic courses. The combination prepares the student for promotion and advancement in his job after graduation.

There is a great demand for persons who are acquainted with the basic skills of their professions and who are prepared to hold jobs in management.

This fact is constantly being proved at Hinds by the number of students who are being hired even before graduation at very attractive salaries.

Besides being prepared for supervisory jobs, the technical student must also be prepared to aid the engineer or professional worker.

"The demand for good technical school graduates alone assures the future expansion of vocational-technical training in Mississippi," states Mr. Walter H. Gibbes, Coordinator of Vocational Training School.

Former Students Visit HJC Campus

During the Christmas holidays many former Hinds Junior College studnts visited the campus and were welcomed "home" by the faculty and students.

Among the visitors were Mary Ledbetter, who is now an engineering student at Mississippi State and Jo Anne Tucker, who is a Millsaps student in Jackson. The year Mary was at Hinds sh was a member of Phi Theta Kappa, honor society on the campus, president of the Westminster Fellowship, and a feature writer for the Hindsonian.

PLANT EXPANSION

According to President McLendon, the amount of plant expansion in the near future will be determined to a large extent by a report from a survey of Hinds County now being made by H. J. Ivy and his associates.

After this report is in, a recommendation concerning new buildings and plant expansion will then be made to the campus building committee.

POINT SYSTEM VIEWED

The quality point honor roll will be published after the first semester. Special honors will be awarded to those making 2.6 or above. Honors will be listed for those making 2.2.

Quality points are figured on academic subjects from semester averages. The method of determining them is as follows:

A grade of "A" gains three quality points per semester hour; a grade of "B" earns two quality points; and a grade of "C", one quality point. Quality points are not given for any grade below "C".

Inventory -- 1955

After a joyous Christmas season has past, the Hinds campus has once again come back to life with the shouting of friend greeting friend and the drone of teacher lecturing to class. Although a great number of the students probably took advantage of the holidays to help holiday shoppers find what they wanted in busy department stores, I'm sure all of us found some time to do some loafing and enjoying home cooking. Now that the excitement of Christmas is over, we should, along with the shopkeepers, take an inventory of how we may have bettered ourselves this year and what 1955 has brought us, both happiness and sorrow.

How have we improved our minds, personality, and attitude during this year? Have we profited by our experiences and learned better how to get along with people? Let us strive in this unsoiled new year of 1956 to leave behind those things which hinder us and take with us those things which would help us in our task of living in this world of confusion, turmoil, and trials.

As soon as we fall into the old routine of classes every day and studying every night, semester exams will be thrust upon us. To me, these examinations present a challenge to all of us. The week of exams is trying and nerve-racking; therefore, we should all enter this time with fresh minds and try to do our very best.

YOU CAN HAVE IT TOO: YOURS FOR FREE By MISS BELLE LINDSEY

Before your legs were long enough to reach to the floor in a moving picture theater, you have been seeing these three words flashed on the screen before every MGM picture: Ars Gratia Artis.

Have you wondered what these three Latin words mean, or have you just dismissed them as an unknown tongue and impatiently awaited a picture to take their place? Are you puzzled even now over why such a great and successful theatrical company copyrighted these words as its slogan and values it among its assets at a cool million grand?

In English Ars Gratia Artis means Art for Art's Sake, or that priceless power to enjoy the beautiful, maybe create it yourself. It may be that you think you can do neither, but perhaps you do not know how much of an artist is hidden in plain you.

Stroll by our own art department in the Administration Building, and take a peek at all the lovely sketches, paintings, and drawings over there. Before you know it, you will pick out a picture you think is pretty or has character or something that holds you.

Maybe you will be so fascinated by what you see that you will ask Mrs. Denton if she has room for one more student who likes art for art's sake. It is all for free, too. But like MGM you won't take a million grand for your art knowledge and knowhow in the years to come.

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK-

Bill Liles

By IRL DEAN RHODES

This week's selection for the "Sophomore of the Week" is Bill Liles of Jackson, formerly of Learned, Miss. Although William C. Liles, editor-in-chief of the Hindsonian has shown unusual editorial aptitude, he does not plan to stay in the newspaper field.

Bill will complete his junior college work at Hinds at the end of the first semester and transfer to Mississippi College where he will major in business.

Already in business, holding a responsible job in post office work while carrying a full schedule of classes, Bill does not have much time "off." However, he did pause long enough recently to get married in a beautiful church ceremony to the former Sylvia Dippery of Jackson. They make their home at 3111 Oak Forest Drive, Jackson.

After completing high school in the Hinds high school division, Bill did approximately four years of military service, two years in the air force, and two in the Army. His training was done at Keesler Field, in San Antonio, Texas, and in Arkansas. He served in Japan and Korea. While at Hinds high school, he lettered in football, basketball, and baseball.

Reentering at Hinds as a college student last year, Bill is now completing his sophomore work.

We have heard that among the Jackson business major's favorite recreations is hunting. We didn't ask, but we are confident that he is an excellent shot.

The Hindsonian is proud to have a man of Bill's ability in charge of the editorial policy of the newspaper that has the interest of the students at Hinds Junior College at heart. We are sure Editor Liles will go a long way in this competitive world of ours.

We shall miss you at Hinds, Bill. Your place on the staff will be hard to fill.

Our best wishes are yours as you go forward into wider fields!

On The Nation's Campuses

Condensed by Nan Ertle

(ACP)—The Asian Student reports that Tunghai University, the first Christian institution of higher learning on the Nationalist Island of Formosa, has opened its doors to a freshman class. The University was made possible by initial grants from the United Board for Christian Colleges in China, an organization with offices in New York City. The first class at the University included 155 men and 45 women.

This difference in high school and college students comes from the Kansas State Collegian: A political science professor, who has taught both high school and college courses summarized the difference between college students and high school students. Here's what he said: "When you walk into a high school class and say 'good morning,' the students reply good morning. But when you walk into a college class and say 'good morning,' the students write it down."

Two girls at the University of Texas recently made a bet on the Texas-Texas A & M football game. If A & M won the game, one girl agreed to crawl the length of the stadium on her stomach. But Texas won 21-6 and the other girl had to scrub the seats in the stadium with a tooth brush—that is, if she can get enough tooth brushes!

Nicholas Assare, a foreign student at Earlham College, Richmond, Indiana, whose home is in the town of Mamfe on Africa's Gold Coast, had to confess that he had never seen a wild animal in Africa. His American friends took him to the local zoo to show him some of the ferocious beasts that are said to be so prevalent in Africa. The zoo keeper even let him ride an elephant so that he would have something exciting to tell the folks back home. Africa may be more civilized than we think!

These Shakespearian comments on college life appeared, in the Kansas State Collegian:

Studying in the library: "More light, you knaves; and turn the tables up, and quench the fire, the room is grown too hot." Romeo and Juliet.

Cramming at 3 A. M.: "How weary, flat, stale, and unprofitable seems to be all the uses of the world." Hamlet.

Cramming at 7 A. M.: "It is not for your health thus to commit your weak condition to the raw cold morning." Julius Caesar.

Review Of First Semester Given Many High Spots Are Pointed Out

By MARILYN SIMMONS

Looking through a file of the Hindsonian published this year, I find many events which are marked by the passing of the first semester.

In the first issue of the Hindsonian this fall, (September 22, 1955), the registration of over 1000 students for the fall enrollment is recorded. This event set a new fall registration record at HJC.

In that same issue, the twelve new members of the Hinds teaching staff were named, and a series of articles on the new teachers was begun, allowing a more complete coverage of each of the teachers.

The second issue printed (September 28), marked the beginning of Spiritual Emphasis Week on the campus, with Rev. Russell M. McIntire as the speaker. Rev. Mr. McIntire is pastor of the First Baptist church in Clinton, Miss.

That same week, the officers of the Wesley Foundation, Phi Theta Kappa, and Senior Class were announced.

The October 5 issue of the Hindsonian brought news of its own staff appointments. Bill Liles, Editor, Don Thompson, Feature Editor, and Irl Dean Rhodes, Sports Editor, headed the staff.

The number three issue also gave the date of the 1955 HJC Homecoming and the names of those on various committees.

Issue number four told of a busy ville, who are both juniors and physics majors at Louisiana State University. While at Hinds they were both members of Phi Theta Kappa.

Nell Pickett of Utica recalled fond memories with many old friends from Hinds during the holidays. Nell was very active in many organizations while attending Hinds Junior College and graduated with special honors. She is now a junior at Mississippi State College for Women.

Other welcomed visitors included Hugh Saxton of Raymond, who attends Mississippi College; Earl Leggett from Florida, who is a junior at L. S. U.; and Durwood Graham from Vicksburg, who is also a junior at L. S. U. Earl, who was married last month and Durwood are both playing football at L. S. U.

Adrean Anders from Jackson and a senior at the University of Mississippi and Becky as a Hi-Stepper and a member of Phi Theta Kappa.

Another visitor on the campus was Vitto Patti of Honduras who has just recently married a former Hinds students, Dixie Durbin, of Utica. Vitto is still in the armed services and his wife is a senior at Mississippi College.

Visiting Sunday afternoon on the campus was Penny Frank Robinson. Penny was president of YWCA and a campus favorite when at Hinds in 1944-45. She is married to Dr. Doug Robinson of Jackson.

week; both the high school and college Homecoming Queens were announced; and Freshman Day was almost upon us.

The Homecoming was the big news of the October 26 issue. The honor roll for the first six weeks was published; containing names of 82 students from both the college and high school departments.

The Junior College Press Workshop held at Decatur and attended by six Hindsonian staff members, together with the Penny Fair, made up much of the news for the next three weeks. In the November 9 issue, the officers of the Eagle Band were announced.

Then the Who's Who Contest stepped into the spotlight. This event continued to be top news until the long-awaited Christmas holidays. News scattered about in the last issues concerned an operapresented in Jackson as a part of the concert series, a Yule Tide program given by the entire Music Department, another honor roll announcement, and more top news: the five one-act plays presented by the Lendon Players December 8.

The holidays are over. School has again begun. This semester draws to a close leaving a busy 1955 behind, and perhaps an even fuller schedule in 1956.

Happy New Year!

Business Club Elects Officials

The local group of the Future Business Leaders of America, sponsored by Mrs. Maybelle Furness, has elected officers for the year.

The following students were selected to lad the business group: Betty Berryhill, president; Jesse Barnette, vice-president; Flo Roberts, secretary; Johnnie Ruth Strong, corresponding secretary; Georgianne Burton, reporter; Lamar Sills, treasurer; Jo Anne Foshee, publicity chairman; Bob Womack, social chairman.

Olin Akers was elected as nominee for state president. This election is to be held later in the year.

The FBLA members enjoyed a social held at the Raymond Lodge in late fall.

Post Victorious In Tennis Finals

Gwen Post, star basketball player, won the annual Hinds Tennis Tournament over Raymond's Helen Cowart in a very close battle last month.

Post of Clinton said, "it was the hardest game I have ever played."

Besides being the top female tennis player on the Hinds campus, she is the third high scorer in the Jackson Commercial Basketball League for Women with 172 points. She has been the sparkplug of the Hinds sextet from the standpoint of offense this year.

Wesley Notes MSM State Conference

The Wesley Foundation presented a program of Christmas numbers, and a devotional and informative period of church music Monday night, December 12.

James Furlow and Fred Marett, music chairmen of the organization, had charge of the program, which was held in the college auditorium rather than in the usual place of the Monday night meetings in the muic hall. This change was made in order that the new organ could be used in the service.

Throughout the month of December, the Wesley Foundation was in charge of the assembly devotions

On Monday night, January 2, the first meeting of the new year, a timely program was presented by Ramona Franklin and Annette McCluer. The business session was held, and the dates for the MSM Spring Conference, February 10-12, were announced.

Coach Ann Gookin's girls basketball team will meet N and O Overall Thursday night at the Jackson air base gym in what is expected to be one of the better games of the year.

N and W is atop the commercial league at the present time and will be favored to top the Eaglettes; however, Coach Gookin says she has other plans for the Jackson Game time is slated for 7 p. m.

Basketball Teams Tangle In Annual Pearl Tournament

Coach Louis Boteler's basketball teams will enter the Pearl Invitational Basketball Tournament all set Thursday night to tackle the Brandon teams at 7 and 8 p. m.

The high school Eagles and Eaglettes meet the Brandon Bulldogs and quintet with more wins than losses this season. It will be the first games for the teams after the Christmas holidays.

Tuesday night Coach Boteler reported the teams to be in good spirit for the Thursday contest with Brandon. The Eaglettes will go into the tournament with a better record than the Brandon sextet, although Brandon boys have posted a better record thus far than the Eagles.

Expected to start for the Eaglettes will be: Forwards — Mary M. Hart, Bettye Taylor and Winnie Lou Smith; Guards — Lou Ann Carter, Norma Jean Carter, and L'Teen Gray.

In the Eagle line-up will be: Forwards Tommy Lynch, and Joe Milano, Center Homer Boyd, and Guards Blake Harrison and Donald Anderson.

Side Lines

By IRL DEAN RHODES

We begin the new year with a new desire and more determination to bring the readers of the Hindsonian the best sports coverage possible. These three words will be before us at all times in an effort to give you the best coverage, accurate, unbiased, and colorful.

Walter Johnson, owner of Giles, Inc., and past business manager of the Jackson Daily News, has been invited to participate in the Bing Crosby Invitational Golf Tournament for the fourth straight year. It is certainly an honor for Jackson and the entire state of Mississippi.

* * *
Ole Miss' powerhouse fullback,
Paige Cothren, is one of the two players to receive the 1955 Jacobs
Blocking Trophy from the South.

On the Mississippi sports calendar this month is the annual State Golden Gloves Tournament in Jackson. Also on tap will be basketball games all over the country and cage tournaments scattered over the state with a few golf contests to round out the initial month of the year.

The Bowl games are over and the hardwood sport will take the spotlight for a few weeks. On the Hinds Junior College campus intra-school competition will start again.

In our whirlwind of activities we pause briefly to salute half-pint Gwen Post of Clinton for her recent tennis championship. Gwen is a triple threat lady. She is the third high scorer in the Jackson Commercial League with 172 points for the first half of the season and she has been elected the "Most Athletic Girl" on the campus of Hinds Junior College.

In the annual Blue-Gray battle, the Gray team topped the Blues 20-19 in a top-notch encounter, although we firmly believe the Hinds Hi-Steppers compare favorably with the Dixie Darlings who performed at the halftime ceremonies.

The top basketball team in the nation at this time and picked by the majority of the sports scribes to stay on top is San Francisco.

Our good friend Mr. J. W. Patrick is back in the coaching business and will head the coaching staff at Holmes Junior College next year. He has had some good teams in the past and it will pay the Mississippi Junior College football coaches to watch Coach Patrick

On Monday of this week we attended the Sugar Bowl Classic along with Mr. Bill Oakes, Coach Bob Fuerst, Homer Boyd, Coach Robert Stevens of Central High School of Jackson and about 80,000 other fans and watched the favored Georgia Tech team blank Pitt 7-0.

PENSACOLA ALL-STAR Bobby "Buck" Smith of Covington, La., made the All-Tournament team at the Pensacola Invitational basketball tournament in December. Smith scored 46 points in one game and made a good showing in both games. He is 6' 5" tall and weighs 180 pounds. The high school senior made the Louisiana Little All-American team when he was in the tenth grade. At the present time Smith has the highest average on Coach Troy Ricks' squad. His position is at the forward slot.

Hinds Cagers Top Pensacola Team; Smith On All-Tournament Squad

By IRL DEAN RHODES

The Hinds Junior College Eagles defeated the Pensacola Pirates 112-90 Saturday night, December 17, in the consolation game of the Pensacola Invitational tournament before some 1,000 fans.

Paced by the sharp-shooting of Forward Buck Smith the Eagles held a 54-51 lead at the halftime intermission. Pensacola took the lead three times in the initial half, although Hinds turned on the steam with Center Jack Golden and Forward Tommy Vance forming the needed punch to keep the Eagles out front.

Guards Bobby Lee and Jerry lvy of the Eagles set up the fast break that proved to be too much for the Pensacola quintet. In the final half the Eagles looked sharp as a razor against tough competition.

Coach Troy Ricks' quintet hit 48 per cent from the floor in the consolation game as Buck Smith poured in 46 points. Smith set a record in the tournament with the most individual points scored in one game. The 112 points racked up by the Eagles was the most points ever scored by a team in the Pensacola tournament.

Jack Golden, Bobby Lee, and Tommy Vance tallied 24, 15, and 13 points respectively for the Eagles. Pensacola's A. C. Sheffield netted 24 points for the losers.

Smith All-Star

Buck Smith was selected on the five-man All-Star team and the Eagles received the consolation trophy in ceremonies after the tournament.

Hinds was defeated 81-66 in the semi-finals by Jacksonville, Florida. Lon Morris of Jacksonville, Texas, won the championship game over Jacksonville by four points in an overtime affair 93-89.

Hinds players seeing action in the tournament not mentioned in the above paragraph include Forward Julian "Sandy" Sandifer, Guard Dickie Axtell, and Guard Melvin Oakes. Center Gordon "Moose Merritt and Forward John Lancaster made the trip, although they did not see action.

The Eagles arrived in the sunshine state at their hotel, the San Carlos, at 8:30 p. m. Thursday and were given complimentary tickets to the Florida Theatre for that night. They were treated very cordially while greests of the Pensacola Junior College.

Two Supporters

Prior to the initial battle with Hinds and Jacksonville locking horn two rooters for the Eagles appeared. Waverly Liles, a former Hinds Junior College student and brother to Bill and Mary Ann Liles and a Mr. Thuman of Jackson were the two Eagle backers. Liles and Thuman were present in every session of the tournament to give the Eagles encouragement.

Other Eagle supporters other than the two above were Manager Al Burnett, bus driver Amos Jack Gray, and this writer.

Jacksonville topped Hinds 81-66 in the opening rounds of the tournament, although it was not as bad as the score indicates. The Eagles climbed within three points of the Florida team in the last half and failed to keep going at a furious pace.

We were guests of the enchanted city Friday morning and toured the modern military United States Naval aviation training base and the Old Spanish Forts. Also on tap were many other points of interest including Santa Rosa Island, over 40 miles of the world's whitest sand beaches and Fort Pickens State Park. The Island is surrounded by the Gulf of Mexico and Pensacola Bay.

One Telegram

Friday afternoon before playing the first game of the tournament the Eagles received their only telegram. The telegram read, "T. A. Ricks, Coach, Hinds Junior College, Basketball team, San Carlos Hotel, Pensacola, Florida. Good Luck To A Wonderful Team Play Your Best And We Know You Will Win. Sylvia Lane, Faye Burdette, Carolyn Powell, Juanita Rayborn, and Sylvia." The latter quintet is better known as aces among the members of the basketball squad.

Hinds Junior College and Jacksonville played the first basketball game ever to be played in Pensacola's new municipal auditorium, one of the finest in the South, located on the Pansacola Bay.

The Eagles left early Sunday morning for Hinds Junior College with a consolation trophy, Smith's All-Star trophy, and with many fond memories, warm greetings and amiable fellowship in beautiful Pensacola

Hinds President

PRESIDENT G. M. McLENDON

President G. M. McLendon begins this week a series of scheduled addresses to seniors in the high schools of Warren, Madison, Yazoo, Rankin, and Hinds counties.

On his visit to Vicksburg yesterday, he was accompanied by Miss Hilda Brantly, college secretary, and Joan Nutt, freshman from Carr Central and daughter of Mr. Noel Nutt, Superintendent of Education in Warren County.

Mr. McLendon spoke to approximately fifty Vicksburg senior girls. Today he will meet with the graduating boys of that city. Thursday he will meet with the county seniors in rural areas of Warren county.

Foreign Students Come As Freshmen Second Semester

Three new students from faraway lands will be members of the student body in the second semester

Two brothers, Haron and Heros Nicholas-Yaghub will enter from Tamadon High school, Tehran, Iran; and John Vincent Patti, from Progresso de Yoro, Honduras.

The applicants from Iran with similar names are not twins, but both are in their early 20's, Haron will major in engineering, and Heros has chosen agriculture for his major.

Some of the unusual achievements of these students are credits in Persian reading, Arabic, foreign language dictation and composition, astromomy, together with subjects common to the American schools.

John Patti has already arrived on the campus and states that he feels at home, and is already happy at Hinds. John has visited the campus before with his parents, and with his brother Vitto who graduated here in 1954.

John is 19 years old, and he expects to major in civil engineering.

Present Students Transfer As New Freshmen Enter For Term

The end of the first semester, January 20, will mark important steps for some sophomores and for more freshmen. Some sophomores will complete work for graduation, others will transfer to senior institutions with sufficient credit to enter third year of college. A number of freshmen will enter college, some from other campuses, and some from the local high school division

YWCA Cabinet To Meet Tonight

Tonight at 7 o'clock the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet in business session will plan for installation of the new officers of the organization to be held early in the new semester.

The new officers will take over responsibilities of the organization and the former officers will be available through the semester for consultation and guidance.

Those who will soon lay aside the active leadership of the Y. W. C. A. are the following: Glenda Rush, president; Vonda Viverette, vice-president; Mary Lou Kersh, secretary; Hermanelle Hearn, treasurer; Nan Lane, worship chairman; Florene Greenlee, membership chairman; and Betty McKaskill, social chairman.

Applying for diplomas to be awarded in the spring graduation ceremony are Jo Anne Foshee and Betty Webb, who will enter the business field as secretary and bookkeeper respectively; Don Thompson, who will enter Ole Miss as a business major; and Billy Sam Walton, Ralph Smith, and Albert Delegram. The last two named have completed their work by attending night school.

Those who have announced their plans to transfer with two years of credit are Bill Liles, who plans to enter Mississippi College, and Florene Greenlee, who will enter Delta State.

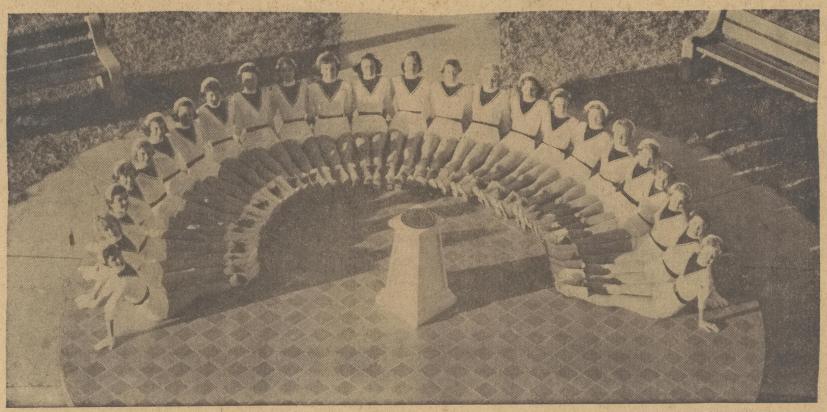

Freshman are continuing to enroll. The list of new freshmen is not yet complete.

Course Is Offered

Limited to sophomore engineering students, primarily, a course in Slide Rule will be offered in the second semester and scheduled at the activity period on Fridays — 10:20-11:00 a. m., according to Miss Mildred Herrin, Registrar.

This course will be taught by Mr. James P. Smith, radio instructor in the night school. Particularly valuable for engineering majors and a non-credit course, the class

The Hinds Hi-Steppers, under the direction of Mrs. Anna Bee, will appear in the Rex Parade at Mardi Gras in New Orleans in the latter part of February. The Hinds Eagle Band will also make the trip and will be one of the marching groups in the parade. This appearance is one of the many performances given by the two musical groups each year. Pictured above, left to right are: Jo Ann Nutt, Carolyn Wright, Betty Furness, Martha Gillespie, Minnie Louise Evans, Pat Means, Bebe Epperson, Mary Will McKenzie, Joy Zeringue, Melanie Matthews, Doris Toles, Mary Lou Kersh, Sue Stokes, Pat Young, Dot Roper, Mary Marguerite Hart, Nancy Carter, Florence Williams, Ann Laseter, Helen Cowart, Nona Williams, Sissy Graham, Cornelia Thompson, and Carolyn Raye Bourne.

Make Your Problems Known

Complaining about school regulations seems to be a favorite pastime of students everywhere, even at Hinds.

Almost everyone agrees that rules are a necessary part of any organization, but we sometimes come in contact with a regulation that we do not understand. Consequently, we are reluctant to comply with it.

When this happens to you, why not find out why such a rule has been made instead of just complaining about it?

How to go about this? First, make sure you have a real problem, then go to your class officers. If they can't help you they will send you, or go themselves to your class sponsor who will help you.

If you receive no satisfaction here, or if your problem is too personal, you will find the doors of the president's office open to you at all times.

We of the Hindsonian staff have many problems connected with the paper. We have always found President McLendon to be more than happy to advise and help us.

We at Hinds are very fortunate in having a president who, although a busy man, is always ready to give generously to his students of his time and his knowledge gained through years of experience as a school administrator.

Get on the Ball, Reporters

Frequently someone comes by the office of the Hindsonian and complains that the activities of his club or class is not getting space in the paper.

We investigate, we find this to be true. We investigate further, we find that the organization in question has a reporter.

Upon questioning our staff members we find that this reporter has turned in no news to us, and has not even made himself known to us.

Why do we elect reporters if not to report? Are class and club elections merely popularity contests?

We know that not all the reporters for the different organizations on the campus can write copy for a newspaper, but we feel that anyone can tell the facts and let some of the staff write the story.

As an officer or as a member of an organization you should hold your reporter responsible for the news coverage of your organization.

Thanks For Cooperation

Since this is the last edition of the Hindsonian for this semester and the last edition for some staff members we wish to thank those that have made it possible for us to publish the Getting out a school paper is never easy and the problem this year was made harder by the unexpected resignation early in September of Mr. Harold Turnage, who for ten years had been the faculty adviser for the Hindsonian.

To fill Mr. Turnage's place would take time. Until that time someone must help us.

Miss Gertrude Davis of the English staff stepped into the picture and ever since has most capably assisted and advised us.

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

Mary Louise Baker By IRL DEAN RHODES

We take great pleasure this week in presenting as our "Sophomore of the Week," Mary Louise Baker.

Brandon claims this popular young lady as one of her favorite daughters. Mary Louise graduated in the 1954 class from Brandon High School where she racked up her share of the popularity honors. Some of her top honors in high school include Brandon High Football Queen, Rankin County Farm Bureau Queen, and a number of Who's Who contest honors.

She was a cheerleader for three years, member of the basketabll team for three years, girls 4-H club president for two years, and participant in many other extra-curricular activities.

The brown-eyed Brandon lass stands 5'3" and weighs 110 pounds tics are important she chalks up a well-balanced 34-22-34 measurement. If the dark haired Miss were looking over our shoulder now, we are sure she would have the same good-natured look.

While interviewing Mary Louise, we asked her to describe her opinion of Hinds Junior College. "I like the people; the teachers; the classes; and everything about Hinds Junior College," the Hinds sophomore remarked. In her initial year at Hinds she was a homecoming maid, campus favorite, cheerleader, and a member of the tennis team. This year she was one of the homecoming maids, a campus favorite, and she was the girl elected in the cutest couple contest.

Mary Louise's statement concerning boys was similar to what we had anticipated. When we sounded the question her eyes began to sparkle and her lips uttered "Boys are fine for other girls as there is only one left on my list."

Her favorite hobby is playing tennis and second on her memorandum is sewing and cooking. From the food department she likes apples as her No. 1 choice. She dearly loves the round fleshy fruit.

Mary Louise, a secretarial science major, plans to work next year. We are sure her blithe personality along with her talkative wit will carry her a long way in our ever changing

May God add his richest blessings to your every undertaking, at the present time. Where statis-Mary Louise Baker

us Groups Sponsor

The Vesper Services for the new semester will be sponsored as in the first semester by the religious organizations on the campus.

These services are non-denominational and provide a mid-week worship period for all who attend. Held in the college auditorium each Wednesday evening at seven o'clock, "Vesper", including music of the new organ, and giving many students opportunities for leadership, is usually well attended by a large group of students of different denominations, and by some who have not yet allied themselves with a particular church.

Sponsors of the services, and the order of sponsorship are the following: Baptist Student Union, Canterbury Club, Catholic Youth Organization, Hi-Y, Wesley Foundation, Westminister Fellowship, Y. M. C. A., Y-Teens, Y. W. C. A Miss Davis already had enough work to keep her time more than filled. Somehow she has found time to work unselfishly to help us produce a better paper for this school.

And of utmost importance has been the excellent cooperation of the administration. Without such cooperation the Hindsonian could not have survived.

For the first time in several years the Hindsonian was represented at the national convention of the Associated Collegiate Press held in Detroit in the fall. As usual we had representatives at the fall workshop for the Mississippi Junior College Press Association. Nothing of value has been denied us.

Our printers and very good friends, the Keiths of Keith Press in Raymond, have not failed to get the paper printed on schedule every week even though they were often late getting copy from us. Much credit is due them.

Most students and faculty members have been helpful and complimentary.

To all of these we give our thanks, they are the ones who make our paper possible.

Phi Theta Kappa Plans Initiation

Gamma Lambda Chapter, local group of Phi Theta Kappa, non-secret national scholastic society for junior colleges, is now making plans for early initiation of new members.

New members will be named after the records of the first semester are filed with the registrar.

These records reviewed by the faculty-chapter committee, together with records of character and citizenship will determine the list of those who will be named pledges of the society.

Students who make the list are those whose grades rank in the uper ten per cent of the college enrollment and who receive the unqualified nomination of the faculty-student committee appointed to review their records.

Each year groups of students attend the National Convention of Phi Theta Kappa.

This year the convention will be held in Columbia, Missouri.

Students Urged To Aid Polio Drive

Hinds Junior College will enter unofficial competition against four colleges to raise funds for the March of Dimes.

The drive on the Hinds campus will be promoted by separate classes, each contributing to a general fund. It will draw to a close by the end of this month.

In order for the classes to secure money for this drive, they may sponsor athletic and social events, or other projects to build up their respective funds.

Stan Hart is the chairman of the Hinds County March of Dimes for 1956. He urges all college students to participate in the drive and help with projects to build up the fund. The drive is sponsored by the Jackson Junior Chamber of Commerce with the cooperation of many smaller organizations throughout the county.

Gym Bleachers Installed During Christmas Season

Students at Hinds Junior College had a chance for the first time last night to use the new college seats in the gymnasium.

The seats were installed during the holidays. They will seat a capacity of 1,000 fans. The seats are 22 inches back to back, and they have a rise of 11½ inches to allow for more leg space. The normal seats are 9 inches.

They are made of vertical grain fir by Brunswick Horn Company. The seats are the latest and best gym seats available.

COURSE IS OFFERED

Miss Herrin advises all those who are interested in taking this course to complete their schedule arrangements by January 23.

Hindsonian Staff Members Resign

The resignations of two top-ranking Hindsonian staff members will become effective January 20.

Bill Liles, editor, and Donald Thompson, associate editor, are resigning as the semester end marks the completion of their work at Hinds.

Both editors will enter senior colleges on January 30 — Donald at Ole Miss, and Bill at Mississippi College. Neither will major in journalism, but both will minor in this field.

Donald authored the witty, newsy "country-boy" letters, a feature of the Hindsonian for the past two years.

Seniors Announce Forthcoming Play

The Senior class is planning a class play to be presented at the end of March. The play was selected by the class officers and sponsors this week. Their purpose is to raise funds for their Senior trip.

The Seniors in their drive for funds for their trip, possibly to Florida, have been successful in concessions at football games, cake auctions, raffles — radio, turkey, and ham — and two movies.

ENGLISH COMPOSITION

You see a beautiful girl walking down the street. You walk across the street, changing to verbal, and then become dative.

If she is not objective, you become plural—you walk home together.

Her brother is an indefinite article, and her mother is accusative and becomes imperative. You talk about the future, she changes the subject.

Her father becomes present, and you become past tense.

Mary Lou Kersh Enters Jackson Packard Contest

Mary Lou Kersh, of Jackson, was invited this week to enter the "Miss Packard" contest of 1956.

Monday, Mary Lou posed in formal dress for studio pictures to be entered in beauty competition with seven other contestants chosen from senior colleges in the State.

Saturday, January 14, Mary Lou will appear on TV, Channel 3, at five o'clock in the afternoon. For this apperance she will drive a new Packard onto the stage.

Mary Lou, a sophomore, was the college Homecoming Queen, campus favorite, and a member of many other activities on the Hinds campus

Boteler Awards Football Jackets

Four Hinds High students were awarded football jackets in chapel Tuesday by High School Coach Louis Boteler. The boys are: End Ross Allman, Tackle Lamar Gates, Guard Tommy Ray Cox, and Tackle Johnny Oberhousen.

All members of the first team received jackets that did not already have a jacket. The jackets were awarded through the courtesy of the school.

YOU CAN'T WIN

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio — (ACP) — The Wittenberg Torch lists this one in its favorite story section:

A successful businessman on a visit to his alma mater dropped in on his economics professor. Recalling that he used to have trouble with economics exams, he asked to see some of the current papers. Noting them casually, he observed:

"These are the same old ques-

"Yes" agreed the professor, "We never change the questions."

"But" said the visitor, "Don't you know the students will pass the questions from class to class?"

"Certainly" was the bland reply, "But in economics, we always change the answers."

Some people are even-tempered because they are in a bad mood all the time.

If you are looking for a helping hand, you will find none better than the one at the end of your College edged the Eagles 83-82 in a hard fought contest. It was the second conference defeat of the season for Coach Troy Ricks' Eagles.

The tilt with non-conference Pine-Sol Thursday night will feature two high scoring teams. The Eagles have a four-two record in the conference.

Hinds was defeated 114-97 early this season by the Pine-Sol crew in the Jackson City Auditorium. In all games played, Hinds has a record of five wins and four losses.

Six Eagle players are averaging in the double figures for the first nine games: Forward Buck Smith 21.6, Center Jack Golden 17.8, Guard Bobby Lee 14.9, Forward Tommy Vance 12.1, Forward Julian Sandifer 10.8, and Guard Jerry Ivy 10.4.

The game Thursday night will be in the hometown of the two starting Eagle guards, Jerry Ivy and Bobby Lee of Clinton.

Gookin's Sextette Plays Bagby Hall Thursday Night

The Hinds Junior College Commercial League girls' basketball team will clash with the Bagby Hall girls' team Thursday night at 8 p. m., in what is expected to be an evenly matched affair.

Mrs. Ann Gookin's sextet, sparked by the offensive play of Forward Gwen Post and the defensive play of Guards Ruth Martin and Frances Bliss, topped the league leading N & W Overalls crew 36-28 last week in one of their best games of the Coach Gookin is pleased over the improvement of the Eaglettes since the holidays. "The team work is better and the players know their positions better," was the comment of the girls' mentor after watching the Eaglettes drill early this week.

The Raymond sextet is planning to give the Jackson team plenty of trouble this week. Game time is planned for 8 p. m. at the airbase gym in Jackson.

Plans For Dance Now In Growth

The officers of the freshman and sophomore classes are jointly planning a bid dance and a night of entertainment in late February or early March.

Plans are being made for the event to be formal. The Red Tops of Vicksburg are being secured for the entertainment. The date is indefinite at the present time, although the dance will be on a Friday or Saturday night.

Side Lines

By IRL DEAN RHODES

The pride of Florence, Miss., Buddy Alliston, Ole Miss football star, has been voted the "Outstanding Linesman" of the Cotton Bowl football game at Dallas last Monday. Alliston was officially credited with 15 tackles.

Tony Verucchi, Hinds Junior College's candidate for the Middleweight State Golden Gloves championship, is capable of knocking out an opponent at most any time, and we are sure he will go a long way toward winning the state championship. Good luck to a hard fighting Auburn Fullback Joe Childress was the sparkplug of the South's 12-2 victory over the North squad at Mobile last weekend.

All-American Art Davis of the Mississippi State Maroons has signed a pro contract with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

We would like to commend Coach Louis Boteler, assistant coach Gwen Post, and every member of the high school girls' basketball team for the fine showing made in the Pearl Invitational basketball tournament.

Otto Graham of the Cleveland Browns has made the all time "Grid Hall of Fame" team since retiring two weeks ago.

DePaul, a college near Chicago, won its 110th straight home basket-ball game Saturday night in a 71-45 victory.

The Boston Red Sox slugger, Ted Williams, has been given the Clark C. Griffith Memorial Award for the player deemed to have made the most outstanding contribution to baseball during the year.

Hans Johnson, a former Hinds Junior College student, has made honorable mention on the All-American Junior College All-Star team at Kilgore, Texas. Hans made the All-Conference squad in the Texas loop. The Williamson Rating System released the results of the All-American teams in December. The star end is engaged to one of Hinds Junior College's loveliest lassies, Bebe Epperson.

Mrs. Ann Gookin, Hinds' energetic girls physical education teacher, is definitely rated as our lady of the week for winning the Capital Invitational Women's golf tournament last week. Mrs. Gookin is a wife, a mother, a P. E. teacher, girls basketball coach, tennis team coach, and an ace tennis and golf player.

Hinds High Eaglettes Win Tourney; Taylor And Lou Carter All-Stars

Raymond's Hinds High Eaglettes edged the Pelahatchie Blue Demons 36-35 in the finals of the Pearl Invitational Tournament Monday night.

A crowd of about 1300 fans watched the Eaglettes rack up their ninth victory of the season after winning a quarter final game and a semi-final game prior to the final encounter.. Forward Bettye Taylor and Guard Lou Ann Carter made the All-Star team composed of six players.

Verucchi Enters Jackson Golden Gloves Tourney

Tony Verucchi, Hinds Junior College freshman, will enter the State Golden Gloves Tournament in Jackson on January 18 and 19. Tony will possibly box on Wednesday night the 18th unless he is able to draw a bye.

The ex-Marine hails from Natchez. He attended high school at Washingfon High school where he lettered in basketball for three years, in baseball for four years, and football his last year in high school.

Tony will be in the middleweight class against strong competition. He is 5'10" tall and weighs 160-pounds with a normal chest of 38"; expanded, it is 40". The boxing candidate has a reach of 70", calf of 13", thigh of 19", waist of 29", forearm of 11", biceps of 13", and neck of 15".

Late Tuesday of this week he had no comment on his chances of being a contender in the tournament; however, he did make a statement about his physical shape. Verucchi remarked, "I believe I am in fair condition."

Verucchi's trainer said that he had been looking good in practice, and he felt he could stand his own against most any opposition. He has been training in the Y. M. C. A. gym, and airbase gym since January 1 were determined to win by scrapping to the final gun. The winner was not sure until the final whistle sounded.

The evenly fought affair was nip and tuck the entire 28 minutes of play with the Demons holding a 8-7 edge going into the second stanza of play. The Eaglettes showed spirit and calmness to overcome the lead by halftime to knot the score 19-19 with Bettye Taylor and Mary M. Hart acting as offensive cogs.

The score at the end of the third quarter gave both teams 29 points each. With two minutes left on the clock Hinds led 36-33 and with 1:45 left the Eaglettes were holding the slim 36-35 final game ending. Lou Ann Carter, flashy Eaglette guard, intercepted a Pelahatchie pass in the last minute of play and the Eaglettes froze the ball for the final minute of play to win the eighth annual Pearl Invitational basketball tournament.

It was the first time that a team from Raymond had won the Pearl tournament. They defeated Brandon girls 45-42 in the first game and topped the Pearl sextet 54.51 in the semi-final game.

The Eagles entered the tournament and lost their first game to Brandon with the Bulldogs naming the score.

GOLF WINNER, Mrs. Anne Gookin, Hinds girls P. E. instructor, won the Capital Golf Tournament last week in Jackson. Mrs. Gookin is entering the Jackson City Golf Tournament this week, and is expected to be a strong contender for championship honors. She is a native of Canada and received her degree in physical education from McGill University. Mrs. Gookin is the college girls' basketball coach and tennis team coach. The Hinds P. E. teacher is married to Red Gookin of Jackson and they have one daughter, two year old Sandra.

this week and will play in the Hinds County Tournament at Forest Hill this weekend. The boys play Edwards in the initial game Wednesday and the girls match with Utica Thursday night.

DICKIE AXTELL, Hinds Junior College guard has seen action in a number of games is year. Axtell is not a starter on the Eagle team, although he has been looking good as an understudy by scoring in almost every game he played in. He is from Richland, Mississippi, where he starred in the round-ball sport last year. The Eagle second team guard is an alert and quick moving lad. He is 5' 11" inches tall and weighs 145 pounds. Last year he played in the first Mississippi All-Star Basketball game. He will possibly see action Thursday night at Clinton against the Pine-Sol All-Stars.

Irl Rhodes Named Hindsonian Editor For 1956-57 Term

Irl Dean Rhodes of Brandon, sports editor in the first semester. has been named editor-in-chief of the Hindsonian for the 1956-57 ses-

Upon entering Hinds last September, Editor Rhodes brought to the campus an unusual record of writing experience, having edited his high school paper, as well as the school annual, and having coauthored the student handbook. During his senior year his by-line covering sports events was read at intervals in the state papers.

Irl Dean is president of the freshman class, and is active in the work of Wesley Foundation.

Students Lack School Spirit

The greatest need at Hinds Junior College is interest in the activities on the campus. It is a crying, pathetic, pitiful shame and disgrace to any school for only about 50 students to show up for a junior college basketball game as was the case Saturday night.

No support and no school spirit! What kind of record do you expect a team to have? It is high time we pitch in the towel and quit if no more than 50 spectators are interested in seeing a top notch athletic event.

Hinds played Holmes Junior College last week at Goodman before a packed house. The new president of Holmes complimented the student body for the splendid support and fine school spirit shown at the Hinds game.

Does Holmes have a better college than Hinds, does Holmes have better students than Hinds, or just what is

A modern gym with new seats, and still students don't care enough to be proud of their school and team.

Win, lose, or draw, students should be proud of their school and loyal to their basketball team. The reputation and success of any school depends on the students.

A student browsing through the Hinds Library would probably be contains. In addition to the many books on the convenient open shelves, the library carries a number of daily papers and several weeklies. A bonus is the Sunday edition of the New York Times.

The library receives more than one hundred magazines covering a wide range of subjects, from Agriculture, through Art, Creative Writing, Fashion, Music, Photography, and Science, to World News. The circulation of books and magazines for 1954-55 was 11,441.

> The style of open shelves practiced in the HJC library gives everyone the opportunity of seeing the entire library collection and making any selection he wishes. This is an advantage which is not enjoyed by the users of some libraries and one which should be respected by the careful checking of any material of any kind taken from the library at any time.

The main Reading Room is for reading and study. In the Sociology Room are found books under the several divisions of sociology, e. g., social problems, political science, education, vocations, etiquette, industry, banking, etc. This room features vocations, with a case of books on the subject and files of pamphlets on approximately one hundred vocations. In the near future these files will be enlarged for filing material on 144 vocations, according to Mrs. Gertrude Rowzee, head librarian.

The books in the field of fine art have recently been moved into the room at the northwest end of the library. These include material on such subjects as painting, sculpture, architecture, music, recreation, and

Dr. E. Newman To Address Hinds Student Assembly

Dr. Evelyn Newman, noted lecturer of New York City, will be guest speaker at Assembly, Tuesday morning, February 14.

A southern woman, native of Kentucky, Dr. Newman holds graduate degrees from the universities of Chicago and Dublin, Ireland.

The topic of her address to Hinds students and faculty, and to interested visitors is "World Affairs and Our Citizenship Responsibilities."

Dr. Newman is reputed to be particularly gifted in holding the attention of her audiences on whatever topic she selects. The Town Hall Club of New York City said of her, "Our members are deeply devoted to Dr. Newman and have told that they could listen indefinitely to her clear, soft voice, speaking with authority on the subjects she selects. We were delighted with her choice of words, which never fail her. She speaks entirely with-

This speaker will be in the South as a guest of the Jackson Branch of the A. A. U. W. She was secured for the Hinds Assembly through the efforts of Mrs. Gertrude Rowzee, Hinds librarian and treasurer of the A. A. U. W.

In the stack room are filed back numbers of periodicals which are not bound. These include back issues of most magazines secured for the past ten years.

Student assistants in the library are George Marie Frasier, Margie Bridges, and Hugh Tidwell. George Marie is assistant cataloguer and plans to be a librarian. Margie is assistant circulation manager, and Hugh is periodicals librarian.

Miss Dauphine Jones of Carson joined this staff this year as assistant librarian.

A very valuable donation was made to the library by Miss Ruth Boyd, who was a member of Hinds Junior College English faculty for several years previous to her retirement in August. This gift is a reproduction of King Arthur's Round Table, copied from a pamphlet which Miss Boyd was able to secure from the Hall Keeper of Winchester Castle in England where the table now hangs. With the reproduction of the Round Table, Miss. Boyd also gave a framed photostatic copy of a few pages of the booklet giving facts concerning the Round Table and the castle.

A few years ago President Mc-Lendon secured for the school several reproductions of famous paintings by noted artists. Many of these were framed and hung in the library.

New Editor And New Ideas

The editorial policy of the Hindsonian is under a new editor this week and new ideas will make up the policy of the paper.

The editor of the paper, after careful reasoning, will support of any program for the betterment and advancement of Hinds Junior College. The editorial purpose will be sound and it will always be clearly stated.

The Hindsonian will either be for a program or it will be against a program. It will be the policy of the paper never to straddle the fence on any issue.

New members are invited for tryouts on the staff. order to give good coverage good reporters are necessary.

We accept the editorship as a challenge. Comment, favorable or unfavorable, is desired.

Student Guest Editorial

Would you deliberately be discourteous to a guest, or talk to someone else while he is speaking to you? Of course not. In fact, you would be insulted for someone to insinuate that you would.

And yet we do this very thing week after week. Guests who come to our school to speak in Assembly are our own personal guests. They are interested in each one of us. They are speaking to each one of us. When we refuse to listen and prevent others from hearing them, we are being discourteous to our guests.

Of course we do not do these things intentionally. Usually we are only thoughtless.

Let's not give our guests a wrong impression of ourselves or our school. Fundamentally we are courteous. Our school has a wide reputation as a friendly place. Let's keep that name.

With only a little effort we can make our guests feel appreciated. They will be glad they came, and so will we.

Benjamin Franklin's Anniversary

Timeliness and timelessness mark the many sayings of Benjamin Franklin whose 150th anniversary we are observing this week. For

He that cannot obey cannot command.

Being ignorant is not so much shame, as being unwilling to learn.

Those who in quarrels interpose must often wipe a bloody nose.

A good example is the best sermon.

Well done is better than well said.

The worst wheel of the cart makes the most noise.

Be slow in choosing a friend, slower in changing.

Franklin believed in God and that "the most acceptable service we can render Him is in doing good to His other children."

It is hard for an empty sack to stand upright.

Franklin gave sound advice to editors in the statement, "In the conduct of my newspaper I carefully excluded all libeling and personal abuse which is of late years become so disgraceful to our country."

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK-

Charles Wicker

By ANN JOHNSON

This week we present Charles Wicker as our "Sophomore of the Week." Charles is 6 feet, 1 inch tall, weighs 155 pounds, and has brown hair and brown eyes.

Charlie gives Louisville as his birthplace and his home address as 208 Thelma Street. And he adds-"my phone number is 254J, in case any girls are interested."

Since coming to HJC, Charlie, in his freshman year, participated in Circle K, Phi Theta Kappa, the Formal Choir, the HJC Orchestra, the Hinds Eagle Band, holding the office of president, and in the Who's Who Contest, having been chosen Campus Favorite.

This year he is Vice-president of Circle K, again president of the Eagle Band, president of Phi Theta Kappa, and is a member of the Formal Choir, Wesley Foundation, the HJC Boys' Quartet, and in the Who's Who Contest was elected Campus Favorite, Most Popular Boy, and Most Versatile Boy.

Charlie lists as his favorite foods Italian spaghetti and oysters. He enjoys as pastimes playing tennis, ping-pong, and certainly not least, music. He is familiar to all of us as the "young man with a horn," around the campus. He lists, among music, as his all-time favorite, "Memories of You," by Paul Wes-

Charlie's hobbies include tennis, food, and Annette McCluer.

When asked for remarks about Hinds, he said, "It could be better, but it could be worse. I always feel undernourished, and look it, too!"

He has only this to say about girls: "I'm scared of them."

Charlie, a music major, intends to continue his college work next year, but is undecided as to where, although he has Tulane and Louisiana State University in mind.

After college, he wants to join the Marines, and after two years of service, either work in a dance band or direct a high school band.

We are sure that with his talent, coupled with determination and hard work, Charlie will go far in the music world. Good luck to you, Charlie, and may happiness be yours and may you achieve your highest ambitions.

Wesley Introduces New Study Theme

The local Wesley Foundation is now in the midst of a study course using the theme, "I Yollow." I Follow is the book used as a Lenten reading project for the Youth Emphasis of the Methodist Church, and will be used for the study course and discussion.

The first meeting involving the study course was held on Monday night, January 23, in the Music Auditorium. The study group will be led each Monday night by different members of Wesley, and will provide an interesting and inspiring time.

All present members of Wesley and any Methodist students who wish to join are urged to attend the meetings, which will continue until Easter. The members of Wesley would also like to remind those of you who do not have a meeting of your denomination to attend on Monday nights, that a hearty welcome is extended by your local Wesley Foundation.

Plans are now in the making for a group of Wesley members to attend the MSM Spring Conference to be held this year, February 10-12, at MSCW, Columbus, Mississippi. The theme for the conference will be "Conversion-From What-To What?" and the guest speaker will be the Rev. Peter Bertocci. Transportation | will be provided and plans are being made for the local Wesley to provide the registration fee for all who want to go. The conference is always an inspiring experience.

Approximately thirty members were present. A number of these brought guests who are interested in joining the IRC.

Faculty members present were Miss Lula Mae Fowler and Mr. J. R. Harris, sponsors. Mrs. J. R. Harris and son, Jo Bob, were also guests of the evening.

Football Jackets Awarded Seventeen College Players

Coach Joe Renfroe and Coach Bob Feurst have issued 17 football jackets to lettermen of the 1955 Hinds Junior College football team.

The record for the Eagles this year was five wins and three losses: One game was lost by one point and the other two by six and seven points each.

Gully Welcomed With Reception

In addition to his work at Hinds, Mr. Gully will have BSU responsibilities at Millsaps, Mississippi, and Belhaven colleges in this area.

The BSU has opened a new office located on the second floor of the Administration Building.

Here literature, information, and posters are displayed in the outer section of the office, and space in the inner office is adequate for the regular functions of BSU work, together with private and group conferences.

All Baptist students are urged to come to the BSU office to become better acquainted with plans for the year's work, and to participate in the activities of the group.

A committee is now at work arranging for drapes and other decorations for the campus Baptist headquarters.

Tuesday night, January 10, the new B. S. U. office was the setting for a reception honoring the new B. S. U. secretary, Mr. Harold Gul-

Vonda Vivrette, president of the campus guests, and Rev. Bob Simmons, pastor of the Raymond Baptist Church, greeted a large number of students and faculty members who called during the evening. The Rev. Mr. Simmons introduced the guests to Mr. Gully, honor guest.

Billie Jean Phillips presided over the guest register.

Jo Anne Lane, Anita Watkins, and Patsy Smith served punch and cookies during the reception.

Senior Trip Rules Listed Careful Observance Noted

Seniors who are looking toward the annual senior trip to be scheduled in the spring are observing definite requirements set up to qualify those students who will be privileged to go.

Listed as "Rules that must be carried out", and distributed to all class members are the following:

Attendance at all class meetings; performance of all duties assigned; attendance at college assembly; in line for graduation at end of second semester or at end of summer school; not classified as freshman at beginning of fall 1955 session; not having taken an earlier annual senior trip; two or more credits earned in the current year; and not having an "unexcused" absence on one's record.

Eaglettes Meet Waves In Tourney

The Hinds Junior College Commercial League girls basketball team is playing in the annual Y. W.-C. A. basketball tournament in Jackson this week.

Coach Anne Gookin's lassies played Miss. Power and Light Co. last night and will meet the Jitney Jungle Red Waves Wednesday night (tonight) in a regular scheduled affair.

Hinds has defeated the Jitney team once and they have topped the Eaglettes on one occasion of regular season play. Thursday night the Hinds sextet will clash with the winner of the Bagby Hall and Y .-W. C. A. contest.

The last half of the season the Eaglettes are undefeated with a record of three wins and no losses. In the initial part of the season the Hinds girls managed to end up with an even record of three wins and three losses.

Tony Verucchi proved his ability and the type youngster he represents Hinds Junior College last week in the State Golden Gloves tournament at Jackson. Tony was the State novice welterweight champ and winner of the coveted Sportsmanship award.

It is rather odd for a home economics teacher to rate front page of the sports section in a paper, but it has happened; and she is from Hinds Junior College, Miss Frances Bratschi. The State Times carried the information in Carl Walters' Shavin's Sunday. Wally Sheil, a former professional basketball player, was featured in the article and this is the dope.

"We have it straight from headquarters that Sheil and Miss Frances Bratschi, home ec teacher at Hinds Junior College in Raymond, plan to commit matrimony in the not-so-distant future."

Hinds County Senator Mitchell Robinson introduced a bill in the Mississippi Legislature this week to increase the seating capacity of War Memorial Satdium to 40,000. The bill will turn the operation of the stadium over to the state instead of Hinds County. This is the one and only way big-time football is ever coming to Jackson. We are confident the proposal will pass both houses of our lawmakers.

According to a well-informed source a bill has been placed in the hopper of the legislature that would forbid any Mississippi college to play in any athletic event with teams having Negroes on them. The measure is expected to pass with ease, and it will definitely be a good law.

Any school official violating the law could be sent to prison for one year and fined $2,500. And state funds to the offending school would be cut off.

While on the subject of athletics and racial problems we do not believe a Mississippi team will ever be invited to another Junior Rose Bowl classic, and in case a team is invited, a law will be already provided saying the team can't go.

Saturday night of this week the Hinds Junior College Eagles will host the Pearl River Wildcats respectively and need your whole-hearted support. Go out and root for Coach Troy Ricks' fighting Eagles.

Statistic-wise, we pass on these facts. Your blood travels 168,000 miles daily and your heart beats 103,689 times daily as you eat 3½ pounds of food daily.

A person breathes 23,240 times daily, speaks 4800 words daily, exercises 7,000,000 brain cells daily, and turns over from 25 to 35 times in his sleep.

Local Cagers Clobber Perkinston; Host Pearl River Saturday Night

Coach Troy Ricks' Hinds Junior College Eagles will travel to Jones Thursday night to meet the Jones Bobcats, and Saturday night the Eagles will play host to the Pearl River Wildcats.

Last Saturday night the Eagles defeated the Perkinston Bulldogs 83-68 in an easy victory. Forwards Buck Smith and Julian Sandifer were the big guns for the Eagles on offense as Smith hit for 21 points and Sandifer poured in 23 markers. Tuesday night of this week the Eagles entertained the Decatur Warriors before a large crowd of fans.

In the Perkinston game other Eagle scorers were Guards Bobby Lee and Jerry Ivy with 14 and 10 points respectively. Forward Tommy Vance managed to toss in seven markers while Guard Dickie Axtell hit two baskets.

The Raymond quintet has chalked up six wins and three losses in the Mississippi Junior College circuit. In all games played Hinds has seven victories and the same amount of defeats.

Jack Golden, 6 foot 8 inch Hinds Center, is no longer with the ball club due to scholastic reasons. Golden was averaging 15 points per game for the Eagles. He played his last ball game for Hinds last Tuesday night.

On Tuesday night, January 31, the Hinds crew will meet the Woods Junior College team on the local gym floor in what promises to be a real nip and tuck affair.

Tony Verucchi Wins State Crown In Jackson Golden Gloves Tourney

Displaying plenty of speed and ample power, Tony Verucchi fought his way to the State novice welterweight championship last week in the Golden Gloves Tournament in Jackson.

Verucchi received possibly the greatest honor in the tournament by winning the individual Best Sportsmanship award. He slugged his way through and conducted his ability in top form.

The swarthy 146-pounder fought the eighth fight of the tournament on Wednesday night and defeated Marvin Watts of Ole Miss in a split decision. The second night of activities was the finals and Verucchi really had the works cut out for him.

In order to win the championship, he had to win two fights Thursday night. He opened up the 17-bout evening with a split decision over his Jackson teammate, Herb Young. Fourteen bouts later, Verucchi was back at it. He took a technical knock-out at 1:40 of the third round from Hubert Boykin, a 146-pound lad of Greenville.

Verucchi fired a fast hard punch to the head and ripped open a cut over the left eye of Boykin and made him a dejected loser and gave Verucchi the novice welterweight title.

Hinds Junior College's representative was praised by sports writers present and was described as a smooth-punching boxer and could make the going rough for most any opposition.

The next stop for Verucchi will be in Memphis, Tenn., at the Mid-South Golden Gloves Tournament on February 1-3.

THREE BALLS are being displayed by the Detroit Vagabond Kings' Gene Wagner. Wagner is from Blackhill Teachers College, South Dakota. He played with the Kings last Thursday night when the Vagabond crew topped Hinds 57-52 in a close fought contest. The Kings displayed fancy ball handling in their victory over the Eagles.

Semester Results Are Tabulated; Eleven Hinds Students Earn All "A's" Hermanell Hearn, Ben Fulton, Albert Mahaffey Top College Honors

Semester quality point honors go to seventy-eight students. Special honors are won by thirty-two. All A's were maintained by eleven.

The thirty-two students, 19 in college and 13 in high school, maintained a 2.6 average for the first semester to win special honors according to Miss Mildred Herrin, registrar.

Of those winning special honors, Hermanell Hearn, Vicksburg; Ben Fulton, Jackson; and Albert Mahaffey, Jackson; won "all A's" in the college division, maintaining a 3.0 record.

In the high school division Dorothy Brock, Raymond; Tommy Ray Cox, Jackson; Betty Denton, Raymond; Robert Sheffield, Raymond; Mildred Strong, Bolton; Donald Trotter, Bolton; and Carolyn Wright, Raymond are on the "all A" list.

Other special honor students in college making 2.6 or above are the following: Carlie Brewer, Jackson; Robert Bridges, Brandon; James Currie, Jackson; Francis Donovan, Vicksburg; James Hays, Florida; Tom Hudson, Jackson; Mary Lou Kersh, Jackson; Mona McClurg, Vicksburg; Mary Will McKenzie, Raymond; Thomas McTaggart, Vicksburg; Melvin Oakes, Vicksburg; Flora Roberts, Utica; Glenda Rush, Potterville; Peggy Stubbs, Terry; Henrietta Thornton, Edwards; Van Worley, Sand Hill.

Special honors in high school were won by Minnie Louise Evans, Canton; Betty Irene Furness, Raymond; Donald Sheffield, Raymond.

College students winning "honors" with quality point averages ranging from 2.2 through 2.5 are the following: Frances Abernathy, Bolton; Don Ainsworth, Jackson; Marvin Baker, Brandon; Dot Beckham, Jackson; Vernon Bishop, Jackson; Ted Blanton, Greenville; Wilson Brent, Redwood; Joan Bruner, Jackson; Ruby Caldwell, Carlisle; Clifford Charlesworth, Jackson; Nan Ertle, Bentonia; James Furlow, Mendenhall; Martha Gillespie, Raymond; Kate Gonia, Vicksburg; Joe Harris, Lambert; James Hossley, Vicksburg; Raymond Huff, Jackson; James Hurst, Jackson; Fern Johnson, Vicksburg; Ann Johnson, Morton; John Lancaster, Bolton; Mary Ann Liles, Learned; Annette McCluer, Jackson; Mel-

College Yearbook Nears Completion

The old saying that a picture can say what a thousand words can't, is certainly exemplified in the 1956 edition of the Hinds Junior College yearbook. The Eagle, a picture story of the school days at Hinds in 1955-56, IS NOW ON THE ROAD TO COMPLETION.

Under the careful supervision of Mr. T. T. Beemon, who organizes and trains the staff year after year, this hard-working group has been keeping up to schdule, and by the last of this month will make the final shipment for The Eagle.

Members of the staff are the following: Raymon Huff, editor; Ann Alessio, assistant editor; Billy Beasley, photographer; other staff members — Vivian Morton, Jeannette Mahaffey, Flora Mae Roberts, Carolyn Templeton, Robert Huffman, Nina Green, Alma Grantham, and Vicki Simmons.

Some of the final steps in the work of the staff are the arranging of the wording and the spaces for pictures on each page, choosing the particular picture from many

The Hindsonian is published weekly during the school year except holiday and examination periods by students of Hinds Junior College.

Hinds Activities Numerous

The activities at Hinds Junior College are numerous. Since the beginning of the initial semester in September, the college has averaged at least two group activities a week that included the entire student body.

There are over 20 extra-curricular organizations on the campus managed by students under faculty guidance. Most of these organizations sponsor at least one social event per semester.

Besides extra-curricular activities on the campus, numbers of ball games, musical programs, and many other functions have been available to students at no fee what-so-ever. The opportunities have been ample, enough for all.

An activity of some kind is going on every night. On Monday night B. S. U. and Wesley Foundation meet; Tuesday night the paper staff and annual staff meet; Wednesday night vesper program; Thursday night a club meeting; and ball games are scattered all through the week.

The following are among the activities that have taken place this school year: one penny fair carnival, one district forestry queen contest, four college home football games, eight college home basketball games, one college basketball game at Clinton to which a bus carried student fans, one college basketball game at Jackson where students attended by bus, five high school home football games, two college football games away from home to which buses carried students, one musical Christmas program, and two movies presented by high school seniors.

One outstanding Lendon Player production, one backward dance, freshman day activities, two Circle K sponsored dances, nine high school basketball games, and one high school basketball game at Pearl attended by students transported by bus.

What do you want, a gravy train. Putting all jokes aside, it wouldn't hurt for students to study at least once a month.

If you have fully exercised 100 per cent effort in an attempt to take advantage of these opportunities offered at Hinds Junior College, your critical views will represent a minimum. In any and all cases of existence of critical views or opinions, there is a proper, accepted, and effective method for offering improvement. The knowledge of these opinions or criticisms assist greatly in offering improvement.

Open your eyes and look around, Chum, and see what you can see.

Let's All Give to March of Dimes

The annual March of Dimes Campaign is almost over. Everyone of us has had an opportunity to give to this worthy cause. Tonight Westside and Main Dormitories clash at 7 p. m. The proceeds will go for the March of Dimes. It is a challenge for us to attend this game tonight. We should give generously, cheerfully, and voluntarily to a fund that has done wonderful things in the past to combat the dreaded disease — infantile paralysis.

You may someday see a child walking down the street on crutches or with braces on, and if you have given your dimes to the March of Dimes, you can think, "maybe the small amount that I was able to give has helped that child to be able to walk."

Let these pleas to help a child walk again touch your heart, making you want to give to this fund every dime that you can.

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK-

Charlie Malone

By IRL DEAN RHODES

The newly elected president of the International Relations Club is our choice as Sophomore of the Week.

Charlie Malone, a tall, dark, and handsome character, hails from Ridgeland. He was born in Edinburg, in the northern part of the state.

S. U., a group leader, and an allround good guy. If he has not asked you to go to church yet just give him time.

Malone has four years of military service. While in the Navy, he was on a ship 42 months. He received his training at San Diego, Calif., and has served time in Hawaii, Japan, Korea, Alaska, Iwo Gima, and Okinawa.

He said he had been in only one fight since he was in the seventh grade and that was in the Navy-when a Marine ganged up on him. After the fight was over the Marine told him he was a prize-fighter. Malone remarked, "If he had told me before the fight, I could have saved a lot of skin."

The Ridgeland sophomore enjoys fly fishing, and craves fried shrimp. This is his statement about music, "I do not like Negro B-bop music, but some popular and semi-classical is my choice.

"I really like Hinds and I am enjoying my stay here very much," was Malone's comment concerning the Hinds County institution.

He is planning to attend Mississippi Southern next year and receive his B. E. degree before getting a job with an unnamed oil company. His major is geology.

May Charlie Malone have many fruitful memories as he looks back on the pages of time. May the very best be yours, Charlie.

On The State Campuses

Condensed by Nan Ertle

We noted a good student letter entitled "Student Wonders Why" in the January 11, issue of Bulldog Barks of Perkinston Junior College.

The new editor and the new business manager of the Purple and White are Alton Boyd, editor, and Bobby Smith, business manager. They will head the paper in 1956-1957 at Millsaps College.

HINDS JR. SAYS:

"Me love is gone, he did me dirt Me did not know he was a flirt. To those who love, I would forhid Less they get DOED like I been DID."

Congratulations to Richard Coe, a Carr Central High school student, on being selected as a member of the 1956 Mississippi Lions All-State Band.

Bill Satoris was recently elected editor of the Pegasus, literary magazine of Central High school. The Pegasus publishes the best poems, informl essays, and stories written by senior and junior high school students during the year.

Belhaven College recently received a gift of $75,000 from the Billups family. This gift is the largest initial gift in the forthcoming capital funds campaign for Belhaven College.

We enjoyed the editorial "The Worth of a Smile" in the January 18, issue of The Flashlight from Yazoo City High School. If we all followed the advice given in this editorial, this world would be a better place in which to live.

"And yet,

The choice is ours, the choice is always ours,

To see or not to see the living powers

That move behind the numbered points and times.

To love our fate or loathe it; to rejoice

Or weep or wearily accept; are free,"

Cafeteria Holds Perennial Interest: The Big Feed Goes On Thrice Daily

By A Student Who Knows

Follow the crowd three times a day and you will end up in the cafeteria waiting in line for a good Southern meal.

The Student Center Building roofs the Hinds Junior College cafeteria which, contrary to campus kidding, affords students three well balanced, expertly supervised meals

The Student Center Building has established a precedent of being the most versitile structure on the Hinds campus. Being occupied for the first time in the fall of 1952, this spacious, new building not houses a large grill, office, recreation room, and private dining room, but also one of the largest and most fully equipped cafeterias to be found anywhere in the state.

The cafeteria has a maximum seating capacity of five hundred, and does a teriffic task of serving from between 1400 to 1500 meals each day. This appears to be a lot of hard work - and it

Every meal is prepared under the expert care and supervision of a well educated and qualified dietitian, Mrs. Marian J. Welch, and assistant dietitian, Mrs. Ruby Ber-

Most of the milk, pork, eggs, poultry, and some fresh vegetables needed by the cafeteria are supplied through the 539 acre college farm at market price.

The very attractive girls behind the counter serving food with a smile, and the boys who untiringly wash dishes in the skullery are doing a very necessary job and are excellent examples of student employment on the campus.

"Any student who eats three full meals a day in the cafeteria gets over the required amount of bodily nutrition," guarantees Mrs. Welch. We agree wholeheartedly, and our hat is off to the kitchen staff in appreciation for their hard work.

Charles Malone Voted IRC Head In Recent Election

Charles Malone was elected president of the International Relations Club at a business meeting held Thursday night, January 26. Other officers elected to assume duties for the spring semester are the following: Nan Ertle, vice-president; Janice Lewis, secretary; Leonard Prisock, treasurer; Glenda Rush, re-

The officers who served the fall semester were the following: Robert Huffman, president; Glenda Rush, vice-president; Annette Cheatham, secretary; Ben Fulton, treasurer; Earline Vandevender, reporter.

> From Registrar's office: Friday, February 3, is the deadline for applications for diplomas.

Student Notice

Murray W. Kenna, director of admissions at Mississippi Southern College, will be at Hinds Junior College Wednesday, February 8, from 9 to 12 a.m. for conferences with all students who are interested in transferring to Southern for their senior college work.

Annual . . .

Practically all the annuals are already subscribed for. Only a few are yet available. These few will figure at 9,262. The American citibe sold on a "first come, first served" basis.

Mrs. T. T. Beemon is head of the finance department of The Eagle.

March of Dimes BENEFIT Westside vs. Main Girls Wednesday, 7 P. M. Basketball College Gym

Independent Team To Play Belhaven

The Hinds Junior College Commercial League basketball team will play Belhaven Thursday night in a regular scheduled game at the Airbase gym in Jackson.

On Monday night of next week the Eaglettes coached by Mrs. Anne Gookin will play N & W Overall and will possibly play the same team again on Tuesday night.

Monday night of this week the Eaglettes topped Bagby Hall of Jackson by three points.

Tacky Day Dimes Go To Polio Drive

Tomorrow is being declared "tacky day" at Hinds Junior College by a committee of students and faculty members. Each student and teacher is expected to dress "tacky" for the day. Those not seen in this manner of dress will be fined a dime.

Tacky day will be ended in the Recreation Hall with a dance beginning at 6 o'clock in the evening. Admission, ranging from a dime up, will be charged according to the manner in which the student dresses. All proceeds will go to the March of Dimes.

STUDENTS ABROAD

(ACP) — A survey by the Instiite of International Education in New York reveals that over 9,000 U. S. students studied abroad during 1954-55.

Initial reports set the exact zens studied in 47 foreign countries and political areas. The survey was limited to students having both U. S. citizenship and permanent residence in the United States.

Well-equipped Hinds Infirmary Serves An Important Function On Campus

By ANN JOHNSON

The Infirmary, an adequate and well-equipped institution, serves an important function on the Hinds campus. It is sometimes not realized by the students that the school hospital plays such an important part in the life of the campus. A 14-bed facility, the infirmary is fully equipped to take care of minor illnesses and minor injuries of the students and is in charge of a full-time employed registered nurse, Mrs. Fachel Robinson.

The present hospital building was finished in November, 1952, at which time Mrs. Robinson took charge. The space consists of a total of fourteen beds with three private rooms. Some of the conveniences of the infirmary include infra-red ray lights, well-stocked medical supplies, and just added this past year, a new dishwasher and a large refrigerator, among some other conveniences for the hospital kitchen.

Mrs. Robinson, on duty 24 hours a day, is kept busy with the various illnesses and injuries of the students, high school, college, vocational, and those living in the apartments. All major emergencies and severe cases of illness are referred to the local doctors for further aid.

Mrs. Robinson estimates the average number of persons who visit the infirmary daily as from six to fourteen, with three minor accidents; she states that two persons as a rule are hospitalized on an average day. There is about the same percentage of boys and girls each day. She reports that although there has been one small virus epidemic this year, more people on the average visited the infirmary last year than they have so far this year, when percentages and statistics are concerned. However, the next semester may raise the percentage of sickness for the current year.

When asked for any comments or advice for the students, Mrs. Robinson said in regard to the prevention of colds, that the students should avoid exposure to the weather and also to those other students showing signs of acute infection. Often a stay of two days in the infirmary will prevent a week-long absence from classes. She also suggested regard for safety measures on school grounds and in school buildings to prevent accidents; She strongly advises a complete physical examination and visit to the dentist every six months; and an X-ray every six months for every-

The infirmary, under the capable direction of Mrs. Rachel Robinson, stands ready to serve the students of Hinds Junior College.

Mrs. Rachel Robinson, R. N., in charge of the College Infirmary, administers medical aid to flu patient, Ramona Franklin, hospitalized in one of the wards of the hospital. Mrs. Robinson became a member of the Hinds Junior College faculty in the fall of 1952, coming from the State Health Department in Jackson. Always on call, the nurse makes her home in an apartment of the infirmary.

DON'T FORGET TO BUY YOUR FEBRUARY MEAL TICKET

Bought that February meal ticket yet?

If you want your "three squares" on Monday, February 6, you better see about that ticket before the business office closes, Saturday, February 4.

Of course there are any number of alternatives: you could go on a day-long diet; you could eat at home provided you are there, for instance.

But a warning — Monday morning is coming and no meal ticket, no eat, in the dining room, that is.

Basketball teams in the South score more points than those of any other region in the nation. One reason for that is the number of fouls called in a game. A total of 38 fouls are called on an average in a major college game. Before the bonus free throw shot was made a rule the average number of fouls per game was 44. games for a 35.1 per game average while their opponents have racked up 612 markers for a 30.6 per game score.

Forward Nancy Ruth Chapman and Guard Jimmy Lou Stingley are the two most improved players on the team. Chapman and Stingley have been the determining factor in a number of games.

Coach Boteler's boys led by Joe Milano and Johnny Oberhousen have been working on defense lately in order to be ready for the tournament this weekend.

Coach W. C. "Bill" Oakes and Coach John Virden have been acting as assistants on road trips when Coach Boteler and Coach Post were unable to attend the games.

TAYLOR LEADS

Betty Taylor is the top offensive player on the team. In 17 games she has scored 247 points for an average of 13.9 per game. Following Taylor is Winnie Smith with 159 points in 12 games for a 13.3 average per contest and Mary Marguerite Hart has deposited 219 markers in 17 battls for a 12.0 average.

Other scorers are Nancy Chapman with 176 points in 20 games, Ellene Varner with 22 points in five games, Jimmy Stingley with five points in three games, Clara Murrah with five points in two

The Hinds Junior College Eagles will invade Poplarville Friday night to meet the Pearl River Wildcats and Perkinston Saturday night to meet the Perkinston Bulldogs in what is expected to be two topnotch basketball games.

Last Saturday night the Eagles lost their first home game of the season to the Pearl River team and they will be all out to get back the revenge this wek. Tuesday night Hinds played Woods in another home match.

Coach Troy Ricks' Eagles will carry a record of eight wins and four losses in the conference as they enter the game with Pearl River this week. In all games played the Eagles boost a record of nine wins and seven defeats.

The Eagles have scored 1151 points this year to average 82.3 per game and their total opposition has chalked up 1126 for the season thus far to average 79.7 per encounter.

In the game with the Pearl River crew, the Eagles were favored to win but could not manage to attain the advantage of the scoring. Pearl River led 52-40 at the halftime intermission. The final score was 90-81. The Eagles closed the gap, although the fired-up Wildcats were too much for the Ricks coached Eagles.

Hinds has defeated Perkinston at Hinds earlier this season 83-68 and the Bulldogs are expected to give the Eagles plenty of trouble Saturday night. The rookie aggregation from Perkinston is a real power house in the Bulldog gym.

Buck Smith, a real scoring threat, is the top offensive man on the team. Smith averages 19.1 per game. Julian Sandifer and Tommy Vance have been depositing at the rate of 13.8 and 10.8 per match. Guards Bobby Lee and Jerry Ivy round out the first string quintet with 12.7 and 8.3 per contest in that order.

The next home game for the Eagles will be on February 11 with the Jones Bobcats. Hinds edged the Bobcats last week at Ellisville 52-games, and L'Teen Gray with one point in three games.

A total of 12 boys account for the scoring this season for the Baby Eagles. They are: Tommy Lynch with 66 points in 19 games, Joe Milano with 55 points in 13 games, Johnny Oberhousen with 132 points in 18 games, Homer Boyd with 172 points in 19 games, Blake Harrison with 98 points in 19 games, and Donald Anderson with 155 points in 19 games.

Eugene Osborn with 61 points in seven games, James Causey with 16 points in three games, Don Trotter with 9 points in five games, Tommy Ray Cox with eight points in four games, Donald Sheffield with four points in two games, and Dalton Thames with 19 points in five games.

Campus Pick-ups

Four representatives of the campus Canterbury Club attended the conference of Episcopal students held in Jackson last weekend.

Guest speaker for the college students assembled from eleven of the state's colleges was Dr. Mc-Leod Bryan, professor of philosophy and Christian ethics at Mercer University in Georgia.

"Facing Our Cultural Crisis" was the topic of Dr. Bryan's address. Colleges represented at the Episcopal conference of students were All Saints, Perkinston, Ole Miss, M. S. C. W., State, Delta State, Southern, and Hinds, in addition to the host colleges — Millsaps, Belhaven, and Mississippi College.

Students from Hinds were Linda Bedgood, Sylvia Simon and Cornelia Thompson. Mr. Virden, sponsor of the local Canterbury Club, accompanied the group.

Professor Robert E. Fleshman, head of speech and drama at Hinds is on the program of the fourth annual Poetry Festival scheduled at M. S. C. W. on February 18.

Mr. Fleshman will give readings from the recently published anthology of the Poetry Society, "Lyric Mississippi."

Interesting visitors to Hinds yesterday were five members of the Perkinston Junior College faculty.

Representing the departments of Business Education, English and Music the visitors met department heads of the local campus, visited in classrooms, toured the campus and remained for lunch as guests of the college.

These visitors were Mrs. W. G. Gregory, Business Education; Miss Nora Graves, Miss Norma Jean Sullivan, and Miss Sydney Alexander, English; and Miss Kathryne Carey, Music.

The Campus Faculty Club honored the new faculty members, who joined the staff at the second semester, with an informal coffee in the faculty lounge this morning.

The new faculty members are Mrs. Robert Ringer and Mrs. Walter Gibbes, English; Mr. Wallace M. Wall, Mechanical Drawing; Mr. Buford Langston, Chemistry; Mr. Joe R. Bullock, Economics; Mr. Hershel M. Cook, Radio; Mr. E. A. Staires, Descriptive Geometry.

Thomas D. Fontaine, Ph.D., University of Pittsburgh, student at Hinds 1933-35, is now federal administrative assistant to Sen. Stennis

Dr. Fontaine has traveled far in the scientific field of agriculture, having spent more than a decade in research for the Department of Agriculture. He has written approximately 50 scientific papers in collaboration with his associates.

SOUTH MISSISSIPPI SPEECH FESTIVAL MEETS AT PERKINSTON

Saturday the 18th of this month hopeful representatives from all the junior colleges of South Mississippi will congregate at Perkinston Junior College The event causing the ambitious gleam in bright, young eyes is the Second Annual South Mississippi Junior College Speech Arts Tournament.

Events will be as follows: After Dinner Speaking, Debate, Interpretation (Poetry), Dramatic Monologue (Prose), Impromptu Speaking, Extemporaneous Speaking, and Original Speaking. Quite often the distinction between impromptu and extemporaneous speaking is vague. In the former the speaker will know his subject on an international topic only fifteen minutes in advance, whereas topics of local or national interest will fall to the lot of the extemporaneous speaker, who is given his subject one hour prior to the time of his speech.

Students Attend MSM Conference

Nine Hinds students plan to attend the annual Mississippi Methodist Student Movement Conference which will be held February 10-12 at Mississippi State College for Women. The group will leave Friday afternoon and return Sunday afternoon.

The conference, which has as its theme, "Conversion: From What To What?", will feature talks by Dr. Peter Bertocci, philosophy professor at Boston University. The addresses will be on such topics as "From Fear to Purpose," "From Being Loved to Dreaming," and "A Vision of Greatness." The conference is expected to draw about 400 Methodist students from every college in the state. Also on the agenda will be discussion groups, fellowship suppers, informal recreation, and a banquet on Saturday night.

Hinds Enrollment Is All-Time High

Enrollees of the second semester brought the total enrollment of the year to an all time high, 1055.

Entering the college division at the second semester were sixty new students. Eight new high school students were enrolled, and a number in the vocational school.

The following figures released yesterday by the registrar's office show the distribution of the total enrollment. The college enrollment numbers 619; the high school 152; evening classes in both divisions 123; and vocational school, 161.

Laura Lusby, Raymon Huff, Annette McCluer, Ann Johnson, Sue Hallberg, James Furlow, Charles Wicker, and Fred Marett. Glenda Rush will attend the conference as a guest. The Rev. Clay Lee, director of the Wesley Foundation, will accompany the group.

Washington And Lincoln Great Leaders

This month is the birthday of two of America's all-time great statesmen, George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, first and sixteenth presidents of our country. We pause in our whirlwind of activities to pay tribute to these great leaders on February 12 and 22.

Both presidents were of outstanding ability and served their country well. As statesmen they placed the interest of their country first and firmly followed the policies they believed in without regard for popular sentiment.

Any estimate of Washington's abilities and importance must lay stress above all upon his qualities of character. It was his extraordinary disinterestedness, devotion to the American cause, equanimity, and fortitude, as much as his military ability or qualities as a statesman, which resulted in his victory in the war and his greatness as president. The high courage and strong but disciplined will of George Washington brought endurance and purpose to the cause of American independence.

No national leader has come from more humble beginnings, and none has achieved a more revered memory than Abraham Lincoln. Whenever men speak of great leaders, the name of Lincoln is heard.

Gettysburg has gone down in history because of the brief remarks which Lincoln made on the battle-field four months later. At the dedication of a solders' cemetery, he defined the issue of the war in terms of democracy, urging his countrymen to resolve "that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom; and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

Time will go and people will pass on, but the names of Washington and Lincoln will live forever.

Valentine Day On Tuesday

Have you ever wondered why Valentine Day is remembered in many happy ways? There are many legends and stories about St. Valentine, but none is truer to the spirit of the day than this simple story.

St. Valentine was a Christian monk of the third century who thought he had no special gifts through which to express his love for God. Valentine did have this talent, however, and was using it, without realizing it. He would pick flowers for crippled children or would arrange bouquets of lilies for brides of the village.

After his death, those who had enjoyed his loving remembrances said to one another, "Let us carry on St. Valentine's work." So ever since, his birthday has been remembered by giving tokens of love and remembrance.

So, on this Valentine Day, let's keep in mind this meaning of the event and really have the love St. Valentine had when he did the deeds that started this custom.

In recent weeks we have had new people to contribute to the publication of the Hindsonian. Among these are Jesse Boyd and Carl Brock, Vicksburg; Donna Mae Nash and Martha Lou Fugate, Jackson. All show a great deal of interest. * * * * * *

This Week In Brief

The Mississippi House of Representatives passed a bill on Thursday, February 2, that would outlaw the possession of beer and wine in "dry" counties. The present law deems it illegal to sell beer in dry counties, but does not prohibit the possession of it for personal use. The bill has gone to the Senate for action.

In the Senate, W. B. Lucas, a Senator from Macon, spoke for fortyfive minutes in an effort to gain a favorable consideration of a request for an additional million and one half dollars for improvements at all of the State's junior colleges.

Rhythm And Blues Enter Pop Field Out Of 28 Tunes In '56, 16 R. & B.

By JESSE BOYD

Ed. Note - This is the first in a series of articles on the field of modern American music that will appear from time to time in the HINDSONIAN. This week's column will be devoted almostentirely to showing the important role that "Rhythm and Blues" has come to play in the field of Pop Music.

Indeed, during the past year and a half one of the most meaningful developments in the field of music and recording has come to pass on the American scene. This, of course, is the mass acceptance of R. & B. and its emergence from the narrow confines of "Race" music to its present impact on the broad field of Pop Music.

To illustrate how much R. & B. has moved into the pop field: of the top 28 tunes of 1955 no less than 16 were R. & B. derived.

In the years gone by "blues" themes were concerned mostly with money or love problems, and usually the loss or lack of them. Because of the material included in them a greater part of the "blues" were censored from air play and died away somewhat. Today there is evidence that they are coming back. True, the material has been cleaned up somewhat generally, but the "earthy, down-home" flavor is still there.

Diddley, and Little Water have demonstrated great blues singing strength in the South and, to a lesser degree, in the North.

Another feature that stands out in the R. & B. picture is the development of staying power by the individual artists. In former days, a genuine click effort in this field was limited mostly to the one-shot artist. A singer or a group might come up with one actual big seller and depend upon the popularity of it to sell succeeding records, for example — the Dominoes with their recording of "Sixty Minute Man."

Now an artist might have five or six hits in a season. The public has come to expect its hits nearly every time from such recording personalities as the Clovers, the Drifters, and B. B. King. Perhaps the best example of this is Imperial Record's Fats Domino who has had 14 hits in the past two years.

It seems safe to say that Rhythm and Blues is here to stay for a long while. That, of course, rests only with the American people especially the school-age set.

When, and if, students should tire of this type, a new force will take over on the musical scene. What will it be? Country and Western, Jazz, Semi-classical? That can be answered only by the people with 89c for the record in their pockets.

Such artists as Ray Charles, Bo

Just what do we gain by copying our school work? If we are honest with ourselves, we are obliged to admit the truthnothing. We must admit further that copying other people's work fools nobody — certainly not our teachers who observe our efforts and responses in class. They come to know the score — sometimes before we know it ourselves.

Copying is a bad business in any case. It is a poor substitute for digging out the facts ourselves. When the chips are down, we want to be able to deliver the quality of work expected of college trained men and women. Copying now won't help us when that day comes.

It takes time, patience, and grit to do our work; but the knowledge we gain by so doing is worth the price we pay for it.

There are other reasons, too, why copying is a sad business. The principle behind it is just plain wrong, and the student who allows his work to be copied not only does a disfavor to his fellow student but to himself as well. Help your fellow student to resist the temptation of copying by refusing to let him borrow your work. Don't become a party to fraud; don't sacrifice character to popularity. Don't rob your friend of his honor by helping him cheat. Tell him that there is now a popular movement in our country — one that he should join: "Do it yourself and enjoy the fun."

Olin Renfroe, All-State and All-American halfback at Hinds, has signed a grant-in-aid football scholarship with the Louisiana State University.

After advancing to the finals of the Mid-South Golden Gloves tournament at Memphis last weekend, Tony Verruchi, Hinds freshman, lost a decision to John Saverese of Memphis. Tony did a fine job and certainly deserves credit.

The Hinds High Eaglettes won their 19th game of the season Monday night for the Capitol Athletic Conference title. It was the second championship for the Eaglettes this year. This weekend at Byram the Eaglettes are entering the subregional tournament and with the well-balanced aggregation of Boteler coached lassies, the Eaglettes are the top contenders of the subdistrict affair.

Spring football tryouts and drills started last week. New players are being selected for the 1956 squad as the leather begins to pop for the month long off-season drills. Coaches Joe Renfroe and Bob Fuerst declined comment on the team's chances for a championship club.

San Francisco and St. Francis are the only two unbeaten major college teams in the nation. The two colleges are 3,171 miles apart and have the same record of wins this season.

Coach Troy Ricks' Eagles will play their last two home games of the season Saturday night against the Jones Bobcats, and next Tuesday night against the Co-Lin Wolves. Both games are expected to be free scoring and exciting. Give the fighting Eagles your encouragement by attending and cheering for a fine ball club.

We extend our congratulations to the girls of Main Dormitory for their 25-24 scant victory over the Westside girls in the March of Dimes benefit game. Another similar event would create much interest. We would like to thank each individual spectators for attendance at the game and contribution to the worthy cause.

Eaglettes Win Basketball Tourney Hinds High Squads Play At Byram

Raymond's Hinds High Eaglettes won the Capitol Athletic Conference basketball championship at Byram Monday night before a large crowd of screaming and cheering basketball enthusiasts.

The victory was the 19th of the season for the Eaglettes, and it was the first time in the history of the conference for a Raymond sextet to win the title. The Eaglettes have lost only five games this season.

This week the Hinds High Eagles and Eaglettes will take part in the Byram sub-district tournament for the purpose of eliminating the winner and the runner-up for further competitive play.

The championship game Monday night was won by a close 36-30 score over the Byram team. Mary Hart, Eaglette sharpshooting artist, was high scorer of the game by flipping in 20 points. Her co-worker, Bettye Taylor, tossed in 17 for the night.

Carolyn Horton of the losers connected for 17 markers.

The determining factor in the game was the third stanza when the Eaglette guards held the Byram offense to two points and Hart deposited 10 to put the Eaglettes out front to stay.

Mary M. Hart, Bettye Taylor, and Jimmie Lou Stingley were selected on the all-tournament first team. Lou Ann Carter and Homer Boyd received honors for the second team.

Other players who contributed successful assistance during the tournament were Norma Jean Carter, Nancy Chapman, and the entire squad that took part in the event.

The Raymond boys lost out in the tournament in the semi-finals to the Bentonia boys by a score of 58-50. The Raymond boys defeated third-seeded Utica 42-39 in a quarter-final game.

In case the Hinds High teams win at Byram, or become the runner-up, they will play Raymond next week.

The game with Jones Saturday night is really expected to be a rough and tumble affair. Three weeks ago at Ellisville the Bobcats edged the Eagles 52-51, and the Troy Ricks coached Eagles will be in for a revenge Saturday night.

The game on Tuesday night with Co-Lin will be the initial time this season for the Eagles to play Wesson.

Application Made For Beta Charter

Application for a charter of the National Beta Club, service-leadership honorary for high school students, has been made to headquarters of the organization for a chapter on the Hinds campus, according to Mr. A. L. Denton, principal of the high school division.

Recommended as charter members on the local campus are twenty high school students.

Qualifications are of attitudes, scholarship, and character. Students qualifying in . scholarship must have an average of quality points of 2. or more.

Plans are underway for a formal installation of the chapter in the near future.

The following are the students recommended to National as charter members: Jackie Armstrong, Dorothy Ray Brock, Norma Jean Carter, Nancy Ruth Chapman, Tommy Ray Cox, Betty Denton, Bill Ferguson, Mary Marguerite Hart, Lenda Herrington, Evelyn James, Anita Jones, Ann Lasseter, Tommy Lynch, Margaret Lynn Peyton, Dorothy Roper, Bobby Sheffield, Donald Sheffield, Vicki Simmons, Betty Taylor, and Don Trotter.

In the Westside vs. Main girls' basketball and boxes benefit, $21.90 was collected.

The "Tacky Day" project ending in an after supper dance brought $9.75.

Faculty contributions, collected by Mrs. McLendon, and a high school basketball game directed by Coach Boteler netted $98.38.

Wood To Address Hinds Students

Miss Gail Wood, a young lady of rare speaking skill, and a most pleasing personality, will come to the campus in March to interpret to students something of the work of the World University Service.

Through the years Hinds Junior College students have made sizable contributions to this fund every year to aid foreign students in health and education after the devastation of war.

Miss Wood, who was an enthusiastic supporter of WUS in her undergraduate days at Hollins College, Virginia, now is chairman of the Southwest Virginia area of the World University Service, which is playing an ever-widening role in world understanding and international student fellowship.

The specific date of Miss Wood's visit to the Hinds campus will be announced soon.

Parade Of Hinds Student Opinion Comments On Alabama Controversy By CARL BROCK

Recent events on the University of Alabama's campus concerning integration of the first negro in the all-white institution have attracted widespread interest and conversation. The racial problem is unquestionably one of the major issues facing the nation today. Southern college and university students are particularly interested in Alabama's problem as the outcome may be an example in handling future disputes of this nature.

In a recent informal interview with Hinds students concerning the University of Alabama's pro-segregation stand, criticism was strong against the University's rioting "mob rule." In general, the questions asked various students were: What is your opinion of the recent happenings at the University of Alabama; what would be your reactions as an Alabama student; do you believe that the problem has been handled correctly; is it your opinion that the negro girl will be re-admitted to the University?

Below are some of the opinions given by Hinds students:

"If the state governments and school officials can't keep the negroes out, then it is left up to the students. If anyone has any suggestion besides a riot, the students of Alabama would probably be glad to hear of it." — Jim Currie.

"The girl should have known better than to go there in the first place, and I don't blame the Alabama students for the actions they took. If she wanted a good school she should have gone up north." — Ross Sanford.

"It is an unfortunate incident. We can't get anywhere with mob rule. It's against all basic principles of American democracy." — Ramona Franklin.

"If I were an Alabama student I believe that I would quit. Fighting will either get you expelled from school, or put in jail."

— Frank Donovan.

"I am very much for segregation. Alabama's integration problem is being handled very carelessly, and I believe that it should be settled more intelligently." — Charles Malone.

"I hope that this will be the make or break case of integration in the South." — Harry Anderson.

"I wouldn't like it, although I wouldn't have treated the girl so offensively as the Alabama students did. The situation should have been solved in a more peaceful manner." — Joe Kinsey.

"If she had enough sense to go to college, she should have had enough sense to know that she wasn't wanted at Alabama."

— Billy Neely.

"I don't think that the negro girl should be allowed to go to the University, but I do think that the Alabama students are approaching the problem in the wrong way." — Mary Ann Lyles.

"I believe that if I were that girl, I could take a hint. I would do the same thing that the Alabama students are doing."

— Victor O'Connor.

"I think that the students are right in not wanting the negro girl as a classmate. If I were a student at Alabama, I wouldn't want her there either, although I would take less violent forms of action." — Ted Steinrucken.

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK-

Mary Lou Kersh

by IRL DEAN RHODES

Mary Lou Kersh, one of the most versatile young ladies on the campus of Hinds Junior College, is this week's selection as sophomore of the week.

Mary Lou is 5'7½" tall, weighs 133 pounds, and her measurements stack up a 35-24-36. The trouble, boys, is that she is already planning a wedding in late summer. Glen Barnes of Jackson is the lucky guy.

The brown-eyed Miss considers her home to be Jackson, although she finished high school at Brandon. While attending Brandon she won her share of honors in popularity contests.

Since Mary Lou has been attending Hinds Junior College, she has been showered with numerous honors. In her freshman year, she was homecoming maid, Hi-Stepper, member of the tennis team, Y.W.-C.A., B.S.U., and IRC; she was a Who's Who winner, also.

This year the Hinds co-ed took the lion's share of honors. She was homecoming queen, secretary of Y.W.C.A., program chairman of IRC, member of formal choir, a Hi-Stepper, and elected the "Most Popular Girl" and one of the campus favorites by the student body.

Her favorite pastime is tennis and reading. At the close of the day she likes to relax and listen to semi-classical and popmusic. From the table of foods, fried chicken and home made rolls rank tops with Mary Lou.

"Every organization has good and bad points and Hinds has both; however, the good points far outnumber the bad points," were her remarks about Hinds.

The Jackson lass feels that friends are necessary both boys and girls. Mary Lou is a well-rounded individual with a wonderful outlook on life. Success to you, Mary Lou!

A Better Newspaper

It is most difficult, impossible, in fact, to satisfy all the people all the time. In publishing the Hindsonian, we do the best we know how to bring you a well rounded informative newspaper. We cannot devote as much space to each club and activity and college department, as we would like. One reason for this is that the reporters of clubs and heads of departments do not turn in the copy, or give facts to the Hindsonian office.

This is your newspaper. We are always open to suggestions for improvement. We cannot follow all suggestions, but each one will be given careful consideration. Everything will be done to make the Hindsonian more informative and of better service.

Our circulation has never been higher and reader interest never better. We look forward to the months and years ahead as a period in which the Hindsonian will increase and prosper along with the junior college program.

Dreams Of Success

Wonder of Wonders — man's ability to dream. Day dreams of today become the realities of tomorrow. Dreams of flying on the wind became the airplane. Dreams of emulating the fish, became the submarine. Burbank was a dreamer of flowers.

The actual joy and contentment comes in the battle itself. The rewards for the labors are in direct proportion to the sincerity of the effort.

Thankful are we indeed who have the pleasure of dreaming of champions yet to come, accomplishments yet to be made, and goals yet to be achieved. The rewards of tomorrow will be the results of the dreams of today.

Last week we omitted the name of one of the new comers to our staff, Tommy Welch of Vicksburg. Tommy is very interested in newspaper work. We welcome him to the Hindsonian staff.

Eagles Nest Scene Of Much Activity Bird Talk Among Broods Is Common

By TOMMY WELCH

O, woe, woe, woe! Terrible is my fate. I am requested to write a so-called "feature article" on the Eagles' Nest. In order that the gist of my article appear not too entirely unorthodox, it is deemed necessary to precede it with an explanation. Because I regard the Grill (Eagles' Nest) as little more than a paper and aspirin dispensary and seldom trespass thereon, I must do some research.

In order to perform such research one must, it is assumed, become an Eagle and mingle and mouth with the occupants of the Nest. Since I customarily am slightly an introvert, and since if I must be a bird, as apparently I must, it would be infinitely more preferable to be a Poe-ish raven, I moan about my assignment. Nevertheless, where duty bids me go, I shall go—and all such additional poppycock.

During as much time as I could spare I encamped myself on the assigned premises and tried to assume the disinterested expression of one of the masses. Generally the parent Eagles station themselves behind a counter. On the other side of it there is observed a goodly number of young ones who quite often gather in small groups about a table. Perhaps these groups constitute different litters or should I say broods?

The feeding habits of the species are rather unusual. Some will meditatively sip for hours from one cup, while others consume seemingly impossible quantities of food. When Eagles become hungry they meander over to the counter and impatiently tap coins against it until they get some morsel of food shoved at them by one of the harassed parents.

Quite frequently a male Eagle may be seen jabbing his elbowoops, wing-into the ribs of another male Eagle. It took some time to discover the reason for this. Finally I noticed that after such an incident the eyes of both the males would bulge out for perhaps 2.009 meters to gawk after a passing female of-shall we say "unusually attractive plumage." More often than not the male then quickly pushes a coin into a gaudily colored box-like monstrosity and says to the female "Dance?" By the time this charming conversation has been terminated the gaudy monstrosity blares forth a primitive rhythm and the dancers begin to twist their anatomies into all sorts of contortions.

Also, there is a lot of "bird talk" going on. Because I immensely enjoy conversation, I listened rather attentively. The following are three typical conversations. (1) Time to flunk that math test yet? Naw. (2) Time to flunk that history test yet? Naw. (3) Time to flunk that English test yet. Not quite. (Gee, a "brain.")

I'm bored now, and no doubt so are you. I think I shall return to my seclusion , , after buying more aspirins.

State Campuses

Condensed by Nan Ertle

The 1955-56 Speech Festival for the nine Junior Colleges in the northern half of the state will be held at Meridian Junior College February 18.

Sixty-three and three-tenths per cent of the 2,023 students polled at registration last week at Ole Miss were in favor of an honor system for the college. The proposed honor system constitution will go before the Campus Senate this week.

This Week In Brief

By JESSE BOYD

The famous "Truman-MacArthur" controversy exploded again with new fury during the week. Truman's memoirs, appearing in LIFE magazine, charge MacArthur with "insubordination" that, in Truman's view, threatened to embroil the United States in an Atomic World War Three. In answering the charges, MacArthur accuses the former president with a spiteful distortion of the truth.

In a speech delivered at a white Citizens Council meeting in Montgomery, Alabama, Senator Eastland of Mississippi told an audience of 12,000 that the South should organize a massive "grass roots" campaign to resist racial integration. The Senator, who is fast becoming the South's leader for the continuance of segregation, called the Supreme Court's desegregation decree "illegal, immoral, dishonest, and a disgrace."

The country will probably know by March 1 if President Eisenhower will run for a second time. In a press conference last week Ike told the reporters he should have the information he desires from his doctors by then — as to whether he will be able to seek a second term in office.

The entire country was saddened by the loss of one of its most loved citizens. Cornelius McGillicuddy, who changed his name to Connie Mack to fit a baseball box score, passed away at the age of ninety-three. There will be a void in the world of baseball, now that Connie Mack has gone; but the ideas he stood for and promoted in the game for so long will live on as a tribute to baseball's "Grand Old Man."

If you witnessed the Ford Star Jubilee on T. V. Saturday night, you saw the reenactment once again of one of the nation's most infamous events — the murder of Abraham Lincoln. At the closing of the program the narrator, Charles Laughton, said in a matter-of-fact tone that the assassin, John Wilkes Booth, was found twelve days after the killing, hiding in a barn on a Virginia farm and shot to death. From Jackson now comes a story that originated in Vicksburg in 1923 which declares this to be untrue.

According to the story by Major Crowley, a confederate messenger for President Jeff Davis, Booth escaped the country by ship and sailed to Buenos Aires, Argentina. There, under an assumed name, Booth continued his stage career until he died of natural causes in 1908. Regardless of whether the story is true or not, it offers an interesting contradiction of what we have read in our history books.

Gookin's Girls Advance In Tourney

Coach Anne Gookin's commercial league basketball team will meet the N and W overall sextet Wednesday night (to-night) in the finals of the Jackson Y.W.C.A. double elimination basketball tournament.

The Eaglettes have defeated the N and W team once in the tournament. In order to reach the finals the Eaglettes have won five straight tournament games.

Thursday night in a regular season game the Raymond girls will meet the Bagby Hall lassies of Jackson. The game is expected to determine the conference winner. The Gookin coached girls have a record of five wins and only one setback for the last half of the season while the Bagby Hall team has just four wins against a single defeat.

Both games will be played at the airbase gym in Jackson and game time is slated for 7 p.m. on both occasions.

Starters for the Eaglettes tonight will be forwards: Gwen Post, Ruth Boone, and Frances Bliss; guards: Ruth Martin, Dot Gill, and Sylvia McWilliams. The first string has developed into a fearsome crew the latter half of the season and will be ready for the games Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Side Lines

By IRL DEAN RHODES

This week Hinds Junior College will host the District Six Class B-BB basketball tournament. The kind of host we make will partly determine the enrollment here next year. Give the visitors on our campus a warm and friendly welcome.

The Mississippi State Maroons received a double blow to its 1956 team when two star halfbacks on the undefeated 1955 freshmen eleven announced they were leaving the team. Steve Waldrop, a former All-Big Eighter from Jackson Central will try for an appointment at West Point; while Billy Carr of Rolling Fork made known his decision at signing a pro basketball contract.

Nashua, the three-year-old champion of race horses last year, is back in the news. His new owners, Leslie Combs II and his associates have turned down an offer to sell the world's most valuable thoroughbred for $1,500.000. The identity of the intended purchaser has not been revealed. Nashua is now in training at Hialeah for the $100,000 added Widner.

Another step up the ladder toward a chance at the World Heavyweight Boxing Championship Crown worn by Rocky Marciano was taken last Friday by "Hurricane" Tommy Jackson. Jackson drew a split decision over big Bob Baker, the number one ranked heavyweight contender of National Boxing Association.

The Boston Red Sox baseball team have signed their star slugger, Ted Williams, for the coming Baseball season. The 37-year-old Williams reportedly will receive around $100,000 from the Red Sox team

Hinds Cagers Win Play Final Friday

To complete their 1956 basketball schedule, the Hinds Junior College Eagles will journey to Wesson Friday night to meet the Co-Lin Wolves in a junior college conference game.

Monday night the Eagles topped the Wolves 76-66 in the local gym for their 12th victory of the season. It was their 10th conference win of the year as compared to only six losses.

Forward Julian Sandifer led the Hinds quintet with 29 points while Center Gordon "Moose" Merritt and Guard Bobby Lee contributed 13 and 10 points respectively. For the losers of Co-Lin, Thames, Wallace, and Barr set the pace with 18, 12, and 11 markers in that Coach Troy Ricks' squad will enter the state junior college tournament at Ellisville next week. At the writing of this article brackets were not available on the tourna-

Hinds Junior College Is Host Of Annual Tournament District Six Class B-BB Eliminations Start Tonight

Here in almost the geographical center of Hinds County, the District Six Class B-BB basketball tournament will get underway in the Hinds Junior College gym Wednesday night (tonight) and run through next Monday night.

The tournament will attract 20 teams representing 13 schools in district six. Each will consist of four games with the exception of the finals on Monday.

The Puckett boys and the Pearl girls are the defending champions while the Raymond boys and Pinola girls were the runner-up last year. Two years ago the Redwood boys and the Sebastopol girls were the district champions.

Campus Pick-Ups

Sponsored by the Jackson chapter of the American Guild of Arganists, the recital of Sunday afternoon at the Calvary Baptist Church, Jackson, featured Miss Peggy Pennel, Hinds organ instructor, in a program of Handel, Honegger, and Gigout compositions.

Miss Marjorie Black, instructor of organ music, Belhaven, and Prof. Holmes Ambrose, tenor, choral director at Millsaps, were the other musicians appearing on the afternoon's program.

Visitors in the campus home of Prof. and Mrs. T. T. Beemon Monday were Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Wadlington of Sledge, Mississippi, and their older daughter, two year old Judy.

Mrs. Wadlington, formerly Miss Jean Lancaster is pleasantly remembered as Hinds Band Director of 1951 and 1952.

The other member of the Wadlington family is 7-months old Jane.

Mississippi legislature and other bodies of slow deliberations might well take a lesson from Hinds Future Farmers in rapid fire parliamentary procedure, and in getting measures passed.

A demonstration in Assembly yesterday by this group informed and entertained all who were present.

Kendal Harris, president, introduced the program, and Bobby Sheffield, vice-president, conducted the governing body. Others appearing on the program which outlined the work of F.F.A. were Ross Alman, secretary; Homer Boyd, treasurer; Carol King, sentinel; Tommy Lynch, reporter; and David Benton, Jimmy McNair, and W. L. Anderson.

A large number attended the World Day of Prayer service held on the campus Friday.

Annette Cheatham was in charge. Organ, piano, and vocal music, Scripture readings, prayers, and poetry made up the devotionals and prayers for world peace.

The formal intiation of the Beta Club Monday, directed by the Forest Hill chapter, was held in the music auditorium in the presence of the high school department and interested visitors from Raymond.

President Leaves For New York Attends Meeting

President G. M. McLendon will leave next week-end for New York City where he will participate in the meeting of the American Association of Junior Colleges with headquarters at the Statler hotel.

Mr. McLendon, now serving out an unexpired term on the Research and Service Committee of the national body, has been appointed for a four-year term ahead on the Administrative Committee of the Association, beginning March 10, 1956, and terminating March, 1960.

Phi Theta Kappa Selects Members Twenty-Three Extended Invitations

Eighteen sophomores and five freshmen are being extended invitations this week to become members of Gamma Lambda, local chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, national junior college honorary fraternity.

Phi Theta Kappa is the national scholarship society for junior colleges. The purpose of this non-secret organization is to promote scholarship, to develop character, and to cultivate fellowship among the students of junior colleges in America.

Membership in Phi Theta Kappa is dependent upon certain qualifications. At the time of his election a student must be within the upper scholastic ten per cent of the regularly enrolled student body of the college division. Sophomores must have had a quality point average of 2., or above, on each semester of all past college work. Freshmen receiving invitations were from the "special honors" list, having maintained a quality point average of 2.6, or above, in their first semester of college work.

In addition to scholastic quulifications, a student must be judged of good moral character, and of recognized qualities of citizenship as seen by the active members and faculty committee who constitute the election committee.

The following are those students who have been issued invitations to membership: sophomores— Carlie Brewer, Donnie Ainsworth, Vernon Bishop, Wilson Brent, Annette Cheatham, Minnie Louise Cobb, Ernest Different, Ben Fulton, Raymon Huff, Ann Johnson, Mary Lou Kersh, Annette McCluer, Mary Ann Liles, Louie Nolan, Flora Mae Roberts, Vonda Viverette, Patsy Smith, and Bobbie Worley.

Freshmen selected from the "special honors" group are Robert Bridges, James Currie, Frank Donovan, Mona McClurg, and Henrietta Thornton.

Initiation, which is open to the public, will be held in the near Charles Wicker is president of the local chapter and will direct the initiation ceremony.

Named "Mr. and Miss Raymond High," Don Trotter and Mary Marguerite Hart, led the ballot in the popularity contest in the high school division recently.

These two have to their credit a number of other honors and achievement records.

Don Trotter, now president of his class and of the local Beta Club, has received the American Legion and the Rotary awards. He plays football and basketball, and he is active in 4-H Club work.

Mary Marguerite Hart is an officer in the Hinds Y-Teen group, in the senior class, and in the Beta Club. She is a valuable member of the basketball team, and of the Hi-Stepper organization. She takes part in F. H. A. activities, and in the campus chorus. She is a recipient of the American Legion award.

Hinds Students Take Top Honors Need For Debate Team Is Seen

Hinds was well represented this past Saturday in the Speech Arts Tournament held at Perkinston Junior College Melanie Matthews and Richard Bowers tied for first places in Dramatic Reading and Dramatic Monologue respectively.

Jane Pickett took second place honors in extemporaneous speaking and Robert Huffman was judged as second best in impromptu speaking. For her after dinner speech Marilyn Simmons won third place. With a winner in every division entered except one, we might well wonder if Hinds would have won the tournament had she been represented with a debate team.

Even more praise than usual is due to our winners when two facts are considered. They are: first, Hinds was extremely late in getting its invitation; and second, in order to arrive on time at Perkinston, our entrants had to leave the campus at the diabolical hour of 5:00 a.m.

Officials of the tournament offered helpful criticisms at the end of each event. However, in most other aspects there was evidence of poor and insufficient planning of the tournament.

The return trip was most enjoyable. In a Hattiesburg restaurant Miss Belle Lindsey, who accompanied the students, nodded in the affirmative when asked if the "sky was the limit." It was literally a feast! And there was this doll of a watiress . . . but I'm out of space

Orleans Exciting Reports Students

by ANN JOHNSON

"Long live Mardi Gras" came the cry of scores of people celebrating the wild holidays that precede the Lenten season. This season brings forth shouting crowds, joyful festivities and colorful costumes that set ole New Orleans ringing with merriment. Into such an atmosphere eighty-six Hinds students traveled on February 14. The group consisted of the crack marching group, the Hinds Eagle Band, and the famous dancing team, the Hinds Hi-Steppers, and faculty chaperones.

The trip, long anticipated, began on Monday, February 13 when the groups, jubilant with excitement, boarded three Trailways buses and said hasty goodbyes to the Hinds campus.

School Days Are Happy Days

There are many things that go together to make up a wholesome college. One of the first is loyalty. We should be loyal to classmates, as well as to teachers, and to the teams that fight to hold high the school name.

Friendliness is a desired asset of a fine school. It costs absolutely nothing to wear a bright sunny smile. By this we may put friendliness into the hearts of others, and welcome new students to our school.

Every school needs co-operation. The teachers need it or their work would be futile. We need co-operation in backing all the drives that are put on for the benefit of the school. No team ever won without it.

We should be proud of Hinds Junior College of which we are a part. Our college days are our happiest days, so let's make the best of them.

Spring Is In The Air

Say, what does the word "Spring" mean to you? It could mean many things.

To some it is a burst of new life. It is the time when the earth blossoms forth in full glory. With green grass planting its roots in the soil, spring can't be far behind!

The inspiratioal Easter season occurs during spring; representing the Resurrection of Christ, it gives a spiritual feeling of new life and hope.

It is a very joyful feeling to awake on a spring morning, to hear the birds singing in the tree tops, and to have the cool fresh air in one's lungs.

If you let it, spring will give you a boost in your work, whether it be school work, athletics, or other fields of endeavor. Somehow, (if you do not succumb to "Spring Fever") you will not only improve in body and mind, but in spirit also. Even though spring brings the school year closer to an end, you should still have a greater determination to wind it up in a position to be of service to your fellowman.

Show a "rising" attitude! There is always time to broaden your learning and thinking along the line of greater development in everything that you attempt.

Hinds Junior College was well represented at the South Mississippi Junior College Speech Arts Tournament at Perkinston Junior College last Saturday.

According to the number of participating students from Hinds, in proportion to the other junior colleges in the state, the six Hinds students won more than their share of the public speaking honors. A record of two first places, two second places, and one third place certainly deserves commendation.

Melanie Matthews and Richard Bowers, in interpretative reading and dramatic monologue respectively, tied for first place in their divisions. For second place spots, Robert Huffman in impromptu speaking, and Jane Pickett in extemporaneous speaking were the choices. Marilyn Simmons was a third place winner. The other Hinds participant was Tommy Welch in original oration, who did a very fine job with his composition and presentation.

Miss Belle Lindsey of the English department accompanied the group to Perkinson.

Each individual is to be complimented for many hours of hard work and the honor brought to Hinds Junior College.

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK-

Robert Huffman

By Dot Adams

This week the Hindsonian presents Robert M. Huffman as the "Sophomore of the Week."

"Buster," as he is better known, is 5 feet, 11 inches tall, weighs 175 pounds, and has blonde hair and blue eyes.

Robert M. Huffman

Buster graduated from the Cross Roads High School in the 1954 class where he was active in many of the clubs and organizations. He was president of the Rankin County 4-H Club in his last two years of high school, and secretary of the Hi-Y Club.

Since coming to Hinds, Buster has participated in various campus activities. He is past president of the I. R. C., a member of Wesley, and sports editor of the school annual. In the Speech Festival held at Perkinston this weekend, Buster placed second in the impromptu speech.

Buster lists his hobbies as reading and fishing, but his favorite is none other than sleeping.

When he was asked what he thought about girls, his only reply was, "They're wonderful and special, but I have my special one."

Buster's statement about Hinds was, "Hinds can be what you want it to be. For me, it's a wonderful place."

This ministerial student plans to enter Millsaps College after he graduates from Hinds.

With Buster's determination and his ability to inspire others, we know he will succeed in his every undertaking.

This Week In Brief

By JESSE BOYD

It is generally the custom of this column merely to refresh in the minds of the readers some of the more important news events of the preceding week without going into detail on any one particular subject. Whenever we speak of news in our section of the country just now, however, we almost always come up with the problem of segregation versus integration in our school system.

In 1954, the Supreme Court of the United States issued a ruling which made segregation in the schools of America illegal. Now, less than two years after this ruling, many unfortunate situations have come about in the Southern States as a result of it. A prime example of this is the much discussed case of Autherine Lucy, the Negro girl who is seeking to attend classes at the University of Alabama

Why have such situations as this been permitted to take place? Are the Southern States eventually going to be forced to practice integration in their schools? And what of this "Interposition"we hear of now and then? What can it do to preserve our Southern way of life?

According to the Columbia Encyclopedia, "Interposition holds that states have the right to declare null and void and to set aside in practice any law of the federal government which violates their voluntary compact embodied in the U. S. Constitution." In other words, interposition is a matter of contested sovereignty. Through it the States place their sovereignty against that of Federal Government and refuse to follow a federal directive, regardless of whether it's an act of Congress, a judgment of the Supreme Court, or an order from the President, until the question of who is right is settled through Constitutional processes.

It is then logical to assume that the States believe that the Federal Government did not have the power to abolish segregation. Their defense would center around the Tenth Amendment, which states: 'The powers not delegated to the U. S. by the Constitution, nor prohibited to it by the States are preserved to the States respectively, or to the people." This is where Interposition comes into play. Whenever a state feels its sovereignty has been attacked by the Federal Government it is the right of that State (along with other states involved) to make an appeal to Congress that the question of contested sovereignty be settled by methods set in motion by the Congress under the Constitution.

The constitutionality of the law could then be settled once and for all by having Congress submit an amendment, containing the disputed question, to the Constitution under the privilege of Article V., and present it to the people's vote for affirmation or rejection. The results would be based on the way that three-fourths of the states voted.

As to whether the states would accept the ruling as binding if it should be deemed so by the people cannot be foretold now. Practically the only thing left would be open resistance. We all know the previous attempt at this by the Southern States. Let us all hope that such a disaster may be prevented this time.

Mathews Reports On Trip To Club

Members of the Modern Language Club came to their regular activity-period meeting Thursday, gaily dressed in brightly colored Spanish costumes. These costumes were worn in preparation for the club's pictures in the yearbook.

Melanie Mathews, Hinds freshman, was in charge of the program, and gave an interesting account of her trip to Canada with her parents. Melanie told of their route to Canada and described the regions which they visited.

At the conclusion of the program, Mr. Beemon took the picture, and Miss Hilda Ree Davis, sponsor of the club, treated the members to refreshments at the grill. What a sensation the Spanish costumes would have made in the grill, if it hadn't been Tacky Day!

TRIP ...

The party was happy with the thought of the grand time we would have! But also we were gladdened with a job to do—for the eight mile trek down the streets of New Orleans loomed before us. The Band and Hi-Steppers were leading the Krewe of Arabi parade which formed at 10:00 on the morning of February 14.

Spirits were high on the trip down, and around 6:00 p. m. the buses rolled onto the campus of Louisiana State University for a delightful overnight stop at the college's guest house, Pleasant Hall. The curfew at 11:00 prepared the weary travelers for the full day ahead which began the next morning at 4:30. At 5:00, the group was on the road with its destination—Gay Ole New Orleans, city of fantasy, dreams, and at this time of year, Mardi Gras, and a grand Tuesday it always is.

The early hour was not conducive to thorough packing; therefore, Pleasant Hall was furnished with maroon band caps, lost shoes, and other odd articles of wearing apparel left behind by the drowsy group.

The sun finally rose and the sleepy travelers beheld the out-skirts of the Crescent City. At 9:30 the uniformed group assembled in parade formation.

From the comments later from Band members with blistered feet and Hi-Steppers too tired to walk, the whole group had forgotten what FUN it is to march in a parade!

The first mile was perhaps okay, but after several monotonous miles of marching, playing, and dancing, the routine grew old. In our daze we noticed the bright costumesclowns, tigers, children in bunny costumes, penguins, and even Groucho Marx, himself. We also noticed the canal bridge we crossed going from one parish to another. It seemed as if the parade would never end and the long stream of people along the sidewalk would never stop. But at long last, the group was halted and stopped dead on our feet!

But the death march was soon forgotten for it was Mardi Gras Day and we were free from 12:00 to 4:00 to see the sights of the city.

Hinds Co-Eds Voice Opinion As State Women Ask For Jury Duty

By CARL BROCK

A bill endorsed by the Mississippi Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs would qualify women citizens as jurors. Leaders of the state women's organization insist that women are not full citizens so long as they are denied jury service.

Arguments concerning women's rights have been in existence since the beginning of time. Major results have been gradual and they have presented many problems. Ever since the Adam and Eve affair men have been cautious in letting women participate in rights heretofore reserved for themselves. And now, as we live in an age that has been termed "woman's world" by some, we find that the denial of equal rights to women is "unlogical, unpractical, unjustifiable, and unconstitutional." A prominent Mississippi editor stated that "to deny this right any longer seems to us a tacit admission that Mississippi women are not citizens in the fullest meaning of the word."

Revising our jury system to accommodate women involves certain complications. First, provisions would have to be made for exemption of nurses and mothers of children through high school age. The bill in question makes provision for these exemptions. With mothers and nurses excluded from jury duty, and consideration made for other women whose positions are too important to be vacated for any length of time, how many will be eligible to render their services?

One drawback at present is the lack of adequate overnight jury accommodations.

Another drawback has been the prospect of racially-mixed juries. Mississippians would never approve of this. With the possibility of white women serving on juries with colored men, our traditional racial practices would be getting a slap in the face.

The following statements made by Hinds co-eds in a recent interview are answers to questions asked in conjunction with the proposed bill. The views express the overall opinions of over twenty students:

The colorful Rex Parade, with huge elaborate floats, one pearing Rex, King of Mardi Gras; Antoine's; the Court of Two Sisters; the busy Canal Street; St. Louis Cathedral—these were a few sights visited by the Hinds students.

The group that gathered at 4:00 proved to be ready for the journey back to dear ole Hinds. With sighs of happiness, many of the group slept on the way back, except for those never-tiring individuals who persisted in singing everything from TV commercials to dreamy ballads—amusing themselves and also keeping everyone else awake. But no one seemed to mind and the group that pulled onto the campus at 11:45 p. m. was a happy one. We were very tired, but the trip had been worth it, one to be remembered as a bright spot in our memories of days at H. J. C.

"I definitely believe in women serving on juries. Wowen are just as capable in this respect as men, and oftimes exercise better judgment. Women, in my opinion, aren't as prejudiced and emotional in court rooms as is often believed."

—Ann Johnson.

"Women should have equal rights to jury duty to some extent. Women are awfully emotional, and that may hinder an accurate decision in a court case. I believe that they should have the right to serve, but I don't see any need for it."—Peggy French

"I don't believe that women should serve jury duty because they would tend to be more prejudiced and more emotional than men."—Pat Gastrel.

"Women pay taxes and vote, so why shouldn't they serve?"—Jean Peterman.

"Women specialize in local, state, and national governmental affairs and are just as capable of serving on a jury as men are." — Sylvia Simon.

"Sure, women should be represented on juries. We are just as smart as men, and are certainly equal to them." — George Marie Fraiser.

"Mississippi is far behind in granting equalization such as jury duty and public office to women. It should be all the way or none at all."—Linda Bedgood.

"A woman is as good as a man when it comes to administering justice. The necessary adjustments should be made and equal rights granted."

Wow! Man certainly is an inferior creature these days. What will be the outcome of this issue? Who will decide it? When will it be decided? Whatever develops should be interesting to watch.

Basketball Team Enters Tourney

Jones Junior College at Ellisville will be the site for the state junior college tournament this weekend.

The Hinds Eagles will clash with the Perkinston Bulldogs at 4 p.m. Thursday afternoon for their initial game of the tourney.

Last Friday night in their last regular scheduled game of the season the Eagles topped the Co-Lin Wolves 74-68 in the Wesson gym.

Coach Troy Ricks, Eagle mentor, had high hopes of making a good showing in the tournament this weekend. Buck Smith will enter the line-up this week for the first time in over a month. Hinds is seeded fourth in the state tourney.

The Eagles will leave Raymond Thursday morning. Slated to make the trip are Julian Sandifer, Buck Smith, Tommy Vance, Jerry Ivy, Bobby Lee, Dickie Axtell, John Lancaster, Melvin Oakes, Gordon "Moose" Merritt, Gary Everitt, Manager Raymond Mathlock, bus driver Amos Jack Gray, and Coach Troy Ricks.

Columbus Host To MSM Group

Six Hinds students returned last Sunday from a two-day Conference held February 10-12 at Mississippi State College for Women, Columbus, Miss. Sue Hallberg, Annette McCluer, James Furlow, Fred Marett, and Ann Johnson, members of the Wesley Foundation and Glenda Rush, guest, attended the annual Mississippi Methodist Student Movement Conference.

Dr. Peter Bertocci, Philosophy Professor at Boston University, was the platform speaker. Theme of the Conference was "Conversion: From What—To What?"

Over 300 Methodist students from Mississippi junior and senior colleges attended the week-end meeting. Student-led worship programs, discussion groups, informal singing and recreation were vital parts of the conference.

One aspect of the Conference was the last business meeting when the Methodist Youth group voted to adopt a resolution supporting Dr. Morton King, a University of Mississippi sociology professor who resigned in protest of the school's cancellation of an Ohio Minister's address.

The resolution adopted said that the group did "not necessarily uphold his views" but "did uphold his right to express them."

It protested "the unfounded attack on his character," praised Dr. King for his "dedication as a Christian layman," and cited his work with several religious groups, including the Methodist Student Movement.

Eaglettes Win In Jackson Tourney

With tension built to the highest, the Hinds Junior College Commercial League girls' basketball team won the Jackson Y. W. C. A. basketball tournament last Tuesday night by a 35-33 margin.

It was the 13th win of the season for Coach Anne Gookin's sextet as compared to six losses. The defeated runner-up in the tournament was the N and W girls. The 35 points was the lowest scoring game the Eaglettes had participated in this year.

Coach Gookin, Hinds' eager speaking girls' mentor, had only praise for the team earlier this week. "All of the girls played well in the tournament with Guard Ruth Martin the standout as our defensive player every game," commented Coach Gookin.

Thursday night of this week the local commercial girls' squad will play their final game of the season in the Jackson Airbase gym at 7 p. m. National School Pictures will furnish the opposition.

On March 9th and 10th, an open league tournament, the Hinds sextet will take part in the two-day tumble. They will have a chance to meet their rivals, the East Central and Southwest girls' teams, in the city event

Side Lines

By IRL DEAN RHODES

Basketball galore described the atmosphere of Hinds Junior Monday night at the close of the District Six B-BB basketball finals. The Raymond girls and the Brandon boys were crowned the 1956 champions in a very close tournament. Good luck to two fine ball clubs as they advance to the South Mississippi events this weekend.

Much credit is due to the splendid sportsmanship displayed by players and spectators in the tournament. Many hours of hard work went into the planning of the annual district contest. A few of the people that contributed to the success of the tournament are Coach Joe Renfroe, Coach Bob Fuerst, Mr. Bill Oakes, Miss Lurline Stewart, Mr. John Virden, Coach Louis Boteler, Coach Troy Ricks, Mr. E. E. Morris, Miss Mary Sue McNair, and many others too numerous to name.

For the second time this year a woman member of the Hinds Junior College faculty has made the sports news of a daily newspaper. First it was Miss Frances Bratschi and now it is Miss Dauphine Jones.

Miss Jones is assistant librarian at Hinds Junior College this year. Before coming to Hinds she was librarian at Brandon High School. Her home is Prentiss and she received her degree at Mississippi Southern College.

If all plans go to order Miss Jones will wed Wade Bass, assistant football coach and girls' basketball coach at Brandon, on June 3. Coach Bass is a former Central High and Mississippi College football star. He is past head coach at Byram High School and brother to Jack Bass, Mississippi College tackle, formerly at Hinds.

Coach Troy Ricks' Eagles will enter the state junior college tournament tomorrow afternoon at Ellisville. The Eagles are the fourth-seeded team of the tournament and could easily be a dark horse contender. Personally, this writer feels that the Holmes Junior College Bulldogs will cop the crown and the Southwest Bears and the Itawamba Indians have a slight chance of nosing out the Bulldogs.

Raymond Eaglettes Win Tourney Play In South Miss. B-BB Thursday

Raymond's Eaglettes and Brandon's Bulldogs were crowned the 1956 District Six B-BB basketball champions after winning the finals here Monday night before a packed house of spectators.

The host Raymond girls topped the Satartia Kittens 47-34 in the lid lifter for the girls' division and the Brandon Bulldogs knocked off the Harperville Eagles 63-52 for the coveted boys' championship.

The District Six All-Star team is as follows: Girls—Mary Hart, Bettye Taylor, and Lou Carter, Raymond; Brenda Gatewood, Harperville; Carman Stevens, and Janie Green, Satartia; Joan Comfort, and Mary Jones, Brandon; Doris Patterson, and Mary Ross, Pearl; Shirley Ainsworth, Byram; Magadene Moore, Farmhaven.

Boys are: Franklin Lawrence, and Dan Boyce, Brandon; Johnny Thrash, and Charles Hall, Harperville; Johnny Gray and Carl Harris, Pelahatchie; Ellis Blackwell, Byram; Donnie Weaver, Redwood; Johnny Cobb, Farmhaven; and Homer Boyd, Raymond.

The Eaglette victory in the district finals was the first time in history for the Raymond girls to win the crown. It was the 26th win of the season for the home standing sextet against six defeats this season.

Coach Louis Boteler's lassies located the right combination in the initial stanza to chalk up a 17-8 lead after seven minutes of action. The Eaglettes continued to be a package of dynamite in the second portion to stack up a 23-14 halftime advantage.

With three periods played, the invaders held a 34-20 deficit.

Bettye Taylor paved the way for the winners with 18 points; Mary Hart, and Nancy Chapman contributed 15 and 12 points respectively. For the losers, Carman Stevens was the top scorer of the game with 19 markers. Her co-worker, Shirley Johnson, emerged with 10 points. In the boys' championship, the Harperville Eagles put up a determined effort all the way to hold a scant 16-15 edge with one quarter played.

Franklin Lawrence, Brandon pivot-man, set th pace in the second period as the Bulldogs barraged out front 33-26 by the midway mark of the game. The Bulldogs proved to be an explosive all-conquering quintet in the last half to gradually carry the Eagles for a ride.

Lawrence poured in 27 points for the top performance of the night. Charles Cook netted 18 points for the winning cause. Charles Hall pacd the losingrookie aggregation with 20 markers.

The Raymond Eaglettes will play Agricola Thursday afternoon at 1 p. m. at McComb in the South Mississippi B-BB tournament. Satartia's girls clash with White Oak Thursday afternoon also.

In order to reach the state tournament next week-end all teams entering the South Mississippi event must win at least one game. The Agricola girls have a record of 81 wins and only one loss in the last two years.

The Brandon boys play Decatur and the Harperville boys meet Conehatta Thursday afternoon at Brookhaven in the B-BB boys' division.

Interested Track Members Urged To Attend Meet

Coach Bob Fuerst, Hinds Junior track coach, has issued the first and only call for track candidates this season.

A meeting has been called for Friday, February 24, during the activity period in the coaches' office on the ground floor of the gym.

Plans and details for the season will be mapped out at the meeting Friday morning and all interested members are urged to attend.

LURLYNE GREER from Des Arc, Arkansas will be a member of Hazel Walker's Arkansas Travelers here Friday night when the Travelers play the basketball coaches of Hinds County. She has made the All-American for the past eight years in a row.

Walker's Quintet Here Friday Night

The Arkansas Travelers' Basketball Team, under the leadership of the Nation's Premier Woman performer—All-American Hazel Walker — was organized in 1949 with three main objectives: ENTERTAINMENT-SHOWMANSHIP, and TOP-NOTCH BASHETBALL.

The Hazel Walker troupe has delivered these essentials in great form. They'll be on display when the touring Travelers all-girls' team meets the Hinds County basketball coaches (all men's team) Friday Without question, the Hazel Walker combine rates as the No. 1 Women's Basketball Team in the World today. Proof of that claim is the amazing record the team has compiled against men's teams only in its six-year history.

The 1954-55 season was the biggest and best for the Arkansas Travelers who played a 220 game schedule in 48 states. The girls displayed amazing court finesse, entertainment, and beauty to the acclaim of thousands of basketball

In addition, sportswriters everywhere have tabbed the team "The Nation's Most Watchable Basketball outfit." The Travelers produce basketball at its best and entertainment at its finest—appealing to the kids who have only a nodding acquaintance with the game as well as to long-time fans of the sport.

New Hindsonian Staff Announced Members To Serve Next Semester

New appointments for staff positions on the Hindsonian were released Friday at the regular staff meeting at the activity period.

Freshmen who were appointed are expected to serve through the first semester of the 1956-57 session. Sophomores will complete their services with the last issue of the paper to be published in the current semester.

Summer School '56

The 1956 Summer School at Hinds will begin Monday, June 4. Room reservations for the summer session are being received now in the office of the registrar.

With its regular session faculty serving as instructors, Hinds will offer subjects in high school, college, and vocational trades.

The ten-week summer session is broken into two five-week terms, one beginning on June 4, the other on July 9. The entrance fee for either term is $15. The charge for room and board is $40 per five-week term. For Mississippi students living outside Hinds, Rankin, and Warren counties, there is an out-of-county tuition charge of $15. Students whose parents or guardians are not legal residents of the State of Mississippi pay a non-resident tuition of $50 for the ten-week session.

Air-cooled classrooms and offices are available for the summer school.

A full program of recreation will be maintained during the summer session with a variety of game equipment. The school property includes Raymond Lake, a 35-acre body of water, an ideal spot for picnics, swimming, boating, and parties. A life-guard will be on duty during swimming periods.

Ertle, Bentonia, and Tommy Welch, Vicksburg, assistant news editors; Marilyn Simmons, McCall Creek, club editor; Jane Pickett, Utica, copy editor; Carl Brock, Vicksburg, feature editor; Ramona Franklin, Morton, and Laura Lusby, Jackson, assistant feature editors;

Burkett Neely, Mendenhall, circulation manager; Jesse Boyd, Vicksburg, columnist; Karlene Stafford, Clinton, exchange editor; and Mona McClurg, Vicksburg, typist.

Billy Beasley, Jackson, will continue as staff photographer.

Mrs. Margaret Mosal of MSCW will be on the campus March 13 to interview any girls interested in attending MSCW. She will be in the college conference room from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Staiger Directs Extension Class

Dr. Ralph Staiger, director of Mississippi Southern's Reading Clinic and professor of psychology, is conducting a course in Problems in Reading on the Hinds campus.

The course is held once a week in the afternoon and evening, for the dozen or more faculty members who have enrolled.

Dr. Staiger has recently been named publications chairman for the National Conference on Research in English.

Antic Spring Cast Told By Fleshman

The cast has been named for Antic Spring, a one-act comedy that will be presented as an assembly program on April 3, according to Mr. Robert Fleshman, director of the Lendon Players.

As a result of the tryouts held February 23 and 24, the following are named as the cast: Annette McCluer as Ginger; Sam Tolar as Robert; Annette Cheatham as Gwendolyn; Ben Fulton as Sam; Mary Jane Loper as Blossom; and Joe Kinsey as Elbert.

Antic Spring, written by Robert Nail, deals with six oddly assorted characters at a spring picnic. Gwendolyn moves in a quiet empty-head-faculty club will take part in the Delegates Assembly. These are President McLendon and Miss Lurline Stewart, head of the mathematics department. On the agenda at this meeting is the naming of new officers for the Association..

Thursday morning, at the meeting of the College Association faculty members will take part in business meeting and hear reports of the colleges of Mississippi, both public and private. Miss Mildred Herrin, college registrar, is secretary-treasurer of this body.

The College Association will continue meeting at a luncheon that day to be served at the Heidelberg Hotel.

Thursday afternoon and Friday morning departmental meetings will engage the attention of the State's teachers, both public school and college.

General assemblies will be held Thursday and Friday evenings at which time outstanding speakers of the Nation will address the teachers.

Faculty Members Will Hear Vroman

Faculty members will enjoy a luncheon meeting next Thursday of the Mississippi Association of Colleges at the Heidelberg Hotel.

The speaker at this meeting will be Dr. Clyde Vroman of the University of Michigan. His topic is announced as "Problems and Opportunities of Higher Education in the Immediate Future."

USAF SELECTION TEAM WILL VISIT CAMPUS

The U. S. A. F. Aviation Cadet Selection Team will visit the Hinds campus Tuesday, March 20, to interview all interested graduating seniors and sophomores for training as air craft observers and pilots. Successful completion of this training will lead to the commission of 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Force.

Members of the team who will be visiting and meeting in the Recreation Hall are Captain Shupert, president; and members, Sergeants Capriotti and Duette.

The People's Pungent Pogo Possum

Have you not yet fallen victim to pogoitis? If not, you have probably guarded yourself by thinking that Pogo and his friends are silly and absurd. Quite untrue — the precious and priceless little 'possum is delightfully sane and satirical.

It could be surmised that Pogo's creator, Walt Kelly, had a double purpose in the creation of the characters of his comic strip. Or perhaps he was frustrated with indecision — certainly his characters quite often seem more than frustrated. On one hand he wanted to entertain, while on the other hand he wished to stimulate thinking. Perhaps he was considerate enough to desire only a little thinking on the part of his readers.

A number of modern readers cannot do too much thinking. They might over-exert their mental powers. Most thought-provoking words find themselves in editorials. And most people would have an on-the-spot-stroke if told they were expected to read an editorial. How to overcome this obstacle has no doubt confronted many writers of all times. Mr. Kelly solved the problem by a clever concoction from his creative imagination. The "concoction" is Pogo and his cronies, all full of absolute absurdity and sassy satire.

If you doubt that there could possibly be any wisdom in the Pogo strip, let me refer you to some words uttered by scholarly Owl in March 4th strip. As Frog and Beetle desert during a booming vocal battle, Owl calls them "Summer Soldiers!" Do you think, "Well, so what if Kelly has read Thomas Paine?" Kelly has quite obviously read much more. By his characters you are entertained and meet several "old friends" of the literary world.

Granted, the reunion may lack dignity, but that makes it all the more enjoyable and interesting. One gets a new look at familiar subjects.

But we believe that Pogo does more than entertain and reminisce. Woe to the publicans and hypocrites of the present social order that find themselves subtlely injected into Pogo's swampy homeland! We recall a recent antic of Turtle and Bunny. Turtle is blindly pushing a baby buggy before him and moaning "I forsee doom, doom, doom, DOOM." Bunny gets in his path and refuses to move, repeatedly declaring, "I got my rights!" The result is a senseless stalemate.

Is the analogy too strained? Do we read things into Pogo? Perhaps we do on occasions. But read for yourself. Give Pogo a fair chance to prove to you that he is not just too, too silly or too subtle for the obtuse to grasp. We think you will find him a pungent prophet of the people. And he laughs at us terribly.

ORCHIDS TO OUR TEACHERS . . .

As our teachers go to their annual convention our good wishes go with them. We are proud of our faculty. We appreciate them.

May their duties and responsibilities this weekend be well offset by good fellowship and many pleasures.

- SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK-Ann Johnson

by DOT ADAMS

This week the Hindsonian takes pleasure in presenting as sophomore of the week, Ann Johnson of Morton.

Ann is 5 feet, 7½ inches tall; she weighs 121 pounds, and has brown hair and green eyes.

Some of Ann's honors in high school were salutatorian of her graduating class, president of girls' chorus, secretary of FBLA, and member of the high school band.

Ann's skillful and talented playing of her horn in the band made her a member of the 1953 Lions All-State Band. She won two superiors and two excellents at State Solo and Ensemble Contest. For three years she attended the State High School Band Clinic.

This instrumental music major plans to direct a high school band after she finishes senior college.

During her freshman year at Hinds Ann was a member of the Wesley Foundation, YWCA, and the Eagle Band. This year she is president of Wesley, member of YWCA, Eagle Band, and Phi Theta Kappa. She was recently appointed assistant editor of the Hindsoman.

For her hobbies, Ann lists "collecting records, and collecting salt and pepper shakers."

Her favorite songs are "Ebb Tide" and "You'll Never Walk Alone." She likes any kind of music almost, except hillbilly.

Favorite foods are chili con carne

She listed as favorite pastimes reading, playing her horn, and listening to records.

When asked for a statement about Hinds, Ann replied, "It is a place that will always have memories dear to me."

With your ability in the music world, may you succeed in your every undertaking, Ann Johnson.

This Week In Brief

By JESSE BOYD

Southern Congressman in Washington have called for a full congressional investigation of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. This suggestion was advanced by Arkansas' Democratic Representative Gathings and immediately drew backing from others. In support of his resolution Gathings said that of the 177 officers, board members, and executive staff members of the NAACP, 78 have been cited by the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

With President Eisenhower's statement that he would be available for re-nomination by the Republican party, the 1956 presidential campaign began to take definite shape. Ike signed statements permitting his name to be entered in the Wisconsin and California primaries. The President seemingly has no opposition for the nomination, and the important function of the convention at San Francisco, this summer will be the selection of a running mate for Ike. Many top-ranking men in the GOP oppose the renomination of Vice-President Nixon.

The Democratic nomination, meanwhile, is far less settled. At the present time, Adlai Stevenson appears to have an edge over his rivals Senator Kefauver of Tennessee and Governor Harriman of New York. In a poll of the forty-nine Democratic senators in Washington, more than a third of them favored Stevenson although many refused to commit themselves yet.

Still on the subject of elections—In Moscow, the 20th Congress of the Soviet Communist Party recently came to a close. As expected, Nikita Khrushchev, was re-elected first secretary. Defense Minister, Georgi Zhukov, continuing his rise that began after Stalin's death, became an alternate member of the ruling body.

The famous segregation issue at the University of Alabama took a new turn during the week. Four men who claimed they had been falsely accused of participation in mob action against Autherine Lucy, filed suit against her, the NAACP, and others for $4,000,000. The suits also charge the NAACP with agreeing to pay court costs, attorneys fees, and $300 per month to Miss Lucy and Mrs. Hudson while their efforts to enter the university continued.

On the lighter side of the news, the "war of the Disc Jockeys" continued during the week. Allan English, of Oxford, Miss., made his "retaliation" raid on Chicago Friday and dropped 25,000 paper Confederate flags. However, the strong wind from Lake Michigan carried most of them far away so the structure wasn't entirely successful.

I Respectfully Disagree

By DON AINSWORTH

There are many people who believe that college is a playground and that courses should be treated lightly. With this I do not agree Maybe if I had attended college shortly after graduation from high school, I would have agreed with these people. I would probably have chosen an easier field of study to enter.

Many student entering college begin by selecting the subjects which they feel they can get with the least effort. This is the reason that many of the fields of science are so short of personnel. There are too few students who have the desire to buckle down and put enough effort into their studies to obtain a degree in one of the sciences. Of course, I am not referring to those who have chosen other fields because of their preferences. I am referring to those who would choose one of the sciences if it were not for the amount of studying required.

I also do not agree with those who believe that tests and exams should be left out of college life. They believe that a student will strive just as hard without them. Now I dislike exams as much as anyone else, but I do believe that they are very necessary. I believe that exams help a student to put forth more effort. There may be a few, who would manage without exams. But there are many, like myself, who require a great deal more studying, and we need exams to make us put forth more effort.

There are many instances I've heard of when some students were allowed to go through college without any effort what-so-ever. At some universities, I have heard, sometimes athletes are brought into college merely to keep up a paying sports department. These students, in many instances, are almost guaranteed diplomas. Here again I must say I'm confident that this is not the case in many instances, because there are many students who are capable of carrying on a sports program and still maintain high averages in their studies. But there are also many who are capable of maintaining their studies only if they devote the majority of their time to them. This latter group are the ones I believe should be required to stay out of sports. I, too, like sports as well as the next fellow, but I believe that by letting a student through college without an education except in sports the academic standards of the college are great-

These views may seem a little radical to some, but I believe that a student should be required to have all the knowledge that goes with a diploma.

Around The Musical Clock

STUDENT RECITALS

Pupils of Miss Maudine Thrash are being presented on Mondays, every week during Activity Period in student recitals in the Music Auditorium. These recitals are primarily for the benefit of the piano pupils, but anyone who wishes to attend will be welcomed.

Students and numbers of March 5, were Dorothy Brock, "Saraband and Gavotte," Bach; James Furlow, "Sonata, K 309, Allegro con spirito," Mozart; Betty Denton, "Riguadon," MacDowell; Glenda Rush, "Grande Valse brilliante," Chopin.

On the program for next Monday, March 12, will be Betty Denton, "Two-part Invention, No. XIII," Bach; Martha Gillespie, "Sonata, Op. 10, No. 1, First Movement," Beethoven; Anita Watkins, "Prelude in G Minor," Rachmaninoff; Marion Woods, "Voiles," Debussy; Peggy Stubbs, "Waltz in E Minor," Chopin.

CHORAL FESTIVAL

The High School Choral Festival will be held Thursday and Friday, March 8-9 in Vicksburg. Those students attending from Hinds include: Jackie Armstrong, Louann Carter, Nancy Chapman, Betty Jo Clement, Betty Denton, Vicki Simmons, Louise Stubbs, Dorothy Brock, Myrna Loy Stuart, Barbara Smith, Norma Carter, members of the high school chorus under the direction of Mrs. Marlene Combs.

The concluding event of the Festival will be a choral concert Friday, 7:30 p.m. in the Carr Central High School auditorium. To this the public is cordially invited.

LSU STRING QUARTET

The LSU String Quartet performed in the Music Auditorium today, March 7, at 10:30 a.m. The program included works by Mozart, Beethoven, Ravel, and short pieces by Haydn and Glauzonoff.

Hinds College Men Answer Co-Eds; Give Opinion On Women Jurors

by CARL BROCK

"Women are wiser than men because they know less and understand more."—James Stephen.

Women evidently believe that now is the time for their long anticipated crusade for "liberty, equality, and fraternity." Not in the sense that they will storm the streets with banners, or hatchetchop the saloons, as is thought of when one refers to the Lucretia Mott regime, but in the sense that they wish to trample the imposed inferior barrier placed upon them by their judicially gluttonous superior, man. Not that they imply that man isn't capable of administering justice; it's just that they feel slighted, and don't want to be left out.

In all sincerity, it's a lot more than a woman's feeling of being left out. Our nation's colleges and universities are producing more women graduates now than ever before. Equal educational opportunities are available to the sexes, and it is not unusual that women are competing for positions in the business and professional world that have previously been occupied by men. Most women have a feeling of pride and responsibility that is being hurt by the denial of certain rights that would make them "citizens in the fullest meaning of the word." In Mississippi especially is this denial evident.

The main opposition to a bill endorsed by the Mississippi Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs to qualify women as jurors, is not that exemptions, restrictions, and accomodations would have to be made. It's just the fact that women have chosen the wrong time to conceive their idea of equality. The state legislature at present has more than it can digest at one time. If this issue had been introduced at a time when full consideration could have been given, a solution would probably have been speedily arrived at and put into effect with little opposition. A glance at any newspaper will prove that now is not the time for introducing additional bother. The presidential picture, local elections, public utilities disputes, the international scene, murder, theft, accidents, and all the hassle over interposition—these are only a few of the front page greetings that the reader finds in the newspapers every day.

The Hinds co-eds recently (Hindsonian, Feb. 22) upheld their sex and disproved the theory that emotional traits would disqualify them for jury service.

Since turn-about is fair play, thus speak the men:

"I don't think it is the proper time to let women serve on juries. There are too many things of greater importance that need to be settled if possible." . . . J im Currie.

"Women are too soft-hearted and haven't the sound understanding for justice that men have." . . . Mike Baroudy.

"A woman's prejudices and her emotions, in my opinion, would be very distracting factors in the rendering of an accurate decision of justice." . . . Walter Nelson.

"I believe that women are more prejudiced than men and more emotional. Serving jury duty is a right that should be retained by men only." . . . Lewis Tingle.

"A woman should not be made to listen to the jargon and inevitable profanity used by lawyers. I think that it would work out fine if the types of cases that women might serve on could be limited, but other than that, there would be too many complications that women would probably object to." . . . Gene Hajj.

"A woman's place in the world is just as important as a man's. Since women have every educational opportunity possible, their rights should be recognized." . . . Fred Marett, Jr.

"A smart lawyer could influence a woman's emotions by presenting a very sympathetic case. On this basis, women do not qualify for jury duty." . . . John Berry.

"In my opinion, it would confuse our whole jury system and bring into light many other conflicting problems. If restrictions could be made, and if women could find the time, then I believe they should have the right." . . . Dick Haynes.

"To be a citizen in the fullest meaning of the word, a woman should be given the right to serve on juries." . . . James Kettleman.

"As far as having the responsibility of holding a public office, I don't think that women, on the average, are capable. In serving on juries, I believe that a woman would be prejudiced and would rely too much on emotional tendencies." . . . Charles Phillips.

"Women are experienced enough to serve on juries as they are preobligated to social life. A woman has more time than a man, and also it is her duty as a citizen." . . . Harold Whatley.

High School Day will be held at Millsaps College Saturday, March 17. Dr. C. M. Murray of Oxford, Mississippi, will be the main speaker. The day begins at 8:30 a. m. and concludes that night with the play The Rainmaker presented by the Millsaps Players.

We enjoyed very much the editorial in The Tom-Tom from East Central Junior College, entitled "Keep the Student Center Clean!" This editorial could very well apply to our own campus.

We are glad to receive the Pica from Greenville High School. Congratulations to those students who were initiated in the Quill and Scroll.

The curtain will close on the 1955-56 basketball season in Jackson's City Auditorium when the A-AA champions clash with the B-BB champions for the overall state crown Saturday night.

Shady Grove's state B-BB girls will play Lumberton's state A-AA girls; and Mantachie's state B-BB boys will tangle with Kossuth's state A-AA boys for the golden egg title. This writer expects the B-BB teams in both divisions to win the overall championships.

Congratulations to Buck Smith, artful Hinds Junior College cage star, for being selected on the All-State junior college team. Tommy Vance and Bobby Lee of Hinds received honorable mention.

Spring football, tennis, baseball, and track will have the limelight for enthusiastic sports fans for the remaining weeks of the school year. Hinds will be definitely a strong contender for the state junior college baseball crown with a large majority of the returning team back.

The following words of praise were printed on the back cover of the program at the state B-BB girls basketball tournament last week-end and we feel they are worth passing on to our readers.

A SALUTE TO OUR COACHES:

"Let's pin a verbal flower of appreciation on the lapels of this group, whose training of our youth is destined to make this nation a better place in which to live.

Diamond Hopefuls Begin Work Outs For Eagle Team

Coach Joe Renfroe, Hinds Junior College Athletic Director, released an eight-game baseball schedule this week for the Hinds Eagles.

The first four games will be on the road and the final half of the season will be played at home. It is a possibility that Hinds might play Millsaps in two games this year.

A large number of players are already shaping up for the baseball season. Official time for practice is slated for March 19.

With a large number of lettermen already training, the Eagles will be hard to beat this season. A total of 10 returning lettermen make up the list. They are Hugh Long, catcher; Willis Steenhuis, pitcher; Harold Whatley, 1st base; Paul Sullivan and Lewis Elkins, 2nd base; Johnny Woods, shortstop; Melvin Oakes, 3rd base; Jimmie Warren, left field; Mike Baroudy, center field; and Billy Sills, right field.

Some of the best prospective hurlers on hand at this time beside Steenhuis are Frank Wynn, Glen Barnes, and Jimmy Huss.

Intramural Events On Hinds Campus Open Tournament

Intramural basketball takes the spotlight for the enthusiastic round-ball fans on the Hinds Junior College campus this week under the direction of Mr. W. C. "Bill" Oakes, physical education director.

Tonight at 7:15 p. m., Coach Dove's Wildcats from the first floor of Shangri La will tangle with Coach Paul Sullivan's well-balanced quintet of the Shangri La second floor. In the nightcap at 8:30 p. m., Coach John Woods' Tigers of the first floor of Eastside clash with Coach Billy Tucker's strong Panthers of the second floor of Central.

Thursday night's competition will see Coach Carlos Curtis' forces attack Coach Peter Sabb's Bearcats at 7:15 p. m., and in the finale, Coach Tucker's powerhouse matches Coach Sullivan's squad to complete the games this week.

This is a double elimination tournament. The first game was held last week with the second floor of Central topping the second floor of Eastside in thrilling fashion. Last night the first floor of Eastside played the first floor of Central.

We sometimes fail to recognize the high position of influence which they exert in directing the activities of the boys and the girls under their supervision.

It is they who teach the value of teamwork, cooperation, the ability to give and take, channel their thinking in the right direction, and advise with them on the finer things of life.

They lead where correct leadership is in greatest demand. They encourage when encouragement is most needed. They go when the going gets tough! They achieve where achievement counts most.

These tasks they assume all for the benefit of those dearest to us . . . our children.

Hail to our coaches! They richly deserve the plaudits of the public." The material was furnished by Mississippi School Supply Company.

Tennis And Track Teams Make Plans Squads In Action

Tennis and track teams started participating for the state play-offs this week.

Mr. W. C. "Bill" Oakes will have charge of the high school and college boys' tennis teams. The teams will practice 6th and 7th periods and also after school. All candidates for teams should see Mr. Oakes.

Last year the college tennis team won second in the state in boys' singles competition, and the Eagles will possibly foster an even stronger team this year.

The girls' tennis teams of the college and high school divisions

Hinds Hi Cage Teams Close Season Girls Top All Time Performance

Hinds High's basketball squads closed one of their top seasons in history last Tuesday night against the Mississippi School for the Deaf with the girls winning 46-41 and the boys on the bottom side of a 53-49 score.

Tommy Lynch, ace Eagle performer closed his high school career in high fashion by contributing 30 points in the M.S.D. game. Mary Hart paced the girls team with 16 markers.

The Eaglettes closed the curtain for 1956 with 26 wins and only 7 losses. In the 33 games, the Hinds High sextet scored 1295 points while their total opposition deposited 997 points. For the first time in history, Coach Louis Boteler's Eaglettes won the district crown and lost in the South Mississippi tournament two weeks ago.

Mary M. Hart led the Eaglettes this year with 488 points in 32 games and her co-worker, Bettye Taylor, flipped in 434 points in 31 games. Other scorers were Nancy Chapman with 321, and Jimmy Lou Stingley with 10 markers.

Coach Boteler's boys lost in the district tourney to end the season with 16 victories and 15 setbacks. The Eagles netted 1331 points and their opponents chalked up 1436 markers this year.

Offensive standings this season for the Eagles is as follows: Homer Boyd 266 points, Johnny Oberhausen 281 points, Donald Anderson 245 points, Tommy Lynch 142 points, Joe Milano 133 points, Blake Harrison 145 points, James Causey 24 points, Don Trotter 17 points, Tommy Ray Cox 12 points, Eugene Osborn 72 points and Randolph Smith 20 points.

Basketball Team Has Good Season SPORTS EDITORIAL

Hinds Junior College's Eagles have just completed one of their best hardwood records in the history of the college under the direction of Coach Troy Ricks.

Coach Ricks is considered by some as the Dean of the Mississippi Junior College basketball coaches. While he was head basketball coach at Co-Lin, his team won state championship and was defeated by only two points in the national tournament. The former Northeast Mississippi cage star was All-American in college back in 1941.

The Eagles' record this year contained 13 wins and only seven losses in the conference. The Hinds quintet fell to Pearl River of Poplarville by a 73-69 score in the quarter finals of the state tournament.

Buck Smith made the Mississippi Junior College All-Star team and Tommy Vance and Bobby Lee received honorable mentions.

Two Hinds players played their last game of junior college basketball. Forward Julian Sandifer and Guard Melvin Oakes have completed their junior college cage careers.

Coach Ricks and each individual player is to be commended for the sportsmanship shown in victory and defeat this season. The boys played as a team and not as a group of individual stars that happened to be on the court at the same time. The Eagles fought hard to the final whistle against all opponents and certainly deserve our favorable comment.

With Buck Smith, Jerry Ivy, Bobby Lee, Tommy Vance, John Lancaster, Dickie Axtell, Gary Everett, and Gordon "Moose" Merritt returning next year, the Eagles should prove to be a formidable adversary in the Mississippi Junior College loop next year.

will be coached by Mrs. Ann Gookin. Any girls that are interested are asked to sign up with Mrs. Gookin in the near future. The teams practice at 3rd period.

Lassies working for a position on the college girls' team are: Mary Louise Baker, Mary Lou Kersh, Gwen Post, Helen Cowart, Vickie Simmons, Hermanell Hearn, Dot Gill, Lynn Thomas, Frances Bliss, Melanie Matthews, Bobbie Nell Noland, Jane Pickett, Wanda Lou Wortman, Ruth Martin, Betty Cardwell, and Judy Sigrest.

The team advanced to the semifinals of the state last year with Mary Louise Baker and Mary Lou Kersh playing. Other top candidates are Gwen Post of Clinton's team, Helen Cowart and Melanie Matthews of the last year Raymond High School team.

High school girls are Sissy Graham, Magda Sidergst, Nancy Chapman, Clara Murrah, Jo Ann Ray, Jean Gill, and Bettye Taylor.

Coach Louis Boteler is issuing the call to all high school track participants. The team will practice 6th and 7th periods each day.

Under the direction of Coach Bob Fuerst, the college track team is improving rapidly with a goodly number taking part in the workouts.

Six Students Top Hinds Honor Roll College Has Five

Seventy-one students maintained "Honors" at Hinds Junior College for the past six weeks, the fourth term of the current session, according to Miss Mildred Herrin, registrar.

Six of these, five in college, and one in the high school division, made "straight A" records. These are Carlie Brewer, Jackson; Ben Fulton, Jackson; Hermanelle Hearn, Vicksburg; Melvin Oakes, Vicksburg; and Glenda Rush, Porterville in college. Don Trotter, Bolton, is the only high school student to win an all A record this term.

Student Council Will Fill A Need

A student body association at Hinds Junior College will fill a need. It will strengthen the ties between the students and the administration.

So often a student body association is misinterpreted as student government. It is not student government and would not have any powers of discipline. The association would work for the betterment and advancement of the college at all times. Through the cooperation of all concerned great results can be achieved by this program.

The council group at Hinds could be composed of the presidents of a certain number of the 22 of the constituted college student organizations, the president of the college, the dean of instruction, the dean of women, the dean of men, and the recreational leaders. The president of the sophomore class would be the chairman of the group and the organization would need to meet twice a month, if possible, but at least once a month. The administration would always have final veto power of any issue. We are confident this plan has the blessings of the administration and will be welcomed as an improvement to all concerned.

It could well serve as a goodwill program with the faculty and students. By proper planning many activities could be initiated. An annual student high school day, student body dances, student elections, and many other activities concerning the students could be carried on effectively. At the same time the high standards and reputation of the college would be maintained.

This organization which can be the life blood of the school and can have the school at heart is the student council, sometimes called the cabinet of the student body association. Senior colleges and many junior colleges have an organization on their campuses made up of students elected by the student body as a whole with faculty advisors. This group of students represents the wants and needs of the student body.

The activities committee composed of outstanding students on the campus could very easily continue filling this capacity for the remainder of this semester.

The Hindsonian whole-heartedly endorses a well organized Student Body Association for Hinds Junior College.

The following quoting is from Charles F. Ketterling, research consultant for General Motors Corporation and one of the world's foremost scientists and inventors. Mr. Ketterling has 32 honorary degrees from colleges all over the nation and has been a member of the Ohio State University board of trustees for 27 years. This is his opinion of academic freedom and freedom of the press. We highly value his statement.

"We hear a great deal of discussion about academic freedom. I never had any freedom in my life, and I don't feel like buying it for anybody else. I think the way to get academic freedom is to take academic responsibility and the freedom will come. The same thing I think about freedom of the press. I think a free press is absolutely wonderful, but I think when it gets so free that it rattles, then it is no good. It is free as long as there is an intelligent responsibility about it, when you don't view with alarm everything that is going on in the world."

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK-

Bobby Worley

by DOT ADAMS

This week the Hindsonian takes pleasure in presenting Bobby Worley from Sandhill as Sophomore of the Week.

BOBBY WORLEY

Bobby weighs 150 pounds, is 5' 9" tall, and has blonde hair and blue eyes.

While at Hinds Bobby has participated in various organizations on the campus. During his freshman year he was a member of the Y.M.C.A., B.S.U., Circle K Club, and secretary of the Agriculture Club.

This year he is a member of the Phi Theta Kappa, B.S.U. in which he is a member of greater council, secretary and treasurer of Circle K Club, and reporter of the Agriculture Club.

Bobby lists his favorite pastimes as fishing, playing basketball, and swimming.

This animal husbandry major plans to attend Miss. State after he graduates from Hinds. Upon his graduation from State he plans to work on a farm or teach science.

When asked what he thought about Hinds, he replied, "I think Hinds offers wonderful opportunities if we apply ourselves."

At Pisgah High School, he was president of his class for three years, valedictorian of his class, and editor of the school paper.

Fried catfish and French fries rate tops with him on the foodline.

With your superb mentality and your eagerness to learn may you always succeed in every worthy undertaking, Bobby Worley.

This Week In Brief

By JESSE BOYD

Politics and affairs of state took a back seat during the past week or so as far as the American public generally was concerned. Spring training began in earnest for the 16 Major League baseball teams. The "Grapefruit" League had its opening on March the tenth, and our "national pastime" is with us once again.

The Record Industry Association of America announced that it will hold a meeting soon to discuss the advisiability of establishing an industry-awards program. If adopted the program would present awards to the top records and recording

In the high school division students making all "A's" and "B's" are Jackie Armstrong, Raymond, Ann Boyd, Raymond; Dorothy Brock, Raymond; Norma Jean Carter, Raymond; Betty Denton, Raymond; Betty Furness, Raymond; Velma Ruth Hand, Terry; Mary Marguerett Hart, Satartia: Lenda Herrington, Raymond; Anita Jones, Raymond; Ann Laseter, Morton; Juanita Lewis, Raymond; Patti Mc-Donald, Bolton; Margaret Lynn Peyton, Raymond; Donald Sheffield, Raymond; Bobby Sheffield, Raymond; Vickie Simmons, Jackson; Mildred Strong, Bolton; Charles Weissinger, Bolton; Carolyn Wright, Raymond.

Politics and affairs of state took artists each year much in the same back seat during the past week fashion as Hollywood's Academy so as far as the American public Awards.

At his recent press conference, Governor J. P. Coleman spoke out against any organization of a third political party in Mississippi. The Governod declared such a move would be bad for Mississippi, while at the same time it would not alter the outcome of the 1956 presidential election.

Art Department Gets New Slides For Art Students

The Art Department with Mrs. A. L. Denton, sponsor, has recently purchased a slide projector and 200 new slides.

The slides are exact color photographs of great masterpieces. Among these slides are photographs of the paintings of Raphael, da Vinci, and Rembrandt. These slides are expected to be a great help to the Art Department, and even more to the art appreciation classes, who make frequent use of slides in lectures.

Plans are being made to purchase new slides to be used in studying the various forms of ancient architecture.

GWEN POST, one of the finest girl basketball players in the state, has compiled one of the best records of any player ever produced in Central Mississippi.

Post, a diminutive performer, lettered five years before coming to Hinds Junior College last summer. She hails from Clinton, Mississippi, where she scored 1,050 points her senior year in high school for an average of 28 points per game. Besides turning in a stellar performance, Gwen was selected on the 1955 All-State team.

In her junior year in high school, the good-natured lass chalked up over 700 points. She has accounted for over 3,000 points in her high school career. Gwen is one of the most versatile girls in the athletic business. She was known in high school for her ability to drive and pop the net.

Gwen is not exactly like any other individual this writer has ever met. She possesses a great deal of modesty and is plenty dogmatic in some of her theories about the round ball game. We were amazed in our long chat with her about her future plans.

She plans to enter Mississippi College next year as a junior, after completing her work at Hinds this summer. After finishing at Mississippi College she plans to coach girls' basketball and teach physical education at Clinton High school. Her main ambition is to win the state girls' basketball championship. So look out for the Clinton Arrowettes five years hence. This is just a fair warning.

The half-pint sized young lady is only 5' 2" tall and weighs 110 pounds. Gwen's chief ambition while at Hinds is to beat Mrs. Anne Gookin in a golf game. Personally, we feel her efforts will be fruitless in this field.

Clinton's artful performer, was a member of the track team that won the state 200-yard relay last year. In her senior year she was voted "Most Athletic Girl" at Clinton High School and this year she was voted the "Most Athletic Girl" at Hinds Junior College in the first primary by a landslide major-

A lover of all sports, Gwen was a member of the tennis team that won the South Mississippi A-AA doubles last year. To show her versatile ability even more, she was a football player in the Clinton senior play last year.

Coach Ann Gookin's ace performer this year, Gwen was the third high scorer in the Jackson Recreational City League. She has also been a member of the Pine Sol Queens this year.

The all-round athlete and cool, calm performer said she played her best game in the finals of the South Mississippi girls A-AA basketball tournament last year when Clinton was defeated 13-11 by Forest. "We froze the ball for three and three-fourths quarters," remarked Post. Clinton has been runnerup to Forest in every tournament in the state in the past two

When asked what one factor she considers the greatest contribution to a top flight basketball player Post said, "I feel that good condition counts more than anything else." Other contributing factors are desire, attitude, natural ability, and good team work.

To close a very enjoyable conversation, Gwen said that the highlight of her life was when the Raymond Eaglettes won the District Six Class B-BB basketball tournament here last month. "That was the happiest moment of my life," stated Post. Gwen was assistant coach of the Eaglettes this

In Opener Tues.

Baseball practice at Hinds Junior College officially began Monday afternoon with 18 eager youngsters out for the summer sport.

Eight returning players are the brightest spot on the team. They are Harold Whatley, 1st base; Paul Sullivan, 2nd base; John Woods, short stop; Melvin Oakes, 3rd base; Hugh Long, catcher; Jimmy Warren, left field; Mike Baroudy, center field; and Willis Steenhuis, Newcomers to the squad are: John Smith, catcher; Glen Barnes, pitcher; Frank Wynn, pitcher; Jimmy Hust, pitcher; Malcolm Cockerham, outfield; Billy Sills, outfield; Billy Magee, outfield; Max Stephens, outfield; and John Williams, outfield.

The Eagles play the Jones Bobcats next Tuesday at Ellisville for their season opener.

Track Team Plays Clinton This Week

Hinds High track teams will take part in a track meet Friday evening at Clinton.

Coach Louis Boteler's forces are the defending District Six B-BB champions, third place in South Mississippi to participate in the state meet last year.

Eagles Play Jones Intramural Games Enter Final Round

Eastside's initial floor and Shangri-La'c second floor dominated play in the intramural basketball games on the Hinds Junior College campus this week. Both teams had three victories and no defeats before this week's games.

The second floor of Eastside was third in the standings with a 2-1 record, while the second floor of Central posted a 1-3 record. The first floor of Shangri-La and the first floor of Central have been unable to win a game against two and three setbacks respectively.

The top ten scorers in the games have all scored above 30 points. The largest number of points in one game was by Burdette Boyd with 34 markers. The top ten are: Burdette Boyd 71 points, Hyde Powers 58 points, Frank Drummond 55 points, Billy Tucker 49 points, Willis Steenhuis 49 points, George Gross 41 points, Virgil Wells 37 points, Paul Sullivan 37 points, Jimmy Warren 34 points, and Ernest Turcotte 31 markers.

Joe Lancaster, Johnny Oberhsuoen, Donnie Sheffield, Kendall Harris, Homer Boyd, Bobby Sheffield, Lamar Gates, and Tommy Cox. Girls are Mary Hart, Bettye Taylor, Lou Carter, Ann Boyd, Winnie Smith, Jimmie Stingley, Ellene Varner, Jane Lancaster, and Edith

Local Students Participate In Riot Oakes Leads Merry-Making Night

A night of merry-making which Huff, Buck Lofton, George Cagle, began at Westside Dormitory last night after co-eds proclaimed "high holiday" was brought under control two hours later with the expulsion of 18 students and one instructor. At least 15 other students and faculty members are being held for questioning.

All was quiet when the 7:15 curfew was imposed. Every girl was in her room during room check. Lights clicked off at the specified hour simultaneously. Only when Melvin Oakes, Mr. Buford Langston, and a large number of Shangri-La students began to arrive at the dormitory and toss pebbles at the windows, did the girls respond. A low chant, "Come on out and play with me" was begun by Oakes and cohorts, and soon the call echoed through the large building.

Miss Davis, Dean of Women and resident of the dormiotry, could not be located. Above the shouting could be heard the voice of Peggy French screaming from Main Dormitory, "Hey! I'm over here! Don't you want me?" The crowd went berserk when Dick Scully, perched in a tree, began picking his guitar and singing "Blue Moon".

The students dispersed when President McLendon and other officials arrived on the scene. Melvin Oakes, president of the sophomore class and leader of the group, stated when asked the reason for the unprecedented action, "I guess it was because the moon was blue". Others in the plot were Raymon

James Furlough, Charles Wicker, Charles Malone, and John Turnage. Frances Black, Jeanette Mahaffey, Marilyn Simmons, Ann Johnson, Mary Louise Baker, and Annette McCluer are also being held pending questioning.

During the hour of student uproar, Rev. Clay Lee and Mr. Marvin Riggs assisted law officers in directing the jammed traffic in front of the dormitory.

Hinds Heads Removed This Week Board Fires McLendon, Herring

Dean of Instruction, M. F. Herring, were asked to resign from their positions at Hinds Junior College by the board of trusties in a heated board meeting yesterday afternoon.

Well informed sources told the Hindsonian this morning that Jack Kilcrease, Fred Marett, and Sleepy Seale were top candidates on the list to fill the president's post. It was learned from Miss Hilda Brantley, President McLendon's secretary, that Joe Kinesy, Charlie Malone, or Bill Cole will likely take Mr. Herring's spot on the staff.

The two experienced men were asked to leave Hinds because it had been revealed that both men were spending excessive time at

"Friendliest Girl" Drowns Schoolmate Plans To Plead Temporary Insanity

Miss Wanda Lou Wortman, Leland, 14, a freshman at Hinds Junior College, has been indicted for the drowning of Billy Beasley, Jackson, a fellow student at Hinds; while Miss Mary Louise Baker, Brandon, is being held on a charge of attempted murder in connection with the attempted drowning of Willis Steenhuis, Jackson, yester-

Miss Wortman, voted a campus favorite in the recent Who's Who contest, sobbed dramatically, "I didn't mean to kill him; but he made a nasty remark about Charlie. I just lost my temper, you know how red heads are, and shoved."

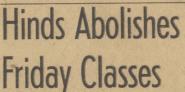

The two couples had walked to Raymond Lake for some exercise yesterday afternoon. The alleged murder took place on the pier of the lake. Miss Wortman reported that she had shoved Beasley under several times, when he "attempted to climb back on the pier."

"He just kept climbing out," she said, "I finally lost my temper and stuck my finger in his eye. He went down then and stayed there," she said proudly. Miss Wortman expects to plead temporary insanity as the basis of her court de-

Miss Baker, a popular lass at Hinds, also declares her intention of pleading "insanity." She was not sure whether to plead temporary or permanent insanity as the Hindsonian went to press late last Trial for the two Hinds co-eds is set for April 32.

There will be no more Friday classes at Hinds Junior College, according to an announcement from Dean M. F. Herring, yesterday.

Dean Herring declared that the school administration decided to end Friday classes as a result of the inability of 39 students to attend classes.

The students are as follows: Frances Barker, Bobby Worley, Harry Anderson, Margie Bridges, Billy Tucker, Tommy Robbins, Riddell Leggett, Hugh Long, Mary Will McKenzie, Jim Corbett, Bebe Epperson, Hermanell Hearn, Red Gookin, Nan Lane.

Glenda Rush, Virgil Wells, Wayne Winstead, Georgianne Burton, Frank Drummonds, Wiles Farr, Ralph Ainsworth, Ben Fulton, Martha Gillespie, Richard Haynes, Raymon Huff, Jo Ann Lane, Douglas Love, Bobby McWilliams, Thomas McTaggart, Phil Oxner, Maurine Pierce, Juanita Rayborn, Julian Sandifer, Jimmy Roberts, Karlene Stafford, Larkin Tucker, Robert Birdges, Marvin Baker, and Maurine Eichelberger.

Dean Herring also stated that in the near future it may be necessary to do away with Monday classes since many of the students named above have found it greatly inconvenient to return to school in time for Monday classes.

Witnesses against Mr. McLendon were Jo Ann Nutt, Pat Young, Cornelia Thompson, and Melanie Matthews. Bobbie Nell Noland, Flora Mae Roberts, Mickey Farmer, and Nancy Reese were interested in seeing Mr. Herring ousted.

Since the information above has been released, a thorough "house cleaning" is anticipated of teachers at Hinds Junior College in the very near future. This is highly expected of the Dean of Women, who has been caught speeding lately.

PROUD POP, Mr. T. T. Beemon, head of the Biology department at Hinds Junior College, smiles big as he nurses his twin boys, Ted and Ned Beemon. They have just completed their first football lesson. Mr. Beemon expects Ted and Ned to play the halfback positions on the Hinds football team in 1973.

Studying Is A Bad Tendency

"There is a bad tendency among a few of our students to study," declared President G. M. McLendon. This attitude is to be deplored. It is a habit almost as destructive as regular attendance at classes.

Mr. McLendon has noticed the tendency, and has wisely counteracted it. "Any nitwit," he said, "can study. What we want is the student who can get along without ever cracking a book. We have too many educated citizens now. Hereafter, we hope that our students will learn to shift for themselves. It would be wise for them to throw their books away."

No other college president can make that statement and tell the truth. The students at Hinds just have too many brains.

Gunfight Slaying Results In Fatality Rowzee Freed On Huge Bond Today

Mrs. Gertrude Rowzee, Hinds Junior College librarian, was released today under $110,000 bond for the shooting of Miss Lurline Stewart, local mathematics instructor.

According to the only eye witnesses, Miss Lula Mae Fowler, Pete Gray, and Joe Campbell, Mrs. Rowzee walked out of the library building, pulled out her 38 special, and fired twice at Miss Stewart, who was approaching the building. Both shots entered the chest.

Miss Stewart ran behind a bush for protection and aimed her trusty 45. She managed to fire five times into space when eleven more shots poured forth from Gert's blazing gun.

Sources told this reporter this morning that Mr. F. E. Bearden, Miss Mary Sue McNair, and Miss Lola Allen saw the shooting from the business office. All three persons denied knowing anything about the slaying, however.

Campbell said Mrs. Rowzee, lifelong enemy of Stewart's, shouted, "I told you I would get you" and smoke started rolling from the gun barrel. That was the only statement by anyone.

The affair was a result of a feud that started many years ago when Miss Stewart and Mrs. Rowzee were roommates at LSU. While in college both tried to go with the same boy and failed.

Miss Dauphine Jones, assistant librarian, said that Mrs. Rowzee had planned the killing for months. "It was a premeditated slaying," Jones declared.

It was surmised by some that Jones was fighting Mrs. Rowzee so that if Rowzee got the nod, and life imprisonment is expected, she, Jones, would get the top librarian job at H.J.C.

Phi Theta Kappa Members In Jail

There's a sad group of folks in the venerable county jail at Jackson today consisting of members of the Phi Theta Kappa, the honor society at Hinds, and their sponsors, Miss Mildred Herrin and Miss Gertrude Davis.

It all happened last night when President McLendon had planned to attend one of their frequent meetings. President McLendon closed in on their private party in Miss Davis' office at about 9 p. m. The group was unexepectedly surprised to see the President.

Miss Herrin and Miss Davis, seemingly partners, had just won all the chips from the other players. Hermanell Hearn, Ben Fulton, Jim Currie, Vonda Viverette, and Patsy Smith were all crying as the game was almost finished. They had lost all of Ma and Pa's land, and all their personal belongings in the gambling spree.

Charlie Wicker, president of the society, made effort to grab the money from Miss Davis; and Miss Herrin peeled him up-side the head with a baseball bat. In the opposite corner of the room, Annette McCluer was making plans to escape with Martha Gillespie's boy friend, Melvin Oakes.

Flash! Newest campus romance—Foy Scroggins and Bobbie Nell Noland. We're glad to see that this fickle girl has finally settled down.

Charlie Wicker, that dashing manabout-Louisville, has issued this statement for the press, "I'm tired of being chased by Annette McCluer, and I take this opportunity to tell the world."

We hope the news of Sam Melton and Helen Cowart's marriage going on the rocks is but a rumor, but Sam's black eye leads us to think the worst.

Dormitory Burns By Blazing Spark

Main Dormitory, one of the girls housing units at Hinds Junior College, was completey destroyed last night by fire from a spark that started from the first floor at about 9 p. m.

The fire started when Dot Gill assisted Miss Fleta Whitaker, Home Economics head, and assistant Dean of Women in charge of the dormitory, in lighting a cigarette. After getting the cigarette lighted, Dot pitched the match in the waste basket and it is apparent by now that the match was not out.

It was one of the most horrible experiences in the history of the college. Careful estimates today expected the total losses to run 'way over $1,000,000.

The entire structure went up in flames including all the furniture and the personal belongings of the girls living in the dormitory.

This fire was really a beautiful sight to behold. Making it rather comical were the girls piling out of the doors in all manner of dress (and undress). Leading the parade was Miss Whitaker in a long colorful Oriental night costume complete with turban. Every style of night dress was displayed by the inhabitants of the dormitory.

Vonda Viverette was in tears because the fire burned a picture she had of Douglas Palmer. Others seen in night gowns ranging from high to medium, and low were Henrietta Thornton, George Marie Frasiser, Sylvia Simon, Mary M. Hart, Georgianne Burton, Linda Bedgood, Margie Bridges, Sylvia Lane, Juanita Rayborn, and Nona Williams.

Cafeteria Offers Snake, Horse Hips Following Poll

Snake meat and horse hips will again be a daily attraction in our dining hall soon, following a private poll taken among the faculty and students, according to Mrs. Marian J. Welch, Dietitian.

The poll, taken after many faculty and student members, had asked for snake steaks, was headed by A. L. Denton, director of guidance at Hinds. Snake meat was a specialty here a fews years ago.

Mrs. A. L. Denton, head of the art department, is one of the most enthusiastic supporters of the snake menu. Mr. Denton has been organizing the movement for over two years to bring snake meat and horse hips back into the cafeteria. Today's announcement came as a climax of a long and bitter campaign against the opposition of the anti-snake forces, led by Miss Christine Berry, English instructer.

Mrs. Welch said that snake would be the entire menu tomorrow night. There will be roasted snake, boiled snake, fried snake stuffed snake, raw snake, and snake. A coin will be tossed for each person to determine which he will eat. There will be some cases of odd Plainly recognizable, a man's middle finger rested between the prongs of the fork!

When the shrieking onlookers were brought under control, the finger was examined and sent to the office of the president. Mr. Mc-Lendon, acting on logical impulse, sent for Mr. Beemon, head of the Biology Department, to give an explanation of the stray finger. Beemon said that his students are experimenting with putting bacon

Brantley, Morris Vows Told Here Faculty Takes Part In Wedding

In a simple but beautiful ceremony on March fifth at seven o'clock a. m. in the college auditorium at Hinds Junior College, Miss Hilda Brantley and Mr. Eddie E. Morris were united in wholly matrimony

Someone speculated that the unclaimed finger belonged to Hugh Gillespie. Molly Chaney quickly defended her beau by saying "My Hughie is perfect."

The question still remains; where did the finger come from? According to Newell Murphy, grillhop, coffee sales are lower than ever. Anyone for lemonade?

The prenuptial music was fur-

"Who's Sorry Now" was also played softly during the ceremony. Mr. Boteler, dressed in a lovely blue suit, was unique in the presentation of his vocal rendition in that he accompanied himself on the violin. Miss Davis and her group of players were dressed conservatively in pink and yellow satin tights.

Mrs. T. T. Beemon and Miss Belle Lindsey served with childish appeal as flower girls. Their dainty indentical frocks were of tucked satin. As they paced gaily down the aisle, their curls bobbing, they hurled bitter weeds at the dodging

The maid of honor was Miss Dauphine Jones, a close friend of the bride. She was dressed in a tight tobacco cloth skirt, enhancing the beauty of her red hair. Her blouse was of ostrich feathers, which beguilingly caressed her lovely face. Miss Jones constantly nonchalantly flicked ashes from her costume.

The bride was lowered from the balcony by Coach Troy A. Ricks and Mr. J. B. Patrick. The gown the bride wore was made by Mr. Kenneth Clark, tailor. It was a radiant two-tone color made of chicken feed sacks. The knitted yoke gave the new dropped-shoulder effect, and the skirt, interspersed with 15 yellow zinnias was a beautiful color. The veil of imported lace cascaded from a tiara of seed pods in the form of an adding machine. The bridal bouquet was 15 Easter lilies mounted on a white satin notebook. Worn at the hip line, her only ornament was a tie clasp, a gift of the groom.

The train bearers were little Jeannie Muse and Willie McKenzie. Both of the train bearers smacked gum throughout the entire

The only interruption came when Mr. Jack Treloar appeared looking for his best dairy feed sacks. After eyeing the bride's veil critically for five minutes, he was finally persuaded to search elsewhere.

The couple left for a honeymoon of undisclosed destination, but a postal card was later received from Pelahatchie. They are now at home to their friends and relatives in a cozy apartment in the spacious College Grill.

Oakes, Physical Education Nabbed Possessing Important Russia Notes

Mr. W. C. "Bill" Oakes, Hinds Junior College recreational director, and one of his physical education classes were nabbed below Port Gibson last night by J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director, and Major William P. Wilson, Mississippi's Adjutant General, in a surprise raid that left the student body and faculty of the junior college gasping for breath.

Oakes was caught just as he was preparing to leave with important secret data to catch a boat at New Orleans. His passport was in order and in a matter of hours, he would have been free to turn over to Russian agents enough information to spell America's defeat in a surprise attack on this country.

It was learned that he had been teaching his P. E. class a Communist doctrine. Other sources of information told a reporter of this large daily newspaper that Oakes had been connected with the NAA-CP for the past six years and was at one time a director of that group.

Mr. Hoover, in a statement to the press, revealed that Oakes' activities were not approved by the laws of America.

It was understood that Oakes' class composed of John Woods, Jimmy Roberts, Ernest Turcotte, Eugene Hajj, Jack Evans, Silas Scott, Skippy Cain, Carl Brock, Wilson Brent, Jesse Boyd, Burdette Boyd, John Smith, Max Stevens, J. J. Mason, Jimmy Taylor, Olin Renfroe, Marty Lippman, Sharpe, and Homer Boyd would plead innocent and begin touring

Bright Student In Nurses Training Tops Tough Test

Mr. John (Speedy) Virden, a reformer from the Columbia Training School reported that one of his cohorts, Mr. Robert Fleshman, had just passed his first course in home nursing. Mr. Fleshman is said to have passed every test given him with a perfect score.

One of the tests was composed of an intricate question: "If Miss Frances Moulthrop had a car wreck and if her back was broken and she had received a severe electric shock and numerous cuts, what would you do?'

Without hesitation Mr. Fleshman replied, "Love her sweet neck."

For this unexpectedly brilliant answer ne was awarded a gold sta and money enough to buy Miss Moulthrop an engagement ring.

Mrs. Maybelle Furness and Mr. W. M. McKenzie have been instructing Fleshman in his nursing course. Mr. C. M. Burleson has been taking the same course and he has failed 12 times Mr. Fleshman can give you all the clues to passing the course, Mr. Burleson.

Raymond Matlock, basketball team manager, told the sports department of the Hindsonian earlier this month that he is engaged to lovely Nancy Carter of Raymond. Matlock and Carter are planning a June wedding. The groom to be said, "I know she is the only one for me."

Hinds Junior College's first baseman, Harold Whatley for the past ten years, has been offered a pitching job with the Boston Bulls, it was learned here today.

However, Harold has turned down the offer. When asked why he did this, he told his astonished friends, "Me pitch for a bunch of bulls? Don't be silly!"

Coach Troy Ricks said the Hinds Junior College basketball team would play the Globe Trotters in Madison Square Garden this season. Dates have not been set yet.

Buck Smith, Hinds basketball star, signed a contract last week to play for Coach Stute Allen of Mississippi College next year.

Raymond's 13-year-old pitcher, Willis Steenhuis, begged the New York Yankees into letting him sign a three-year bonus contract. Willis seemed very pleased over the new deal.

Sleepy Seale, All-American track star at Hinds, has recently married Miss Gladys Clyde of Rolling Fork. May many happy years be yours.

Coach Louis Boteler will join Coach Johnny Vaught of the Ole Miss Rebels as assistant football coach in charge of the backfield this fall.

It was learned that Hinds Junior College's 2nd string 2nd baseman, Paul Sullivan, has the best case in many a day with Nancy Reese. Kept the good work up, Paul.

MRS. ANNE GOOKIN, Hinds Junior College girls' physical education instructor, won the state golf championship at Gulfport Monday afternoon. Mrs. Gookin commented, "I knew I was going to win the championship all along." She has been taking a vacation this week since winning the great honor.

OVER 600 MALE students welcome Miss Susan Ekburg, the latest addition to the college faculty. Miss Ekburg (who prefers to be called "Suzie") comes from Hollywood, Calif. She emphasized her ability in handling boys, and would be overjoyed as a boys' gym class instructor. However, she hinted at supervising all male activities on the campus.

The final word as to what Miss Ekburg's specific duties will be, must, of course, come from Chief Mac. The only statement at present is: "I believe that she will be a great asset to this institution, and serve it to the utmost of her capabilities."

Football Coaches Give Ideal Rules For Top Notch Gridiron Players

"What is your method of winning ball games," was the question asked Joe Renfroe, Head Pigskin mentor at Hinds Junior College, Monday afternoon.

"First off, I find that most boys have a sweet tooth. I try my darndest to keep these teeth filled by having lolipops on the field at all times. For the more particular ones, I furnish chocolate covered cherries and sweet gum drops," commented the confident coach.

When questioned further Coach stated, "Whenever I see that one of my little darlings is getting a wee bit tired, I immediately run in a substitution and make an ice cold lemonade for the boy just taken out of the game. After he has finished his drink, I insist that he smoke one of my 12-cent cigars. This usually calls for a great deal of persuasion on my part.

"After my 52 years of coaching experience, I truly believe that the cardinal requisite of all coaches is an agreeable disposition accompanied by smiles, chuckles, chortles, and hearty laughs. While one must be jolly at all times, at other times, one must be hilarious. One of these comes between halves of a football game when opposition is ahead from 15 to 75 points. Some coaches release the tension by gently patting shoulders or whispering soothing words into the ears of one and all.

"I, however, find the best remedy is to tell nursery rhymes and fairy tales. Even this sometimes leads to difficulty, for while most of the boys are just crazy about Little Red Robin Hood, the three little pigs, and the three bears, Joe Collins, Eugene Britton, Jackie Williams, Charles Sessums, Glen Russell, Ernest Breithaupt, and Buckeye Stricklin will listen to nothing but little Jack Horner."

Coach Bob Fuerst, assistant football coach and track coach, says, "I find that physical comfort, well soothed bodies and completely rested minds play a great part in good team work. I advise my boys, even require them, to sleep till 9 A. M., every day, except Saturdays and Sundays, when they should sleep all day."

As to study, Coach Fuerst frowns

J. Harris Resigns Plans To Operate Big Jobie's Joint

Mr. (Coach) Jobie Harris has recently resigned his position as political science instructor at Hinds Junior College to go into business on his own.

Harris, 97-year-old teacher, has been at Hinds since the first session of the school in 1917. Mr. Mc-Lendon said, "No comment."

The reason for the resignation was that Harris is opening Jobie's Joint, a modern Jackson night club, on April 15. Harris gave the news room of the Hindsonian all of the latest dope on his plans last night. He was heartbroken over his wife, Mrs. Jimmie El Byrd Harris, leaving him since he has started his new job. The former political science teacher declared, "If she (his wife) wants to act like her name and be a bird, who cares. I am looking out for Jobie."

"Ergot all I am interested in is glamor, gain, and good times—whoopee!

Buster Huffman, Glen Bolton, Dot Beckham, Buck Smith, Carolyn Templeton, Bart Schreiner, Tommy Vance, Jerry Ivy, and Betty Furness are expected to be some of his best customers.

Mrs. Anna Bee, glamour instructor at Hinds, signed a contract with Harris for 30 per cent of the net gate. Mrs. Bee and the Hi-Steppers will present the nightly floor show for the night club. Nona Williams, Bebe Epperson, Ann Laster, Carolyn Wright, Flo Williams, Doris Toles, and the entire dance team were very proud of their new duties. The Hi-Steppers say that they wil receive movie star salaries.

on anything heavier than Comics, "lest the players' minds become over-burdened."

Slight exercise after an afternoon nap is permitted, Coach explained, but he did not go further into his discussion, because spring football boys appeared and called him out to play leap frog with them. Coach Fuerst, of course, willingly obliged.

TONY VERUCCHI, former boxing star, was named boxing coach at Hinds Junior College this week. Verucchi has won over 100 bouts in his eight years of boxing experience. He considers it an honor to Hinds Junior College to be on its staff.

States' Rights Party Possibility

The Supreme Court's decision to make segregation unlawful has Southern lawmakers again crying "interposition." A few people have flung the doctrine of interposition into the faces of the pious Supreme Court in order to prevent an encroachment on state power. These people use interposition as it was originally intended to be used, but it appears that most Southerners have scurried to interposition as only the best legal trick to preserve segregation.

Regardless of your reason for crying "interposition", you would do well to learn about the doctrine. Interposition has been exercised on at least a dozen occasions, and has long been honored as correct legal procedure in nullifying undesirable laws.

A knowledge of interposition and the whole question of segregation-integration as related to the South, will especially be valuable if there is a third political party as there was in 1948. Quite a bit of talk now hints at such a possibility.

We feel that a solid coalition of the "Deep South" delegates to the Democratic Convention could do much more for the South.

Segregation is primarily a time-economic problem which cannot satisfactorily be solved in a hurry. Instead of going off to itself to pout, the "solid South" should try being solid in its demands while the Convention is in progress. For lack of a better word, "deals" regarding the Democrartic platform would probably reap richer compensations for the South than would a third party.

No one can predict with complete accuracy what path the South will take and what the results of taking that path shall be. Notwithstanding, thorough knowledge of all subjects related to all possible causes will make an individual intelligent in dealing with the problem of segregation.

We must use our minds, not emotions, to retain the Southern way of life. When we loose the right to control our own internal and domestic affairs, then we have lost our last vestige of states' rights.

If the Democratic party selects a candidate that will not be suitable to the South then is the time to form our own Dixiecrat Party similar to the movement in 1948 led by J. Storm Thurmond of South Carolina and Fielding L. Wrig ht of Mississippi.

Governor Turk of Florida, Clayton Rand, an outstanding after dinner speaker from Gulfport, Fielding Wright, and thousands of citizens of the Deep South are already thinking in terms of a third party.

If a third party is necessary in order to protect our state sovernity and the welfare of our people, the South should rally to the cause of states' rights. SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

Jo Ann And Nan Lane

by DOT ADAMS

This week the Hindsonian presents Nan and Jo Ann Lane, two of the loveliest girls on the Hinds campus as Sophomores of the week.

These well-liked twins claim Union as their hometown.

NAN

Nan is 5' 3" tall, weighs 106 pounds, and has blue eyes and light brown hair.

At Union High School Nan was very active in school activities, including being editor of the school paper. While at Hinds Nan has likewise participated in activities on the campus. During her freshman year, she was class treasurer, a member of the choir, band, Mellowettes (Girls Trio), BSU, YWCA, and Modern Language Club.

This year she is in the choir, devotional chairman of YWCA, coprogram chairman of BSU, and she was elected "Most Courteous Girl" in the Who's Who contest.

Singing, swimming, and hiking include Nan's favorite pastimes.

After Nan leaves Hinds, she plans to graduate from Mississippi College and then teach elementary education.

Nan's remarks about Hinds are: "It has a place in my heart that I'll never forget. I've met so many wonderful people and just wish that I could take them all to M.C. with me."

JO ANN

Jo Ann stands 5' 5" tall, weighs 124 pounds, has dark brown hair and green eyes.

While in high school, Jo Ann was drum majorette for four years and made superior at the State Band Contest.

Her freshman year, she was a member of the Mellowettes, YWCA, BSU, choir, and the band. This year she is co-program chairman of BSU, a member of the YWCA and the choir.

Jo Ann's favorite pastimes are singing which include singing with Nan and Freddie, working with the Junior G. A. girls at the Baptist Church and swimming.

This pre-nursing student's plans for the future are to enter the University Medical Center in Jackson and to get a BS degree.

Shrimp and lemon ice-box pie are her favorites on the foodline.

Jo Ann's remarks about Hinds are similar to Nan's, she answered, "I'll never forget the experiences I've had and all the wonderful friends I've made at Hinds."

Surely these delightful twins have made a lasting impression on all of us at Hinds. We wish them success in their every undertaking.

This Week In Brief

by JESSE BOYD

Senator Kefauver's surprisingly large victory over Adlai Stevenson in the Minnesota primary has been the subject of much discussion in the Democratic camp during the past weeks. There is now talk circulating of a ticket which would have Harry Truman and Governor Harriman of New York as the carriers of the Democratic banner.

San Francisco's amazing Dons did it again. Last Friday night they knocked off Iowa 83 to 71 for their second straight NCAA title and their 55th victory in a row.

Edward H. Buelow, a native of Vicksburg, was named General Manager of the Illinois Central Railroad System, in a report from Wayne A. Johnston, President of the System. Mr. Buelow succeeds Otto Zimmerman, who has been promoted to vice-president of the I.C.R.R. Both appointments become effective April first.

Last Wednesday night the Twenty-eighth annual Academy Award ceremonies were held simultaneously in Hollywood and New York. Most of the top awards were captured by the film "Marty," including the Best Actor Award for Ernest Borgnine.

President Eisenhower is now in White Sulphur Springs, W. Virginia, where he is meeting with Mexico's president, Adolfo Ruis Cortines, and Louis St. Laurent, Canada's Prime Minister. It is the hope of our Chief Executive that the gathering will afford neighborly talks among the three North American powers which might result in settlement of mutual problems.

In Los Angeles, canines were the cause of a court action in which the "bark was worse than the bite." Myron C. Fagan and his son, Bruce, sued Clifford L. Smith for $2,995 after their 60-pound Airedale dropped dead of a heart attack when Smith's two smaller pooches barked at him.

Gail Wood Speaks On Hinds Campus

Miss Gail Wood, representative of World University Service from the national office in Atlanta, was an overnight visitor on the campus last Wednesday. Miss Wood was a guest of the campus YWCA.

While here Miss Wood spoke to a large group of students at the weekly Vesper service. And at the IRC meeting Thursday morning she spoke briefly of the work of the WUS with foreign students.

Her work extends to the colleges of ten Southern states. She came to the local campus from Southern College, and left here for the University of Alabama.

Hinds has been a contributor for a number of years to the support of WUS, devoting the Penny Fair project mainly to that cause.

Barber Students Keep Snipping In State's Only Approved School

by PHIL STROUPE

More than 200 graduates of Mississippi's only approved barber school are now exchanging jokes and snipping clippers on flattops in the four corners of the earth.

C. M. Burleson is the school-master, head instructor and chief whisker-cutter of the ten-year-old school at Hinds County Junior College at Raymond.

To prove his skill as a barber, he took time out of his regular instruction to do a little barbering on R. I. Miller, executive secretary of the State Board of Barber Examiners.

Miller got out of the chair with a pleasant smile, a fresh hair cut, and a fondness for the interesting life of a barber.

10 BARBERS IN 9 MONTHS

The Barber School at Raymond has a quota of ten barbers every nine months. The reasons are simple—there are only ten chairs in the barber school and it takes nine months to complete the course.

"We get one hour of classroom work a day and seven hours of practical experience," Hank Taylor, one of the barber students, said.

The shop was busy as Hinds students filed in between classes and after school hours to get hair-cuts.

Wayne Winstead, relative of Mississippi Congressman Arthur E. Winstead of Philadelphia, stepped from the No. 1 chair after Oscar Dickerson had given him "one of

The barber shool is one of ten vocational schools operated at Hinds Jnuior College by the Vocational Education Program.

Clifford (Red) Gookin, former Central High baseball star and pitcher in the farm system of the Detroit Tigers, is proving at Hinds Junior College that good athletes have good brains.

Gookin will complete his studies at Hinds in May and plans to enter Mississippi State this fall where he will pursue his degree in agriculture.

Before signing with the Tigers in June of 1950, Gookin compiled a record of 18 wins and two losses for Coach Robert Berry's Central High Tigers in three seasons. He pitched one no-hitter against the Magee Trojans in 1950 and chalked up shut-out victories over Gulfport and Laurel the same year. Both of his losses were by one run.

The lanky sports lover considers Coach Berry the top high school baseball coach in the state. After making All-State on the American Legion baseball team in 1947, Gookin was under the Central mentor for three years.

"I signed a bonus contract for $5,000 with the Detroit club on June 1, 1950, and the next day the Boston Braves offered me $10,000. That gave me a bad start from the beginning," the former pro declared.

Thomasville, Georgia, was his first stop with the pros and after a brief stay, he was farmed out to Jamestown, N. Y. In January 1951, Gookin, a member of the 31st division, entered the United States Army. He reported back to the Jamestown club in June of 1952 and was married to Anne Gookin in August of '52.

"On Saturday night before I was married on Sunday, I pitched a onehitter," Gookin stated. "That was one of my best pro games."

The native Jacksonian reported to Durham, N. C., in 1953. It was in July of '53 when he joined the Jackson Senators of the Cotton States League and played his first game of pro ball before a home town crowd. Gookin finished the season as manager of the Gainesville, Texas, team and in March of 1954, he was released from the Detroit organization.

The ex-pro remarked, "Three years in the minors is enough time to develop a pitcher for the majors. I quit pro ball because I wanted to go back to school and wanted to be with my family."

The 24-year-old hurler closed his pro career with just over a 60 per cent won-lost percentage on the mound. At the present time, he has over five years seniority with the Illinois Central Railroad.

"Anne and I don't regret our baseball experience. We have met a lot of fine people and it has been a great experience," commented the youthful red-haired Hinds student. "Anne has been one of my best backers."

While holding down a regular job with the railroad and being the father of a two-year-old daughter, Gookin finds time to make the honor roll at Hinds Junior College.

RED GOOKIN

Mrs. Gookin, his dainty, blueeyed wife, is one of the most versatile sports fans anywhere. She has won 11 golf trophies. Being the girls' physical education instructor at Hinds Junior College, Mrs. Gookin teaches golf, tennis, swimming, field hockey, volley ball, and badminton and coaches a softball team and a basketball team.

She is proficient in all sports. Before coming to Hinds, she was a physical education instructor at Central High School in Jackson.

The Gookins, Anne and Red, are truly sports-minded enthusiasts and form a wonderful team.

Hinds High Track, Tennis Teams Play In Capitol Events

Hinds High's track and field team, after winning a placing in a track meet at Clinton last Friday, took part in the Capitol Athletic Conference track meet at Clinton this afternoon at 1 p. m.

Two of the best performers in the two previous events have been Charles Causey in the running broad jump and Randolph Smith in the 220-yard dash with the latter being one of the returning lettermen. The other two lettermen are Homer Boyd and Tommy Lynch.

Willis Steenhuis Stars For Eagles Hinds Plays Three Games Away

Sparked by the brilliant pitching of Willis Steenhuis, the Hinds Junior College Eagles won their initial diamond contest of the season by a 5-4 edge over the Jones Junior College Bobcats last Tuesday.

After playing the Co-Lin Wolves at Wesson Tuesday, the Eagles will journey to Pearl River at Poplarville Friday and will invade the Perkinston Bulldogs Saturday to close out a four game road trip.

Steenhius, who went the route for the Eagles last Tuesday giving up six hits and chalking up 17 strikeouts, has been the big gun thus far this season. The youthful righthander accounted for four of six Eagle wins last year as he compiled a 4-1 record. Steenhuis, a former Central High star, pitched for the Yazoo City semi-pro team last summer.

It is expected that Frank Wynn, Glen Barnes, Billy Neeley, and Jimmy Huss will serve as understudies for Steenhius. Wynn will likely open Friday's encounter and Steenhuis will take the hill again Saturday.

Coach Joe Renfroe's diamond forces have one of the best infields in the state. All members are returning veterans from last year. The infield is composed of Harold Whatley at first, who batted over .300 last year and played last summer for Yazoo City semi-pro, and Paul Sullivan at second, who was a powerhouse at the plate last season with a .385 average and played with Canton last summer. John Woods and Melvin Oakes, shortstop and third base respectively, played with the Vicksburg semipro team last summer. Hugh Long will continue behind the plate while John Smith will be shifted to the outfield.

Most of the changes in the lineup will be made in the outfield. Mike Baroudy or John Smith will replace Andrew Robichaux in centerfield. Billy Roy Magee has taken Pete Gray's rightfield slot. Jimmy Warren, an unsung hero and strong hitter, will hold down left field for the second year.

Others taking part in practice are Billy Sills, Malcolm Cockerham, and Max Stephens, outfielders.

The Eagles will play their first home game on April 13, with Jones; and on April 17, they play Co-Lin at Hinds.

Track Squad Travels To Perkinston For Saturday Meet With Bulldogs

Hinds Junior College's track squad is preparing an invasion of the Perkinston Bulldogs Saturday of this week for their third meet of the season.

Coach Bob Fuerst was well pleased over the showing made by the Eagles in initial two outings with Jones and Sunflower. Fuerst said, "the boys have good spirit and show a great deal of interest."

The Eagles have only five returning lettermen, although with 17 newcomers to the team they should field a top notch team by the state junior college track meet in the latter part of the month. Charlie Wicker, one of the returning lettermen, is expected to be a leading contender for state honors this season.

Four other returning players are Olin Renfroe, sprint and field man; Glen Bolton, dashes and relays; Carlos Curtis, middle distances; and Frank Drummond, middle distances and relays.

Newcomers to the team are: Don Sharpe, field man; Austin Baggett, middle distances and field events; Jerry Ivy, broad jump; Dick Scully, high jump; Lacy Rodgers, distance man; Gordon Perry, distance man; Buck Smith, distance man; Bobby Young, sprints and relays; Bobby Roberts, middle distances; Ernest Turcotte, dashes and relays; Jimmy Roberts, middle distances; Jimmy Taylor, field man; Eugene Britton, distances; Lamar Lee, middle distances and relays; Louis Hethington, middle distances and relays; Ira Betts, middle distances and relays; and Mickie Campenella, middle distances and relays; Charles Phillips, dark horse contender for state in hurdles division.

The Hinds Junior College track schedule is as follows:

April 7—Perkinston at Perkinston.

April 10—Sunflower at Raymond (tentative).

April 12—Co-Lin at Wesson.

April 17—Jones at Raymond.

April 20—Perkinston at Raymond.

April 24—Co-Lin at Raymond.

April 28—State Junior College track meet. Tentative site is Sunflower at Moorhead.

Girls Tennis Team Almost Complete

Gwen Post and Mary Louise Baker advanced to the finals of the Hinds Junior College girls' tennis tournament Monday of this week. Besides Post and Baker, Mary Lou Kersh is assured a place on the team.

The final place on the team will be Wanda Lou Wortman, Kate Gonia, or Ruth Martin. High school students on the team are Jo Ann Ray, Clara Murrah, Jean Gill, and Nancy Chapman.

About 10 girls from Hinds will attend the college play day at Mississippi State College for Women on April 20 and 21. All of the junior and senior colleges in the state will take part in the spring sports for the college girls of Mississippi.

Confederate Ball Coming Friday Tickets on Sale

Friday night, April 20, the Freshman Class will sponsor a Confederate Ball. The music will be furnished by Duke Huddleston and his orchestra featuring the "Quails," who will present a floor show.

The ball will be semi-formal, and $1.50 per couple, stag or drag, and will last from eight until twelve. For tickets students should see Hugh Gillespie, Wanda Wortman, Barbara Daymond, Irl Rhodes, and Annette McCluer.

Those who already have tickets are Melvin Oakes, Martha Gillespie, Charlie Wicker, Annette McCluer, Benny Hawkins, Alice Walton, James Sasser, Lynn Justice, Mickey Campanella, Marty Litman, Jack Kilcrease, Barbara Daymond, Joy Zeringue, Douglas Brewer, Cornelia Thompson, Andrew Robersure, Billy Beasley, Wanda Wortman, Tommy Robbins, Foy Scroggins, Bobby Noland, Hugh Gillespie, Molly Chaney, Lou Barrett, King Gardner, Perry Nations, and Myrna Loy Stuart.

Sixteen Students Hear Comic Opera In Crescent City

Sixteen Hinds students left the campus Saturday, April 14, at 6:30 a. m. to travel to New Orleans for the New Orleans Opera House Association's production of "The Marriage of Figaro." This well-known comic opera by Mozart was presented in the Municipal Auditorium with stars Norman Treigle, bassbaritone, and Virginia MacWatters, soprano, singing the lead roles of Figaro and Susanna.

Arriving in New Orleans at noon, the group enjoyed a sight-seeing tour of the city. Several students traveled up the Mississippi on a sight-seeing excursion, and the whole group visited the French Market Coffee House.

Students making the trip were: Myrna Loy Stuart, Larine Herrin, Marion Woods, Peggy Stubbs, Martha Gillespie, Ann Johnson, Billie Kelley, Harris Sarrett, James Furlow, Fred Marett, Bill Cole, Anita Watkins, Walter Nelson, Betty Denton, Tommy Welch; Joe Kinsey, bus driver; and chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. Don Maxwell.

Seniors Will Present on Saturday 'Our Hero,' Three-Act Comedy

The senior class of Hinds High School will present "Our Hero," by Pete Williams, a comedy in three acts, Saturday night, April 21, at 8:00 p. m.

The play is an ideal high school class play because the setting is a principal's office, and the majority of characters in the large cast are boys and girls of high school age. The story is a fascinating one

Delegation Goes To Columbia, Mo., PTK Convention

Five representatives from Phi Theta Kappa group on the campus attended the national convention at Columbia, Missouri, last week.

Those making the trip by car were Charles Wicker, president of the local chapter, Mona McClurg, freshman delegate, Annette McCluer, and faculty sponsors, Miss Mildred Herrin and Miss Gertrude Davis.

Host colleges in the Missouri city were Stephens and Christian, two of the many junior colleges in Missouri. The University of Missouri of the same city cooperated in entertaining delegates, arranging tours of the campus and acquainting the junior college visitors with the University facilities, newest of which is the extensive medical center to be opened in July for the younger generation, because it is concerned with their own kind of every-day problems; many of the scenes in the play parallel their own experiences.

It tells the story of Bill Rockwell (Tommy Lynch), the high school hero, class president and football captain, who is prepared to sacrifice his good name to protect a younger boy. It tells the story of Sue Pringle (Carolyn Wright), who is going to be a teacher, and who is afraid her affections for Bill Rockwell aren't returned.

It tells the story of Lunk Bennett (Kendall Harris), the dim-witted fullback, whose mortal enemy is English grammar. Also in the story is Johnny Pringle, (Blake Harrison), who has a dangerous mania for speed, and whose greatest ambition is to own a "hot rod" auto.

There is Eleanor Spencer (Joy Zeringue), the new and extremely young principal, who is trying desperately to make good at her new assignment. The story includes Dan Conrad (Charles Causey), the brash young football coach, and the hot water he gets into with Miss Spencer. All these threads, and several others, are skillfully woven together into three acts of never-flagging entertainment.

The cast also includes Gertrude Winston, a bright miss, played by Betty Furness; Nancy Fishley, a butter-fingered girl, Maureen Eichelberger; Alma Dillingsworth, an English teacher, Evelyn James;

Carolyn Wright Earns State Honor

Hinds Junior College and the town of Raymond was honored last Saturday night when Carolyn Wright, with tears of joy flowing down her soft cheeks was crowned as Mississippi's 1956 Travel Queen.

Every individual in Mississippi can be proud of the 1956 Travel Queen. Carolyn Wright is an outstanding young lady. She won the state crown over 22 other candidates from all over the state. In order to win the golden egg trophy, Carolyn had to possess poise, personality, intellect, beauty, and many other outstanding features.

Mary Ann Mobley, the 1955 queen, placed the beautiful crown on the newly elected queen's head while Raymond's Mayor J. H. Adams wiped the tears from the new queen's eyes. One of the Hinds Hi-Steppers for the past three years, she is only 17 years old. Carolyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Wright.

Carolyn stands 5' 4" and weighs 115 pounds. Where vital statistics are important she stacks up a 37-23-35 for measurements. A shapely figure, baby blue eyes, and lovely blonde hair are a few of the many reasons for the blue ribbon prize. Carolyn is not only a beauty queen, she consistently makes the honor roll at Hinds.

We salute Carolyn Wright for the great achievement. She has brought honor to Hinds Junior College and certainly deserves the well earned title. May your reign as the 1956 Travel Queen be a rich experience in your life, Carolyn Wright.

Meet Our New Girl, Messy Mary

Have you met the new girl in school? Her name is Messy Mary. She got that name from throwing papers around the school building.

Let's follow Messy Mary for a couple of periods. We'll pick her up in third period psychology class. The teacher has just handed back some papers. Messy Mary takes a quick look at the papers and then crumples them as if they were a basketball and shoots them at the waste paper basket when the teacher isn't looking. The paper misses the basket, she frowns at her poor basketball shot, but doesn't bother to pick up the paper.

The bell rings and down the stairs to lunch she goes. Oops! There goes a Kleenex. But she doesn't stop to pick it up either. When she has finished eating, Messy Mary walks in the grill where she buys an ice cream sandwich for an additional dessert. Where does the wrapper go? You guessed it — on the floor next to the waste paper basket.

Messy Mary then journeys to her next class where she again gets some papers back, but in this class she can't throw papers at the basket because she sits in the back of the room. Where do they go? On the floor? No! They go under the seat where she is supposed to put her books.

How many Messy Marys do you know? You would be surprised at the number, if you would just do a little observing. What can we do with people like Messy Mary?

It is a shame for students not to take pride in the institu-

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

Billy Cole

by DOT ADAMS

Bill Cole, a familiar figure on the campus, has been selected by the Hindsonian staff as the Sophomore of the Week.

BILL COLE

He is 5' 9½" tall, weighs 151 pounds, and has blue eyes and light brown hair.

At Louisville High School, Bill was a member of the band, choir, Boys' Quartet, and the dramatic club. His present home address is Pontotoc.

Last year as a freshman, Bill's activities on the campus included membership in the band, choir, H. J. C. male quartet, tennis team, college chorus of which he was the assistant director, and B. S. U. choir of which he was director.

This year he is a member of B. S. U. in which he is on the executive council, band, chorus, and H. J. C. Male Quartet.

After Bill graduates from Hinds, he plans to enter Miss. Southern College where he will major in English. He would like to teach junior high English after he finishes his college work.

Reading, playing tennis, listening to music include some of Bill's favorite pastimes.

Fried shrimp, banana pudding and apple pie are his most liked foods.

"Hinds has an abundance of potentialities. It is a great school and offers a lot of opportunities," were his remarks about Hinds.

Bill is always willing and can be counted on to direct the singing at vespers and chapel, Success to you, Bill Cole.

Nancy R. Chapman Is New President Of Y-Teen Group

Nancy Chapman, high school sophomore from Raymond, was elected the new president of the Raymond High School Girls Y-Teen Club at their regular activity-period meeting of Wednesdy, March 28. Other officers elected at this time were: Barbara Smith, vice-president; Lou Ann Carter, secretary; Dorothy Raye Brock, treasurer; Linda Herrington, reporter.

Mrs. Robert Ringer, member of the English staff, is sponsor of the club. At the March 28 meeting the club also voted to send a representative to the Y-Teen Conference to be held at Gulf Park College, from June 4 to 12. Chosen as representative was Nancy Chapman. Lou Ann Carter was named alternate.

The Y-Teens are now formulating plans for a Y-Teen banquet. Plans are not yet complete, but according to Mrs. Ringer, the banquet will also serve as "a publicity agent in encouraging girls who should be in Y-Teens to come join us," Mrs. Ringer said.

HOT POINT RANGE

The home economics department at Hinds Junior College has recently installed a new Hotpoint electric range and has received several electric appliances — a toaster, an automatic perculator, and a combination griddle and waffle iron.

Prom And Dance Is Annual Event On Hinds Campus

Friday night, April 13, 1956, the Hinds High School Junior Class gave the Senior Class a banquet and prom, an annual event of the school.

The seniors were greeted by the juniors in the Recreation Hall in the College Cafeteria Building and ushered into the cafeteria. The group sat at long tables decorated with arrangements of red flowers and single white candles. Gold-printed souvenir napkins decorated the place settings.

Norma Jean Carter, president of the Junior Class issued the welcome address, and Don Trotter, president of the Senior Class gave the response.

The Junior and Senior Classes, Mrs. Muse, Coach Boteler, Mrs. Ann Gookin, Coach Ricks, Mr. A. L. Denton, and Mr. G. M. McLendon consumed a dinner composed of ham, potato salad, English peas, rolls, butter, tea, coffee, and apple pie.

After the meal, the guests were invited to the Recreation Hall to dance. The dimly lighted hall was decorated with many-colored balloons and paper streamers.

There are thirty-six members of the Junior Class and fifty-six members of the Senior Class, a majority of whom were present at the banquet and prom.

tion which they are a part of. Hinds Junior College's campus is one of the most beautiful to be found among Southern colleges and we should help to keep our college buildings and spacious green sod as clean as possible.

To Open on June 4 List Two Terms

SUMMER SCHOOL

The 1956 Summer School at Hinds Junior College will begin Monday, June 4. Room reservations for the summer session are being received now in the office of the

With its regular session faculty serving as instructors, Hinds will offer subjects in high school, college, and vocational trades, in both day time and evening classes.

The ten-week summer session is broken into two five-week terms, one beginning on June 4, the other on July 9. The entrance fee for either term is $15. The charge for room and board is $40 per fiveweek term. For Mississippi students living outside Hinds, Rankin, and Warren counties, there is an outof-county tuition charge of $15. Students whose parents or guardians are not legal residents of Mississippi pay a non-resident tuition of $50 for the ten-weeks session.

Air-cooled classrooms and offices are available for the summer

A full program of recreation will be maintained during the summer session with a variety of games equipment. The school property includes Raymond Lake, a 35 acre body of water, an ideal spot for picnics, swimming and boating, and parties. Life-guards will be on duty during swimming periods.

Senior Class Tour Miss. Power Plant Company Is Host By MAUREEN EICHELBERGER

The seniors spent a very enjoyable day, March 30, in Jackson. Mississippi Power and Light Company was our host for the day. We left around 9:30 Friday morning. Several men talked to the group on how the plant operates and we learned many interesting things about how Mississippi is lighted.

We toured the entire plant. The tour really gave the group an appetite. The dinner served by the company was the very best of Southern fried chicken.

After the meal, we saw a movie that was enjoyed by all. Photos were made of the group before leaving the plant.

Some of the class went by WLBT TV station and toured it. There they learned several interesting things about television.

The following seniors attended: Donald Anderson, Ross Alman, Rob-

Summer School '56 Campus Writers To Hear Speakers At MC Southern Literary Festival

Hinds students who have a yen for creative writing will get the opportunity to attend meetings Friday of the Southern Literary Festival, according to Mrs. Jim El Harris, chairman of the English Department.

The festival scheduled for Mississippi college at Clinton convenes annually at one of the member colleges of the Southern states. Mississippi's eight senior colleges and Ole Miss, along with ten out-ofstate senior institutions have submitted student manuscripts in various fields of writing to compete for top honors. Prizes will be awarded during the evening ses-

Among the outstanding literary figures to address the Festival will a favorite Hinds alumnus, Thomas Hal Phillips, who has already produced four successful novels.

Other speakers scheduled during the day are John Ciardi, professor at Rutgers University; Susan Reed, actress and folk-singer and Columbia recording star; and Evans Harrington of Ole Miss whose recent novel is attracting wide-spread attention.

Dr. Louis Dollarhide, professor of English at M. C., is chairman of the festival this year. He has invited the Hinds students to attend the meetings which will begin at 9:45 Friday morning and extend through the general assembly at 8:00 p. m.

The list of students not available at this date will include several members of the Hindsonian

Seventy Per Cent Of Sophomores Make Plans To Continue Education

Seventy per cent of the graduating sophomores of the 1956 class of Hinds have made their plans to continue education next year in seventeen different senior colleges and universities. ## Sports Scribe's Scribblings

By IRL DEAN RHODES

One of Mississippi's top citizens and an ardent supporter of Hinds Junior College, Professor Jobie R. Harris, has given over a quarter of a century of his time and efforts toward making better and well informed citizens out of the students attending Hinds Junior College.

Referred to by many as "Coach," Mr. Harris rightly and proudly lives up to the profession known as headaches and towels full of tears. The former Hinds head coach and athletic director has 15 years of the coaching experience under his belt. It is from this proposition that we review the life of this unique character.

A native of Jackson, Coach Harris finished high school at Central High and later received his B. S. degree at Millsaps where he contributed his ability as an outstanding athlete for four years. The fancy-fleet footed tail-back served as the triple threat performer on the Major football squad back in the 1920's. In order to make the ladies cater to him, Coach Harris had to excel in more than one major sport. So, conscious of that, he proved to be a formidable adversary on the Millsaps baseball team. For three years, the political science instructor played shortstop, and being captain of the team his senior year, he covered the centerfield position.

The former Jacksonian has more than just athletic interest. The popular, versatile Millsaps graduate was president of his senior class and for three years was a member of the Panhellenic Council, an organization fostering good-will on the campus.

Using ambition and desire as the keynote, the determined professor received his Master's degree from the University of Alabama. He has done graduate work at the University Center at Millsaps and Mississippi Southern. Mr. Harris has taught extension courses for Mississippi State College at the Jackson Y.M.C.A. for four years and the same type course at Hinds for three years.

Before coming to Hinds, Coach Harris was head Coach at Yazoo County Agricultural High School for two years and then moved into North Mississippi for a two-year stop as principal and head coach of New Albany school. Back home in Hinds county, was his next journey.

NEW HINDS COACH

Sources say that Harris came to Hinds with plenty of vigor and vitality. As head coach and athletic director, he coached football, baseball, track, tennis, and softball. The honors compiled by the teams he coached are far too numerous to mention, although a few of the blue-ribbon performances are in order. Hinds won the state cup for first place in athletic events for two years. In 1934, the Eagles, under the direction of Coach Harris, were co-champions of the Mississippi Junior College football championship with the Co-Lin Wolves of Wesson. Harris, still giving athletic orders, had one of the best track teams ever to represent Hinds to win the state track events in 1940. While Coach Harris was the Eagle athletic boss, Hinds was always in the upper half of the football standings.

COACH HARRIS

After serving five years as top man, he remained out of the profession for three years. Coach Harris served as assistant coach for six years.

Showing his love for athletics, the past Eagle mentor officiated athletic events for 10 years as a hobby. At the present, gardening is his hobby. From the economic standpoint, he is playing with real estate as a money making game.

It is seldom that you find a man that is as versatile as Mr. Harris. This Christian gentleman has taught a Sunday School class at the Raymond Baptist Church for the past 25 years. The many fruitful efforts can not be measured in dollars and cents. Mr. Harris was rocked in a Democratic rocking chair and drank milk from a Democratic bottle. He is still of the same political party.

His teachings as a government instructor has consisted of developing the students mentally, spiritually, physically, and socially for our changing society.

"I feel like I am a part of Hinds. My experiences here have been very happy ones," the former coach remarked.

ONE WIFE, ONE SON

The seasoned instructor commented, "I have only one wife and one son." Miss Jimmie El Byrd of Tylertown was the lucky lady on May 30, 1951, when the two took the wedding vows. Mrs. Harris has been a member of the English department at Hinds for the past 10

River Invade HJC Meet This Friday For Diamond Tilts

To close the curtain on the 1956 baseball season at Hinds Junior College, the Hinds Eagles will play host to the Perkinston Bulldogs Friday afternoon and the Pearl River Wildcats Saturday morning.

After winning three out of four road games, the Eagles lost their first home game of the year here last Friday by an 8-6 score. The Eagles played the Co-Lin Wolves of Wesson yesterday afternoon.

In the 8-6 victory by Jones last Friday, Hinds trailed all the way. Sparked by Dan Richardson with a home run and two singles, the Bobcats racked up seven runs in the first two innings.

Eagle second baseman, Paul Sullivan, paced the home standing Eagles with two singles and a double while Hinds catcher, Hugh Long, garnered a clean single and a double. Jimmy Warren started for the Eagles in the opening stanza with a home run. Steenhuis was the losing pitcher for Hinds.

Hinds rapped out 10 hits as compared to nine for the visitors. The losers committed six errors

Hinds High Team Wins Top Honors Compete At Miss. Southern Friday

For the second straight year in a row, the Hinds High Eagles won the District Six B-BB track and field meet at Clinton last Friday.

Coach Louis Boteler's team won the overall championship with 56½ points as compared to second place Utica with 511/2 points.

years. They have one son, Joe Bob. Mr. Harris feels that the highest point in any man's life is the birth of his son. Coach Harris being a former coach naturally has great plans for Joe Bob. The students that take government as one of their courses feel that his entertaining idiosyncrasies are some of his greatest assets.

He describes his life as being normal but full. It is far more than that. He is an example of the American way of life. ### Hinds Delegation Attends Literary Festival At M. C.

"There is no second-rate human being," declared Hal Phillips Friday in his address to the Southern Literary Festival meeting at Mississippi College.

Author of four novels, and yet in his 30's, Mr. Phillips recently retired from the teaching of creative writing at SMU to return to his home in Kossuth and devote his entire time to writing, publishing, and lecturing.

The address, directed mainly to the young writers, and to would-be writers present, pointed out that no region affords a richer literary background than that of the South with its old and its new, its order and disorder, and its emotions and struggles of the human spirit, that life is inclusive, and art is selective; that the ability to select is

Mr. Phillips stated that mere transfer of emotions to a reader does not make good writing, but art begins when such transfer greatly concerns the reader. The creator of enduring literary characters causes his readers to be very concerned as to what happens to these characters. The address concluded with the thought that fiction should deal always with the redemption of man, that the heart of great tragedy is redemption rather than the fall of man.

the "Lovesong Waltzes" of Brahms and music by Hindemith.

There is no admission charge for this program. The public is cordially invited.

Program director is Professor Dona'd Jay Maxwell, head of the Voice Department; Miss Peggy Pennel, teacher of organ, with Peggy Stubbs and Glenda Rush, music majors, are the accompanists.

Lendon Players Plan Production; To Be Presented In Arena Style

The Lendon Players, under the direction of Mr. Robert Fleshman, will present a play, The Glass Menagerie, by Tennessee Williams on May 5, 6, and 7. The characters are: Amanda, played by Glenda Rush; Tom, Amanda's son, played by Dick Bowers; Laura, her crippled daughter, played by Jo Ann Nutt; and Jim, a gentleman caller, played by Dick Morgan.

The playwright, Tennessee Wil-

Assistant directors are Mary Jane liams, is a native Mississippian and writes about the Mississippi Delta, and the entire South.

> The play is being done in arena style; that is, the audience is placed on four sides of the actors.

The production will be open to students on Thursday night, May 5, and Friday night, May 6. Each audience will be limited to 150 people. Students will be admitted only upon presentation of a ticket.

Tickets will be available in Miss Brantley's office Thursday and Friday, April 19 and 20, and Monday and Tuesday, April 23 and 24. They may be obtained by the presentation of an activity ticket. Upon presenting his ticket, the student will be assigned a night upon which he may see the play. The Saturday night performance will be given for the Raymond and Jackson aud-

The Hinds delegates particularly enjoyed meeting Hal Phillips, a 1941 honor graduate at Hinds Junior College. They renewed acquaintance with a number of former students now at M. C. Among these were Hindsonian's editor of last year, Sara Jo McPhail, and editor of the first semester of the current year, Bill Liles.

The following were those who attended the meeting: Richard Bowers, Larine Herrin, George Marie Frasier, Ann Johnson, Laura Lusby, Annette McCluer, Medley Melsheimer, Douglas Palmer, Rose Shaw, Glenda Rush, Marilyn Simmons, Henrietta Thornton, Marian Woods, Tommy Welch, and Mrs. Robert Ringer and Miss Gertrude Davis of the faculty.

Trotter to Speak For High School At Graduation

Don Trotter, Bolton, has been named class representative or valedictorian, of the high school senior graduating class.

For his entire high school record of the past four years, Don has not made a grade below "A"

He plays football and basketball, he is active in 4-H club work and has received American Legion and Rotary awards. He starred in the senior play, Friday night in the character of editor of the school paper in "Our Hero." He is a member of Beta Club and president of his class.

DON TROTTER

The other speaker on fiction was Prof. Evans Harrington of Ole Miss and author of The Prisoners, recently published novel with a Mississippi setting. This speaker urged students to "remedy reading dificiencies as soon as possible." He referred to his own five years of concentrated reading, analyzing, and laboratory writing, and told of writers' struggles to get into

John Ciardi, poet, poetry editor of Saturday Review, and Rutgers professor, also spoke at the morning session, and used poems familiar to students to illustrate the art of great poems. He pointed out the value of a "functioning disgust," a disgust with things as they are accompanied with the determination to do them better. He declared that writing bad poems could serve no good purpose.

Dance Committees Deserve Praise

"Only large tasks lead to magnificient results," is a phrase coined by an early American. Truer words were never spoken.

The Confederate Ball last Fridy night in the college gym was an example of putting on an entertaining program in big fashion. Students and faculty members who gave of their valuable time to prepare for this event deserve our verbal pat on the back.

Mr. Bill Oakes, recreational director; Barbara Daymond, chairman of the decoration committee; and many others worked hard and patiently decorating the gym for the occasion. Annette McCluer and Hugh Gillespie, chairmen of the publicity and ticket-selling committees are to be commended for their fine job.

Our president and friend, Mr. G. M. McLendon, assisted very generously with the finances, and Mr. Virden and Mr. Oakes both helped in every way from the initial planning until the final chores were taken care of. Many others gave of their talents in preparation for the dance and we are very grateful to every one. Rather than slight anyone we will not name all the assistants.

We had hoped for and anticipated a larger crowd, although a very fine group enjoyed the evening's entertainment. Hinds Junior College has a right to be proud of the manner in which every individual conducted himself at the dance.

Hinds Has Only Airplane School In Mississippi Offering Courses

By CARL M. BROCK

There are few things that a reporter or writer likes better than first hand information when preparing an article or story to be turned in to his editor. While gathering material for this feature I not only got first hand information, but I also had the editor along with me. Irl Dean Rhodes and I were interviewing Mr. Kennis Bryant about the flight program at Hinds when he suggested that we go out to the airport and take a look for ourselves. After he said "I'll be glad to take you flying if you would like to go," we didn't waste any time in getting out to the airstrip.

Viewing the 640 acres that make up the airport, as we came over the top of the drive that leads to the landing strip, we saw a sleek, green and white airplane being rolled out of the hangar onto the field. After touring the hangar and seeing the planes that Mr. Bryant and his students have rebuilt, we boarded the little airplane, fastened our safety belts and soared into the wild blue over Raymond.

Mr. Kennis Bryant attended

Parks Air College in St. Louis, a division of St. Louis University, and began flying when he was 28. Before coming to Hinds he was chief inspector at the air base in Jackson. He has been an instructor at Hinds for six years and has been teaching flying four years. Mr. Bryant has a three hour class in mechanics in the morning — a six credit hour course — and flying classes in the afternoon at the the week.

Born in Raymond in the postdepression days, Bebe has lived at the home of Hinds Junior College her entire life. She is light on the scales, 110 pounds; and she stands five feet and six inches.

This charming young lady was Mississippi's 1955- Alternate State Travel Queen and she filled that capacity like a veteran, according to Mrs. Pauline Hill, official Travel Queen chaperone. The brown-eyed and brown-haired miss has always turned in a first rate job of scholarship, as well as of other activiairport

There are not as many students in his classes now as there were before Christmas. There are approximately 10 regular flying students. Bryant said that "Everyone wants to fly-in warm weather, and few show up when it's cold." He added "There never have been any girls to take flying, although they do like to come out and ride."

The flight program includes instruction in the operation of a light plane and a glider. The airplane, a Harper Super Cruiser, has a cruising speed of 110 m. p. m., leaves the ground at 50, and has a six hour cruising range. The single engine, 100 horsepower, four cylin-

Besides the Travel Queen honor, Bebe was elected Penny Fair Queen by her freshman classmates last year. She is presently serving as social chairman of the Future Business Leaders of America Club.

It is going to look strange next year with Bebe not strutting with the Hi-Steppers. The native Hinds co-ed has been sporting a Hi-Stepper uniform for the past five years. Last year she was chosen as one of the six Hi-Steppers to make the trip to California by plane in advance for pre-game publicity. It is needless to explain why. Her dainty and shapely figure plus her friendly personality will explain this.

From the dining room and record player Bebe likes steak and semi-classical music respectively.

Boys, she has already been spoken for. Bebe was engaged to Hans Johnson of Pickens last August 13. The wedding for the lucky football star and the Hinds Hi-Stepper is being planned for August 12 as a tentative date.

This lovely lass is a secretarial science major. She plans to go to work next year while Hans pursues a college degree and plays football.

"I have been at Hinds all of my life and I feel like a permanent fixture here. Hinds is a wonderful school and I know I am going to miss being a part of it next year," commented Bebe about Hinds.

Bebe Epperson, may your life be filled with enduring happiness, and may the very best of everything always be yours.

der plane gets, believe it or not, 18 miles to the gallon. As soon as the weather gets a little warmer and the winds slacken, Mr. Bryant is going to begin taking up the glider. The glider is simply a hollow shell of an airplane, containing flying controls — with one exception — no motor. The glider is pulled into the air at the end of a rope attached to a special made tow-car, and cruises at 35 m. p. h.

A student has to have 40 hours of flying time to his credit to get a private operator's license, and 200 hours to receive a commercial license. The total number of required hours necessary for a license

Band, Hi-Steppers March In Forest

The Hinds Band and Hi-Steppers will travel to Forest Friday, April 27, for an afternoon parade down the main street of Forest and a performance that night at the Forest football field. The occasion will be the Central Mississippi Citizen's Council Rally to be held in Forest. President G. M. McLendon will be a guest on the platform for the meeting.

Candlelight Rites Install Y Heads; Pickett President

In a candlelight service at the Vesper hour Wednesday, the new officers of the campus YWCA were installed and commissioned to take over the work of the organization immediately afterwards.

The service begun by organ and piano prelude played by Fred Marrett and James Furlow, included a processional of old and new cabinets, call to worship by Nan Lane, reading of "The Parable of the Talents" by Anita Watkins, vocal duet by Jo Anne and Nan Lane, the retiring president's address and installation of officers by Glenda Rush, new president's response by Jane Pickett, dedication prayer by Kate Gonia, and recessional.

New officers are the following: Jane Pickett, president; Anita Watkins, vice-president; Betty Crockett, secretary; Nan Ertle, treasurer; may be completed when a student is 16 years old, but he must wait until his 17th birthday to get his license. Since the cost of operating a plane is $6.50 an hour, the number completing the required amount of flying time is small. Other requirements include 10 hours of solo flying, 15 hours of cross-country flying, and five hours of dual flying. In the cross-country flying, the student must land his plane 100 miles from the local base. The beginning pilots usually fly to Greenville, Clarksdale, Baton Rouge, or Gulfport to meet this requirement.

The John Bell Williams Airport has three paved runways and is 4,000 feet long. It's really not as hard to find as some people think. Now that spring is here and the weather is warming up, why not come out and take a look at YOUR airport? From the town square in Raymond, drive out the Clinton road three miles. There at the crossroads you will see a sign on the left pointing to the airport. Make the most of your visit. Talk to Mr. Bryant, talk to the students, look at the airplanes, and maybe someone will offer to take you Proudly I say this: Hinds Junior College is the only school of any kind in Mississippi to offer flying courses. And sadly I say this: So few know about it. It is your airport so get out there and take advantage of it.

Tingle Is Chosen New BSU Leader For 1956-57 Year

Louis Tingle was elected president of the Hinds Junior College Baptist Student Union last Monday night for the 1956-57 school term.

Other new officers are Myrna Loy Stuart, promotional vice-president; Billie Kelly, enlistment vice president; Bobby Sheffield, devotional vice president; Annita Jones, social vice president; Barbara Yarbrough, publicity chairman; Anita Watkins, secretary; Bobbie Nell Noland, treasurer; Foy Scroggins, music; and Amos Jack Gray, extension chairman. The adult officers are Mr. Harold Gully, B. S. U. director; Rev. Bob Simmons, pastor advisor; and Miss Maudine Thrash, faculty advisor.

Installation for the new officers will be held April 29, at 7:30 p. m. at the Raymond Baptist church. Officers will assume their duties April 30. Two other offices will be filled at the beginning of next year. They are the Sunday School representative and the Training Union representative.

The Hinds Junior College B. S. U. attended a State retreat held at Jones Junior College on April 13, 14, and 15. Four of the Hinds students sang in the state B. S. U. Choir: Myrna Loy Stuart, Jo Ann Lane, Riddell Leggett, and Don Stubbs.

Kate Gonia, worship chairman; Billie Kelley, social chairman; Marilyn Simmons, World Relatedness chairman; Martha Fugate, campus and personal affairs chairman; Martha Ann Smith, membership; Larine Herrin, music; and Barabara Yarborough, publicity.

Freshman Class Sponsors Dance Hear Duke Huddleston and Quails

More than 175 students danced to the music of Duke Huddleston and his orchestra and were entertainead by the Quails last Friday night at the Confederate Ball sponsored by the freshman class.

The beautifully decorated college gym and the girls' colorful evening gowns added to the joy for all. Music of the rock and roll variety was highly acceptable to the group until midnight, the closing hour.

People present were: Mr. Bill Oakes, Mr. John Virden, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ringer, Mr. and Mrs. Buford Langston, Miss Lurline Stewart, Miss Gertrude Davis, staff members.

Baseballers Top Perk, Pearl River For Final Two Victories Of Season

After topping Perkinston 4-1 and Pearl River 2-1, the Hinds Junior College baseball team packed their uniforms in moth balls this week to remain until next spring unless Southwest and Perkinston are victims of defeat later this season.

If Summit and Perkinston lose games the Eagles will have a chance for a play-off in the southern half of the junior college circuit.

Control artist Willis Steenhuis completed his junior college career

Hinds High Eagles Enter South B-BB Track Meet Fri.

Coach Louis "Skin" Boteler's Hinds High Eagles are preparing for the South Mississippi B-BB track and field meet at Hattiesburg Friday afternoon.

The Baby Eagles, winner of the District Six B-BB track and field meet for the second year in a row, will enter nine of the 14 events in the South Mississippi meet. Last week the Hinds High team competed in the Southern relays composed of teams from four states.

Port Gibson and Utica are expected to give the Eagles strong competition for the 1956 South Mississippi crown. Coach Boteler feels that the Eagles will hold their own against most B-BB teams.

Hinds High will depend strongly on three veterans to carry the load Friday afternoon. Randolph Smith will run in the 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, and mile relay; and Homer Boyd will participate in the 880-yard run and the shot put. Tommy Lynch, who will compete in the 440-yard run and mile relay, completes the list of experienced performers.

Other trackmen to make the trip south Friday are: Charles Causey, running broad jump and high jump; Miles Ray Goode, mile run; Dalton Thames, mile relay; and Bill Ferguson, mile relay.

Hinds Is Host To Tennis Tourney

Recreational director and tennis coach, Mr. Bill Oakes, has released the bracket for the state junior college tennis tournament to be held at Hinds Junior College Saturday.

Matches are as follows: 9 a. m. Girls' S. - Co-Lin vs. Southwest; Girls' D .- Co-Lin vs. Southwest; Boys' S .- Hinds vs. East Central; Boys' D. - East Central vs. Co-Lin. At 10:30 a. m. — G. S. — Jones vs. Hinds; G. D. — Jones vs. Hinds; G. D. -Perkinston vs. Hinds; B. S. -Perkinston vs. Jones; B. D. -Perkinston vs. Jones. At 12:30 p. m. - G. S. - East Central vs. Co-Lin - Southwest winner; G. D. - Jones vs Co-Lin-Southwest winner; B. S. - Co-Lin vs. Hinds-East Central winner; and B. D. - Southwest vs. Co-Lin-East Central winner.

in thrilling fashion against the Perkinston Bulldogs Friday afternoon. In the entire nine innings, Steenhuis allowed only three walks and fanned seven batters.

Harold Whatley, Eagle first baseman, started the rally in the opening period on a single to centerfield that scored Pete Gray. While Whatley was being thrown out at third Paul Sullivan, who was aboard first base, crossed the plate for the second run. Gray and Sullivan both had previously walked with two men out.

Fired-up Whatley accounted for another run in the fifth with a line-drive that sailed through the air about 350 feet before hitting the green sod. The Bulldogs scored their only run in the eighth stanza.

The final tally came in the last of the eighth when Melvin Oakes took a free pass, Bill Magee got a fielder's choice, Hugh Long sacrificed Magee to third, and Magee scored on a single by Steenhuis.

Pete Gray starred on defense in the seventh inning with a running one hand grab catch of a long hit ball.

Rookie freshman Frank Wynn proved to be a cool performer Saturday morning with the Pearl River Wildcats furnishing the opposition. Wynn tossed a one hitter in the closely fought battle.

It was a real pitchers' duel all the way with Joe Day, Eagle Day's baby brother, working the mound duties for the visitors. Hinds' moundsman chalked up 12 strikeouts while Day garnered 10 and allowed four hits.

Sloppy playing was evidenced by both teams. Hinds committed six errors and Pearl River made seven costly mistakes.

Track Team Wins Triangular Meet Compete In State Meet Saturday

Showing plenty speed and ample power, the Hinds Junior College track and field team ran roughshod over the Jones Bobcats and the Perkinston Bulldogs in a triangular track and field meet here last Friday afternoon.

The Bob Fuerst coached Eagles chalked up a total of 73 points; while Jones, their nearest opponent, garnered 54 markers. Perkinston ran third with 38 points.

This Saturday the Eagles will enter the state track meet at Sunflower. They will enter the meet undefeated in regular season competition this year.

Olin Renfroe led the attack last week by almost breaking his older brother's state shot put record. Olin pitched the shot put 44 feet and three inches: and Oran Renfroe holds the state record with 44 feet and six inches. Ernest Turcotte was outstanding for the home standing Eagles with first place in the 100-dash and 220-dash. Besides the shot put, Renfroe led in the discus and javelin. Hyde Powers and Jerry Ivy took top places in the high jump and broad jump respectively. Hinds' 880-relay team led the meet. The relay team is composed of Jerry Ivy, Ernest Turcotte, Glen Bolton, and Olin Ren-

Results of the meet are as follows:

100-yd. dash — Turcotte (H), 10.0, Bebara (J), Gagliano (P).

Wynn reached pay dirt in the eighth on a wild throw to third by the pitcher. Later in the same inning with the bases loaded Jimmie Warren stole home, and on the same play the umpire called a balk on the pitcher for the second Eagle run.

Shortstop Jack Tuggle crossed

220 — Turcotte (H), 23.7, Gebara (J), Stribling (J).

440 — Kelly (J), 52.7, Drummond (H), Jones (J).

Big Attraction Coming Here Thursday Novelty Performance In Arena Style

by IRL DEAN RHODES

It's something new! It's arena style! Don't dare miss the big attraction.

Students at Hinds Junior College will have a chance for the first time to witness a Lendon Player production done in arena style; that is, the audience is placed on all four sides of the actors.

Titled The Glass Menagerie, the production is under the direction of Mr. R. E. Fleshman, Hinds speech and dramatics instructor.

Assistant directors are Mary Jane Loper and Melanie Matthews.

On Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of this week, May 5, 6, and 7 at 7:30 p. m., the big show is scheduled. The production will be open to students on Thursday night. The audience is limited to 150 people. You had better get your ticket before all the space is taken. Students wil be admitted only upon presentation of a ticket.

The tickets are being given on the first come, first served basis.

Four famous actors make up the cast. The characters are: Glenda Rush of Porterville as Amanda; Dick Bowers of Jackson as Tom, Amanda's son; Jo Ann Nutt of Vicksburg as Laura, her crippled daughter; and Dick Morgan of Jackson as Jim, a gentleman caller.

The play will be open to the public on Friday and Saturday nights with admission price to be $0.50 per person. Tickets are available in Miss Brantley's office from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Students will be assigned a night when they present their activity ticket to Miss Brantley.

The play is written by Tennessee Williams, a native Mississippi playwright. Williams writes about the

Hindsonian Wins At Press Meeting; Rhodes Will Serve As Top Officer

By CARL BROCK

Hinds Junior College's weekly newspaper, the Hindsonian, was awarded top place honors at the Mississippi Junior College Spring Press Conference held at Jones County Junior College in Ellisville last Friday and Saturday.

The three judges, Charles Martin, editor of the STUDENT PRINTZ, Mississippi Southern College; Mr. Buckley, journalism professor at Mississippi Southern; and Mr. Harmon, editor of the HATTIESBURG AMERI-CAN, were unanimous in their choice of the HINDSONIAN as the top junior college newspaper in Mississippi.

The Rocket, paper of Northwest Junior College, Senatobia, placed second and the Tom Tom of East Central Junior College, Decatur, was third.

Newspapers from the junior colleges were submitted to the judges several weeks before the conference. They were rated on the following merits.

- 1) News values and sources
- 2) News writing and editing
- 3) Editorials and entertaining
- 4) Headlines and make-up.

Some compliments given the Hindsonian by the Hattiesburg journalists were:

"Good consistent job on news values and news content." -Buckley.

"Good sports column". - Mar-

HERMANELLE HEARN

"Good sports coverage - good editorials - news round-up columns are fine." - Harmon.

One thing that helped the Hinds newspaper to stand out from all the others, in the judges' eyes, was the near perfection of its print. All three of the newspaper critics commended the fine work done by the Keith Press, Raymond, in printing the paper.

The 47 Press Conference delegates, representatives from seven Mississippi junior colleges, and guests of Jones Junior College, were entertained royally during their two day visit on the campus. Editors, writers, and reporters from colleges throughout the state relaxed Friday night as Ellisville citizens served them barbequed spareribs and hot French bread in the grandstands of the Jones stadium. A three-hour Western style squaredance was next on the program, the highlight of the evening.

Saturday morning's activities began with a round table discussion on the topic "How Do We Know What The Students Want In The Paper?" Next came the nomination of officers to serve during the coming year. Editor Irl Dean Rhodes was nominated for the presidency in behalf of Hinds by Feature Editor Carl Brock who presented Rhodes' qualifications to the group. The Hindsonian Editor competed against candidates from Perkinston and Itawamba. A count of the votes showed Rhodes victorious,

Registrar Herrin Guest At Lunch

Miss Mildred Herrin, Hinds registrar, was a guest at a luncheon at the University Medical Center which preceded an afternoon conference, the first of a series to be held annually with heads of the Medical School and faculty representatives of the senior and junior colleges of Mississippi participating, last Thursday.

Particular emphasis in this conference was given to qualifications tions of the pre-med student.

Dr. Brooks, chairman of the admissions committee of the Medical School, stressed the fact that underlying the training of students who wish to study medicine must be sound training in English, the ability to speak and write well.

The week of May 7-13 has been 11:00, and every night of this week in the College Auditorium, students of the Music Department will present programs including piano, organ, and vocal numbers. There will be 35 soloists, plus the members of the Formal Choir and the Hinds Eagle Band, participating. The Band will present its annual spring concert within the following week.

> Piano and organ students of Miss Maudine Thrash, Miss Peggy Pennell and Mrs. Marlene Combs participating in the recitals are the following:

James Furlow, piano and organ; Fred Marett, piano and organ; Tootsie Strong, piano; Annette Cheatham, piano and organ; Marion Woods, piano and organ; Peggy Stubbs, piano and organ; Anita Watkins, piano; Glenda Rush, piano and organ; Vonda Viverette, piano and organ; Martha Gillespie, piano and organ; Melanie Matthews, piano; Martha Ann Smith, piano; Sue Hallberg, piano; Betty Denton, piano; Dorothy Brock, piano; Charles Weissinger, piano; Nancy Hutchins, piano; Joan Shuff, piano; Mary Glenn Beasley, piano.

Voice students of Mr. Don Maxwell in recitals are: Bill Cole, Nan Lane, Jo Ann Lane, Harris Sarrett, Annette McCluer, Carolyn Ferguson, and Medley Melsheimer.

Voice students of Miss Frances Moulthrop performing in recitals

Sue Hallberg, Larine Herrin, Betty Vann King, Janice Lewis, Foy Scroggins, Riddell Leggett, Patricia Jones, Charles Craft, and Tommy

In adition to the regular music week recitals, Mrs. Marlene Combs will present her beginning piano pupils in a recital Friday, May 4, in the Music Auditorium. These students who will Betty Berryhill, Frances Bliss, Maureen Eichelberger, Blanche Loviza, Elaine Mayfield, Bettye Mc-Caskill, Henrietta Thornton, Charles Craft, Billie Kelly, Ed Loflin, and Marlene Dodd.

Of these students, the following are music majors:

Sue Hallberg, Larine Herrin, James Furlow, Fred Marett, Annette Cheatham, Marion Woods, Peggy Stubbs, Anita Watkins, Glenda Rush, Vonda Viverette, Martha Gillespie.

He pointed out that general culture is fundamental in the profession of medicine. He urges students to read much and read widely, in high school as well as in college, if they hope to enter training in this field. He emphasized the fact that medicine is a highly competitive field, and that high grades in a candidate's early college years is a definite prerequisite.

It Is Later Than You Think

As we enter the last few weeks of school, it is important to remember that the last lap of the race is often the most important part of the run.

Some of us are faced with an ultimatum: exercise the intellect which has become flabby from the lack of stimulating mental pursuits and the lack of concentrated study, or bear the disappointment and shame of failure. It is by no means too late to try. Almost any person with average intelligence can put forth enough effort these last three weeks to make a better than good grade, and a few extra hours of study might well result in a few badly needed extra grade points. It is largely a matter of deciding what you want to do.

To those who have comfortable averages, let us urge you not to become too over-confident and self-complacent. The foolish person is the one who thinks that merely because he has full barns or high grades, he can say to himself "Soul, take thine ease." You may bet dollars to doughnuts that our faculty is not taking any ease in conjuring up final examination questions.

Brains, even you can become a fallen angel. Your hours of extra work could mean the difference between having "honor grades" and just having "good" or "average" grades.

Whatever your present situation is (perhaps "dilemma" would be a more appropriate word for some of us), some extra time poring over your quaint and curious volumes won't hurt you. The "forgotten lore" is usually what the rascally teacher asks for on examinations.

Put forth! You will find it well worth the effort in personal gratification and pride.

The Testing Time

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN. — (ACP) — This is the time of year when final tests start looming on the horizon. We don't like to emphasize the unpleasantness to come, but thought you might be interested in some appripriate comments on the subject, as compiled by the Minnesota Daily's Ivory Tower Edition.

Oh lift me from the grass!
I die! I faint! I fail!
My cheek is cold and white, alas!
My heart beats loud and fast!

And then thou must be damned perpetually.

—Marlowe

An event has happened, upon which it is difficult to speak and impossible to be silent.

coupled with dynamic enthusiasm and charming sweetness make her an outstanding member of the weaker sex.

You will feel refreshed after meeting this delightful individual. She is always busy doing something for someone else. She is efficient as well as pretty.

Mississippi's Capitol City takes great pride in claiming this young lady. She is a first semester sophomore at Hinds and will complete her work this summer.

Maybe, her baby sister is a singing TV star, but she falls behind when it comes to what the eyes see as an outward appearance, such as sparkling brown eyes, shapely figure, beautiful complexion, and lovely black hair. It is a proven fact that she is one of the most versatile persons on the campus.

This popular and intelligent lass is a member of the Phi Theta Kappa, formal choir, secretary-treasurer of Modern Language Club, secretary-treasurer of Wesley Foundation, member of Lendon Players, and feature editor of the summer edition of the Hindsonian.

Gifted with genuine talent, she was selected the cutest girl, cheer leader, leading role in senior play, art editor of school paper, president of chorus, member of sextet, and awarded the 10th grade scholastic basketball award in her high school days at Forest Hill.

Her 118-pounds is evenly placed over her five feet five inch structure with measurements of 35-24-26.

This Week In Brief

by JESSE BOYD.

The American people, and the Democratic Party in particular, suffered a severe setback on Monday night when Alben Barkley, the junior senator from Kentucky and former vice-president passed away. The 78 year old "Veep" collapsed while delivering the keynote address at a mock Democratic Convention at Washington and Lee University. A devout man throughout his life, Barkley's last words were, "I had rather be a servant in the house of the Lord than to sit in the seats of the mighty."

While on the subject of the late Senator Barkley, it seems that he had a story for every occasion. One of the most remembered is that which he told on becoming vicepresident in 1948: according to the "Veep," a farmer had two sons. "One of them went to sea, and the other became vice president of the United States. Neither was ever heard of again." Which indicates that he (Barkley) was not impressed with the high sounding title of his office.

The Supreme Court, by a vote of 6-3 has put off indefinitely a ruling on legality of the law under which the Communist party in the U. S. has been ordered to register as a tool of Moscow.

Adlai Stevenson and Senator Kefauver continued their barnstorming efforts to win votes as the Democratic nominee for the presidential election during the week. The friends of New York's Governor Harriman meanwhile, claim that their hopeful will "open his active campaign" in a speech in New York on May fifth.

Registrar Gives Final Test Schedule

Below is the schedule for final examinations of the 1955-56 session. This schedule will replace the daily class schedule for the final week.

According to Miss Herrin, registrar, graduating seniors and sophomores will be eligible for exemption from examinations in subjects in which they have not made below a B as a six-weeks average this semester. The school policy strictly adhered to is that no examination is to be given early, that is earlier than scheduled.

Future Business Leaders Sponsor Commerce Day on Local Campus

Hinds Future Business Leaders of America Club sponsored Commerce Day Thursday, April 19. Approximately 140 business education students from high schools at Forest Hill, Utica, Jett, and Clinton spent the day on the campus as guests of the FBLA, and participated in the day's activities.

The visiting students were met by members of the campus FBLA and given identification badges, after which they assembled in the auditorium for a program.

President McLendon welcomed the visitors with a talk on the opportunities for students majoring in business education. After Mr. McLendon's talk, a program on the theme "Music While You Work" was presented, in which Jesse Barnett, Henderson Partridge, Blanche Loviza, Flora Roberts, Georgiann Burton, Frances Barker, Betty Furness, Larine Herrin, Don Stubbs, Myrna Loy Stuart, Dick Scully, and Sybil Beasley took part.

Following the assembly program, the visiting students were taken on tours of the campus.

In the Academic Building an office machine exhibit was put on by representatives from the following companies: Monroe Calculating Machines, Hinds Business Machines, International Business Machines, National Cash Registers, Burroughs Calculating Machines, Office Supply Company, Remington Rand, and Friden Calculating Machines.

More than four hundred students visited the exhibit during the day.

Lunch was served in the cafeteria, after which FBLA members and visiting students enjoyed a social period at Raymond Lake and Raymond Lodge. Entertainment here was planned by Lamar "Sleepy" Seale.

FBLA members who helped plan and execute the Commerce Day activities were: Betty Berryhill, Lamar Seale, Jesse Barnett, Johnnie Ruth Strong, Blanche Loviza, Lou Cobb, Flora Mae Roberts, Frances Barker, Betty Furness, Henderson Partridge, John Williams, Joe Bilbro, Phil Oxner, Georgianne Burton, Lavelle McLendon, and Bebe Epperson.

Prof. L. K. Clark helped with arrangements for the office machines exhibit. Mrs. Marian Welch served lunch to the visiting students

Mrs. Maybelle Furness, Commercial instructor, is faculty sponsor of the Hinds FBLA.

Faculty Members Attend Meeting

In attendance at the State College conference last week sponsored by the Department of Industrial Education were the following staff members from Hinds: Mr. G. M. McLendon, president; Mr. Walter Gibbes, cordinator of vocational-technical training; Mr. A. L. Denton, guidance director; Miss Lurline Stewart, head of the mathematics department; and Mrs. Marian J. Welch, dietitian.

The conference held Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday was directed particularly toward the junior colleges in the state in their plans for carrying out intensive programs in the developing of technical training in Mississippi.

Harry W. Clark, executive director, North Mississippi Industrial Development Association stated that industry in Mississippi within the next 20 years will demand 160,000 technicians. It is estimated that for every engineer, 5 to 7 technicians are needed.

Some of the topics discussed by leading men in industry were the following: growth of industry in Mississippi, what industry expects to find in the way of trained personnel in the State, problems encountered in attracting industry into Mississippi, training requirements for technicians and skilled workers, and specific needs for technicians in industry.

The new president exercised his first official duty when he accepted the coveted gold cup earned by the Hindsonian staff.

The cup was presented to Hinds' President McLendon during assembly Tuesday.

The junior college newsmen will meet next fall for a press workshop at East Mississippi Junior College at Scooba.

Mrs. Gookin, Girls Attend Play Day; Ten Girls Enter

by JANE PICKETT

Friday morning, April 20, 1956, Frances Bliss, Sybil Beasley, Frances Barker, Dot Gill, Ruth Martin, Bobbie Jean Matthews, Jane Pickett, Bobbie Nell Noland, Betty Berryhill, Mrs. Ann Gookin, and the bus driver, Carey McDonald, journeyed to Columbus, Mississippi, to attend the college play day activities at M. S. C. W.

After hungrily devouring a snack in the college grill at Mississippi State, we regretfully continued on our way. About 3 o'clock, we arrived at our destination—M.S.C.W., and registered.

By the arrangement of Nell Pickett, a former Hinds student, we were invited to eat supper as guests in the college cafeteria.

After supper we assembled with other girls representing colleges from the entire state in the MSCW Pohl Gymnasium in order to organize the eight competing teams, which had streamers of different colors as their symbols. Each person from a school went to a different group.

At eight o'clock we were given free time to spend as we pleased. We decided to go to see "Rock Around the Clock," which was playing at a downtown movie.

After a good night's rest (?), we cheerfully (?) climbed out of bed Saturday morning in order to get to the gym for the beginning relays and games.

Different activities were in progress simultaneously all during the day. These activities included volley ball, softball, croquet, horseshoes, deck tennis, paddle tennis, aerial darts, shuffleboard, ping pong, and badminton.

At 9:50 a. m. we had a Coke break in the "Golden Goose," the large campus grill, which is equipped to house different banquet parties and social events. At 10:15, refreshed and eager to go, we began to play again and did so until dinner.

After dinner we were given leisure time until 3:30. A few of us played in the tennis games; some of us watched them. Others in our group went swimming or explored the vast-reaching MSCW campus.

From 3:30 to 4:30 we played the final games. Deciding not to stay for the informal dinner to be held at 6:30, our group left MSCW about 5 o'clock, and began our homeward trek.

We stopped in Starkville to eat supper. Mrs. Gookin told us we could go "all the way" in ordering our meals. This we did readily enough.

After finishing the delicious supper we continued on our way home. The remainder of the trip seemed very short because we were entertained with "different" vocal selections by members of our group.

We had a very enjoyable time at MSCW—meeting old friends, making new acquaintances, seeing the large MSCW campus, and participating in various play activities.

College Graduates Plan For Future Many Will Continue Their Schooling

By IRL DEAN RHODES

In exactly three weeks and two days over 120 college sophomores will receive their junior college diplomas and pass through the portals of Hinds Junior College for the last time as students.

These students will be going in many different ways. A large percentage will continue their schooling, some will go to work, some are undecided; others are planning to be married.

The Hindsonian will use the last three issues to inform its readers on the plans and the future whereabouts of the present sophomore class.

Billy Tucker, Bill Cole, Joe Kinsey, Wayne Winstead, Ann Johnson, and Ramona Franklin tell us that they will enter Mississippi Southern this fall.

Mississippi State will have Bobby Worley, Sleepy Seale, Larkin

Pickett To Serve As Wesley Leader

Jane Pickett of Utica was elected president of the Wesley Foundation at the weekly meeting Monday, April 30.

Other officers elected for the coming 1956-57 session include: Vice -President: George Marie Fraiser; Secretary and Treasurer: Laura Lusby; Program Chairmen: Martha Fugate and Carolyn Ferguson; Music Chairman: James Furlow; Recreational Chairman: Fred Marett; Publicity Chairman: Irl Dean Rhodes; Director; Rev. Clay Lee.

Plans are being made for a Wesley Spring Picnic to be held at Raymond Lake at the last meeting of the year, where the new officers will be installed in an Installation Service in charge of Rev. Clay Lee, leader of the group. The program will include recreation, in charge of Fred Marett; refreshments, in charge of Annette McCluer; and devotional in charge of Ramona Franklin. George Marie Fraiser will be responsible for transportation

Tucker, Red Gookin, Maurice Pierce, Leonard Prisock, Ernest Different, Virgil Wells, Thomas Stricklin, and Phil Oxner.

Willis Steenhuis, and Mary Louise Baker are planning an August wedding. Steenhuis will go to work and play semi-pro baseball while Baker will work also. Bebe Epperson will marry Hans Johnson in August.

It looks as if Auburn will get Jim Corbitt, Vernon Bishop, and George Gross.

If Raymond Huff does not drop out to work, he will attend Mississippi College. Huff will be engaged to Laura Lusby in the very near future.

Jo Ann Lane, Donald Thompson, and Jim Currie are sure they will continue their college education at the University of Mississippi this fall.

Glenda Rush and Charlie Malone are making definite plans to go to L. S. U. this fall

Mary Will McKenzie has already made final plans to attend Washington University this September. Tommy Robbins is making arrangements to enter Layola to pursue his degree.

Southeastern may be honored with Charlie Wicker's presence, although as yet Wicker is not certain. Annette McCluer will help him decide.

Nancy Reese has high hopes of casting her talents with Johns Hopkins University for the fall semester in September.

Baptist Hill (Miss. College) will get a share of the Hinds students as usual. O. J. Dear, Charles Armstrong, Charles Eastland, Tom Hudson, Fred Jones, Earlene Vandevender, Gerald Eastland, and Janice Lewis expect to further their education at the Clinton college.

Melvin Oakes is undecided as to whether he will attend Miss. College or L. S. U.

For more on the plans of the college sophomores see next week's Hindsonian.

Seniors Begin Trip Will Leave Friday

Friday, May 5, at five o'clock in afternoon is the leaving time of the Hinds seniors when they will begin their class trip for which they have been working long and diligently.

Their first meal away from the campus is supper that night at the home of Mayor Blaine of Mt. Olive, home of Billy Blain, Hinds senior.

The first out-of-state destination is Tallahassee, where they expect to be registered at the Sunset Motel for May 5, 6.

While in Tatlahassee, the seniors expect to see the Florida State Circus, and other interesting attractions of the capital city. In that vicinity, they expect to attend the Sunday morning church services.

Monday, the group will visit Wacullah Springs, and register in at Panama City for Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, May 7, 8, 9.

Some of the events on the schedule in this area are visits to the Elgin Field Air Base, the paper mill, and exhibits of water skiing, a visit with the ski instructor of Esther Williams, and deep sea fishing.

On the return trip the seniors will visit Bellingrath Gardens, and then register for May 10, 11, at

Viverette, Lane Will Travel West

Vonda Viverette and Nan Lane will leave June 1 for Yellowstone National Park to remain until September 1.

These enterprising and efficient sophomores will work in the area of Old Faithful. Nan in the Curio Shop and Vonda in the general store of Yellowstone.

The Hinds girls will join Lucretia Bland, formerly at Hinds, and two other Mississippi College students, and make the trip by car, driving through Texas, New Mexico, Utah, Kansas, the Grand Canyon area, and other places of interest the Methodist Campground, Biloxi. While here the travelers will become acquainted with the shrimp industry, take a trip to Ship Island, visit the Pascagoula Ship Yards, see the home of Jefferson Davis, and enjoy much recreation in the State's playground resort.

Last summer Vonda and Nan were among those students who spent the summer at the Blue Ridge, North Carolina in Y work.

The group expects to reach Raymond, Friday or Saturday, May 11 or 12.

Accompanying the class will be Mrs. Muse and Coach Boteler, class sponsors.

MRS. ANN GOOKIN, center, will enter the Mississippi Woman's Golf Tournament tomorrow at Jackson. Mrs. Gookin, Hinds physical education instructor, is a strong contender for the state golf title. On the left is Mary Barefield and right is Leta Mae White, who will also play in the tournament.

"We believe that you will find the curriculum, faculties, and equipment that are now available to 11th and 12th grade students to compare favorably with the best educational centers," declared President G. M. McLendon at the annual high school athletic banquet Monday night. at the Raymond Lodge.

Members of the football, basketball, track, and tennis teams were feted with a delightful supper before president McLendon's address. Parents of all the athletes were invited to the occasion.

Myrna Loy Stuart sang two solos and she was accompanied at the piano by Sybil Beasley. Dick Scully was also on the program with his guitar.

Honored guests at the banquet were Don Trotter and Mary Marguerite Hart, Mr. and Miss Raymond High respectively. Carolyn Wright, homecoming queen and Miss Travel of 1956, was also present for the program. Members of the meat judging team Bobby Sheffield, David Barton, Carol King, and Pap McNair and their coach, Mr. Jack Treloar, were in attendance for the meal.

Before presenting the letters to various lettermen, Coach Boteler told of the many trophies the Eagles and Eaglettes had won this season. They were runner-up in the Port Gibson Invitational Tournament for the boys, Hinds Countv 10th grade tournament winner girls, girls winner of the Pearl Invitational Tournament, runner-up of the Hinds County Tournament girls, winner of the Capitol Athletic Conference girls, runner-up in sub-district tournament both boys and girls, winner of the district girls, girls went to South Mississippi, winner of the district six overall track meet and placed second in the boys' division of the South Mississippi meet. All of these are awards on basketball with the exception of the latter two which are on track.

The football cheerleaders present were: Norma Jean Carter, head cheerleader; Lou Ann Carter, Virginia Foster, Louise Stubbs, Ann Boyd, Carrie Mae Terrell, Clara Murrah, and Sara Margaret Smith.

The football team had a record of three wins, three losses, and one tie this season. The girls' basketball team was outstanding with 26 victories and seven defeats while the boys basketball team managed to win 16 games and lose 15 encounters.

High school students attending the banquet representing football, basketball, and track were as follows: Eugene Osborn, Frank Sutterfield, Jimmie Chapman, Robert Moody, Dale Myers, Jimmy Walsh, Charlie Banes, David Barton, Carol King, Doyle Ray Whitehead, Jimmy McNair, Donald Anderson, Dalton Thames, W. # Hinds High Places In South Meet Will Enter Eight Events In State

Hinds High's track and field team will enter eight events of the state track and field meet at Clinton Friday afternoon.

Coached by Louis Boteler, the Eagles participated in the South Mississippi B-BB track and field meet at Hattiesburg last Friday afternoon and night.

The Eagles racked up second place in the boys' division of the B-BB match. Utica won over the Eagles by scoring 38 points while the Eagles garnered only 34 markers.

Homer Boyd, Raymond's allround athlete, won the 880-yard dash with a time of 2:10.2. Boyd also won second place in the shot put division.

Charles Causey contributed his share of the 34 points by winning second place in the high jump and the running broad jump. Randolph

Homer Boyd and Kendall Harris; basketball—Norma Jean Carter and Donald Anderson; track— Mary Marguerite Hart and Randolph Smith, and tennis—Magda Sideregts.

Other staff members present were Mr. Bill Oakes, who showed a film of one of the Eagle football games to conclude the program, Mr. A. L. Denton, Coach Bob Fuerst, Mrs. Jeannie Muse, Miss Frances Bratschi, and Mr. McLendon.

Coach Louis Boteler was host and master of ceremonies of the occasion.

Smith was third in the 100-yard dash.

Tommy Lynch managed to secure a second place position in the 440-yard dash. Smith repeated after the 100-yard dash with second place in the 220-yard dash.

The Raymond mile relay team was second in the South Mississippi meet

Coach Boteler expects the Eagles to stand their own against the competing teams at the state meet Friday afternoon.

Other trackmen slated to make the state meet are Dalton Thames, Miles Ray Goode, and Bill Ferguson.

The Eagles will enter the mile relay, 880-yard relay, 100-yard dash, 220-yard run, shot put, broad jump, and high jump.

This is the fourth year in a row the Hinds High track and field team has had competition in the state B-BB track and field meet.

HINDS STUDENTS HOLD DAILY MORNING WATCH

"To Pause for Power" is the theme of the campus Morning Watch services.

These services held every weekday morning in the Music Auditorium, are interdenominational. Everyone is urged to come, and to bring a Bible.

The time is 7:15-7:30.

POLLY BERGEN, glamorous young singing star of television, radio, motion pictures, will sing at the second annual open air "Pops" Concert to be held in Jackson on May 14, at 8 p. m. She has made personal appearances in New York, Las Vegas, Hollywood, Chicago, Montreal, New Orleans and other cities. Miss Bergen has red hair, blue eyes, weighs 119 pounds, and stands five feet and five and one-half inches tall.

Jones Girls Top Tennis Tournament On Hinds Junior Court Last Week

Jones Junior College won both divisions of the girls' matches and Co-Lin and Meridian shared the boys' championships of the state junior college tennis tournament here last Saturday.

Mary Louise Barker and Gwen Post of Hinds went to the finals of the girls' doubles. They defeated Perkinston girls in the semi-final match. The pair had previously topped Mississippi College's girls team earlier last week.

Ann Cameron of Ellisville routed Hilda Wicker of East Central by 8-6; 6-0 in the finals of the girls' singles. In the girls' doubles, Liz Kisner and Pat Childers of Ellisville turned thumbs down to all efforts put up by the Bill Oakes coached Eaglettes. They won by

Hinds High Tennis Team Play Friday

The Hinds High Eagles and Eaglettes will enter the District Six B-BB tennis tournament in Jackson Friday afternoon.

Clara Murrah won first place in the girls' singles at the Capitol Athletic Conference and Blake Harrison and Donald Anderson took first place in the boys' doubles.

The Hinds High team was runner-up in the conference for the top tennis team. Byram was first place.

Madga Sideregts, captain of the Eaglettes, will go with Jo Ann Ray, Clara Murrah, and Virginia to compete for district honors.

Donald Anderson, Blake Harrison, Ross Alman, and Bobby Sheffield compose the boys' team. Anderson is captain of the team.

8-6 and 6-1 scores

Mary Lou Kersh, who saw action in the girls' singles for Hinds, went to the showers after being downed by Cameron in the opening rounds. McGuffee of Southwest, Adelaide Hurd of Perkinston, and J. Smith of Co-Lin, also participated in the girls' singles.

In the girls' doubles besides Jones and Hinds; Perkinston, Co-Lin, and Southwest entered teams.

The top junior college player, Newell Holt, of Meridian had little trouble in taking the boys' singles. Holt sailed past Tommy Giles of East Central in the finals by a 6-1 and 6-2 decision.

Jerry Ivy, Glenn Bolton, Turcotte, Renfroe On Record Breaking Team

Tuned to a superb peak, the inspired Hinds Eagles walked off with top honors last Saturday at the state junior college track meet at Sunflower Junior College.

The aroused Eagles unleashed a strong attack from the opening of the meet to chalk up a score of 58½ points to the 46 points scored by the defending Jones Bobcats.

Coach Bob Fuerst unloaded a string of well coached thoroughbreds that knocked off all opposition. Nine junior colleges participated in the state meet.

Charlie Wicker, Ernest Turcotte, and Olin Renfroe took first places in the hurdles, 100-yard dash, and shot put, respectively. Wicker sailed past all competing opposition for the top place in the 120 yard high and the 220 yard low hurdles. Wicker holds the state record in the hurdles division.

Olin Renfroe almost broke big brother's record in the shot put throw with 44 feet 5¼ inches. Oran Renfroe holds the state record with 44 feet 7½ inches. Ernest Turcotte, running like a wild deer, nailed

Other performers in the boys' singles were Robert James of Co-Lin, C. B. Ellzey of Jones and Tom Amis of Perkinston.

Raymond Grace and Clyde Auld of Co-Lin coupled forces to cop the boys' doubles over Smith and Scoper of Perkintson by 3-6, 8-6, and 6-4 marks.

Southwest, East Central, Hinds, and Jones entered teams in the boys' doubles. Sam Scott and Warren Dorian of Hinds were defeated in the semi-finals by Perkinston.

Mr. Bill Oakes, official director of the tournament and recreational director at Hinds, presented winning trophies to all four divisions after the final matches.

Tuned to a superb peak, the indown the 100-yard dash in 9:95 ired Hinds Eagles walked off with seconds.

Turcotte, Jerry Ivy, Glenn Bolton, and Renfroe broke a new record in the 880 yard relay with a time of 1:33.9. The former record was held by Jones in 1955 with a timing of 1:34.2.

The results:

Hinds Paper Wins Top Class Rating

The Hindsonian, recently winning top place honors at the Mississippi Junior College Press Conference, received this week a First Class Rating Award for several years in a row from the Associated Collegiate Press' All-American Newspaper Critical Service.

The judges, professional newspapermen and journalism professors, analyzed and rated the first semester's file of newspapers in comparison with those produced by other schools of approximately similar enrollment, by similar method of publication, and with the same frequency of issue per semester.

The Hindsonian, being judged on every element of newspaper coverage, content, and physical properties, received a score of 1410 in the junior college group, giving it a first class rating.

staged by the Players.

The Saturday night performance evoked a particularly good number of comments from the audience. Especially notable in that audience was the guest director of the Jackson Little Theater, Mr. Davis, who spoke very complimentary of the play's lighting. Director of the play was Mr. R. E. Fleshman, whose constant efforts made the production the success it was. Mr. Fleshman clearly exhibited his ability for perfecting the minute details of a drama without destroying or losing the mood of the play. And in a drama such as "The Glass Menagerie," the mood or over-all effect is of paramount importance.

Glenda Rush as Amanda, Jo Anne Nutt as Laura, Dick Bowers as Tom, and Dick Morgan as Jim all gave fine performances. Jo Anne Nutt did an admirable job, especial-

Commenting on the paper the judges said: "Keep up your News On Other Campuses column." "The Sophomore of the Week idea is excellent." "I liked your comments on the "Till" case! You said a lot in a few words."

The First Class Award earned by The Hindsonian is intended to show how it compares with other papers in its own classification throughout the nation.

Music Recitals Now In Full Swing Local Students Present Talent

Music Week on the Hinds campus is in full swing this week.

Strains of delightful music are pouring forth from the College Auditorium as music students of the Hinds Music Department are presented in recitals every morning at 10:25 and every evening at 7:00

The Festival of Music on our campus is in conjunction with the 33rd annual National Music Week celebrated throughout the United States. "Where There's Life . . . . There's Music" is the theme of the week extending May 6 through May 13.

One purpose of the occasion is to recognize, honor, and encourage the part music plays in all our lives, and now is a time when more people than ever before are enjoying music. Estimates by the American/Music Conference reveal that there are currently more than 19,000,000 persons playing the piano, and one person in eight in the United States plays some form of musical instrument.

Children now playing instruments number 7,750,000, receiving instrumental music instruction in public and parochial schools and with private teachers. School bands have increased 65 per cent since the war and school orchestras even more. Community orchestras now number over 1,000, our own Jackson Symphony Orchestra being one of these many organizations over the country.

Crowds have been very satisfactory, but we encourage every one of you who haven't attended so far to waste no time; this is your chance to enjoy a delightful hour of inspiring and relaxing music.

The schedule for the rest of the week is as follows: Wednesday, 7:00 p. m.: Fred Marett, organist; Larine Herrin, soprano; James Furlow, pianist; Anita Watkins, pianist; Marion Woods, pianist; Thursday, 10:25 a.m.: Jo Ann Lane, contralto; Melanie Mathews, pianist; Sue Hallberg, pianist; Charles Craft, tenor; Thursday, 7:00 p. m.: Peggy Stubbs, organist; Martha Gillespie, pianist; Harris Sarrett, tenor; Nan Lane, soprano; Friday, 10:25 a. m.: Vonda Viverette, pianist; Annette McCluer, mezzo-contralto; Tommy Welch, baritone; Annette Cheatham, pianist.

Dorothy Raye Brock, pianist, and Betty Denton, pianist, will be presented in their high school sophomore recital Saturday, at 7:00 p. m. Sunday afternoon at 4:00 p. m. Glenda Rush will be presented in her sophomore piano recital to climax the week's activities.

Fielding Wright, A Great Statesman

At 7:40 p. m. last Friday night Mississippi's greatest statesman, the honorable Fielding Lewis Wright, Sr., passed on to the purple horizon to meet his Maker.

Fielding Wright was Mississippi's champion of states' rights and local self-government. He was the most widely known Mississippian of the last decade. Former Governor Wright stood for honesty, courage, integrity, fairness, frankness, calmness, and sincerity. He served longer continuously as governor of our state than any other Mississippian and he was presently serving as our state's Democratic National Committeeman.

Born in the rich delta at Rolling Fork, Governor Wright gave over a quarter of a century of his life to the people of Mississippi in public service.

We had the honor and privilege of being in close contact with the ex-governor last summer and we never once heard him use a vulgar word, or knew him to do an unclean deed. The death of Fielding Wright was a shock to the people of Mississippi and a blow to the entire South.

Dr. W. B. Selah, pastor of the Galloway Memorial Methodist Church, paid great tribute to the former governor at the funeral rites Monday morning, with thousands of Mississippians from all walks of life crowded in the Galloway Church auditorium. Dr. Selah stated, "Fielding Wright was more than a good governor and a man of high character, he was a Christian gentleman."

Fielding Wright was loved by all his friends and followers and highly respected by his enemies. It has been said that he left the governor's office with more friends and fewer enemies than any other governor.

As far as we are concerned, Fielding Wright is Mississippi's greatest and most outstanding statesman of all time.

"Glass Menagerie" Rates Top Award

· When four college students — two boys and two girls — can hold the attention of an audience of their classmates seated in close company surrounding them on the stage where they are performing, causing laughter and sadness to flow intermittently, then what is taking place must be very remarkable.

The Lendon Players' interpretation of "Tennessee" Williams' Glass Menagerie was remarkable. Words of praise heard during intermission and after the play were: "unusual!" "extraordinary!" and "wonderful!" The arena style performance put the actors and actresses under pressure. Even though they were acting under this added strain, the most noted fault-finding critic would have had difficulty in detecting a flaw.

The shy, and lame, little Laura (Jo Ann Nutt) wiped the tears from her face with the back of her hand and said softly, hesitatingly, "Mother—I think—that I—am going to be—an old maid!"

When Laura's mother, Amanda, a forever talking product of early Southern aristocracy (Glenda Rush), refused to speak to her son Tom (Dick Bowers), he questions heartily, "I should apologize to her so she will start talking again?" SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

Joe Kinsey

By JANE PICKETT

One of the most well-known and popular sophomores on our Hinds Junior College campus is Joe Kinsey, whose home is in Jackson, Mississippi.

This blond-haired, blue-eyed

sophomore, usually seen with a twinkle in his eye and a cheerful smile, stands six feet, one inch tall, and all 200 pounds of him are manfully distributed.

Joe loves a meal based around fried chicken and ended with a generous slice of chocolate cake.

When Joe has any spare time, and he isn't flirting with the girls, he likes to listen to records, watch television and catch up on his sleep (which is very irregular due to bus trips.) He likes Dixie Land jazz and band music.

Joe's hobbies include reading, playing in the band and, appropriately enough — driving.

As a freshman Joe was a member of the Modern Language Club, the band, the Wesley Foundation, and the Lendon Players. He also was a bus driver and participated in intramural sports.

As a sophomore Joe has served on the Board of Directors for the Circle "K," as co-program chairman for the Wesley Foundation, and as vice-president of the band. Joe played Jack Dalton, the hero, in "Curse you, Jack Dalton," a Lendon Players production this year. Joe has also been a bus driver and participated in intramural sports this year.

Joe is a physical education and history major. He plans to finish college at Mississippi Southern, then teach and coach and — do whatever Uncle Sam has planned for him.

"I have enjoyed my two years at Hinds," say Joe. "I only wish that it were a four year college. Hinds is a wonderful school."

We think that you are a real nice fellow, Joe, and we wish you success and happiness in all that you undertake.

On The State Campuses

Condensed by Nan Ertle

Congratulations to Bobby Kelly on his recent election as president of the Student Government Association for the year 1956-57 at William Carey College. A chemistry major, Bobby hails from Ittabena. Other new SGA officers are Julia Ann Hicks, secretary; Louise Allen, treasurer; and Beverly Hartsfield, publicity chairman.

The coeds at Mississippi Southern have been trying to "lose that winter, anemic look and assume a Pocahontas-like complexion," to quote Jackie McCullough in the Student Printz. When sunbathing on the roofs was banned, the swimming pool was the answer for achieving a nice even tan, or a good blister, as the case may be.

More student body elections: Clinton Smith is the newly elected student body president at Provine High School. Fred Moss is the vicepresident and Roxanne Cox is the secretary-treasurer of the student body. Here's a warning to all amateur hyptonists: Dr. A. W. Aleck, as quoted in the Reflector, states that hypnosis by amateurs could cause great damage to the subject's personality. He and other psychologists believe that amateur interest in hypnosis has set the study back at least 20 years.

A campus chest program as suggested in The Reflector sounds like a very good program. The many charity drives on the campus would be distributed by the chest to prevent students from being constantly plagued for charity gifts.

Morning Watch is held every week-day morning from 7:15 to 7:30.

These services are held in the Music Auditorium and are interdenominational. For a brief period of meditation, devotion, prayer, and singing, attend Morning Watch.

Come and bring your Bible with you. Everyone is invited.

A mirrowed sphere revolved distorted light about the stage while a faint touch of music set the background for Dick Bowers' rich-voiced narrative. Jim (Dick Morgan), the smooth talking former high school idol, was Laura's very first gentleman caller, and contributed to the play's element of romance — a kiss.

Mr. Fleshman and his company of Lendon Players gave three performances of The Glass Menagrie, any one of which "Big Daddy" Williams would have enjoyed immensely.

Campus Pick-Up

The sophomore class will go to Roosevelt State Park at Morton Thursday afternoon for their spring outing. The entire class of 31 is expected to go on the party. Miss Frances Bratschi and Mr. Jack Treloar, 10th grade sponsors, said the group will return to Hinds late Thursday night.

Monday night, under the sponsorship of Mr. Bill Oakes, Hinds recreational director, the Circle K Club at Hinds Junior College held their annual party at the Raymond

A variety of recreation was held during the afternoon and evening. Swimming, card games, dancing, and plenty of food highlighted the activities. To conclude the program, Martha Gillespie and Melvin Oakes put on a new jitter-bug exhibition for the group.

Members and their dates at the party were: Bobby Worley, Hermanell Hearn, Billy Tucker, Gail Calloway, Tommy Robbins, Patty Carter, Melvin Oakes, Martha Gillespie, Charlie Wicker, Annette McCluer, Roselin McDaniels, Peggy Stubbs, Joe Kinsey, Dot Beckham, Ted Blanton, Barbara Yarbrough, Stuart Spann, Sleepy Seale, Phil Oxener, Irl Dean Rhodes, and Mr. Bill Oakes, sponsor.

The Hinds Junior College Future Business Leaders Association will hold their annual semester party at the Raymond lodge Thursday (tomorrow) afternoon from 3:30 to 7:30 p. m.

Mrs. Maybelle Furness, commercial instructor, is sponsor of the FBLA.

Hinds Junior College's freshman home economics class will honor the college sophomores, high school seniors, and faculty members at a graduation tea, May sixteenth, four to five o'clock, in the Home Arts Building.

Sylvia McWilliams, officer of the club, will be one of the hostesses for the tea.

The April issue of The Golden Key, official organ of Phi Theta Kappa, national honor society for junior colleges, pictures the twenty new members at Hinds Junior College on its page 29.

On pages 43, 45, the chapter report gives these names as the following: Donnie Ainsworth, Carlie Brewer, Vernon Bishop, Wilson Brent, Annette Cheatham, Minnie Louise Cobb, Ben Fulton, Raymon Huff, Ann Johnson, Mary Lou Kersh, Annette McCluer, Mary Ann Liles, Louis Nolan, Flora Mae Roberts, Vonda Vivertte, Patsy S m i t h, Bobby Worley, Robert Bridges, Frank Donovan, and Mona McClurg.

Mrs. Marian J. Welch, head dietitian, is in Chicago this week attending the annual meeting of the American Dietetics Association.

While in Chicago, Mrs. Welch is domiciled at the Conrad Hilton Hotel.

College Sophomores Look To Future Many To Enter Mississippi Colleges

by CARL BROCK

Remember when we were back in high school with only two weeks of school left? And how we used to sing on that last day "School's out, school's out, teacher let the mules out?" Well, just give the sophomores around here two more weeks and watch what happens! I'll bet that cap and gown crowd is the happiest bunch of guys and dolls you ever saw. Happy for two reasons: first, because they have achieved a goal, a step higher in their education; and second, because they are getting out of school. Getting out of school to enjoy the summer. To swim, and fish; to travel and to work. Getting out to be lazy for a few days before they are "up an' at 'em again."

It would be fun, although difficult, to keep tabs on the sophomores' activities this summer and next fall. To follow them from coast to coast, as they disband to continue their education, settle down to the comforts of home-cooking and married life, and as they enter the business world.

To the honor and glory of the sophomores, in hopes that they will not be forgotten (and how could they be!!) I have encroached upon their plans which I herein disclose

A few to join the before-mentioned "home cooking" clan are: Robert Huffman and Imogene

Miss Travel Gets Valley Wardrobe

Carolyn Wright of Raymond, Mississippi's Miss Travel of 1956, recently made her first official appearance in Vicksburg to receive the keys to the city and a complete Queen's wardrobe from The Valley.

Carolyn devoted the afternoon to selecting her wardrobe at The Valley which includes everything she might need in her official travels, starting with a travel suit, and including play clothes, swim suit, lingeries, sleeping attire and even luggage, hat and shoes.

ly when one considers the difficulty of her role. Her role allowed comparatively few words for "getting over" her character, but she made up for deficiency of lines in good acting. And her performance did not escape wide comment. The close work of the whole cast prevented the rather flat and stenographic quality from creeping into this character study play, something which very often happens in a production of this type. The cast was quite accomplished.

The story of a frustrated family is not particularly exceptional, but the director, the cast, and the back stage crew of the Lendon Players have rendered a most exceptional production. All of us who saw "The Glass Menagerie" extend sincere congratulations to those who made its production possible. It was a wonderful play, worthy of high praise.

Pickett, who will be married before the year is out. Robert will enter Millsaps next fall.

Wedding bells will ring for Thomas McTaggart and Lottie Johnson sometime soon. Tommy is still making plans to attend Delta State. Jimmy Warren is planning to work this summer, taking time out in August to marry Mary Fulton. A Hi-Stepper and a clarinet player are getting married in August too. No guessing about that, it's Mary Lou Kersh and Glen Barnes.

Just a hint to let you know what Julian Sandifer will be doing for a while. He'll be a proud "papa" in June.

Richard Haynes will be working in Indiana this summer and will register at Millsaps this fall. Margie Bridges and Flora Mae Roberts plan to work in Jackson. Edwina Smith is going to work in glamorous New Orleans.

The College of the Dominican will receive Carolyn Ann Chappell, and Blue Mountain will welcome Peggy Stubbs.

Ten students: Frances Abernathy, Hermanell Hearn, Nan Lane, Janet Mackey, Judith Sigrest, Vonda Viverette, Robert Hughes, Riddell Leggett, James Sasser, and Harris Sarrett, are going to Mississippi College.

M.S.C.W. will open its doors to: Theresa Ann Alessio, Annette Cheatham, Sue Hall berg, and Betty McCaskill.

Mississippi Southern will be honored by: Betty Jane Berryhill, Georgianne Burton, Harry Anderson, William Freeman, and Stuart Millsaps will claim: Milford Brock and Hugh Long.

Delta State will get: Frances Bliss, Billie Jean Phillips, and Carolyn Templeton.

Martha Gillespie, Walter Nelson, Olin Renfroe, and James Taylor will journey to the L.S.U. campus.

Wilson Brent and Eurena Satterfield are going to Belhaven.

Engineering Men Visit Power Plant

The college sophomore engineering majors were guests yesterday of the Mississippi Power and Light Company of Jackson.

They were taken on a tour of the Jackson plant, and were served luncheon. At the luncheon hour they heard informative talks by officials of the Company.

In the afternoon the group visited the Waterways Experiment Station near Clinton. There they toured the cement division, and other parts of the station.

The following students made the field trip Tuesday: Donnie Ainsworth, Milton Berryhill, Vernon Bishop, George Cagle, Clifford Charlesworth, Jim Corbitt, Noel Covington, Ernest Different, Joe Farrar, George Cross, Jack Hamil, Joe Harris, Tom Hudson, Raymon Huff, Hugh Long, Melvin Oakes, John McGuffie, Pat McCormack, Billy Rawls, Sam Scott, Larkin Tucker, and John Wood.

Miss Lurline Stewart, head of the Mathematics Department, and Miss Gertrude Davis, of the Public Relations office, accompanied the students on the tours.

Pre-Registration for Summer School is now underway in the Registrar's office.

Students who expect to enroll should make their schedules now. A full program of courses is offered. Some classes will be closed when capacity registration is reached.

to attend Mississippi State: Donnie Ainsworth, Milton Berryhill, Joe Butler, Jerry Caldwell, Clifford Charlesworth, Noel Covington, Joe Farrar, Robert Gunter, Jack Hamill, Pat McCormack, and Douglas Love.

Ben Fulton will join "Colonel Rebel" at Ole Miss this fall, and Eugene Britton is going far, far away to Colorado A. & M.

In parting I bid you farewell, goodbye, so long; Adieu! Au revoir! — don't forget us — good luck, and say, this summer, really have a ball!

Post's Eaglettes Fade In Tourney

Coach Gwen Post's Hinds High tennis team tied for fifth place in the district six overall competition last Friday in Jackson.

The Eagles and Eaglettes tied with Magee for fifth spot in the tournament. Carr Central of Vicksburg easily took top honors in the district for the title.

Members of the team were: Magda Sidgerest, captain; Clara Murrah, Joan Ray, and Virginia Foster. The boys' team was composed of Donald Anderson, captain; Ross Alman, Blake Harrison, and Bobby Sheffield held at the Jackson Country Club last week.

Mrs. Gookin was nipped in the finals by the defending state champion, mighty Mary Mills. Mills took an eight to six decision over the popular Hinds Junior College physical education instructor.

Besides winning the runner-up spot in the tournament and a silver plate, Mrs. Gookin was awarded golf balls for having the longest drive of the tournament.

The dainty wife of Red Gookin, former pro baseball pitcher, came from behind three holes in the Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Gookin has been invited to play in the Delta Golf Tournament later this year.

Missing a needed spark, the Hinds High Eagles ran a close fourth in the boys' division of the B-BB state track and field meet at Clinton last Friday.

The Eagles chalked up 17 points while Utica garnered 24 markers for first place in the boys' division. Port Gibson won the overall title with 36 points.

The 17 points were accomplished

100-yard dash—3rd place, Randolph Smith.

440-yard dash—3rd place, Tommy Lynch.

880-yard run—2nd place, Homer Boyd.

Broad jump—3rd place, Charles Causey.

High jump—5th place, Charles Causey.

Shot put—4th place, Homer

President Hilbun Addresses Grads At Commencement

Ben F. Hilbun, M.S., LLD., president of Mississippi State College, will addrerss the college and high school graduates at Hinds Junior College, on the occasion of the thirty-eighth Commencement, slated Friday, May 25, at 10:30 o'clock in the morning.

President Hilbun was long associated with Mississippi State before he was named its president in 1953.

There he received his Bachelor of Science degree in 1923. Later he earned his Master's there and remained to teach. He served as registrar, director of publicity, and as administrative assistant to the president through some of the most prosperous years of the school's history.

For twelve years he was closely associated with Dr. William Flowers Hand, State College's internationally famous scientist. Out of this association and high esteem grew the biography published by Mr. Hilbun in 1952. This very readable book sets forth spiritual values and attributes of character of Dr. Hand as well as marry of his outstanding scientific achievements

Who's Who in American Education lists the following social, civic and professional memberships and achievements of Mr. Hilbun: NEA, PROGRAM

Plant Expansion Told By President Six Buildings In Long Range Plans

"What are you as an individual, or as a member of groups, contributing to the onward march of Hinds Junior College?" was the challenge to every student given in an address at Assembly Tues-

Hinds Eagle Band In Spring Concert Friday At Eight

The Hinds Junior College Eagle Band will present a Spring Concert Friday night, at eight o'clock in the college auditorium.

Under the direction of Mr. Albert Rowan, the 48-piece band will present the following program:

Crosley March by Henry Fillmore; Morning, Noon and Night, by Von Suppe; Hall of Fame, J. Olivadoti; Selections from the Ballet Music from Gounod's Faust; Dancing in the Dark, Arthur Schwartz; Beachcomber, Clive Richardson; The Vanished Army, Kenneth J. Alford; Amparito Roca, Jaime Texidor; An American Week End, John Morrissey; Procession of Nobles, Nicholas Rimsky-Korsakov; Caribbean Fantasy, John Morrissey; and Estrellita, Manuel M. Ponce.

day in the college auditorium, by President G. M. McLendon.

The President urged the students to take stock of themselves and to take pride in their college as it faces an enlarged program of plant expansion.

Having met with the state building commission for junior colleges the day before, Mr. McLendon had plans outlined for immediate and future building programs for the local campus.

First, in the near future, the erection of a modern science building is anticipated, a building adequate for and in keeping with the increasing emphasis on instruction in science and mathematics. Next in line of construction is listed a health and physical education building for women

In the longer range plans, another dormitory for men, and one for women; a quarter million-dollar air-conditioned library; and a fine arts building are envisioned.

The expenditures call for $160,000 every year for ten years, or a total of $1,000,600.

Within the assembly address tribute was paid to the many students who are doing highly creditable work in making Hinds Junior College one of the foremost among the nation's junior colleges.

Many Graduates Participate In Final Exercises Friday Morning

On the college level, 124 students are in line for graduation on Friday, May 25, when the cap and gown procession will form at the Academic Building at 10:30 A. M., to march in "Pomp and Circumstance" to the college auditorium where diplomas will be awarded after the program of addresses and music.

Farewell, Sophomores

In just a few short days sophomores will be marching down the aisles toward a diploma from Hinds Junior College. But, in reality, they will be marching towards much more than a diploma. New worlds will soon begin to unfold before them. Opportunity is ahead.

Sophomore, whether you plan for more advanced training or plan to take your place in the busy adult world, the under classmen of Hinds wish for you all success and good luck. We will miss you, but you have given us a good example to follow. We are confident that you will remain true to the high ideals which you have exhibited during your two years at Hinds. And we are equally confident that we can carry on the fine traditions and spirit that you have had here. Farewell, Sophomores, and God be with you.

Stop The Press!

This issue of the Hindsonian marks the end of another very successful year for the paper staff. For 27 weeks we have tried to keep you, students and faculty, informed of the activities on the campus or affecting campus people; we have attempted to publish a paper that would reflect the superiority of Hinds and we've added a trophy to the list of awards that HJC has acquired in the present and past years.

Yet, all that could not be possible without your co-operation. The faculty and administration were co-operative in every way, quite often taking a great deal of trouble to help us. The co-operation given us this year by the students has been very generous. Our many successful publications could have been failures if not for you. You made the news, and we recorded it. But recording was not an altogether simple job. Our task was made easier by the combined efforts of staff members Irl Dean Rhodes, Ann Johnson, Dot Adams, Marilyn Simmons, Jane Pickett, Carl Brock, Jesse Boyd, Nan Ertle, Tommy Welch, Karlene Stafford, Billy Beasley, Mona McClurg and Burkett Neely, under the direction of Miss Gertrude Davis.

The Keith Press we especially appreciate, not only for giving us such a fair price on the printing that it makes an advertising free paper possible, but also for their other kindnesses such as patience and tolerance.

In this the last issue of the Hindsonian, we of the editorial staff would like to thank all who have made our position possible and meaningful. We would like to thank the persons whose help has made it possible for the newspaper to be selected as Mississippi's best junior college publication for the past year.

We hope that next year the Hindsonian will grow and continue to maintain the highest principles of journalism, being a true voice of the students whom it represents.

With the publication of this issue, the editor holds up his hand and says, "Stop the press." And so, the mighty wheels and rollers are silent; the sight of fresh paper and printer's ink is gone. Our Tuesday nights will be vacant, our Wednesday evenings will be sad but, weep not, for in the fall we shall return and shout once more, "Arise! Let's go to Press!"

SOPHOMORE OF THE WEEK

Ben Fulton

By JANE PICKETT

Our Sophomore of the Week is Ben Fulton, a handsome lad from Jackson, Mississippi.

BEN FULTON

In describing Ben one would say that he is about six feet, one inch tall and weighs about 220 pounds. He has pretty green eyes and dark brown hair, also.

Ben's favorite foods are steak, french-fried potatoes, Southern fried chicken, apple pie, and almost anything else to eat. Whenever one wants to see Ben about something, if he will locate Annette Cheatham, he can probably find Ben. Enjoying the company of this lovely little lady evidently is one of Ben's favorite pastimes.

Ben also loves to sleep (is this the reason he has been late for his first period class?) and play softball. Then, too, Ben likes all kinds of music — not this "long-hair" stuff, but popular tunes.

As a freshman Ben was a member of the IRC Club, and this year he was treasurer of the IRC and a member of the PHI Theta Kappa, the honor society of American junior colleges.

"Hinds is a great place and the finest junior college in the nation," says Ben. "I wish that I could come back next year."

Ben plans to work this summer — probably in New Mexico.

Next fall Ben plans to enter the University of Mississippi to major in law.

Considering the three point semester average that Ben has maintained thus far at Hinds this year and Ben's character and ambitions, we are confident that he will succeed in whatever he undertakes.

HJC College Graduates Plan To Work; Attend School; Begin Married Life

by CARL BROCK

Hinds Junior College graduates will be scattered to the four winds, while Hinds High graduates for the most part will be back in school here next year, according to surveys conducted by Miss Mildred Herrin, registrar, on future plans of seniors and sophomores.

The past two issues of the Hindsonian included the plans of most of the sophomores but, for those who were left out, look for your name below:

Dot Gill plans to work for the Southern Bell Telephone Co.

Sue Herron is going to work in the Merchants and Planters Bank in Raymond.

Harry Geotes will seek employment in Texas.

Jesse Martin will work in the State Office Building for the Institutions of Higher Learning.

Charles Ramsey is going to work at the air base in Jackson.

Juanita Raybon, Edward Adcock, Richard Holyfield, William McCoy, Bobby McWilliams, Dick Morgan, and Boyd Sullivan are also planning to work this summer and next fall.

Harold Sconiers, by the way, is going to work for the railroad.

Among students going to work for Uncle Sam are: George Cagle, who will be a Naval Cadet, Albert Delegram who will spend the summer with the Air National Guard, and also Ralph Smith, who will be with the Guard. Jimmy Grubbs will enter the service; and Albert Mahaffey is going to join the Merchant Marines.

Kenneth Burke will attend school, Frank Drummonds is going to school on a football scholarship, Sam Scott is going to State, Wilford Ward is going to attend school, and Billy Walton is at Mississippi State already.

Wedding bells ring again. This time they're for Johnnie Ruth Strong and O. J. Dear who will be married in August. Dear is going to Mississippi College this fall.

A June wedding is planned for Red McNair and Karlene Stafford. Karlene plans to continue college.

That just about takes care of everybody, even though it took three issues to do it. We sincerely wish you all the luck, happiness and success wherever you may go, and in whatever you may do.

Berry and Pennel Travel To Europe For Study, Tour

Two faculty members will travel abroad this summer leaving soon after the close of school.

Miss Peggy Pennel will spend three months at Fontainbleau, France, in study, and will return in September to the music staff at Hinds as organ instructor.

Miss Christine Berry of the English staff will spend ten weeks on a guided tour visiting eight different countries. She will sail early in June on an Italian liner, the Christopher Columbus.

Campus Pickups

The International Relations Club of Hinds Junior College held their annual spring party at the Raymond lake and lodge Tuesday afternoon, May 15, at 4:00-8:00 p.m.

Miss Lula Mae Fowler and Mr. Jobie Harris, Hinds history and government instructors respectively, are sponsors of the IRC.

Last Wednesday night the Hinds Junior College Agriculture Club held their yearly club banquet at the Hinds Junior College lodge at Raymond lake.

Mr. W. M. McKenzie, professor of agriculture, was host for the evening.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Jack Treloar and Miss Frances Bratschi, Hinds instructors, the High School sophomore class held its semester social outing at Roosevelt State Park Thursday, May 10.

Thursday evening, May 10, the FBLA Club enjoyed a party at Raymond Lake. There was a large number of members present with their dates.

Mrs. Maybelle Furness is the sponsor of the FBLA Club.

Saturday afternoon from 2-6 o'clock the high school seniors will be entertained at Louise Stubb's home with a fishing party followed by a supper.

Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. Alman, and Doris Toles will honor the seniors with a party at Raymond Lake Thursday.

Mr. A. L. Denton director of guidance at Hinds has been named representative for the fourth congressional district to the regional board of the Mississippi Guidance Association.

The first meeting of the board was held in Jackson Saturday.

In addition to the representatives from the congressional districts, the board includes representatives from the college personnel and guidance workers, veterans' counselors and vocational rehabilitation counselors.

Home Economics Students Serve

In their spring project of preparing and serving food in a variety of family needs, the college home economics- freshmen and sophomores have completed seven different types of family meals: TV snack, light luncheon, six o'clock dinner, dessert party, tea honoring a guest, class picnic, and buffet luncheon.

Various members of the faculty and student body were invited to be guests on different occasions. Among these were the following:

Mr. and Mrs. Denton, Mr. Herring, Miss Gertrude Davis, Mrs. Gookin, Miss Herrin, Dot Adams, Jane Pickett, Anita Watkins, Marilyn Simmons, Gail Calloway, Annette Cheatham, Vonda Viverette, Mary Ann Ratliff.

Class members who prepared and served the meals, and who served as hostesses were these-

Ann Alessio, Carolyn Bourne, Faye Brooks, Betty Caldwell, Nan Ertle, Pat Gastrell, Beatrice Hollingsworth, Jo Ann Lane, Sylvia McWilliams, Janet Mackey, Bobbie Jean Matthews, Vivian Morton, Nancy Reese, Emma Lou Rowland, Anita Shoemaker, Karlene Stafford, Mary Louise Baker, Helen Cowart Milton, Mary Jane Loper, Carolyn Templeton, Florence Williams.

The Modern Language Club is giving a wiener roast at Raymond Lake tonight between 4 and 7 o'clock The party is not limited to members only; the club members were allowed to invite guests.

Food and games will be on program, and the recreation may include swimming in the lake.

Proceeds for the party were gathered in the form of dues of 25c for each attending member and his guest.

This outdoor party is one of the many that are taking place or have taken place on the campus during the last few weeks of school.

M. Marguerite Hart, Don Trotter Win Balfour Honor School Awards

Mary Marguerite Hart and Don Trotter, Hinds High seniors of Satartia and Bolton respectively, have been selected to receive the Balfour Honor Awards for the 1956 graduating class next Friday at the final school exercises.

High school principal, Mr. A. L. Denton, released the medalist winners yesterday. The medals were awarded on the basis of scholarship, loyalty, and achievement.

The Balfour Co., and the school started the contest last year for the first time. John Lancaster and Melanie Matthews, Hinds freshmen, won the coveted awards last year.

Tommy Ray Cox, Carolyn Wright, Betty Furness, and Nancy Carter were the runner-up candidates for

Dormitory Girls Of Westside, Main Clash In Finale

Westside and Main, two bitter rivals in girls' sports, will battle tomorrow night, Thursday, at six o'clock in a softball game on the baseball field.

In games of basketball, field hockey and volley ball this season, the dormitories have tied. The game tomorrow night will determine the winning girls' dormitory this season.

Those who are interested in playing on the Westside team should sign up with Bobbie Nell Noland; those who would like to play on Main's team should sign with Sybil Beasley.

A woman's athletic association at Hinds is now in the making. The officers will be elected Wednesday and Thursday. A point system will be set up so that girls participating in intramural sports will have a chance to earn letters on the point system.

Mrs. Gookin will direct the girls' recreation program at Hinds this summer.

Homer Boyd, HJC Star Performer On All-Star Team

With the selection of Homer Boyd, Hinds High star athlete, on the Annual South All-Star football team, the Hinds High School completed the 1955-56 school year with their best season in the history of the school.

Boyd has been a star football player for the Eagles for the past three years. He has been a member of the basketball team and track team.

Coach Louis Boteler, high school coach, has only praise for the native born Raymond athlete. Coach Boteler described Boyd as the best performer he had ever had the privilege of coaching.

Previously this year the high school girls' basketball team went to the South Mississippi Tournament, and the boys' track and field team placed fourth in the state.

the Balfour award.

The officers of the 10th grade, the officers of the 11th grade, and members of the high school faculty selected the award winners.

Some of the qualities the candidates were judged on were: music, dramatics, inter-society, athletics, offices held, attitude toward school work, cooperation, willingness to help with school activities, and school attendance.

Cheerleader Squad To Attend Course At Perk College

The first annual cheerleader course for college cheerleaders will be held at Perkinston Junior College July 11-14, 1956.

Mr. L. P. Herkimer will be the leader of the course. Mr. Herkimer has conducted special schools for cheerleaders in various parts of the nation for the past seven years and has trained over 10,000 high school and college yell leaders.

Cheerleading Techniques, Sportsmanship, Crowd psychology, Novelty Yells, and Pep Rallies are a few of the topics to be covered.

If you are interested in attending the course, you should see Mrs. Anne Gookin. The total cost of meals, lodging, entertainment,

Open An Account In The Library; Hinds' Bank Of Real Knowledge

By TOMMY WELCH

There is hardly one of us who has not already begun to plan or at least have some dreams about material security for our lives. We are all security conscious, and we love to think about building up plush reserves for our future years so that we will be comfortable and free from worry. Yet, how many of us fail to realize that there is a varying number and quality to the deposits we make for life? How many of us seriously consider the Bank of Education at Hinds Junior College?

All of us have easy access to the services of a bank that is guaranteed not to fail us when we need a checking account and a substantial reserve capital. This guarantee in itself should be enough to make all students eager to invest in the Bank. The dividends which will accrue from an account there are protections for life against boredom and mental and moral bankruptcy. Our investments in knowledge will be expendable in natural wants, and in joy and happiness.

If all of us at Hinds are not present depositors in the Bank, we should open an account without delay. There are no service charges at all.

Do you ask what and where is this bank? It is our Library. It deals not in currency as such, but

You will feel at home, for you will see many of our fellow students busily at work there, poring over great account books. They are studying the balance sheets of the great minds of all the ages. They see the marvelous sums of knowledge recorded there-sums they hope to make their own. They are in effect making out their deposit slips for their own accounts against the day when they will need the "know-how", peace of mind, happiness, and strength to endure adversity. Your Library can tell you all about such things. Begin the practice of thrift now. Open an account in the Library—our Bank of Knowledge.

Mrs. Anne Gookin To Address Group At State Assoc.

Mrs. Anne Gookin, Hinds Junior College physical education instructor, will address the executive council of the State Physical Education, Health, and Recreation Association at Meridian Junior College Saturday morning, May 19.

Mrs. Gookin, who is vice-president of the state health education of the state, will speak on health education in public schools and colleges of Mississippi and give some recommendations for the coming year on health education. She was elected to this post when it was created in March by the Mississippi Educational Association in Jackson.

The need for a well balanced physical education, health, and recreational program in every high school and every college in Mississippi will be stressed by instructor Goodkin. "Some of the physical education programs in the state are not fulfilling their purpose," Mrs. Gookin declared.

Hinds Junior College Eaglettes Enter City Recreational League

The Hinds Junior College girls' softball team played their first game of the season last night.

The Eaglettes, coached by Mrs. Anne Gookin, will play softball games all summer at the Jackson airbase softball field. They will play their second game Monday or Tuesday night.

Being a member of the Jackson recreation league, the Hinds group will play against such teams as the Y. W. C. A., May Oil Co., General Electric, Baptist Hospital, and Century Manufacturing Company.

Hinds was a member of the recreational league for the first time last year. In the initial part of the season, the Eaglettes placed fifth in the standings and in the last half of the season, the Hinds girls were defeated in the finals of the city playoff by a 7-4 score by the Y. W. C. A. girls.

Mrs. Gookin is serving as coach and also as player-manager. Girls that lettered last year and returning this year are Flora Mae Roberts, pitcher; Ruth Boone, shortstop; Gwen Post, 2nd base; Ruth Martin, pitcher; and Hermanelle Hearn, 1st base.

Other candidates are: Sybil Beasley, 3rd base; Bobbie Nell Noland, 3rd base; Lou Cobb, 2nd base; Jo Ann Ray, catcher; Mrs. Gookin, catcher; Betty Jo Williams, fielder; Georgianne Burton, fielder; Betty Berryhill, fielder, and Frances Barker, fielder.
